

His True Color Chapter 2361-2370

Chapter 2361

"It's moving?" Mo Yang froze and looked at the ground but found that nothing had happened, instead the army of the Pill God Pavilion and the Eternal Sea behind him had pressed closer in layers.

"Three thousand, I don't know if this underground is moving or not, I only know that we have to move, the army behind us is already killing us." Mo Yang shouted with anxiety.

The 10,000-strong attack was coming, but Han Qianqian was not moving, so it was fine if you didn't fight back, but at least you had to run.

Even if they had more trust in Han Qianqian, the current situation really made Mo Yang and the others feel anxious.

At the top of the Blue Mountain, when they saw that the Pill God Pavilion and the Eternal Sea had suddenly gathered their troops to pounce on Han Qianqian, Lu Ruoxuan and the rest of the group were immediately anxious and reported the situation to Lu Wushen.

One moment the top of the Blue Mountains could not wait to kill Han Qianqian to relieve their hatred, and the next moment they might see him as one of their own, all of it is just a matter of profit.

Obviously, Han Qianqian now belongs to the latter category to the Top of Blue Mountain.

If it was in the past, with the strength of the strongest of the three families at the top of the Blue Mountains, it would have been possible to tear up with the Eternal Sea on the basis of having Han Sanqian, but nowadays, the strongest is the Eternal Sea with the dog-legged Pill God Pavilion.

The Ao family has found this excuse to crusade against Han Qianqian, and at least it is considered a masterpiece.

What could Lu Wushen do?

"Grandpa, if there is no Han Qianqian, the situation will be the same as it was a while ago, and we will gradually lose our advantage as the number one family at the top of Blue Mountain." Lu Ruoxin hurriedly advised at this point.

"That's right, grandpa, since Han Qianqian can be controlled by us, he is naturally our helper, the Eternal Sea has to look at its master even when beating a dog, if they do this, if we don't have any response, the majesty of the Top of Blue Mountain will be greatly challenged and insulted." Lu Ruoxuan also said sharply.

What they were saying, how could Lu Wushen not be clear about it?

The question was, what excuse should the Top of Blue Mountain use to intervene in the Everlasting Seas division?!

If they openly helped Han Qianqian, wouldn't that be the same as giving the Eternal Sea the opportunity to put a label on themselves?

But when he was in a dilemma, Lu Wushen was shocked to find that even at such a critical moment, Han Qianqian did not seem to panic in the slightest, his entire body was motionless, staring intently at the ground.

This made Lu Wushen smile bitterly, "The emperor is not in a hurry, but the eunuch is in a hurry, look, what is Han Qianqian doing?"

"This guy seems to have been staring in a daze ever since that burst of green light, is it hard to believe that this guy saw something? Or is this guy simply dumbed down and tired of beating up, so he's staging it?" Lu Ruoxuan also wondered, he also looked at all the places, but, everywhere is ordinary and strange, except for the earthquake just now is quite strange, there is nothing else ah.

"Grandpa, you were also looking at it, did you see anything?" Lu Ruoxin asked.

Lu Wushen shook his head helplessly, "It seems that I can sense something moving underground, but nothing seems to be there, and frankly speaking, I can't see through it."

The two of them were instantly shocked, but then Lu Ruoxuan nodded glumly, "Since even your old man can't see clearly if something is moving, then Han Qianqian does seem to be faking it."

"But one thing is for sure, at least Han Qianqian can indeed know that there is something underground, and this, has proven that he does have a superiority." Lu Ruoxin naturally did not want his puppet to be despised by others, and hurriedly and said.

Lu Wushen did not deny it and nodded, "Although this son has sucked the blood of the devil dragon and fallen into the devil's path, I must admit that this son has a great future, Xin'er, you have done a good job, the future top of Blue Mountain towards the highest glory will definitely have half of your credit."

How could the two men know that what Lu Wu Shen and Ao Shi could not see, Han Qian Qian could see more clearly than they could? Even though they were both True Gods, Han Qianqian's Heavenly Eye Talisman and the Devil Dragon's Blood within him were far more empathetic than they were.

Although Lu Ruoxin's face smiled, she was not truly happy and said with false modesty, "Thank you, grandfather. However, what should we do now that Han Qianqian is like this?"

"What should we do? Since we can't make a rash move and Han Qianqian isn't in a hurry, so, let's just see what he's selling."

Lu Ruoxin had no choice but to nod dryly, but in her heart she couldn't help but worry slightly for Han Qianqian while at the same time being very curious as to what this guy was doing!

"Three thousand ah, if we don't go we'll be too late." At this end, Mo Yang was already sweating profusely with worry.

With such a huge army pressing down on him, he would be crippled if he didn't die, but Han Qianqian was constantly wasting his chance to escape.

Knife Twelve directly raised his body and blocked behind the crowd, saying, "Old Mo, you take them and retreat first, I'll take the back. Although old me can't beat them, it's the only way out of a no-win situation."

At this moment, Han Qianqian faintly swept back the army behind him and looked at the ground, "It's almost time, ten, nine three, two, one!"

Chapter 2362

Mo Yang and knife twelve face to face, Liu Fang is also a face of bewilderment, the army has been suppressed, but Han three thousand in this tens of nine eight seven three two one

If we didn't trust each other, who wouldn't call him a psychopath?

What's more, at this time, Han three thousand is completely serious as well as serious.

"Time, just right!" Suddenly, Han Qianqian, who had been tightly frowning at this point, had a sudden glimmer of joy in his eyes.

Before the three people could understand what was going on, suddenly, there was a sudden ringing sound from beneath the ground.

The next second.

Boom!

If the ground was just like a wave when the earthquake occurred, then the ground was like a huge wave at this moment, and the raised ground skin alone was more than ten meters high, which could be described as horrible.

The ground shook so violently that even the people in mid-air were affected by it. The ground shook so strongly that the air in mid-air trembled, and the layers of scorched earth and ashes were raised, leaving everything around the area covered in a cloud of dust and smoke.

What's more, an extremely strong pressure emerged from the ground instantly, and all those in mid-air felt as if they were being lifted upwards by something, only to shake their eyes and feet to find that it was only caused by the rising air currents.

But just then

Roar!

Beneath the earth, a strange roar resounded like the sound of a bell.

Some of the scorched ground that had been rolled up instantly cracked, and where it had cracked, all sorts of strange shapes were revealed through the cracks, and the next second the whole ground was cracking wildly, and at the central point where the green haze had originally emanated, the ground crumbled in what could then be described as quicksand.

They sanded wildly and sank rapidly downwards afterwards.

"Roar!"

There was another whisper as the ground cracked and the quicksand sank, and something beneath the ground burst out of the ground with that roar.

"What is that?"

Lu Ruoxuan pointed widely at the ground in surprise.

The entire ground, one could even say, the ground where the entire Sleepy Immortal Valley was originally located, had actually transformed into an extremely odd and huge monster after the cracking and quicksand at this time.

It was necessary to know that the Sleepy Immortal Valley was extremely large, and even when one was in mid-air, one could still feel its returning body, but it was so large that it was all just comparable to the monster underneath that ground.

"My goodness, what a big monster!" Lu Ruoxin, who had always been calm, was also completely unsettled at this time.

The monster in front of you is unheard of and unseen, no matter how strong he is, just this huge body is intimidating.

"What the hell is this thing? How can there be a monster under this ground?"

A group of people with pale faces across the board, their eyes staring deadly at the monstrous beast above the ground.

At this time all of them also finally understood what exactly that original place where the green light was released was.

It was the beast's heart.

At this moment, as the monster woke up, the green dot shone again, just like the beating of a human heart, flickering and flickering again, and then, completely disappearing on the surface of the monster's skin.

"Brush!"

At almost the same time, a huge tail fiercely raised, coincidentally less than five metres behind Han Qianqian, the people of the Eternal Life Sea and the Pill God Pavilion were charging happily, but unexpectedly the huge tail came out, and many of them were directly hit by the huge tail and fell to the ground.

And once they fell to the ground, something strange happened

Those seemingly solid brown monster skin, like spikes, did not cause any damage to the bodies of these people, but once the bodies fell in, they were suddenly reduced to nothing with some scorched earth and quicksand!

Not even a scrap of bones was left.

At this moment, whether it was the top of the Blue Mountain watching the show, or the attacking Pill God Pavilion and the Eternal Sea, as well as Han Qianqian and the four others, or the group of scattered people taking off from afar, they were collectively dumbfounded.

What kind of monster was this!

It's moving!

The body of the monstrous beast set beneath the surface of the earth moved violently.

Boom!!!

As he moved, the entire ground caved in wildly.

Immediately afterwards, the monstrous beast dragged its incomparably huge body and slowly stood up.

Those in mid-air could see with their own eyes that when this monstrous beast stood up, the ground beside it even sank by several metres as a result, the size of its body could be imagined.

"Roar!"

As it rose, the beast roared to the sky.

The sheep's body was covered in long brown hair, which was like a giant spike, but could be swung in the wind, and his abdomen was covered in long purple hair, which, although wrapped tightly around his body, showed off his incomparably strong muscles.

The head of a sheep, though with huge horns, has a face like that of a wolf, but without eyes.

At the body, there is a huge mouth, the upper and lower parts of which are speckled with teeth, making it extremely hideous.

The strangest thing is that although it is a sheep, it can stand like a man, and its forelimbs can be lifted up, just like a human hand, while there are eyes under the tuck, hanging eyes, round eyes, horrible.

"Taotie, holy shit, this is a fucking Taotie."

Someone recognized this fierce beast at first glance, immediately scared ashes, pupils wide open.

Taotie, the ancient beast, is incomparably evil, able to swallow everything under the sky, good at eating people's desires.

"This ancient ferocious beast, how did it appear in the Trapped Immortal Valley?"

"My goodness, so it turns out that we have been living on the Taotie for so many days?"

Thinking about this, many people felt a burst of fear, what is the difference between this and walking with a tiger?

Some even couldn't help but shiver and their entire bodies couldn't help but gradually retreat backwards.

No one would want to be in the company of such a ferocious beast.

This included Lu Wushen as well as Ao Shi, and Han Qianqian.

"No, no, it's impossible for an ordinary Taotie to have such a huge body, moreover, this guy is surrounded by brown Qi, this is not an ordinary Taotie, but"

"The Taotie of Evil, the legendary incarnation of Chi You!"

Buzz!

All people's brains suddenly buzzed off.

The Evil Taotie, that is truly one of the top vicious beasts, this level of vicious beast whose viciousness is extremely high, even if a true god fights against it, there is no certainty of victory.

"This kind of thing, shouldn't it have been extinguished in the ancient gods and demons war? How could it possibly appear here?"

"And how did he awaken?"

Ao Shi frowned greatly.

"Tell everyone to back off, don't be eaten by him, it will enhance his power." On Lu Wu Shen's side, he also decisively ordered.

But at that moment, Taotie just stared at Han Qianqian with open eyes.

Chapter 2363

Han Qianqian instantly had a feeling of grass mud horses galloping past.

Damn, there are so many people, why are you just staring at me?

Han Qianqian thought that maybe it was because he was standing right in front of it, so Han Qianqian took Mo Yang and the others and slowly moved some places.

But what depressed Han Qianqian was that as Han Qianqian moved, the Evil Taotie's eyes also moved with Han Qianqian's movement.

"Holy shit, fuck, is he on to me?" Han Qianqian frowned and said in a depressed manner.

"Seems like it." Knife Twelve swallowed and nodded uncomfortably.

"Shit, Three Thousand, what the hell have you done? How did you get targeted by this guy? Look at one of his heads, fuck, that's literally all assembled in a dozen football fields, how does this thing play?" Mo Yang also couldn't help but swallow up his saliva.

This guy in front of him is really scary.

Not to mention these few guys shivered in fear, even Han Qianqian himself, was also full of sweat, although the True God is fierce, but compared to this behemoth, which is not this big thing is scary enough.

After all, the True God was powerful in his inner breath, and this guy could scare a person to death just by his appearance.

"What can an old man do? What can I have to do with a fierce beast?" Han Qianqian was also very depressed.

With two true gods and now a fucking ancient evil Taotie, even anyone, not to mention Han Qianqian, would instantly have a big head.

"Is the heavens really going to kill me?" Han Qianqian said in a depressed voice.

At the other end, Ao Shi had obviously noticed this too, just now, he had acted rashly, but was knocked down by this Evil Taotie's tail, and now, Ao Shi was obviously not willing to suffer this loss again.

Moreover, the situation is unstable, if the rash action attracts the attention of the monster, it would be bad luck, nothing to find trouble themselves.

"Tell everyone not to act rashly." Ao Shi instructed.

Wang Juzhi nodded and gave a look, signalling for Grand Commander Chen to pass on the message.

Grand Commander Chen did not dare to be slow in the slightest and could only quietly pass the word down, so, quietly, word spread from one to the other

The same applies to the top of the Blue Mountains, where the sound is transmitted in silence, for fear of alerting the huge creature in front of them.

The top of the Blue Mountains is interested in protecting Han Qianqian, but at this critical moment, it is natural to think of oneself.

Han Qianqian's forehead was already sweating at this point, he tried to move, but but the evil Taotie also moved with him, and his gaze moved slightly.

"How fucking depressing, the house is leaking? Is this? I also thought that suddenly there was something more, messing up the situation, I can at least pull out, but the more this is done, the more depressed ah." Han Qianqian's heart was filled with bitterness.

Han Qianqian's side was suffering, but Ao Shi and the rest of the gang were overjoyed. They were looking for an excuse to deal with Han Qianqian themselves, but they didn't expect that someone would come out of nowhere and do it for them.

"This Han Qianqian, he really deserves to die, if we don't kill him, there are people who want to kill him.

"Han Qianqian itself is to change death, an earth waste relying on all kinds of luck like a hang-up, and now finally bad the repercussions of heaven's wrath."

"One's good luck will always run out, how lucky one was before, how unlucky one will be now, this is the cycle of heaven."

A group of people led by Ye Qucheng and Wang Juzhi suddenly sneered at Han Qianqian's current situation and encounter, not thinking at all about the evil and bad things they had done, but also having the audacity to scream about the reincarnation of heaven's path.

If there was a reincarnation in heaven, these people would probably be the way of animals in their next life.

"This Evil Taotie is so huge, grandpa, if this monster sets its eyes on Han Qianqian, Han Qianqian is afraid" Lu Ruoxin naturally does not want Han Qianqian to be killed by the monster, as far as she is concerned, Han Qianqian is too much of a pawn for her now, and Han Qianqian as a man makes her heart flutter.

"I don't know what this evil Taotie is capable of, this ancient evil beast, even I have never fought, it's only written in some ancient books. But the record is always a record, how credible can it be? After all, how many of those who have seen what it can do have come back alive? And those who can come back alive naturally don't bother to write records." Lu Wushen shook his head, also bewildered by the evil beast before him.

But the more bewildered he was, the more he did not dare to make a hasty move.

"I just hope that this giant beast is just staring at Han Qianqian with curiosity, and not that kind of stare." Lu Ruoxuan also shook his head and sighed bitterly.

"That hope is unlikely!" Lu Wushen shook his head.

"Why?"

"I suspect that there is a reason why Han Qianqian is being targeted by this vicious beast." Lu Wushen frowned slightly as he spoke in a cold voice.

Lu Ruoxin instantly understood what Lu Wu Shen was referring to and asked, "Grandfather, you mean, the demonic dragon's blood inside Han Qianqian?"

Lu Wushen nodded heavily, "That's right, the blood of the demon dragon is extremely fierce, so it is naturally the most precious treasure to attract such evil beasts.

Chapter 2364

"Ai!" Lu Ruoxuan sighed heavily at once.

Lu Wushen's words did speak to the root of the matter, making it impossible to refute them, and they were also the best option for the truth at hand.

Such a gigantic beast, it was naturally impossible for anyone to take the initiative to provoke it, while Han Qianqian was targeted by this gigantic beast, then naturally it was most likely due to the reason of the Demonic Fury Qi emanating from Han Qianqian's Demonic Dragon Blood.

This was the only reasonable explanation.

"Then grandfather, we are going to watch Han Qianqian being targeted by that giant beast" Lu Ruoxin said rather reluctantly.

"Then is there any other better way?" Lu Wu Shen asked helplessly in return.

Not knowing the strength of this Evil Taotie, a rash attack would only bring great trouble to the top of the Blue Mountain, and once the top of the Blue Mountain was in great trouble, they would be tantamount to losing without a fight in the battle for supremacy with the Eternal Sea.

Although Han Qianqian was important, Lu Wushen could never lose the foundation of the Lu family to save him. In the end, Han Qianqian's existence was to bring benefits to the Lu family, not to make the family lose money.

"Three thousand, we miscellaneous do?" Mo Yang swallowed again, although afraid, although the cultivation level is low to the evil Taotie just standing opposite, the air pressure will press him unusually uncomfortable, but Mo Yang but not the slightest retreat, from the beginning to the end is standing next to Han three thousand.

Han Qianqian was also depressed: "I don't know."

"This guy can't just keep staring at us like this, damn it, I've got goose bumps all over." Knife Twelve roared in depression.

What's worse than a knife to the neck is having a knife dangling in front of your face.

"Definitely not." Han Qianqian outright shook his head and refused.

You have to ask why, because at this moment the Taotie, moved!

"Roar!"

The huge mouth opened wide, only to see the mouth full of all kinds of daunting fangs, followed by the entire huge and incomparable body fierce force, directly pounced on Han Qianqian.

"Holy shit, it's really fucking coming for you." Knife Twelve shouted out in depression, directly lucked out and prepared to start.

"Stay back." Han Qianqian's face was icy cold, and his whole body was like a great enemy, his hand waved violently, an energy directly wrapped around Mo Yang's three people and pulled them directly behind himself.

"Heavenly Fire Moon Wheel!"

With a soft cry, the Heavenly Flame Moon Wheel appeared!

"Out-of-body incarnation!"

Buzz!

Eight golden bodies emerged!

"Pan Gu Axe Formation Forget it, just Pan Gu Axe."

I wanted to bring out more killing moves to fight against the great enemy, but it was obvious that Han Qianqian had already run out of gas at this point, coupled with the great consumption from the vicious fight against the Twin Gods and the Three Great Families, as well as the two defenceless hard-fought moves of Lu Ruoxin just now, leaving Han Qianqian's body full of wounds and exhaustion.

This left Han Qianqian with no strength of mind at all.

"You're pretty fucking smart, you just stare at me, you fuck!" With an angry curse, Han Qianqian stopped talking nonsense, and with his eight golden bodies carrying the Pan Gu Axe, he went straight towards the pouncing Taotie.

"Roar!"

The Evil Taotie seemed to sense the extraordinary Pan Gu Axe in Han Qianji's hand and let out a roar.

With his roar, the Taotie had already attacked Han Qianqian's head, and for a moment, Han Qianqian only felt as if he had entered the darkness of the night, the monster's body was so big that it could cover the sky.

"Break!"

Eight axes were slashed together, the blue light between the axes of the Pan Gu axe appeared, and the power of tearing the void was directly blasted at the Taotie!

Boom!

Eight axes came down, even the incomparably large Taotie beast was instantly chopped into nine pieces directly under the eight axes!

Everyone was instantly shocked.

"Holy shit, Han Qianqian is so fierce."

"Damn, the Pan Gu Axe is really the king of all weapons, even such a big fierce beast can hardly resist the power of the axe."

"No wonder when the two true gods and many experts were fighting with Han Qianqian, no one dared to fight him head on, instead they kept circling back, so, they were all afraid of the power of this Pan Gu Axe."

"Nonsense, the power of the Pan Gu Axe, do you think it's a joke?"

"Although the Pan Gu Axe is fierce, however, this Evil Taotie is too fucking famous, it was lost by Han Qianqian with one axe, it's really useless in appearance."

"Yeah, and talk about ancient evil beasts, Chi You incarnation, legends are always legends, they are all unreliable bragging."

Seeing Han Qianqian settle the battle with one axe, the crowd could not help but sigh for Han Qianqian's Pan Gu Axe, and also feel dissatisfied with such a flashy and shocking appearance of this Evil Taotie.

However, Han Qianqian did not dare to be arrogant and held the Pan Gu Axe with both hands, could it really be that simple?

Although Han Qianqian knew that the Pan Gu Axe was strong, it was never that simple.

The next second, Han Qianqian knew that his caution was not without reason, almost at that moment, the nine segments of Taotie's body suddenly merged together to form a huge round thing, headless, but with only a huge mouth in its belly!

"Fuck, he's not dead yet!" Han Qianqian shouted, and at that moment, as the huge mouth opened, Han Qianqian tried to run, but the huge mouth was too big, there was no way to run, so he could only watch himself, swallowed by the Taotie

Chapter 2366

It is completely hidden in the air, and if you don't look closely, you can't see it at all.

On the other hand, if you look closely, you will see that the air is almost entirely filled with this gas.

"Where is this? Is this the stomach of a taotie?" Han Qianqian's brow furrowed, and then he tried to transport his energy and fly around me.

But even after flying until he was tired, he didn't make it to the edge of this space.

"Damn, is this Taotie's stomach so big?" With Han Qianqian's speed, even if he was short of energy, he was still fast with his bodywork augmented, just for a moment, Han Qianqian should have flown at least from the beginning to the end and twice the distance according to his estimation of the Valley of the Trapped Immortals.

But what Han Qianqian thought was beyond his imagination was that even so, he did not reach the edge of the Taotie's stomach.

Originally, Han Qianqian wanted to try again, but the energy of the Dragon's Heart itself was not very sufficient, plus it was very strange in here, after coming here, Han Qianqian's energy was constantly losing.

"Fuck, can't it be that this Taotie really ate it and then digested me into poo? No, the Taotie only eats and doesn't shit, so I don't even deserve to be a wabi-sabi at the end of the day?" Han Qianqian was depressed beyond belief.

If that was the case, it really wasn't very damaging, but the insult was too strong, wasn't it?!

"Demon Dragon, if you're not dead, come out here for me." Han Qianqian didn't want to fly either, sitting cross-legged with his eyes closed, his entire body entering a state of meditation.

"Damn, you're too rubbish, you've actually been swallowed straight into the stomach by this Evil Taotie." The Soul of the Devil Dragon quickly responded.

"Shit, why don't you try? This thing appeared out of nowhere, staring at me to kill me, and when I went down with an axe, I didn't expect him to do nothing at all, but he took a bite with his backhand, and I didn't even have time to reflect." Han Qianqian said glumly.

Although he was indeed careless, Han Qianqian had to admit that this Evil Taotie was far more fierce than himself.

"The Evil Taotie is indeed fierce, to be honest, although I, the Devil Dragon, have traveled thousands of miles, I must be wary of this thing." The Soul of the Devil Dragon nodded and said.

"So what now? I mean, I don't know enough about this thing to know what to do to get out of this mess."

"The problem is that I don't know much about it either, and I've never been swallowed by it. I've only heard that this Taotie is actually made of the Qi of Chaos, and nothing else."

Chaos Qi?

Could it be that those hidden in the air are the Qi of Chaos?

"The Qi of Chaos is the most primordial breath of heaven and earth, so it is extremely powerful. It can give birth to all things, and it can also devour all things."

Han Qianqian nodded in a daze, then it seems that those breaths are really the Qi of Chaos, they exist in the stomach of the Taotie, swallowing everything, turning everything into the Qi of Chaos, and this Qi of Chaos is constantly supplied to the Taotie.

So this Taotie can swallow the world, but never digests anything out of it.

"I see." Han Qianqian nodded vigorously.

After this explanation was sorted out, Han Qianqian also understood why his energy was constantly being lost in his stomach.

Han Qianqian could even imagine what he would face when he lost all the energy in his body.

That is, his body will also be melted by this chaotic Qi.

At this moment, outside of Taotie's body.

At the critical moment, Fu Mang and the others relied on Lin Long to fly into the sky and avoid being injured and losing their lives in time. However, the Lin Long was not yet healed from his injuries, and this time he also brought quite a few people with him, so he could not last only a few moments before he landed on the ground with a crash.

But luckily for the moment, Lin Long also flew out not far, at least allowing Fu Mang's group to get out of the trap for the time being.

"Fuck, this damned dog place, we didn't find Su Yingxia, but we found the ancient beast. Fu Mang cursed in a depressed voice.

If it wasn't for Lin Long's quick reflexes, all of them would have died here today, and they would have been very unlucky.

But just as Fu Mang finished his spat, the Taotie barred his mouth, but did not choose to chase after those who had fled in panic, instead, he turned his head back with a satisfied smile.

Although Fu Mang and the others were far away, the direction was exactly the direction Taotie was heading after he turned his head back, and the gang's sweat stood on end as the rest of Fu Mang's spittle stuck directly to Fu Mang's throat.

"Fuck?! No way, staring at us?" Fu Mang swallowed in a hurry and couldn't help but say in shock.

Was it crazy? There were so many people over there not going after it, so it was staring at a group of them for nothing.

Even though he was afraid, he had to pick up his weapon and tremble in a defensive stance.

At that moment, the Taotie's front paws were slightly bent, in a charging stance.

Roar!

Taotie's huge body shot out!

Chapter 2367

When Taotie's body moved, his huge body even drove the scorched dust and smoke to roll around him.

Fu Mang's body stiffened and he raised his weapon, his eyes closing as he felt his toes grip.

Brush!

An indescribable smell and wind blew by, but no damage appeared, and by the time Fu Mang opened his eyes again, not to mention whether or not Taotie attacked them, where was Taotie's shadow to be seen in this vast expanse of scorched earth.

"Where is that guy?" Fu Mang is still in shock, looking around, panic and said.

Fu Li and others helplessly shook his head, the evil Taotie rushed, she and most of the same, are directly scared to death, the body just subconsciously made a stiff defense, which can see where this Taotie actually went!

"This man left his voice behind, the geese left their feathers behind, the Taotie's body was so big, but it actually disappeared without a trace in a matter of moments?" Jiang Hu Bai Xiao Sheng was also very surprised.

For such a situation, it was clearly unheard of and unseen.

"I saw it." While everyone was shaking their heads to indicate that they hadn't seen it, at this moment, Poetic Language, who was on the side, opened her mouth.

"You saw it?" Fu Mang instantly looked back nervously and eagerly at Shi Yan.

Like the others, when the taotie lunged towards her, Shiyue was also scared, and her body subconsciously put up a stiff defensive action, but she did not close her eyes.

But just because she didn't close her eyes, she saw something that no one else saw.

"It just took a long leap and flew into the air, then then disappeared." Shih said in a daze.

Fu Mang immediately frowned: "Flew into the air and disappeared?" While saying that, Fu Mang looked up at the sky, but, the sky was normal and incomparable, there wasn't any strange ah.

"Not missing, but" Jiang Hu Bai Xiao Sheng suddenly thought of a possibility, then, he looked down and asked Poetic: "Is it that after it jumped into the air, the head disappeared first, then the body, and finally the tail I mean, it disappeared like that from head to tail, not the whole body at once."

Shiyue was surprised: "How do you know?"

Jiang Hu Bai Xiao Sheng let out a long breath, his heart surprised, "That's not disappearing, but tearing through the void, space jumping."

"Tearing through the void, spatial jumping?" Fu Mang frowned.

"Yes!" Jiang Hu Bai Xiao Sheng nodded, "That is an extremely fast speed that can weave and jump through space."

"It's so big, yet it moves so swiftly? Isn't that a little too perverted then?"

"No wonder that just now, over at the Three Great Clans, it seems that an expert was swallowed by it as well."

The group of people looked at each other and were about to say something when, at this moment, the side of the swamp forest, which was very far away, was at this moment bursting with fire and the sound of shouting and killing.

The first and second palace of the devil race, led by the devil's northern heaven and others, had not left, but had instead re-established an ambush in the original swamp forest.

Obviously, the ambush that had been abandoned by the devil people was set up again, more or less because this group of people had indirectly killed their devil tribe's incomparable talent.

The three clans were scared out of their wits by the Taotie, and fled in haste, not thinking there would be an ambush, even though they were outnumbered, but faced with the fierce and well-prepared Demon clan, and the terrain, they were in disarray and were killed heavily.

"Haha, what a fucking great job!" Fu Mang, on his side, burst into laughter, being able to have someone to clean up the Pill God Pavilion and the Eternal Sea for him and avenge Han Qianqian's death, Fu Mang was naturally in an extremely good mood.

At that moment, at the other end.

Taotie belly, Han Qianqian this into the rest, there have been tens of minutes.

But these ten minutes of time, for Han Qianqian, is like years.

The body is not much energy, like the evaporation of water in the heat, a steady stream of loss from the body, the heart of the dragon clan even completely in Han Qianqian's body dried up.

And what worried Han Qianqian even more was that what he feared had finally happened.

After the energy had disappeared, the Chaos Qi hidden in the air began to corrode Han Qianqian's body again.

Han Qianqian felt pain all over his body, and when he reached out to touch his body, he felt that it was as soft as mud, and his fingers were covered in a lot of mucus.

When he looked down, he saw that the slime was not other than the blood and flesh of his body.

He was like an ice cream, his body was melting fast.

"At this rate, in less than five minutes, I'll have to be completely digested by this guy, no, something has to be done." Thinking of this, Han Qianqian hurriedly harnessed his energy to try to defend against it.

But all the energy in his body had long been consumed in the battle, and now Taotie had drained the last bit out of his belly, so there was nothing to use.

"What the fuck?"

"If I don't think of a way, I'm going to die in here!"

"Let's just put a dead horse to work!"

"Fuck, you suck the old man, I'll suck you!" As soon as the words left his mouth, Han Qianqian moved.

Chapter 2368

As soon as Han Qianqian's words fell, his entire body directly opened its Qi doors wide, while urging the completely dried-up Dragon Heart to turn and frantically start absorbing the external energy into his body.

This also meant that not only did Han Qianqian not exert himself to protect himself from the Chaos Qi in the Taotie's stomach, but he also opened his Qi door wide at this moment, allowing all the Chaos Qi to pour into his body.

What is the difference between this and seeking death?

It is like swallowing acid with your mouth wide open when you know it is a river of acid outside.

What other effect could it have but to exacerbate death?

"Are you crazy? You're looking for death?" The voice of the Devil Dragon's Soul also appeared at this moment in due course, its tone filled with anxiety and anger.

Although it was understandable that Han Qianqian was repressed in this situation, being too so self-destructive was not the same as solving the problem, but would rather accelerate the severity of the problem.

"Then do you have any other solution?" Han Qianqian stabilised his mind and replied indifferently.

"No luck is just lingering on, my body's energy has been emptied and my appearance is constantly being corroded, instead of that, wouldn't it be better to die a painful death?"

Faced with Han Qianqian's rhetorical question, the Demon Dragon's Soul did not know how to reply.

Yes, Han Qianqian's words were not without merit. Instead of waiting for death in sorrow, it would be better to embrace it actively, at least the death would not be so shameful.

"Besides, you said that Chaos Qi can devour all things, but it can also transform into all things. Taotie can corrupt me with Chaos Qi, so why can't I corrupt this Taotie with Chaos Qi?" Han Qianqian said angrily.

The devil dragon's brow furrowed, "You mean you want to take Chaos Qi for your own use?"

"What about otherwise? If it sucks old me, I'll suck it." Han Qianqian said in a decisive manner.

Such an arrogant and daring idea and practice, even if he had lived for many thousands of years, he would never dare to be so crazy.

But Han Qianqian dared to do so, and without the slightest hesitation.

If he inhaled the Chaos Qi into his body and could not digest it, he would be pouring poison into his body, and it would be too late to regret it.

This was a life or death game.

How desperate would one be to do this?

But unlike what the Demon Dragon's Soul thought, Han Qianqian had done such a crazy act precisely because he loved his life too much and knew how important it was to keep it.

This is the ultimate philosophy of loving one's life more than anything else.

Boom!

As Han Qianqian's Qi gates opened completely and the Heart of the Dragon Clan slowly turned up, the Chaos Qi hidden in the darkness also began to move slowly with his surroundings due to the suction of his body, followed by circling and finally, following Han Qianqian's Qi gates into Han Qianqian's body.

"Ah!!!"

As soon as the Chaos Qi entered Han Qianqian's body, Han Qianqian could not help but cry out in pain.

The painful shout was earth-shattering and miserable, echoing and reverberating endlessly in this dark world

"It's Three Thousand's voice."

At the other end, Mo Yang and the others who entered afterwards had just entered and had not yet figured out the situation but at that moment they heard Han Qianqian's miserable and incomparable shout, so they couldn't help but have their hearts in their throats.

"The sound is coming from over there." Knife Twelve pointed with his hand, and the whole group rushed in the direction of that side.

When the group followed the sound and found Han Qianqian, all three of them were suddenly dumbfounded, and even Liu Fang couldn't help but hide behind Knife Twelve and Mo Yang out of fear.

At this moment, Han Qianqian's body had completely melted, just like a pile of candles that had been burned, his body had completely melted into a pile of rotten flesh and mud, leaving only a head still standing on it.

Even though he was his own brother, when Mo Yang saw Han Qianqian's appearance at this moment, he was still stunned, and the whole man was shocked and shouted, "How could this happen?"

Knife Twelve was also a man of temperament, a bold tiger, but he couldn't help but close his eyes at this point and turn his head to the side.

His own brother had suddenly turned into such a miserable state, and he naturally felt uncomfortable.

"Damn it, this damn Taotie, if you have the guts to digest me too, otherwise I swear that one day I will take your life and avenge my brother's death!"

Because Han Qianqian's eyes were already closed, he was mistakenly thought to be dead by Blade Twelve and the others.

But only Han Qianqian himself knew that he was not dead. Even though the Chaos Qi had entered his body, it was like a million insects had entered his body, gnawing at Han Qianqian's flesh and blood, even his bones and muscles, but Han Qianqian was still holding on.

Even though Han Qianqian had already fainted several times from the pain, and then woke up several times in seconds

He knew very well what it would mean if he couldn't carry it through!

It would mean that he would die, and it would mean that he would never be able to see Su Yingxia and Han Nian again!

This was definitely not an outcome that Han Qianqian could accept!

"Even if you're a poison, even if you're a demon, you can't take over my desire for life!" With a furious cry from within, Han Qianqian's entire being forcefully activated the Heart of the Dragon Clan, channeling all of the chaotic Qi that was mixed up within his body.

Boom!

The Dragon Heart turned violently, and the Chaos Qi in Han Qianqian's body followed suit, and with it came the bone-thirsty pain caused by the Chaos Heart driving his body once again.

It was a pain that Han Qianqian would never forget and would never want to experience again.

Unfortunately, there were some things that Han Qianqian could not help but experience not only a second time, but even a third

The fourth time

Whenever the Heart of the Dragon in Han Qianqian's body tried to drive the Qi of Chaos to turn, the Qi of Mixed Motion would turn once for thirty-six circumferences along with Han Qianqian's body meridians.

And if he were to move one circumference, Han Qianqian would need to do so nine times, which meant that Han Qianqian would need nine times thirty-six to actually go around once, a total of 324 times.

And for such 324 times, Han Qianqian did not know how many times he would need to go through.

But even though it was so painful, Han Qianqian still clenched his teeth and persevered, because giving up was the same as saying goodbye to everyone he loved so much.

When the pain is so extreme, one can go into shock, but the extreme of the extreme is numbness.

In the outside world, after jumping several times, the Taotie's body suddenly shrinks hundreds of times to the size of an ordinary sheep and burrows into a certain space-time.

As soon as it entered, it lowered its head and walked towards the figure in space-time.

"Back?" The figure gently touched Taotie's head with one hand, as if petting a dog: "Did you get everything done?"

Chapter 2369

"Mmm!"

Outside the hideous and ferocious Taotie, but at this time as docile as a dog that has seen its master, obediently sent drooping head, intimate soft whisper.

The figure smiled faintly, only then did he see his white beard and white face, dressed in white, like a worldly free old man, he had an extraordinary temperament, a smile: "Hard work."

The words fell, the old man's hand slightly from Taotie's head stroked to the belly, but his brow suddenly wrinkled: "This kid"

"Interesting, interesting!"

The old man laughed, and did not remove his hand from Taotie's belly, as if he was feeling something.

"I treat this kid as a guest, this kid is good, treat you here as a home, do whatever you want." The old man smiled languidly, closing his eyes and taking in the feel of his hand.

And inside the belly that his hand was separated from, Han Qianqian's pile of rotten flesh, by now, was already emitting a burst of foul smell.

If previously Han Qianqian's flesh could barely be called a pile of rotten flesh, then now, it is not even rotten flesh, to be precise, this guy's current situation is more like a pile of rotten and stinky water.

The fierce stench emanating from it was like a sewer that had been buried for more than ten years, and Mo Yang and the others vomited when they smelt it.

Moreover, the vomiting was a purely physiological reaction.

All this was enough to show how exaggerated Han Qianqian's body had decayed to.

But at this moment, Han Qianqian's faith remained firm, and even in such a state, he did not let up at all.

Han Qianqian, who had reached the realm of trouble, had no other thought in mind but to drive the Dragon Heart.

Suddenly, the entire Dragon's Heart gave a loud snap and a great movement occurred in the circumference of the heavens!

Immediately afterwards, all the chaotic qi also suddenly became abnormally docile and flowed gently along Han Qianqian's meridians.

What was even more bizarre was that the body, which was already a complete puddle of water, slowly began to circulate and flow at that moment, and as they slowly flowed, there began to be more and more mixed substances in that current.

And this mixture, which impedes the flow of the water, accumulates more and more in size with each other until, finally, it can be clearly seen as piece after piece of flesh.

The slow flow of water seems to be helping these pieces of meat, as it acts as a glue, binding them together and pushing them upwards, piece by piece.

As the pieces of flesh are pushed upwards, they begin to stitch themselves together and coalesce into larger pieces.

As this happened, the chunks of flesh grew larger and larger, eventually coalescing into an immense mass of flesh beneath Han Qianqian's head.

At this time, a faint white Qi was emanating from the meat ball.

Surrounded by the white qi, the pieces of flesh began to shrink in various places again, and as they did, soon, Mo Yang and the others noticed that some places shrunk into hands, and some places shrunk into feet

Bang!

An incomparably huge white Qi was suddenly released from the lump of flesh, even obscuring its appearance, but when the white Qi dissipated, only to see Han Qianqian sitting with his legs crossed, his body wrapped in a layer of white aura, like a protective shield, shielding him to death.

"Three thousand!"

Mo Yang and the others were instantly shocked, each wiping their eyes in disbelief, fearing that they had accidentally misread the situation.

Just now, Han Qianqian was still a stinking pool of stagnant water, but in an instant, he was like a god falling from the sky, with white streams of light protecting his body, showing so much majesty and holiness.

"Holy shit, this is also possible?"

Almost at the same time, the Demonic Dragon's Soul inside Han Qianqian could not help but be shocked and exclaim.

This was simply too unbelievable, right?!

"You said that the Qi of Chaos, can devour all things. But you also said that it could transform into ten thousand things, so what's the fuss?" Han Qianqian's divine sense laughed, and immediately afterwards, his eyes fluttered open.

The darkness that had been boundless just then was now extraordinarily clear in his eyes, and he could not only see the scene next to him, but even the fleshy walls around him in the distance.

This was the true belly of Taotie's original body.

With a movement of energy within his body, his eyes burst out with a golden light, sweeping directly towards the distant wall of flesh.

Bang!

There was an explosion on the distant flesh wall.

Boom!

On the taotie's belly, there was a violent bulge, and in the next second, it was back to normal.

"Hahahahaha!" The old man with the white beard who noticed the difference on Taotie's belly, laughed brightly at this point: "Funny, funny, really funny, Taotie, it seems that you ate someone you shouldn't have."

"Well!"

Taotie seemed to shake his head with some dissatisfaction, as if he was somewhat unconvinced by the old man's words.

"He has found another way inside your stomach, you can't digest him anymore." The old man patted Taotie's shoulder and comforted it.

"Well!"

Taotie shook his head, not seeming to agree.

The old man smiled and touched his hand, and was about to speak when his white eyebrows suddenly tightened directly together, the feeling in his hand telling him that something seemed to be wrong.

"Oh no, this kid this kid should not"

Chapter 2370

Inside his belly!

Han Qianqian, who had already found a way to fight against the Heart of Chaos, did not show any restraint, let alone think of hurrying away.

Instead, after exchanging a few pleasantries with Mo Yang and the others, he sat down directly, and then the Heart of the Dragon Race was directly sacrificed by this bastard.

That's right, just like the last time in the Eight Heavenly Books, Han Qianqian began to use the Dragon Heart again to frantically suck the Chaos Qi from the Taotie's belly.

"Isn't this kid a little too nonchalant?" Outside, the old man couldn't help but murmur at Taotie in a depressed manner.

More than being ungracious, to be precise, Han Qianqian was now simply a bandit.

It was like a camel that hadn't had any water for decades, but suddenly met an oasis, so he grabbed it and gobbled it up?

With the Dragon's Heart released, Han Qianqian did not use any politeness in his hands, and directly urged the Dragon's Heart to suck the surrounding Chaos Hearts furiously.

All of a sudden, the surrounding Chaos Qi was like a tornado, being sucked into the vortex by the Dragon Heart, and then obediently entered the Dragon Heart, where it was completely stored.

Immediately afterwards, with the energy stored in the Dragon Heart, it naturally turned more and more fiercely and sucked in more and more.

In just a few moments, not only was the surrounding Chaos Qi completely pulled by the vortex, but even the Chaos Qi from far away was also frantically sucked in.

Boom!!!

Outside, a loud sound like thunder came from the taotie's stomach.

The old man with the white beard was far from calm, and his eyes were filled with both laughter and shock.

"I really didn't expect this kid to be quite peculiar, he can actually do this, but you don't have to worry, with the amount of food you have, that kid will do you no harm even if you suck it up again." After saying this, he patted Taotie's head, as if to reassure it that it didn't need to be too nervous.

But obviously, the old man's calculations were wrong, at least in Han Qianqian's case, this did not exist.

The amount of energy that the Dragon Heart could store, not to mention a Taotie, even the Eightfold Heavenly Book would have to be emboldened, it was after all a treasure that could feed millions of dragons.

If it did not have a huge storage capacity, how could the Heart of the Dragon Clan afford it?

At the beginning, not long after absorbing in the eight-sided heavenly book, Han Qianqian had to rely on these energy to fight how many big battles, and that, but only part of the storage capacity of the heart of the dragon race, if the full absorption, sometimes unimaginable

At least, when Han Qianqian's dragon heart in the taotie's stomach after crazy absorption, within a few hours, the surrounding black chaos Qi will have been devoured by the dragon news.

But Han Qianqian has no intention of stopping, even to suck faster, directly with the dragon heart to continue to suck.

The poor Taotie's stomach kept drumming, just like a person's constipated stomach, and the rattling never stopped.

Others may be eating something to digest to replenish their energy, but when it comes to Han Qianqian and Taotie, the situation is completely reversed.

Han Qianqian will not make up for Taotie, but Taotie is like eating a bottomless pit, the energy in his body is constantly falling in.

In the words of the earth, this is simply swallowing the special effects of diarrhea medicine

And Han Qianqian this head sucked wonderfully, that head of the forest swamp in the battle also entered the white-hot stage.

The disadvantage is not magnified because of the small number of people, but because of the small number of people, they are able to move freely in the forest swamp, which is an advantage.

Faced with the absolute numerical superiority of the three great clans, the three devils fought on equal terms!

Time, in the midst of a vicious battle on both sides, passed extremely quickly.

The old man in the mysterious space, at this time also did not have the worries of the party, just gently stroking Taotie, into the state of nap.

Although Taotie's stomach kept rattling endlessly, but this ancient beast, how will care about this little problem, and the old man, long ago closed his eyes, curled up there, closed his eyes and slept.

And as time went on, the rattling in the Taotie's stomach began to get progressively smaller and smaller, until finally, not even any rattling could be felt.

When the Devil's side of the sneak attack was successful, with very few casualties to the three great clans caused great losses, killing the three great clans fled, completely announced that the battle was won.

Outside, nearly seven days have passed

And during these seven days, within space and time, the old man and Taotie had lived as if nothing had happened.

Until the evening of this day, Taotie's stomach rattling completely and utterly no movement, the old man then smiled faintly: "I have long said, he is nothing compared to you, he always sucked the day full."

Taotie shook his head and was about to express something with his body, but suddenly he felt that something was wrong and shook his body, as if he was feeling the changes inside him.

But in the next second, Taotie's feet suddenly weakened, followed by his body suddenly falling to his knees on the ground, his belly, which was still round and bulging, dried up in an instant, and his steel-like fur also went soft in an instant
