

His True Color Chapter 2571-2580

Chapter 2571

When Han Qianqian carried Han Nian and took Ning Yue with him to the corpse farming ground, at that moment, Qin Shannon was kneeling on the ground, her eyes wide open, staring at the corpse farming ground with an extremely surprised look.

On the corpse ground, all kinds of immortal grasses and trees were growing lushly, and the colourful ground was like a fairy land, long gone from the previous barren scene, thanks to Han Qianqian who had planted many things before.

In front of her was a relatively barren area, and she had deliberately chosen a spot where there were no plants.

However, because of the cover of other plants, Han Qianqian and Ning Yue did not see clearly what was happening in the place she was staring at.

They walked over quickly and were about to ask her what was wrong when they both stopped at the same time and stared at the ground in a daze.

Above the dried up ground was a hole about the size of a bowl, where the seeds of the ginseng baby had been covered with the soil from the basin.

Han Qianqian had already irrigated the field with weak water earlier, but at this moment, a green plant was growing on top of the soil.

It was a single seedling plant, curved, about two centimetres high overall, with two leaves scattered around its waist, about the size of a fingernail.

But it is such a small, solitary seedling that two very strange things arise from underneath the two leaves.

On one side was a red bead about the size of an egg that could not be hidden under the leaf, and on the other side was a small green fruit like a grape that was extremely similar in size to the leaf.

"This ..... is ....., " Ning Yue looked stunned.

Not only her, but even Han Qianqian, who was at this moment, was completely dumbfounded at the spot.

What's going on here?!

"After I ..... planted the seeds, I ..... just kept watch over it, and as a result, a this thing grew out of it ..... this ..... Is this a ginseng baby?" Qin Frost asked as he looked at the green seedling on the ground with some excitement.

Ning Yue naturally did not know and looked at Han Qianqian with the same question.

Han Qianqian put down Nian'er and took a few steps over, squatting down and carefully examining it.

However, Han Qianqian even used his own energy to sense it, after all, the ginseng baby had been with him for a long time and he should be familiar with its aura, but the result was cruel, he could not sense anything.

So, even Han Qianqian himself, was also confused.

"If it's a ginseng baby, how did it become two?" Qin Frost asked anxiously.

Yes, if it bore a single fruit, that would make sense, but these two were a bit mind-boggling.

Could it be that this guy would still give birth?

But when this guy was alive, he was a pure man, so how the hell could he produce another fruit.

What the hell is going on here?

Looking at Han Qianqian's puzzled look, Ning Yue didn't dare to pit a sound, but it was Qin Frost who was anxious at the side.

After all, if even Han Qianqian could not give an explanation, then no one else could.

"Is it possible that this is not a ginseng baby? Has it transformed into an ordinary plant and there is no more of him?" Qin Frost murmured and looked at Ning Yue, his eyes full of despair.

For a moment, Ning Yue did not know how to reply.

Suddenly, Han Qianqian fiercely let out the slightest ray of hope in his eyes!

"No, there's another way to tell if this is a ginseng waifu being reborn or if it has finally transformed into something else."

"What method?" The two women spoke out almost simultaneously .....

Chapter 2572

"But ....." was all Han Qianqian said before he looked at the two women with some concern and embarrassment.

If the test was successful, all would be happy, but if it failed, or if Han Qianqian's predicted method was wrong, it would be a huge blow to everyone, especially himself and Qin Shannon.

It would not be a bad thing not to test it and treat it as a hope in ignorance, but to test it and fail would have extremely serious consequences.

"Either way, I want to know the results." Qin Shuang looked at Han Qianqian and said very seriously.

Han Qianqian looked at her quietly and finally nodded.

Immediately afterwards, Han Qianqian stretched out his left hand and formed his right hand into a palm, slashing it in the air, and instantly the palm of his right hand was like a sharp cut by a knife, and fresh blood slowly flowed out along the opening.

"Three thousand, what are you doing?" Looking at Han Qianqian's sudden "self-mutilation", Qin Shan and Ning Yue both felt their hearts tighten.

Han Qianqian gestured to the two of them not to be nervous, and then, glancing at the sole seedling formed by the ginseng baby in front of him, he said, "Do you know what the ginseng baby's greatest wish was before it was born?"

The two women both shook their heads.

"Before it was born, it was chanting in my ear every day like a kingpin chanting scripture, wanting to drink my blood." As Han Qianqian thought back on those details, his heart couldn't help but feel some sweet bitterness welling up.

Since the ginseng baby was extremely eager to drink its own blood, that must mean that its blood might have some kind of strong attraction to it.

In addition, he had been near the God's Mound since the time he met this creature.

Although he didn't know the origin of the ginseng ward, Han Qianqian always felt that this guy was more or less related to the God's Mound.

The reason he wants to drink his own blood is most likely because he has the blood of the gods in his body.

So .....

Han Qianqian slightly raised his hand, aimed at the two fruits, and sprinkled his own God's blood.

There was danger in this, because once it was not the rebirth of the ginseng wa, but just something else it left in the world, then most likely it would not be able to digest Han Qianqian's blood which was highly poisonous, and would even corrode and die because of Han Qianqian's blood.

That was why Han Qianqian had been very hesitant before making his move.

When the divine blood dripped down and attached itself to the two seeds, even Han Qianqian, as steady as he was, tightly bit his lips nervously at that moment, his breathing stopped and he stared at it motionlessly.

"Boom!"

Suddenly, just as the three of them were staring intently at the small green seedling with two fruits, the red bead stained with divine blood made a loud bang, followed by an instantaneous fire when the three of them had not reflected at all.

Even though all three of them were considered experts in their field, they were still caught off guard by the situation.

They used their energy to defend themselves while retreating, but even so, the three of them were still in a terrible mess.

Han Qianqian, in particular, was the closest, and even though he was strong enough not to be burned by the fire, he was still blackened by the black gas that spread out.

Between the opening of his mouth, he even directly haunched out a mouthful of exhaled black gas
.....

"Shit, what's the situation?" Han Qianqian was very depressed, looking at the flames that were still spewing out, for a while he was not in the mood to care about how he was doing, he just looked nervously at the source of the fire, and a sense of foreboding had risen in his heart.

The fire was so fierce that it had formed a huge ball of fire.

Even if it were a living person, it would be impossible to leave any sign of life under such a fierce fire, not to mention the weak little plant that grew from the seed of the ginseng baby.

This also meant that Han Qianqian's judgment was heading towards the latter.

He had failed!

"No!" Qin Shannon obviously understood what this meant, and at once, she shouted out with a heartbreaking shout, and her entire body was about to fling itself into the fire in a heartbreaking manner.

The quick eyes and quick hands of Ning Yue hurriedly held her in place, looking at the blazing fire, she couldn't help but shake her head sadly and said, "Qinshang you calm down, don't do anything stupid, it's gone, it's all gone."

The burning flames, not only did not weaken in the slightest gesture, but became more and more ferocious, like a fire tiger that had just awakened, flapping its teeth and claws in a fierce manner.

"How could this happen?" Han Qianqian murmured as he looked at the blazing fire, and was a little lost in thought for a moment.

"Ooooo ....." Qin Shannon was held in the deadly embrace of Ning Yue, looking at the active pile and letting out a howl.

"Poop ....."

The plants closer to the fire, at this point, were also drying out and withering under the blazing fire, and then began to twist from the heat, and some were even ignited, rising up in small wisps of fire.

Gradually, more and more plants began to wither, even with the fireball as the centre and within a metre of the surrounding area.

But to Han Qianqian, the fall of these exotic treasures was nothing, and he was obviously more distressed by the disappearance of the ginseng wares than by their disappearance.

But suddenly, a certain situation in the corpse-rearing field caused Han Qianqian to, at this moment, frown greatly!

Chapter 2573

For the withering of the plants around the fireball is not the end, but rather, only the beginning .....

As time went on, the plants within one metre withered just fine, but more seriously, the plants within two metres slowly withered and then collapsed one after another .....

Three metres, four metres .....

More and more, the direction of development even spread directly towards the entire corpse-rearing area.

One plant, two plants .....

The plants that were previously lush and full of life and colour were withering and falling down like some kind of contagious disease.

The first thing you need to do is to get a good idea of what you are getting into.

What is this situation?

If the plants on the periphery that were close to the source of the fire were too hot due to being baked by the fire and lost moisture, withered, or even ignited by the fire, these were all perfectly normal, but on the periphery .....

The furthest plant was even nearly ten metres away from the point of origin of the fire, and it could not have been affected by the fire at all.

So, there was obviously something odd here!

But where the oddity was, Han Qianqian did not know.

Han Qianqian had discovered this strange spot, and Qin Shannon, who was caught in extreme grief, might not have noticed it, but Ning Yue had also noticed this strange phenomenon.

"Ally, this ....."

Han Qianqian's eyes stared intently at the entire corpse field and didn't reply, but his mind was racing!

"Damn it, what are you guys still standing around for? You really want me to die quickly, don't you? Especially you, Han Qianqian, do you want to wait for me to die so you can take over my wife?"

"Shit, I'm telling you, don't even think about it, even though my wife has you in her heart right now, you know this is now. When the future comes, my wife may not still like you, humph."

Hearing this voice, Han Qianqian first froze and looked around to see where it came from, but there was no sign of any wind blowing around, but on closer examination, the voice was familiar and the tone had an unmistakable sense of affection that had been missing for a long time .....

Ginseng boy?

"Ginseng baby!"

Almost at the same time, at the same time as Han Qianqian reflected, Qin Frost also suddenly looked at Han Qianqian with god in both eyes.

That's right!

It was the ginseng wa's voice.

But where was this voice coming from?

The three of them looked to their left and right, but at that moment, they suddenly heard Ginseng Baby's voice again: "You're blind, aren't I in the fire?"

In the fire?

The three of them looked into the ball of fire in unison.

But in the midst of the blazing fire, one could almost see a phantom, but they could not see clearly what was inside the fire.

"Ginseng, where the hell are you, hurry up and come out, we can't see you in the fire, you stay in the fire, that's not going to ....." Han Qianqian can't even see, naturally not to mention Qin Shuang, at this time anxious like ants on a hot pot.

After shouting, she hurriedly looked at Han Qianqian, said: "Three thousand, you can not have any heavenly eyes? Open it quickly and see where the ginseng wares are."

Han Qianqian was stunned and really wanted to say are you serious, but seeing that Qin Shant was really anxious again, he shook his head and said no.

Once the eye of heaven was opened, could the ginseng wares be found, Han Qianqian did not know, what Han Qianqian only knew was that Ning Yue and Qin Frost would be in front of themselves as if they had no clothes on.

"Then ..... that I don't mind." Qin frost even if the situation is urgent, but at this time also understand what it means to open the eyes of heaven, blushing slightly, said: "anyway, also by you to see naked, save the ginseng wa is important."

"That ..... me ..... I don't mind either." When Ning Yue saw Qin Frost cast her gaze over, she instantly grasped her meaning, but what was unexpected was Ning Yue's reply that almost made Han Qianqian's jaw drop in shock.

Han Qianqian glanced helplessly at the two women, who lowered their heads almost in sync; Qin Shrost was fine, after all, she was really worried about the ginseng waifu, and Ning Yue almost turned her body to the side in shame.

"Convince yourselves." Han Qianqian gritted his teeth and nodded, just as he was about to open.

At this moment, one could only hear Ginseng Wa shouting impatiently, "Holy shit, no, no, Han Qianqian, you son of a bitch are not allowed to open."

Hearing these words, Han Qianqian slowed down the movement in his hands.

"Hey, wife, don't worry about me, but don't let this son of a bitch Han Qianqian take advantage of me in order to save me, then I might as well be dead."

"But you ..... are still worried," Qin Frost said.

"Alas, don't worry, this fire is big enough to turn Han Qianqian into a roast suckling pig, but to little master me, it's just a trivial matter, did, wife, you forget how I cleaned up that son of a bitch Ye Kucheng back then?" The ginseng wa shouted in triumph, his tone still arrogant.

Han Qianqian frowned, and it was only then that Qin Frost reflected in time and said, "Qianqian, when Ginseng Wa punched Ye Qucheng, he carried extremely strong flames between his fists, and even his body turned into fire red. However, every time he punched his body would consume a large portion of it, was he lying to us when he said there was no danger?"

Hearing these words, Han Qianqian looked at these withered plants among the corpse field, and a strange conjecture abruptly surfaced in his own mind!

Chapter 2574

"He's fine." Han Qianqian nodded firmly.

Then, he faintly looked at Ginseng Wa: "These plants on the ground where I raised the corpse were not burned by me, but eaten by you fellow, right?"

"Do you have proof?" In the fire, the ginseng wa replied with carelessness.

"It is both odd and amusing that a ginseng waif of the wood genus kills in a way that uses fire, for what does that amount to? On the surface it is a scrap move that kills a thousand enemies and damages eight hundred, but in reality it is burning your own body to strengthen the flames, so Ye Guocheng can't get an advantage in your hands, but some, by exerting themselves too hard, burn themselves out and end up reverting to their original body and turning into a seed, am I right?" Han Qianqian chuckled softly.

Han Qianqian said one sentence, the fire hard half a day did not hold a fart, after a long time, only from inside came the ginseng wa like a resentful woman muttering, "Shit, make it seem like you are very smart, what the little master wants is none of your business."

"Every word you say and every fart you let out is the result of eating so many of my exotic treasures, how dare you say it's none of your business?"

"Shit, Han Qianqian, you son of a bitch, am I plowing your ancestral grave? Shit, you don't give me any face, do you have to tell me everything?"

Hearing this, Han Qianqian laughed and chose not to say anything.

The ginseng worm was very weak, but the huge energy of the corpse farming ground had awakened it, and after that, there were many plants that Han Qianqian had planted around it, any one of which was considered a treasure, so naturally for the ginseng worm, these were the best tonic.

Han Qianqian's thinking was clearly in line with these facts.

There was just one thing that made Han Qianqian even more curious, however, the ginseng wa's birth.

A thing of the wood genus, playing with fire, which was completely at odds with itself, could not be described as a unique oddity, but simply as playing with fire.

Hearing Ginseng Wa and Han Qianqian's bickering, both Ning Yue and Qin Shuang could not help but smile at each other, and at this point, they finally let out a long breath, at least for now, Ginseng Wa was really alright.

"What are you waiting for, Han, don't you know everything? Then why don't you hurry up and plant some more? Do you want to starve me to death and take over my daughter-in-law?" The ginseng boy didn't want the situation to be like this and said to Han Qianqian at this point.

Han Qianqian let out a bitter smile, "Of course it's fine if you want me to plant something for you, but don't you turn off your fire first? What the plants need is water and sunlight, not your shitty fire."

"Shit, I'm not a ragged fire, I'm a fire ..... forget it, I'm too lazy to talk to you mere mortals, you wouldn't understand. But .....,," said the rather imposing ginseng wa but suddenly his voice was like a mosquito .....

"But what?" Qin Frost asked nervously.

Ginseng wa did not pit sound.

However, sensing that all three were staring straight into the fire, it knew that if it didn't answer, these three would simply not be kind enough to stop.

"Geez, I'm annoyed with you guys." Ginseng Wa shouted in chagrin.

When Han Qianqian saw this reflection of him, he frowned, but in the meantime, he laughed out loud.

Seeing Han Qianqian like this, Ning Yue and Qin Shuang looked at each other, both of them were confused, what was going on here?

Chapter 2575

"Go ahead and laugh, laugh your ass off, your grandmother, I'm also considered your good buddy and you laugh at me like this, Han Qianqian, stay away from me when the thunder strikes, I'm damn afraid that when it strikes you, I'll get involved with me." The ginseng wa cursed in the fire in a very depressed manner.

If it had its own body, it would have rolled its eyes out of the sky at this point.

"Three-thousand, what is going on here?" Qin Frost looked at Han Qianqian.

Ning Yue also looked at Han Qianqian with a dumbfounded expression.

Han Qianqian faintly closed his voice: "Do you guys know why he stopped pitched his voice just now?"

"Why?"

"Because this bastard can't turn off this fire at all."

Once Han Qianqian's words came out, the entire scene immediately fell into dead silence, only hearing the sound of the fire blazing .....

A few moments later, the two women suddenly puffed out a laugh, and at this time in the fire, if possible, ginseng wa would like to find a crack in the ground.

Party cowboys blowing big, but in the end can not even control their own fire, face painful and insulting extremely.

"Alright, three thousand, don't laugh at him." Qin Shannon withdrew her laughter and asked with a straight face, "Can you think of something? Ginseng Wa has only just awakened and is extremely weak, he needs a lot of things to replenish his body."

"Yes, ally, playing is fun and fooling around, but business must still be done, and if we don't put out the fire, we simply won't be able to grow too many plants down." Ning Yue also said with a straight face.

This, naturally, was also within Han Qianqian's scope of consideration.

"After I draw the weak water over, you two plant things, and this fire, I'll think of something."

The two women nodded, and the three of them split up.

A few moments later, Qin Shannon pulled up the plants that had wilted away around her, while Ning Yueyin brought over some more top quality seeds in the elixir room, before they were too busy to water the weak water for now.

Han Qianqian went to the fireball and began to study the blazing fire in front of him.

It was fierce, and even as strong as Han Qianqian was, he had to admit that these fires were not large in scope, but they were exceptionally pure, so it was easy to understand why that guy Ye Gucheng had suffered so much at the hands of the Ginseng Wa.

As soon as the energy in his hand moved, an extremely strong chaotic Qi attacked directly towards the source of the fire.

But soon, Han Qianqian's brow furrowed.

Because he wanted to extinguish the fire as quickly as possible, Han Qianqian did not actually have too many restrictions on the amount of energy he could output, and it was not too much to describe it as a full blast of fire.

But even so, the fire source in front of him was only relatively weakened, without any sign of being extinguished, and even during the confrontation, Han Qianqian found that the energy of this fire source was extremely huge.

"You fellow, where did you get the fire? It's not simple, is it?" Han Qianqian frowned and said softly.

"Nonsense, my little master's fire can be simple, if it were simple, would my little master still need you?" The ginseng boy seized the opportunity and said disdainfully.

Han Qianqian ignored him, but with a flip of his hand, he brought out the Five Elements Divine Stone, and then a chaotic power struck into it, causing the Five Elements Divine Stone to fly above the fire and release water energy in the air.

Since it could not be extinguished, Han Qianqian did not intend to do so. The special nature of the weak water and the corpse land made the plants grow quickly, plus there was still the Burning Bone City in the back and he needed to preserve his strength, so the best thing he could do was just to put some energy into the Five Elements Divine Stone occasionally to suppress the fire for a while.

But to Han Qianqian's surprise, something went wrong .....

Chapter 2576

When the Five Elements Divine Stone, an almost semi-automatic fire extinguishing "divine weapon", existed, it meant that Han Qianqian could free up his hands for other things.

After sending Nian'er back.

It so happened that after Qin Shannon and the others had finished hoeing the grass and sowing the seeds, they needed Han Qianqian's help in watering the plants, a task that only Han Qianqian could do.

But just as Han Qianqian was helping with the watering, an accident happened.

"Does it suddenly feel as if it's a lot cooler?" Ning Yue was busy working in the field with her head down when she couldn't help but ask.

Qin Frost was helping just as much, and as it was about the ginseng wares, she was working very carefully, without even raising her head, and said, "Yes, and it seems to be a lot quieter too."

Even Han Qianqian himself felt that not only had the surroundings suddenly become extremely quiet, but also that one's body felt much cooler.

When he looked back, Han Qianqian was frozen.

In the distance, where the ginseng wares were, there was no more blazing fire, only the Five Elements divine Stone was still vaguely spilling water downwards.

The water that fell was like a waterfall, and most wonderfully, there was a faint rainbow of seven colours around the water droplets.

And above the ground, a red luan light from below and upwards, incessantly leaning towards the Five Elements Divine Stone, and slowly being absorbed by the Five Elements Divine Stone, entwining with the seven-coloured rainbow, forming an extremely beautiful stream of light.

Rainbow on the outside, within the rising red luan light, simply like the immortal world waterfall
.....

"This ....." Looking at this strange and wonderful sight, even Han Qianqian could not help but freeze at this time.

Hearing Han Qianqian's voice of surprise, the two women also looked up and looked back at this time, but almost the same as Han Qianqian, collectively frozen.

It was so beautiful!

It was so fantastical!

This was by no means something that could have been done by any artificial means.

"Where's the fire?" Qin Frost suddenly wondered.

There was no longer any fire on the ground, only the light of those red luan, and the seedling plant of the ginseng waifu that was in the centre.

The three of them looked at each other and hurried over.

"Will the ginseng wares be alright?" As soon as the people arrived, Qin Frost looked at the seedling plant in it with worry.

Beautiful as the scenery was, what was important was the safety of the ginseng wee ones.

Han Qianqian moved his hand to retrieve the Five Elements Divine Stone, but what was strange was that even though the Five Elements Divine Stone no longer released water and the rainbow around the water disappeared with it, the light of the red luan on the ground, as if it could find its way, was skewed and still attracted to the Five Elements Divine Stone that had reached Han Qianqian's hand.

Han Qianqian frowned, stretched out his hand and slightly put it into the red light.

It was warm, like a warm breeze blowing.

"What is this?" Han Qianqian wondered.

Qin Frost had already rushed off to inspect the ginseng wares, and only Ning Yue, who was at the side, frowned slightly, and she obviously couldn't answer Han Qianqian's question.

"Three thousand, there's a seed missing!" Qin Frost turned back to Han Qianqian in a hurry and shouted at him.

Hearing the shout, Han Qianqian turned his gaze towards the small seedling plant and couldn't help but feel even more strange as a whole.

The small grape-like fruit was still there, but the relatively large red fruit had completely disappeared by now.

"There's not something wrong, is there?" Ning Yue asked nervously at once.

It was good that the ginseng waifu was alive, but how could it not cause concern when half of it was suddenly missing at this point?!

"Could it be that too much rain has drowned it?" Qin Shuang was so anxious that tears were welling up in her eyes.

No, no!

Han Qianqian shook his head desperately, if it had been drowned by water, the circumstances of its death shouldn't be like this.

Besides, although the Five Elements Divine Stone had divided out a lot of water, most of it had been resisted by the fire in the early stages, so it was impossible to cause too much water to drown.

"Ginseng wa, are you still alive? Say something if you're not dead." Han Qianqian looked at the seedling plant and said with a straight face.

There was no sound!

"Three-thousand, the ginseng wa it ....." Qin Shannon was even more anxious, and tears had even come to her eyes.

Han Qianqian but a cold face, a bend, reaching out to directly pluck the seedling plant.

But just as Han Qianqian's hand was about to reach it, Ginseng Wa's voice then appeared: "What are you doing?!"

"Not dead and you're not talking?" Han Qianqian withdrew his hand and said.

"It's dead!" The ginseng boy replied discontentedly, but after answering, he seemed to know that it didn't make sense and muttered, "I don't want to talk, I can't, you dog thief."

Hearing that he could curse, Han Qianqian knew he was fine, but hearing his tone, something didn't seem right: "What's wrong?"

Chapter 2577

"Damn, Han Qianqian, you're so cheap, you're really cheap, it's like you've forced me and yet you have to ask me if I'm comfortable." Ginseng Wa cursed depressingly and then said, "I refuse to talk to you dog thief, please stay ten metres away from me, thank you."

Han Qianqian couldn't help but shake his head helplessly, this guy, sometimes he really couldn't help himself: "Then what if I don't leave you ten metres?"

"What can you do?"

"I ....." Ginseng Wa was tempted to curse, "If you don't leave, I'll leave!"

"You what you? How about performing a young seedling plucking away for me?"

A sentence, dislike the ginseng wa to helpless, nurturing corpse ground is not ordinary ground, plus it is now only a seedling plant, how to walk?!

But even so, the seedling plant could be seen on the ground at this point, without the wind, yet still kept trying to move in the direction of the distance.

But even though it struggled, it didn't move at all underneath, leaving only the tip of the seedling to keep swinging its head that way, in a comical manner that made people laugh.

"Alright, alright, don't tease the ginseng baby." Qin Shuang said to Han Qianqian.

Han Qianqian smiled and didn't say anything.

"How are you doing, Ginseng Boy, are you alright?" Qin Frost said.

"It's still my wife who cares about me, don't worry, I'm fine." Ginseng Wa said happily.

"Since you're fine then you were ....." still silent the whole time, you scared us to death. Also, three thousand for your sake, even risking the Immortal Spirit Island being discovered, you must not fight with him. You are partners, you have to love each other, understand?" Qin Frost said gently.

"Of course I will love each other with you, my wife, but this little master refuses to be in the company of robbers, scum, humph!" Ginseng Wa said atmospherically.

Ning Yue let out a bitter laugh and looked at Han Qianqian, shaking her head helplessly.

"Three Thousand was kind enough to save you and help you, if you say he's a robber again, I'll ignore you." Qin Shannon pretended to be angry.

"Hey, you humans, you really are all face-value animals, even you help him, wife. It's not just because he's somewhat capable and good looking ....." Hearing Qin Shou Shang's words, Ginseng Wa let out a long sigh, that deflated tone as if she had just died of her dad.

"Bitch, it's all because of you, you bitch, you've got the advantage but you're still selling yourself short, his grandmother, Han Qianqian, I, Ginseng Wa, and you are at odds, in this life there will be you but not me."

"If you want to say that, you're better off without me, I'll give you a ride." Han Qianqian forced himself to stifle his laughter and finished his body to pluck its seedlings again.

"Fuck, you bandit, not only robbing money, but also killing people, holy shit, and then hogging my wife isn't it?" Ginseng Wa cursed.

If this guy was still normal, Han Qianqian wouldn't even have the slightest doubt that the bastard would be jumping on his head and cursing at himself at this point.

Given the character of a ginseng wa, to do that!

"I'm a robber? I don't know which bandit has stolen all the exotic treasures from the ground. Just taking these things out and selling them, I wouldn't say I'm rich, but it's still not a problem to sit on a side of the land." Han Qianqian laughed softly.

"Fuck, there's no such thing as a price, a priceless treasure is a real treasure, okay? You bitch." Ginseng Wa scolded.

"Ginseng Wa, what Three Thousand said is exactly right, it's you, who always says Three Thousand is a robber, but Three Thousand has taken something from you." Qin Frost said in disbelief.

Ning Yue also nodded at this time and said, "Yes, the alliance master has always stayed with us. Besides, you have nothing to take from you like this ..... now, right?" After saying that, Ning Yue swept a glance at the ginseng wa ..... that was now just a seedling plant

The words are nothing, but for the ginseng wa, the gaze that Ning Yue gave to itself was not very hurtful, but extremely insulting!

It was close to saying outright that it, didn't even have a hair on its body.

"You don't think that the ally stole your people, do you?" After saying that, Ning Yue shifted her eyes back to Qin Frost's body.

The meaning couldn't be more obvious!

"Shit, I, Ginseng Wa, sit upright in my actions, love is something that relies on personal charm, there is no such thing as stealing or not stealing?" Ginseng Wa retorted at once.

"Then what did the ally take from you?"

"This dog thief ....."

"Say it?" Ning Yue urged.

Ginseng Wa hesitated for a moment, and finally, finally muttered, "I didn't want to say it because it's too damn humiliating, but ....." Suddenly, Ginseng Wa cried as he said this .....

Chapter 2578
Crying!

The bastard cried!

This was a wonder of the world, a strange story for millions of people!

The first time Han Qianqian met this guy, this guy has been upholding the basic professional ethics of shamelessness and no limits, asking him to curse people Han Qianqian thought it was just a simple matter of eating, but if you want him to cry, that is simply more difficult than even the sky.

But now, this guy is crying .....

At this point, not only was Han Qianqian completely confused, but even Qin Frost, who was on the side, looked at Han Qianqian filled with the unknown at this time.

"Ah ..... the heavens have no way ah, the heavens have no eyes ah, this so tragic ah, so destroy life, no, ginseng life ah."

"Ouch, my heavenly lord ah."

"Ah ....."

Seemingly feeling that his cries had not resonated, or that the thought of heartbreak could not help but be more heartbreaking, the ginseng boy cried even louder at this point, that hoarse look even as if his dad had actually died.

"I'm gone, I'm gone, I've been eaten up by a bastard!"

"My mum too, I'm bitter, I'm in pain, I'm not happy."

"It would have been fine if it was a woman, but he's a fucking man, ah, my chastity, my integrity ....."

Hearing this guy's various sorrowful cries and tiger-wolf words, Han Qianqian was both angry and amused.

The only thing that I can think of is that I don't know who has defiled his innocence and taken him for a ride!

Ning Yue couldn't help but snicker, but as soon as she did, the ginseng boy over there stopped crying and asked suspiciously, "Can you have some compassion?"

Ning Yue laughed even harder, and Qin Frost also tilted his head to the side, feeling both amused and helpless.

"Holy shit, you guys ....." are going too far. I'm the victim, and not only do you guys not sympathize with me, you're even laughing at me? Do you guys have no conscience left, have your morals fallen?" Ginseng Wa said.

"Okay, I won't laugh anymore, you quickly say, what exactly did he do to you, the alliance master!" Neng Yue forced her laughter and pretended to be serious.

"You say it properly, and what else ate you dry all came, Han Qianqian is not a man I do not know, I only know that he certainly will not be interested in you." Qin Frost said.

"Even you're here aren't you?" How could Han Qianqian not hear what Qin Frost was saying, but pretended not to understand and took it in stride.

"This was supposed to be eaten dry, I'm not wrong." Ginseng Wa hurriedly said, "Originally, I, Ginseng Wa, am a spiritual creature of heaven and earth, gathering the essence of heaven above and the pure yin of earth below, I dare not say how awesome I am, but at least it is considered a fine product on earth."

"The magic power, is even higher than that! To use one word, to describe it, it is invincible!"

"Well, well, Brother Invincible, what then?" Han Qianqian said helplessly.

"And then, then what the hell, it's all taken away by this fucking dead bitch of yours, although I'm still handsome and dashing, but the problem is ....."

"I'll only have my own self-preservation ability from now on, no more offensive ability." Speaking of which, Ginseng Wa was very depressed.

Han Qianqian frowned: "Why? And, what exactly did I take from you?"

"Why else? What else did you take from me? Can't you see there's no fire now? Eh? You've stolen all my treasures, what will I attack with in the future?"

"Babies?" Han Qianqian froze.

"Nonsense! That's one of Laozi's original lives, and it's because of it that Laozi can unleash invincible flames. That what's-his-name Ye Kucheng got his ass kicked by me, and you couldn't see it?"

"But I didn't take it, did I?" Han Qianqian was puzzled.

He hadn't even touched the Ginseng Wa, but the next second, he suddenly remembered something.

"No?" Han Qianqian froze in his tracks, and while looking over at Ning Yue and Qin Frost next to him, he took out the Five Elements divine Stone in his other hand.

Ningshuo and Qinshang, who obviously had almost the same expression as Han Qianqian, seemed to have guessed it as well.

After Han Qianqian had revealed the Five Elements divine Stone, his entire brow was immediately furrowed.

On top of the divine stone, there were originally two colours, but now, at some point, an additional fire-red mark had been added.

The three men immediately looked at each other!

"How could this happen?" Han Qianqian frowned widely, looking incredulously at the ginseng wa's seedling plant.

"Fire God stone! You took Laozi's precious Fire God Stone!" The Ginseng Wa roared in anger.

"The Fire God Stone?" Han Qianqian's entire body froze, what is this thing?!

Chapter 2579

"Ah~~~"

At the mention of this, the ginseng boy howled again.

"That's my old man's treasure. Ah, your mother's ah, even if you took it, you still have to act like an innocent dog, you're not even fucking human."

Han Qianqian was full of sweat, he hadn't even thought that this would be the case either.

But if you think about it, the only thing that could have gone wrong is that Han Qianqian used the Five Elements Divine Stone to send out water to put out the fire, but in the process, the Five Elements Divine Stone came into contact with the Fire Divine Stone, after which .....

Like the Jade in Flower and the Divine Face Pearl, it was slowly devoured by the Five Elements Divine Stone!

"Allied Lord, how could this happen? Is it hard to say that Ginseng Wa's Fire God Stone is also ..... part of the Five Elements God Stone as well?" Ning Yue frowned while saying.

Han Qianqian also nodded, "Yes, it was absorbed and, too, left its colour behind."

Only Qin Frost, somewhat bewildered, stared at the two of them.

"What nonsense, being said by you guys as if what I have is his, and part of it? Shit, this Fire God Stone is my ancestral property." Ginseng Wa drank in discontent.

However, no one heeded even a single word of Ginseng Wa's words.

Apparently, the sudden addition of an extra red colour had confirmed the previous guesses of Han Qianqian and Ning Yue.

But what the two feared they would never expect was that the Ginseng Wa would be associated with the third seal, so how could this not shock anyone?!

As the two did, Qin Shannon was naturally concerned and confused about what had happened, and naturally did not listen to Ginseng Wa's displeasure ever.

"This Fire God Stone, what is going on?" Surprised, Han Qianqian turned his gaze towards the Ginseng Wa.

The divine Face Pearl did not have any history, and Hua Zhongyu had even snubbed it from Fu Tian, so the only possible clue that could be found in relation to the Five Elements divine Stone was the Fire God Stone in front of him.

If there were any traces of the Fire God Stone, they might be able to find something.

"None of your business, miscellaneous, after taking my stuff, you still want to ask me miscellaneous use ah? Do you want to be shameless?" Ginseng Wa said without good humour.

"Don't you think it's strange? Your ancestral object, I haven't even touched it, yet it's automatically absorbed by my stone?" Han Qianqian asked calmly.

"Shit, who knows if you've cast some kind of demonic spell." Ginseng Wa muttered.

"Like you said, you're not considered an absolute expert, but you're definitely not a mortal either. But now you've lost your trousers to me, so if you don't unravel the reason for this, don't you feel ashamed?" Han Qianqian continued.

The reason why he had been stammering was that he felt he had been made to lose everything by Han Qianqian, and it was embarrassing to say it, but it was hard not to.

"In fact, ever since I was born, the Fire God stone has been almost common and body with me."

"It could even be considered the other me."

"The other you?" Han Qianqian's brow furrowed.

"Yes, if you still remember the scene when I fought with Ye Qucheng in the Voidless Sect, then you will know what the difference is between the two individual me's."

But at the time of the great battle, Han Qianqian was too far away to know exactly what had happened.

Only Qin Shrost, the only person who experienced it at that time.

Han Qianqian placed his gaze on Qinshang, who was also frowning at that moment, and clearly seemed to have remembered something!

"He has two forms, or rather, two colours." After confirming those memories, Qin Shrost looked at Han Qianqian somewhat nervously.

"Two colours?" Han Qianqian frowned while saying.

"That's right, one red and one green!"

"Wait a minute!" Han Qianqian frowned and looked at Ginseng Wa incredulously, "How is this possible? You're some kind of plant, and it's a stone?"

Chapter 2580

Thinking of this, Han Qianqian took a few steps to the ginseng wee one and, in the midst of its screams and protests, took a hard look at its seedling plant left and right.

It was a complete plant, without any special ingredients.

"What for? You're still a human being and don't have a dragon living inside you, why can't I, the ginseng wa, live symbiotically with a rock?" The ginseng wa protested.

This was true, but the existence of the demon dragon was nothing more than a consciousness form, a mere soul consciousness remaining in its own consciousness, which was a different concept from the fundamental one in Ginseng Wa's case.

"When I am angry, the fire of the Fire God's Stone grows with my anger! But I can also just release the energy within myself."

"The energy within my own body, however, is all about healing people ....." said Ginseng Wa.

"But the flames released by the Fire God Stone can hurt people, however, at the cost of your body being disintegrated due to overheating." Qin Frost frowned and said.

Ginseng Wa nodded heavily, that day, he had also consumed himself because of the transition to torment Ye Gucheng, so much so that he had basically transformed into his original form.

"That's really interesting." Han Qianqian couldn't help but wonder.

Fire and wood, existences that are completely mutually exclusive, but to maintain symbiosis under such circumstances while doing the opposite by allowing wood to control fire, doesn't that make one wonder!

"So, after rebirth, there are two fruits on Ginseng Wa's body, one is actually the original body, and one is actually nothing more than a Fire God Stone!" Ning Yue said softly.

Han Qianqian nodded, he had been preoccupied at first, so he had mistakenly taken the Fire God Stone to be part of the Ginseng Wa as well.

Now, it seemed that everything was a misunderstanding.

However, there was a detail that Han Qianqian noticed: even though the Ginseng Baby had transformed into its body, the stone was still a part of the Ginseng Baby's body, and the connection between the two was indeed more like a symbiotic coexistence than a simple patchwork, so this made Han Qianqian feel that this was too interesting.

"It seems that the ginseng waifu's origins should not be simple." Han Qianqian couldn't help but faintly sigh.

Ning Yue nodded, such an ingenious grass and stone in one, and with attribute restraint, was indeed unbelievable, so naturally it was not the same thing.

"Can you tell us where you came from?" Ning Yue agreed, asking softly at this point.

"I have no origins." Ginseng Wa vetoed.

Han Qianqian frowned and said nothing, he had actually had doubts about the ginseng waifu for a long time.

How it had somehow appeared near the divine mound, and knew so much about the situation within it, and now, it was even more of a strange grass and stone community.

This fellow was like an incomparably huge doubt, but it was unwilling to speak, and Han Qianqian was unwilling to force it.

"Ginseng wa, just tell us where you came from, it might be helpful to three thousand, besides, you're three thousand's good friend, good friends shouldn't hide anything from each other, shouldn't they?" Qin Frost advised.

"I'm just afraid that if I tell him, I won't even be able to be friends." Ginseng Wa said.

"Why?" If he didn't say so, Han Qianqian was still reluctant to ask more, but the more he did so, the more he drew Han Qianqian to be very curious.

"I've come from the City of Burning Bones, the land of the demons, would you make friends with such a person?" Ginseng Wa said.

"The City of Burning Bones?" Han Qianqian frowned greatly, the City of Burning Bones again, why was everything and everyone around him, invariably pointing himself to that place?

"Then how did you come to run near the God's Mound?"

"Someone told me to go."

"Who?" Han Qianqian frowned at once.

Someone had told him to go to the God's Mound? Who could it be?

This person, naturally, should have some knowledge of the Divine Mound, otherwise, how would he know about the situation inside it?

Could it be that it was one of grandpa's former enemies? Which devil god of the devil race?

But if that was the case, then the only possible reason for the Ginseng Boy to come to the God's Mound on the orders of the Devil God was to steal something from the God's Mound, or to stop someone else from getting it.

So, the Ginseng Boy should not have helped himself to the contents of the mound.

If it wasn't the demons, then who could ..... be?

Huge questions kept pounding Han Qianqian's brain cells.

"I'm not sure, I don't know him, and he didn't tell me his name."

Sure enough, as Han Qianqian had expected.

"But ....." the words had turned, and Ginseng Wa seemed to have remembered something .....
