

His True Color Chapter 2581-2590

Chapter 2581

"But what?" Han Three-thousand frowned.

"I'm not sure." Ginseng Wa shook his head, "I seem to have seen the word Fate on the duster he was holding at first."

A duster?

What did that mean?

"Isn't a duster a Daoist object? Usually only people who have entered the Dao would use something like this." Ning Yue frowned and said in a very strange manner.

"Even if they are not people who have entered the Dao, they are at least people who have emerged from the dust." Qin Frost said with a straight face.

It was true, Han Qianqian thought so too, but the question was, how could a person who had emerged from the dust and entered the dao appear in the land of the devils?

Trapped?

How could he have been trapped there when he could have had the ginseng wares run from there to the God's Mound?!

On the contrary, he was probably very familiar with the route before he allowed anyone else to come and go at will.

But that, again, brought the problem back to the beginning, and prevented Buddha from entering a dead end.

"The word "edge"?" Knowing that she had hit a wall, Neng Yue wouldn't foolishly wind up in a dead end and instead pondered over the literal message on top of the duster.

"Those who can stay peacefully in the City of Burning Bones are bound to be experts of all kinds, and among these experts who can be called the word Fate, one can actually count them on two hands in the Eight Directions world." Qin Frost also said softly.

"The expert seniors with the word Fate in their names who meet the criteria are basically unlikely to have time to appear in the Demon Forbidden Land." Ning Yue said.

As the head of the Baguio Palace, perhaps Qin frost's news of Jianghu was not as outstanding as Jianghu Bai Xiaosheng, but it was not difficult to know the heads and masters of various sects in the same position, so naturally Han Qianqian would not have the slightest doubt about Ning Yue's words.

"Could it be an even older master? I mean, maybe before you were even born?" Han Qianqian asked.

Those who could stay in the Demon Forbidden Land were bound to be experts, but one could not rule out the masters of masters, or even some Worldly Scattered Immortal level high achievers.

These, naturally, Han Qianqian could not let go.

But after a slight moment of reflection, Ning Yue and Qin Shuang looked at each other and shook their heads at Han Qianqian almost simultaneously.

"No, even the seniors from tens of thousands of years ago we have carefully reckoned with."

Looking at the two women's surprisingly unanimous view, Han Qianqian couldn't help but feel even more depressed throughout, which also meant that even the last clue, too, had been interrupted here.

He was really a bit depressed!

"Are there any others?" Han Qianqian asked.

Ginseng Wa thought for a moment and said, "There is nothing else left. I don't even know how I came to this world, anyway, the first person I knew was him, and then he sent me to the God's Mound."

"Then he told you all about the situation within the God's Mound?" Han Qianqian said.

"Not really, he didn't tell me, he just gave me some books to study, and I read about it in them. After that, I came here." Ginseng Wa said.

"This is so strange, but it doesn't seem like we can find out anything else." Nengetsu said.

"I have that feeling too." Qin Frost said.

"So a lot of what you tell me sometimes that even I don't understand, but you do, is what you read in books?" Han Qianqian frowned.

"Yes, it just so happens that I've read it, and you know it, so when my little master's heart showed mercy, I told you." Ginseng Wa said.

"Strange!"

The ginseng wa actually told himself quite a lot of cold knowledge, but by chance, he had so coincidentally read all of these? Was it really a coincidence?

Han Qianqian didn't believe it.

"Three thousand, what's weird?" Qinshang wondered.

Ning Yue was also going to ask, but to be honest, she too always felt as if she already seemed to know everything in front of her, but she always felt that there was something strange somewhere.

It wasn't until they finished the work on the corpse floor that it was time for the evening meal, when Qinshang and Han Nian saw that Han Qianqian was still distractedly thinking about things.

Things had taken a turn for the worse.

Because Han Qianqian was so absorbed in his thoughts that he didn't even move his bowl and chopsticks, not to mention his food. Therefore, Qin Shannon deliberately gave Han Qianqian some dishes, but since Han Qianqian did not even put the rice bowl in front of himself, Han Nian could only hurriedly bring the rice bowl aside to Han Qianqian's side, so that Qin Shannon could put the rice into the bowl.

But just as she was about to put it in, Han Qianqian suddenly raised her head at that moment, "What are you doing?"

"I'm giving you some food, you can't just think about things, you have to eat too, right?" Qin Shannon was startled by the look in Han Qianqian's eyes and explained in a soft voice.

Han Qianqian, however, frowned, and in the next second, he suddenly ran quickly in the direction of the back garden!

Chapter 2582

"Order, is that right?"

"You said that you don't even know how you were born, the first person you knew was him, and he sent you to the God's Mound immediately afterwards, and let me ask you, you don't even know what you're doing here at the God's Mound, right?"

When Han Qianqian rushed to the corpse ground, he immediately spoke sharply to Ginseng Wa.

Behind them, Qin Frost and Ning Yue followed with the others.

"I"

"With your temper, who else can force you to do what you don't want to do? Although you were eager for the divine blood and even wanted to suck my blood, you didn't show a frantic look when you really couldn't get it. This shows that you know that divine blood is precious, but it is not your main purpose."

"Isn't it strange that you don't want the most precious thing within a god's mound, yet you have come all the way from the land of the demons to come here?"

"I know, you can't even say why, because, that's your body's instinct, isn't it?"

Although Han Qianqian's words were long, the sentences hit deep inside Ginseng Wa's heart, and he was puzzled, "How do you know?"

Yes, even today, he was not sure why he had come to the God's Mound. But an inexplicable force had driven himself to this place.

But how could Han Qianqian know what he himself did not know?

"Because I suspect that you, instead of being born and raised in heaven, are artificially cultivated." Han Qianqian said with a straight face.

"Artificially cultivated?"

With a single word, not only was Ginseng Wa incomparably shocked, but even Qin Frost and the others who had rushed over were all frozen in place.

"That man nurtured you, so naturally, in your subconscious mind, he is your master by default, even though you never admit it, and he never says it, and even tells you that you were born and raised by nature, but, there is something subtle that shows this, and that is that you will honestly do tasks that clearly have no meaning to you, just like coming to the God's Mound!" Han Qianqian said with a straight face.

"Ally, the ginseng waifu was deliberately cultivated by someone? Isn't that a little too crazy of an idea?" Ning Yue frowned and said.

"Although crazy, yet, it can exactly explain, the Ginseng Wa's Wood and Stone Community." Han Qianqian returned.

"Ginseng wares are so powerful, if they were simply artificially bred, then wouldn't the person who bred them be so powerful as to be limitless?" Qin Frost said in shock.

Han Qianqian nodded, "So, we may have fallen into a misunderstanding when we looked for this person with the word edge."

"Misunderstanding?"

"Not bad."

As the saying went, if one person got it, all chickens and dogs could rise to heaven, not to mention something carefully cultivated by a top expert.

Therefore, if Han Qianqian's guess was correct, then this person, who might not even be a certain expert from tens of thousands of years ago, could be hundreds of thousands of years old, or even millions of years old.

"Then is there a possibility that, in fact, the Fire God Stone was simply something that was intentionally inlaid on Ginseng Wa's body for the purpose of, well, he wanted to use it to attract you to the City of Burning Bones?" Ning Yue frowned.

Han Qianqian nodded, "It doesn't rule out this possibility."

However, there was a very clever detail here, but the fine print was frightening.

How would that person, how would he know that he would go to the God's Mound? And how could he be sure that he could actually reach the God's Mound?!

Even if he knew beforehand that he would go to the top of Qishan Mountain, the fact that he had fallen into the Endless Abyss was known to everyone.

What's more, whether he went or not, arrived or not, it didn't matter, rightly so as he had arranged it in advance.

What about the Five Elements Divine Stone?

How could this be explained?

That had been obtained only after Han Qianqian had fallen into the Endless Abyss and used the Heavenly Eye Talisman to unintentionally enter the Eight Desolate Heavenly Books and break the trial in the Eight Desolate Heavenly Books.

How could he have predicted that!

How did he know that he would accidentally fall in? And how did he know that he would come out of it safely? And how did he know that he would pass the Five Elements Formation and the Linglong Trial and the Eight Desolate Heavenly Book would give him the Five Elements Divine Stone?

Could it be that he had gone in and out of the Eight Desolate Heavenly Books?!

Chapter 2583

But the Eight Desolate Books of Heaven have said that the last person who entered and left took 1.7 billion years to see it, and then took 6 or 7 billion years to leave it.

At full count, that person also spent at least nearly eight billion years of light! Although, that was the time in the Eight Wastelands Heavenly Book, even if you convert it to the Eight Worlds', nearly eight billion years is equivalent to hundreds of thousands of years that have passed outside.

He, was he the one?

Han Qianqian did not rule out this possibility, for Han Qianqian's speculation about the master of the word Fate was also in this time period, and the two matched perfectly!

It was possible that this was not as simple as a coincidence.

At this moment, Han Qianqian's mind came back to a person.

"True Floater!"

Could it be him?

From the time of his Heaven's Eye talisman, Han Qianqian had already been very suspicious of this strange old man who came and went without a trace.

Now, Han Qianqian thought of him once again.

Only he could control the possibility of entering the Endless Abyss!

He was also the only one who had given himself the Heavenly Eye talisman that could break the Endless Abyss!

It was very strange at first, but now, when I recall it carefully, it was amazingly able to fit together!

This old man, was he just overthinking things? Or was he clearly an important part of it?

However, to solve this mystery once and for all, Han Qianqian had no other choice, so a trip to the City of Burning Bones seemed to be the only option at the moment!

"Since so many people want me to go to the City of Burning Bones." Han Qianqian smiled gently, "It seems that we'll have to advance our plans to the City of Burning Bones as soon as possible."

"However, it is still unclear whether the other party is an enemy or a friend, and with so many people wanting us to go to the City of Burning Bones, I'm afraid this trip will be difficult, the more so, the more steady we must be." Qin Frost said.

"I also agree." Ning Yue also said.

Han Qianqian nodded, "That's also why I'm returning to Immortal Spirit Island, it's getting late, let's all go and rest."

After sending everyone off, Han Qianqian did not go back to his house to rest, but at that moment, walked into the refinement room.

In the refining room, Liu Fang, Blade Twelve, Mo Yang and Jiang Hu Bai Xiao Sheng were all still practicing, and the six Liu Sa Jiang Bei monsters who had come over in the afternoon, including Zi Ei, were also in a state of meditation.

As Han Qianqian entered with Han Nian in his arms, the group opened their eyes en masse.

"Three thousand!"

"Alliance Master!"

Han Qianqian nodded while his internal breath was released across the room, then smiled in satisfaction, "It seems that you've all made divine progress."

"It's all thanks to the divine pills from the alliance master, if it weren't for these treasures, how would we have made such divine progress?"

"If we didn't have these pills, we wouldn't have been able to afford two or three of these pills in our lifetime, but with you, it's like a meal, so if we didn't have some sudden progress, we'd be doing you a disservice."

The big cake day and several brothers said cheerfully, inwardly excited even after cultivating for a long time, still can not calm, a little bit of it.

It was just a matter of repaying a kindness in the jianghu, coupled with their admiration for Han Qianqian's reputation, so they joined the Mystic Alliance, but how could they have imagined that this was not a kindness they were repaying, but clearly finding a thick thigh that they had never dared to think of in their lives.

The pills were all they could get, and even thinking about it was a fucking luxury that drove people crazy!

Mo Yang smiled and didn't say anything, they were good brothers who had long been bound to each other by life and death, so naturally they didn't need such polite words, and they were used to Han Qianqian's "tycoon" behaviour.

However, while everyone was very happy, Han Qianqian noticed that Ziyou, who was at the far end of the room, was looking down and sullen.

Liu Sa, who was accompanying her, was clutching her hand tightly, and when Han Qianqian's eyes looked over, she wanted to say something but stopped.

Han Qianqian said softly, "What's wrong?"

Liu Sa glanced at Zi Ei who was next to her, but finally did not say anything.

At this moment, Han Qianqian walked over with a few steps, and then, his breath gently lifted Zi Eo's hand up in the air, and then another overhead shot of energy directly into her jade arm.

A group of people also quickly followed suit.

Only, when Han Qianqian poured the energy into her body for a few moments, he could not help but frown at once: "How how can this be?"

Chapter 2584

"Have you taken all the pills?" Han Qianqian asked with a frown.

Violet Emotion blushed, lowered her head, and nodded her head.

"Actually, not only has Xiao Qi eaten the elixir, but also, he's the one who has eaten the most out of us." Liu Sa spoke up.

"Sister gave me all her pills to eat, but" Zi Ei said, her whole being obviously very sad.

After all, to her, although everyone's pills managed to fill up, the quantity was shared equally among everyone, but, in order to worry about Zi Eo's health condition, sixth sister Liu Sa gave all of her share of pills to Zi Eo as well.

"Lord, I'm sorry, I know it was unruly of me to take matters into my own hands, and I'm willing to accept any punishment." Liu Sa bowed her head and said.

"The things were divided equally to each of you in the hope that each of you could have a stable promotion in order to have the ability to better protect yourselves in times of danger." Han Qianqian said softly but softly, "But the amount is set, as for how to use it, it is your own problem."

After making it clear that he would not be punished for distributing the pills privately, Han Qianqian looked patiently at Liu Sa, "The City of Burning Bones is dangerous, but now that you are losing the chance to improve again, do you regret it?"

"The Seven Monsters of Jiangbei have always been six to protect one, now, it's just become four to protect two."

"The big deal is a death, what is there to fear."

The few monsters of Jiangbei, led by Big Biscuit Sky, suddenly said with unparalleled determination.

"In fact, taking it to the seventh sister might not work in the slightest this, we seven siblings have already discussed it, if it doesn't work, the four brothers will protect us with all their might." Liu Sa said softly.

Han Qianqian nodded and smiled unexpectedly, "I have no intention of blaming you all, Mo Yang."

"Yes!"

"You go to the alchemy room and fetch some more pills for Liu Sa." Han Qianqian said softly.

Mo Yang nodded and walked out with quick steps.

"Allied Lord this" Liu Sa immediately looked at Han Qianqian in dismay, in fact, the matter of sharing pills privately, even though the seven monsters had already prepared for the worst, but that was for themselves.

To Han Qianqian here account, they thought is not extravagant he can forgive, only hope that Han Qianqian not too angry, but where to think, Han Qianqian not only not the slightest bit of anger, but also

"You guys are right, when we are all together, we have to be twisted into a rope, not divided into you and me. Therefore, I don't think there is anything wrong with your methods." Han Qianqian smiled gently, and then, his body slightly sat beside Zi Ei's.

"But", Han Qianqian frowned and glanced at Zi Eo with a frown.

With energy in his hand again, he tapped directly on her shoulder, and this time, all of Han Qianqian's true qi went directly down Zi Eo's entire body meridians carefully.

No!

After cultivating for so long and under the augmentation of a large number of divine pills, not to mention Zi Eo, even for an ordinary person, that should have forged at least some bases.

It's like a ton of food, even if you can't gain weight, but if you eat it in your stomach, you'll gain some weight for a short time.

The only exception to this is the Purple Emotion.

There was no trace of energy in her body, not even a trace of energy flowing through her. If she hadn't seen it with her own eyes, even if someone had told Han Qianqian that Ziyu hadn't taken any pills or cultivated at all, Han Qianqian would have believed it.

The geese have to leave a sound, the birds have to leave a hair.

But this

But just when Han Qianqian was incredibly puzzled, suddenly he frowned, among all the meridians of the purple love, suddenly there was an extremely hidden little white mass that leapt through the meridians.

Han Qianqian wanted to continue to pursue it, but the true qi that was being poured into her body at this time was also running dry.

What was that thing?

Without further thought, Han Qianqian's hands exerted a force, and even more powerful chaos energy drained straight in, then spread frantically throughout all of Zi Qing's meridians.

The energy was consumed at a further rapid rate, but the spreading across the meridians also allowed Han Qianqian to block that white mass at this point, firmly in a certain dead end.

It was a white mass, wrapped in intense white Qi, and inside it, there seemed to be a small object hidden.

Han Qianqian slightly adjusted his Chaos Qi, pulling out a sliver and slowly moving towards the white blob, trying to figure out what the white blob in front of him was.

But what struck Han Qianqian as strange was that as soon as his energy came into contact with the small white mass, something strange happened

Chapter 2585

Han Qianqian's entire body felt like it was being sucked in by some kind of vortex, and instead of rummaging through the past chaotic power to find out what exactly this thing was, it was directly sucked in by it, and countless energies were then continuously absorbed by it.

The energy that had covered almost all of Zi Emotion's meridians was like a spider's web being caught in the centre, flying towards it.

Han Qianqian hurriedly lucked out and tried to stop it.

But the powerful pulling force not only did not allow Han Qianqian to stop it, but instead, through Han Qianqian, the body of the source, it absorbed even more desperately and crazily.

Han Qianqian's forehead was sweating, what the hell is this, a bloodsucker?

Although Han Qianqian was confident that if he increased his energy, he would definitely be able to make the more powerful chaos power reverse and break free from the little white mass's crazy sucking.

If Han Qianqian had to increase the energy, Han Qianqian was not sure if the little white mass could subdue it, but he was clear about one thing, and that was that Purple Emotion would instantly die from the explosion of her meridians.

She simply could not withstand too much energy entering her body.

How could this be done?

The powerful suction made Han Qianqian sweat profusely at this point, and the huge consumption also made Han Qianqian's face start to turn slightly white.

If this continued, Han Qianqian could be sucked dry by this guy.

The only choice was to either give up completely and forfeit all his previous work, or to find out what this little white mass was and perhaps prescribe the right medicine.

The former was not only not Han Qianqian's style of action, but most importantly, if he rashly withdrew his qi, both himself and Zi Ei would both lose their lives due to the backlash.

Han Qianqian could be unafraid of getting hurt, but what about Zi Ei?

She had only just recovered from her nightmare injury, and if she was injured again, it was questionable whether her frail body would be able to stay alive.

The only option was the latter.

But how could Han Qianqian figure out this little white mass now that her hands were also as tied?

Unless!!!

The Heaven's Eye Charm!

But what the Heaven's Eye Charm would bring would be to look at her body in all its glory.

However, it was important to find out what was happening to her body, and there was no other choice, I couldn't just watch myself being sucked dry, or her being shaken to death by the repercussions!

As Han Qianqian mouthed a silent thought, a shimmering light burst out between his eyes.

Even the small white mass in the meridians, not to mention Ziyou's body, was now incomparably clear in Han Qianqian's eyes.

It was a small mass covered by white energy, and although it was small, the trajectory and shape of the white energy was like that of a tornado of level ten.

What supported the movement of all this was a small black nucleus hidden inside the wildly spinning white energy.

It was the size of sand and dust.

But it was also this sand-like dust that was frantically and desperately absorbing Han Qianqian's chaotic power.

"So it's you, fellow, but what exactly are you?" Han Qianqian frowned slightly and looked more closely at the little thing in the white "storm".

"If it weren't for the presence of Taotie, I'd be wondering if you were Taotie." Han Qianqian frowned.

As Han Qianqian's gaze continued to grow, the sandy, dusty object became clearer and clearer in Han Qianqian's eyes.

Until finally, Han Qianqian was surprised to find that this small black kernel-like thing was not something.

To be precise, it was just an outer layer wrapped around something.

Inside it, there was a real thing lying quietly on the ground.

A box within a box!

Almost immediately, Han Qianqian reflected.

The real thing was the thing in the walnut kernel!

It resembled a small leathery egg, protected first by a black, somewhat transparent layer, while on the very outside, a raging, incomparable, storm-like white air enveloped it.

It was ridiculously small and at the same time had such precise layers of protection.

If not for Han Qianqian's heavenly eye being too bullish, he might not have really discovered the secret in each of these.

It was because this one was just too small.

As Han Qianqian pushed his energy again, the Heavenly Eye talisman was also pushed to the limit. The thing wrapped in the black sphere was now in front of Han Qianqian, revealing its original face.

Only, looking at this thing, Han Qianqian's whole body was frozen

It could not be called unimaginable, but only a thousand and one strange things!

Chapter 2586

A lion with a tiger's face and wings on its back, with the slightest hint of imperceptible black and red flames hidden between its wings and legs, and lion paws glowing brightly, like red-hot iron placed in a fire.

What is this thing?

Han Qianqian's face was frozen, although the thing was small, its appearance was truly terrifying and shocking.

It was like a demonic thing.

"Poor Poor Qi?" Suddenly, a term quickly appeared in Han Qianqian's mind.

One of the ancient fierce beasts, Poor Qi!

Only, the Poor Qi was as big as an ox, but the one in front of him was like gravel.

"After all this, were you the one who ate all the energy and stuff out of the purple love body?" Han Qianqian's face was icy as he said in a deep voice.

"All of you, come over here." Han Qianqian shouted softly.

Hearing Han Qianqian's shout, a group of people all hurriedly gathered around, seeing that Han Qianqian was already covered in sweat and in a bad situation, the crowd was also worried.

"Don't all freeze, all of you gather your spiritual energy on Liu Sa's body. Liu Sa you will take your hand over my left hand and place it on Zi Ei's left shoulder." Han Qianqian said sharply.

Hearing Han Qianqian's words, Liu Sa immediately looked at Han Qianqian with quite a bit of anxiety, "Is something wrong with Ziyu she?"

"Do it when you're told to, no nonsense." Han Qianqian said in a cold voice.

Liu Sa nodded helplessly, her left hand fiercely took Han Qianqian's hand and gently placed it on Zi Ei's left shoulder.

"Everyone listen to my command!" Han Qianqian commanded, sweeping his eyes open at the crowd.

The crowd nodded their heads.

"Three, two, one, move!"

As Han Qianqian's words fell, a group of people consciously lined up in a row before combining their forces to instantly launch.

Boom!

An extremely strong energy instantly assaulted Zi Eo's body, while at almost the same time, Han Qianqian fiercely drew his own chaos power.

Barely missing by a hair's breadth, the two forces dovetailed perfectly.

The group felt like they had hit a big sucking hole, and their spiritual energy drained away like crazy.

At this moment, Han Qianqian shouted coldly, "Hold on."

In the next second, the chaotic force split into two strands, one directly covering Purple Emotion's meridians to ensure that they could withstand the two strands of energy rushing in.

The other strand of energy was directed towards the small white mass that was sucking Liu Sa's spiritual energy, and quickly wrapped it up.

The creature seemed to sense the danger it was in and resisted frantically, attempting to break through Han Qianqian's wrapping.

However, Han Qianqian had already gained the upper hand, and the power of Chaos was the strongest power in the world, so in just a few strokes, the little white mass was completely enveloped by the power of Chaos.

"Withdraw!" Han Qianqian shouted in a low voice, and after everyone had withdrawn their spiritual energy, he himself left a trace of Chaos Qi behind to repair Purple Emotion's meridians and began the rest of his movements.

"All of you go down and rest." Han Qianqian glanced at everyone.

The group looked at each other, nodded, and retreated.

And at that moment, Han Qianqian rolled over and flipped Ziyou over to face himself, and with a point in his hand, he struck straight at his eyebrow, after which the chaos power entered through his eyebrow.

"It will hurt, bear with it." Han Qianqian said gently.

Although Ziyou was scared, she was very obedient to Han Qianqian, so she gritted her teeth and closed her eyes, letting Han Qianqian do what he wanted.

As the chaos power entered her body again, Zi Eo did not feel as uncomfortable as she did last time, on the contrary, she felt as comfortable as a warm stream in spring.

She quietly opened her eyes to look at Han Qianqian, who was frowning in front of her, seriously building her foundation, and the firm face under the sweat was so charming.

He wasn't as cold as he thought he was either, he still helped himself when he needed it most.

Thinking about this, Zi Ei's heart was sweet.

Plus, Han Qianqian was right in front of her, and she could even feel his rough breathing, and for a while, Zi Eo was even a little bit confused.

But at that moment, all of a sudden, an extremely strong and sharp pain came violently

"Mmm!"

Purple Love let out a painful low hatred, her entire face instantly paled, and her fragrant sweat dripped with it.

"Meditate, guard the stage."

Han Qianqian's voice was heard in her ears, and Zi Ei nodded gently, clenching her shell teeth and closing her eyes lightly as she forced herself to endure despite the pain.

"Does it hurt?" Han Qianqian asked, "Can you bear it?"

"Yes!" Zi Ei nodded vigorously.

"That's good!" As soon as Han Qianqian's words fell, the force in his hand increased again.

Ziyou felt even more incomparable pain for a moment, but soon, she suddenly opened her eyes in surprise

Chapter 2587

"The next one will be comfortable." Han Qianqian whispered.

The pain disappeared, and what changed instead was that the abdomen became very warm.

It was as if a pair of large hands were gently caressing it.

All at once, Zi Eo only felt the blood in her body boiling and a strange desire was surrounding her.

A strange set of images even surfaced in her mind.

When this set of images appeared, she couldn't help but blush and blush, and was ashamed for a moment.

But at this moment, Han Qianqian's eyes were tightly closed as he earnestly repaired her meridians, opened them up, and then completed the basic foundation building for her in her dantian.

Without that strange gadget to mess things up, Han Qianqian proceeded very smoothly.

When the night had come and the moon was high in the sky, Ziyu's dantian had been completed, not to say how impressive it was, but at least she would be able to practise normally from now on.

Everything, it was a great success, just

"Get on her"

Suddenly, just at that moment, the voice of the demon dragon rang out in his head.

After the battle with the demon monk, this guy fell into a coma due to the thunderbolt, and now he was awake at some point, and what came out was such a sentence that left Han Qianqian speechless.

"Get out of my way." Han Qianqian cursed.

"You idiot, this woman obviously likes you, look at her expression now, how is it different from a woman's? Obviously in love, as long as you are willing, she will definitely not resist." The devil dragon said sharply.

"You've been struck by lightning and your brain is damaged, right? How about I give you another one?" Han Qianqian said without good humour.

Apart from Su Yingxia, any woman didn't interest him.

"Look at you, dog biting Lu Dongbin, not knowing the heart of a good man, I'm fucking doing that for your own good. If this woman likes me and I have my own body, I'll be damned in the morning." After saying that, the devil dragon sighed helplessly, "Hey, you kid, it's just a waste."

"What do you mean?" Han Qianqian frowned.

"This woman is a once-in-a-lifetime holy body, brother, do you know what that means?"

"What?"

"This is the fucking ceiling in the body that a woman can have, if you fuck this woman, with your golden body plus her holy body, the child born will definitely be a dragon and a phoenix among men, and I'm not bragging to say that the minimum lower limit is the level of a true god on one side."

"Shit, are you kidding me? Is it that close?"

"Shit, I'm a demon dragon, are you kidding me? Would you or I be happy to fuck her? Do I need to cheat you for your pleasure? Also, I never lie to people. If I wanted to cheat you, would you have found the flaw in my words when you were inside my nightmare?" The devil dragon said in a depressed voice.

This, Han Qianqian did not deny and nodded, "That's true."

"It's also a chicken, so why don't you hurry up? To be honest, this girl's body is special, but her looks are also excellent, pure and innocent, but with a hint of wildness in her eyes.

"Yes, she's quite good looking." Han Qianqian said as he directly increased his spiritual power and directly shielded this goods.

Han Qianqian could even think of how mad this bastard would be after being shielded, even giving himself the middle finger across the air.

However, this devil dragon knew a lot about the holy body, which was a bit surprising to Han Qianqian.

After shielding the Devil Dragon, Han Qianqian also did the last bit of wrapping up, and immediately after, he let go of his hands that were pointing straight at the Purple Emotion.

Letting out a long breath, Han Qianqian slowly opened his eyes, while Purple Emotion likewise opened his eyes.

The two of them looked at each other and smiled at each other, finally settling their troubles.

But in the next second, Purple Emotion suddenly a flushed face, while Han Qianqian was also dumbfounded.

Because at this moment

Her face was as pale as paper and her body was drenched in sweat, as if she had just come out of a bath, but because of this, her clothes had already begun to be transparent and cling to her body because they were so wet, and her exquisite figure was suddenly on display.

She felt it herself, and her face flushed red, so she hurriedly pulled her dress to wrap it around her body as much as possible.

But she obviously ignored the fact that she thought Han Qianqian froze because of her current situation, but in fact, Han Qianqian froze because

The heavenly eye was opened.

Under the heavenly eye, it seemed that there was no difference between the purple love pulling and not pulling, but rather a feeling of wanting to cover up

"Now transport down the qi." Han Qianqian gave an awkward dry cough to resolve the embarrassment at hand, followed by turning off the Heavenly Eye talisman, while taking off his jacket and draping it over Zi'er's body.

Ziyou looked at Han Qianqian gratefully, and then, obediently closing her eyes, she felt her dantian and then ran her luck.

At once, a faint energy gently floated up within her body, and although it was unusually weak, it was enough to make Zi Eo happy.

Because, at least now she was beginning to have cultivation.

"Run the Thirty-six Circumstances." Han Qianqian said.

Zi Emotion nodded and followed Han Qianqian's method, entering into meditation.

A few hours later, Zi Ei's meditation ended and she slowly opened her eyes.

At this moment, her pale face had slightly shone and turned rosy, her breathing was no longer delicate, and with the spiritual energy in her body, her already jade-like skin had become even whiter and more beautiful.

"Is it gone?" Zi Ei looked around, but she did not see Han Qianqian's figure, so she could not help but add a bit more gloom to her beautiful eyes, and her heart was even more lost.

To her, it was indeed a beautiful thing to be able to suddenly resolve her inability to cultivate for many years.

But the short time she spent alone with Han Qianqian was the most wonderful time of her life.

The night sky was dark and frozen, and the hidden stars were high.

In the alchemy room, the lights were still bright.

The Double Dragon Cauldron was still running at full speed, and there was now a small flame underneath the cauldron to help it burn.

Next to the fire, a few iron forks are holding a few pieces of meat, gently leaning to the side, and they are bubbling with oil from being roasted.

Next to the tripod, a pair of long legs draped over a chair, and in front of it, a body reclining on it.

His eyes are slightly locked, his brow furrowed, and he is holding a book in his hand which he is turning over intently, with a thick pile of books piled up beside him.

He lightly dabbed some saliva in his mouth with his hand, then turned a page of the book.

Suddenly, Han Qianqian frowned and said in a cold voice, "What? Do you find feeding mosquitoes a little more interesting outside?"

As soon as the words left his mouth, the door slammed and Lin Long transformed into his human form and walked in with a skewered mouth, "Shit, have you ever seen a mosquito bite a dragon?"

Han Qianqian smiled and faintly manipulated the roasted meat on the fire, casually tossing a skewer to Lin Long before picking up a skewer himself and eating it.

"Winged deer meat?" Taking the skewer, the Lin Long froze and sniffed it, "Quite a good eater, huh?"

Han Qianqian swept it a glance, thinking it was talking about his own barbecue, but didn't deny it and said, "What? Don't you allow me to take a break from my busy schedule?"

"Yes, of course I'm allowed, it's time to make up for it." Lin Long nodded and took a bite, the taste was indeed good.

However, Han Qianqian frowned and raised his eyes slightly, "You kid have something in your words, huh?"

"What do you mean it's time for a tonic?"

In the face of Han Qianqian's question, Lin Long just heatedly smiled, "Aiya, although I am a dragon and you are a human, we are both males, and between us brothers, what is there to pretend? Don't pretend don't pretend, let's get down to business."

"Shit, I was going to talk about business, but you're not talking about business when you're fucking talking about business? What's going on here? You tell me clearly!" Han Qianqian frowned, and the whole person instantly felt that the skewer in his hands didn't smell good anymore.

Lin Long ate with disinterest, "Shit, don't pretend, all the people in our backyard know about this."

They all know?

What the hell is this?

"You guys wouldn't" Han Qianqian's heart suddenly got a little cold

Chapter 2589

"What won't you do, bull-crap, really bull-crap, I used to look down on you, a tiny human, but now, this dragon has five bodies."

Then the bastard rustily broke his fingers, "One, three, four, shit, four hours, bull-crap!"

"Simply scum."

Looking at Lin Long's sighing appearance, Han Qianqian was already so angry that he was about to vomit blood.

"What the hell are you talking about? Talking to me about purple love?" Han Qianqian slightly adjusted his breathing and tried to suppress his anger.

"Hardly talking about me?" Lin Long laughed.

"You made up the rumour about this, didn't you?" Han Qianqian said with a leathery smile.

"What do you mean by rumours? Shit, in the cultivation room you suddenly called everyone out, is it not conclusive evidence? And you're still talking about a bunch of nonsense!

"How the hell is that evidence? What the hell did I say, what do you mean there's nothing there?" Han Qianqian said in a depressed voice.

"Shit, I heard about it as soon as I got back to the island, and a whole bunch of people out there heard it for themselves, and you still deny it? Did you say it was a little painful at first?"

"Yes"

"And then what did you say?"

Han Qianqian froze.

"Shit, that's right!"

"Ny code I" Han Qianqian froze for a moment, his entire body completely dumbfounded in place.

This is indeed what he said no doubt, how how the fuck has it suddenly changed?!

"And then do I need to say more!"

"Shit, I fucking that was helping Purple Emotion build her foundation!"

"Ugh, I know, I know. After all, it's clear to anyone that Purple Emotion couldn't cultivate at all since she was a child, but after being specifically and carefully known by you, she suddenly had cultivation, so it's not obvious."

"Hehehe!" After saying that, Lin Long gave a lewd smile hehehe.

"You fucking" Han Qianqian was so angry that he was about to stand up on the spot.

"What? You still want to kill the dragon to silence him? Unfortunately, you killed one of me, there are thousands of me." After saying that, the bastard really pretended to shake his head and sighed.

The first time I saw him, he was so speechless, what the hell is this?

"If you keep spouting shit, I really don't mind adding some dragon meat to my barbecue." Han Qianqian gave him a speechless blank look, and then, with a straight face, said, "Get down to business."

"Okay, okay, I'm just joking with you, if others take it seriously, how can I? Who doesn't know that you only have one Su Yingxia in your heart?" Lin Long laughed and sat down on his butt, then, once the joke was withdrawn from his face, he said with a straight face, "I've already checked out what you asked me to check."

Han Qianqian didn't say anything and looked at Lin Long with a frown.

"It's far messier than you think." Lin Long said softly.

As the wave of people were heading back to Immortal Spirit Island, Han Qianqian had noticed several large cities covered in black clouds as they flew, and had occasionally encountered passersby in a hurry along the way, his intuition telling Han Qianqian that something might be going on.

"With Heavenly Lake City and Firestone City at the centre, several large cities have been continuously conquered in recent days, and countless cities have been decimated as a result. The black clouds that you see are basically covering the sphere of influence of the Fu and Ye families, or the sphere of influence of the Cool-Son Yeh City."

"I'm not surprised by Cool-Son Yeh, but what about the two Fuye families?" Han Qianqian frowned.

"I don't know, they're taking cities every day, and strangely enough, those quacks have been on a roll lately, countless large cities have barely been able to fight back in front of them."

Han Qianqian frowned, with the sudden increase in battle power, as well as the black clouds pressing down, what was clear was that it was highly likely that the two Fu Ye's had joined the Demon Clan as well!

"It seems that the devil race has already begun to stain the earth." Han Qianqian said.

"Strangely enough, there is no movement on either side of the Top of the Blue Mountain and the Eternal Sea." Lin Long said.

"The talk is full of benevolence and morality, but in reality they are all just serving their own interests. Now that the two families are facing each other, naturally no one wants to expend any effort on the Demons, lest the snipe and the clam fight for the fisherman's profit." Han Qianqian said with disdain.

Lin Long nodded, obviously Han Qianqian's words were extremely reasonable, "However, there are two very strange things that you must know, because it concerns our trip to the City of Burning Bones."

"What is it?" Han Qianqian's brow furrowed and he looked closely at Lin Long at once

Chapter 2590

"The first thing is, the relationship between the two Fuye families and Cool-Son Yeh should not be considered good, right?" Lin Long said.

Han Qianqian thought about it and finally nodded.

It was indeed unlikely that Cool-Son Yeh would have any dealings with the two Fu Ye families, the two sides themselves were on different sides. Moreover, even if they came together for some reason, with Cool-Son Yeh's arrogance, he naturally did not see eye to eye with the two Fu Ye families, while the Fu family, led by the two oddballs, Fu Tian and Fu Mei, would, obviously, not get along with Cool-Son Yeh either.

Enemies, may put aside their hatred for a short while because of the same interests, but people full of greed and arrogance, never will.

In their case, they would fall into the latter category.

"But recently, these two families have been surprisingly similar in many things." After receiving Han Qianqian's affirmation, Lin Long wondered.

"The cities within the spheres of influence of the two families are both overwhelmed by black clouds, and if that wasn't strange enough, then what's happening inside the cities is simply too unbelievable."

Hearing this, Han Qianqian frowned, "What does that mean?"

"As long as the city is captured by these two families, the city is in chaos, it is not enough that men are killed and women are humiliated, the most bizarre thing is that many young girls in the city keep disappearing"

"Missing girls?" Han Qianqian suddenly frowned.

Obviously, the disappearance of young girls was familiar to Han Qianqian.

This was because it had been several times that Han Qianqian had met young girls being abducted for so long.

But because of this, Han Qianqian became even more interested and suspicious of this matter at once.

"Every day, at least hundreds of young girls go missing, and the most exaggerated are the two main strongholds of Heavenly Lake City and Firestone City, where there are tens of thousands of inhabitants in the city, or even as many as a hundred thousand in some cases, but there is no longer a single young girl of delicate age." Lin Long said.

"The most unbelievable thing is that something has happened, originally where the Firestone Ye Kucheng and the Tianhu Fu Ye family are both key targets of suspicion, but some righteous people have checked these two families and there is nothing wrong with them."

"Cool-Son Yeh and Ye Shijun have no problem?" Han Qianqian said.

"They have been suspected, however, their wives are both small and famous family millennials, if it happened that a young girl was abducted, one or two would be fine, with such a number, how could their wives not know?"

Han Qianqian smiled coldly, but he felt that the matter was by no means that simple.

Just because there were no clues, it didn't mean that these few people were out of the picture, because Han Qianqian knew that it was the habit of these people to imprison women underground, so how could it be so easy to find someone in an ordinary search?

"It's just a cover-up, two ladies? I see them as more of a target for them now." Han Qianqian laughed coldly.

"It's just a pity that I have important matters to attend to, otherwise I would really like to make a trip to these cities, I'm sure I'll get something out of it." Han Qianqian's face was regretful, there were probably an unknown number of innocent young girls hidden under the ground of their two families. "Why don't I go and have a look tomorrow."

Although he didn't have a Heavenly Locus Pixie, with his own Tai Xu Divine Step, his speed wasn't too bad to go there single-handedly.

A few days' round trip should still be in time for the large group to leave.

"I don't think you'll have to go looking for them, they're coming for you." Lin Long laughed.

Han Qianqian frowned, "What does that mean? Have they come looking for Immortal Spirit Island?"

"This is the second strange thing I am talking about." After Lin Long finished speaking, he took a bite off a skewer and ate it into his mouth before saying, "On the way to the City of Burning Bones, there are many black clouds looming over us and spreading all the way in the direction we're going!"

"What?" Hearing this, Han Qianqian frowned for a moment, "You mean that Ye Shijun and the two Fu Ye families' men and horses are also heading to the City of Burning Bones?"

"I was also wondering about this, so in private I even disguised myself as my current appearance to inquire. It's because I really can't understand why the two groups of people who are busy attacking the city now would suddenly appear in this vicinity, which is not in line with common sense." Lin Long frowned and said.

"What was the result?" Han Qianqian asked.

"It's really them! Even though they were very stealthy in their movements, someone still recognised them." Lin Long said.

Han Qianqian's teeth clenched slightly, the answer was expected, "I'm not surprised that Ye Kucheng went to the City of Burning Bones, but Ye Shijun and the Fu family, why would they go?"

But then, Han Qianqian was smiling
