

His True Color Chapter 2631-2640

Chapter 2631

As soon as the words left their mouths, the two of them almost simultaneously substituted their qi bodies, and as the two of them formed a seal with one hand, their qi was carried between their fingers and a point in the air.

"Break!"

The whole world changed abruptly, and before their eyes was a grey world, with no end in sight, and no edge visible.

The two of them instantly leaned on each other's backs again, holding their long swords in their hands as they scanned the surroundings.

"Three thousand, where is this place?" Qin Shuang said in a soft voice.

Han Qianqian had long since opened his celestial eyes, but the more he looked, the more puzzled he became: "In the earth!"

"In the earth?" Qin Shannon was stunned.

But shouldn't there be continuous mud in the earth? And why would there be such a space?!

"To be precise, it's in those three strange mountains." Han Qianqian said softly, "However, it doesn't look like that, because the surroundings are artificially sealed with a very strange power."

"Interesting!" At this moment, a gentle female voice rang out faintly, a voice like a bell, hollow and full of a few sharpness and vicissitudes.

As this voice rang out, a silhouette slowly emerged from the haze of grey, half-hanging in the air.

Although her hand had not been placed on the zither, she could already hear the gentle sound of the zither entering her ears, the gentle sound of the zither paired with her slightly sharp voice did not clash in any way, but only complemented each other.

It was as if one was in the realm of immortality.

Looking for the sound, Han Qianqian and Qin Shoucheng turned around halfway at the same time, but still shoulder to shoulder, in a defensive stance, staring at the woman with a deadly stare.

Although both of them had high cultivation levels, they were clearly aware at this point that they could not be careless.

"What a handsome man and a beautiful woman, I really didn't expect that there would be such a beautiful woman in the world." She smiled gently, and at this point the grey haze faded away, revealing a stunningly beautiful face.

Although it was not as beautiful as Qin Shuang or Lu Ruoxin, it was by no means comparable to ordinary women.

"You are Huang Sha Daxian?" Han Qianqian was slightly surprised, after all, a person who specialized in stealing and killing women should moreover be a man in common sense.

This Huang Sha Daxian turned out to be a woman, which was rather surprising.

"Huang Sha Daxian?" She smiled gently, as beautiful as a landscape: "I prefer to be called the Ancestor of the Earth Immortals!"

"How can you call yourself an immortal? You're just a demon." Qin Shuang said in a cold voice.

"You girl, you have sharp teeth and a sharp tongue. However, who made you look pretty." She laughed gently, not angry, "Later, I'll let you use your wench's mouth for something else!"

"Just by you?" Han Qianqian laughed lightly and blandly.

"I'm tired of hearing that from you, this immortal!" As soon as the words fell, his hand lifted.

In an instant, the grey haze under Han Qianqian's feet dispersed, and the ground was covered with several white capped bones.

Obviously, these were all experts who had once passed by this place and wanted to take out their anger for the villagers, but in the end, only ghastly white bones were left behind.

"Will there be any difference between you and them?" The woman laughed softly, wickedly, and her seductive eyes leaked even more blood.

The next second, she suddenly flipped the long zither in her arms and flicked it violently with her beautiful hand.

"Clang clang!"

The sound of the zither abruptly transformed into two waves of light and instantly attacked.

"A trivial skill!"

Han Qianqian shouted coldly, and the chaotic Qi in her hand was released onto the jade sword, which shook away the light waves created by the zither sounds with a violent surge of energy!

Almost at the same time, Qin Shang also slightly lucked out, and the Demon Subduing Divine Sword in his hand suddenly shot up into the air, almost at the same time as Han Qianqian blocked the light wave of the woman opposite, the Demon Subduing Divine Sword also fiercely transformed into several sword shadows, directly attacking the woman.

"Brush!"

Several consecutive sword shadows attacked the woman, and the woman quickly strummed a few strings in her hand, directly defusing them.

However, she was unable to resist the last sword and could only dodge it with a slight sideways glance, but when she looked back, there was already a cut on her face and blood was pouring out!

She gently touched the wound, and her face was a mixture of anger and a bit of laughter, "So it's a pair of dogs with special bodies!"

"Interesting!"

"I suddenly wonder, what kind of sinful child would you two dogs and men, who shouldn't be good and evil, give birth to a child?" Having said that, she laughed hideously.

Chapter 2632

"If you want to give birth, you can do it yourself." Han Qianqian bellowed coldly, and in the next second, the jade sword clicked, and a cold aura was about to arrive.

"It's none of your business if the two of us have a baby or not." Qin Shannon also bellowed coldly, and the Demon Subduing Divine Sword, empowered by her aura, struck straight at the woman's brow.

But

The attack with the power of the two of them was not invincible, but at least it would be hard to find an opponent.

The woman seemed to be close at hand, but in reality, she was far away from the sky.

The woman didn't even move a bit, she just looked at the two of them and laughed, making them embarrassed for a while.

"Break!"

However, at that very moment, the woman's hands moved and the zither arrived.

The two people barely even had time to reflect, and the next second they were directly shaken back by the sound of the zither.

Just as the two men were slightly resisting and preparing to re-attack, suddenly, the gentle and flowing sound of the zither changed into a rush, just like the light of a sword.

What was even more terrifying was that while the sound of the zither was so stirring, no more zither waves came, but both of their bodies were completely imprisoned in place.

The next second, both of them frowned almost simultaneously, the pain coming from their Yuan Shen not only made them no longer able to fight back, the long swords in their hands fell off, and the people even clutched their heads in pain, barely able to even stand up, their whole bodies could not help but stagger.

Immediately afterwards, the state of the two men began to change, one with a red face and the other with a dazed look in his eyes, as if he had been drugged with something for a while.

At this moment, both of them, their blood seemed to be burning wildly.

"You bitch!" Han Qianqian shouted angrily, although he had already used his spiritual energy to stabilize his mind at this time, the blood red of his eyes was still lit up more brightly, and his will, which had always exceeded that of ordinary people, was actually a little lost at this time, and his head was about to split open under the confusion.

The whole man's blood was tumbling, and an inexplicable impulse began to soak his whole body.

Qin Shannon was no better, her mind had long been confused and she was in a trance, not being able to tell what was illusion and what was reality.

In the last moment when her mind was swallowed up, she remembered Su Yingxia and all the things she had done together, and she desperately tried to restrain herself, so much so that she cried out in unbearable pain.

But soon, the blood in her body stirred uncontrollably. Naturally, she did not know what Lu Ruoxin had once done to her, let alone what kind of state she had entered with the help of the zither now.

Lightly opening her neon dress, her jade shoulders were lightly exposed.

Han Qianqian's heart and body could not help but move, and under the strong hold, a mouthful of fresh blood suddenly spurted out directly from her throat.

"Can you fucking control your broken blood?" Han three thousand consciousness inside, yelled out.

"Shit has nothing to do with me."

Soon, the voice of the demon dragon echoed in his head.

"Little art of messing with my mind, if it wasn't for your demon blood inside me, could I have such a big reflection?" Han Qianqian roared in depression.

Although he was desperately trying to control his body and calm his mind, the problem was that this blood inside his body was like boiling water, completely agitated and unsettled.

When he heard Han Qianqian's words, the spirit of the demon dragon scratched his head in embarrassment, the dragon's nature was chaotic, and he did not deny that the dragon's blood did affect Han Qianqian today.

"Fuck, can't you control it?" Han Qianqian shouted in a depressed voice.

"Nah dragon blood does have an effect on you, but you can't fucking blame me for it all." The devil dragon cried out in aggravation, but in the next second, he suddenly came to life, "However, I can also help you carry the whole pot. Although this chick's body is not as strong as the holy body, but what's naive is that she's pretty, and physically she's not too bad can, go ahead, as for your wife, I'll carry it for you then."

Hearing this shameless words of the devil dragon, Han Qianqian almost vomited blood in place with anger: "You get away from me, I only have one Su Yingxia in my heart, absolutely can't contain any woman."

"If you don't want to help, you can. If I do anything wrong to Su Yingxia, don't worry, I, Han Qianqian, will kill myself to thank her." Han Qianqian said in a cold voice.

"You paralyze, you play so hard?" The devil dragon was stunned

Chapter 2633

As soon as the words left his mouth, Han Qianqian had already manipulated what was left of his consciousness, and with a grip of his jade sword, he was about to strike!

"Fuck, stop it!" Almost at the same time, the demonic dragon had already shouted in his head in depression.

If Han Qianqian, the original body, died, then the Devil Dragon itself, as the consciousness hosted in Han Qianqian's brain, would also be equivalent to death.

If Han Qianqian wanted to commit suicide, how could he stand by and do nothing?

"The first time I've ever seen someone threaten their life and not to fuck someone else, and the point is, it's a fucking man. Han Qianqian, is there something wrong with you?" Devil Dragon was depressed.

"When you know what loyalty means that day, you won't find it strange, but you, a single dragon, probably won't be able to in your lifetime." Han Qianqian replied, "Cut the crap and help me control that shameless blood of yours."

"It's dragon blood, it's fucking noble blood, if you say shameless blood again, be careful I'll kill you with a fish."

But without waiting for the demon dragon to say more, Han Qianqian had already quit the "chat" at that moment!

When the dragon's blood was suppressed, Han Qianqian quickly used the Chaos Qi to trap his mind.

Immediately afterwards, the situation began to close in on Han Qianqian's side.

Seemingly noticing Han Qianqian's obvious change, the woman flickered slightly, a light of surprise flashed in her eyes, and the next second, the zither in her hand was played quickly.

The extremely strong wave of sound struck again!

But this time, after being prepared, Han Qianqian remained as still as a sitting Buddha, even in the face of the even stronger sound of the zither.

"Are there any more moves?" Han Qianqian suddenly opened his eyes, and in the next second, the Heavenly Fire Moon Wheel in his hand was invoked, and he no longer attacked on his own, but locked onto the woman in front of him.

Rising, the sword rose!

"Ignorant!" The woman laughed coldly, apparently, trying to repeat the same trick again, making Han Qianqian pounce straight away.

But with Han Qianqian's intelligence, how could he possibly fall in the same pit twice?

At that moment, he shouted angrily, "Heavenly Fire, Moon Wheel!"

Brush brush brush!

The Heavenly Flame Moon Wheel, which had already followed the moment Han Qianqian's sword rose, swept in from the other two directions!

"What?!" The woman was shocked, obviously not expecting Han Qianqian to have other killing moves.

Even Han Qianqian's sword was only a bleating attack, while the Heavenly Flame Moon Wheel was the most active killing move.

Boom!

But when she tried to reflect, it was clearly too late.

As the Heavenly Flame Moon Wheel converged and exploded, the entire Realm of Grey and Cloud trembled.

Yellow sand rose up all around that woman!

"To be honest, I don't have a very good fucking temper." In the yellow sand, an irritated male voice suddenly came out.

The voice was neutral, like a female voice, but it was clearly a male voice.

By now, the sand had cleared and the woman was finally visible.

What was left on the ground was a strange-looking creature.

It was human-like, with four limbs, but on its back was a long cloak of armour, like a pangolin in human form.

This is the true face of that Yellow Sand Dasian, right?!

"You fellow, you really deserve to die, I managed to find such a perfect body from so many sacrificial offerings, only to have it ruined by you." His small eyes, like the eyes of a rat, glared viciously at Han Qianqian at this moment.

He was bound to drink Han Qianqian's blood and draw his tendons.

"Coincidentally, I've also been looking for some carcasses recently. I do think your body is ugly to the core, so" Han Qianqian laughed coldly, his eyes filled with anger.

The woman's body was actually the body of a young girl who was sacrificed to him and died at his hands in her prime.

How could Han Qianqian not be angry?

This is called eating people without spitting out bones, and I'm afraid that this bullshit Pangolin transformed into Huang Sha Daxian is a complete and true reflection of it.

"Oh, yes, I forgot to tell you something." Han Qianqian suddenly laughed softly.

When he saw Han Qianqian smile, the pangolin immediately felt a hint of foreboding, but more than that, he was still confused: "What is it?"

Han Qianqian cracked a smile, "I, for one, don't have a very good temper either"

Chapter 2634

"F*ck you!" The Mountain Piercing Armor burst into a fury.

This damned Han Qianqian, not only did he destroy his shell, he also humiliated himself three times.

Grandpa could put up with it, but grandma couldn't.

"Watch the move!"

As he shouted angrily, in the next second, a wolf tooth stick suddenly appeared in his hand, leaping up directly and jumping to smash.

How could Han Qianqian let him go wild? He took a look at Qinshang, whose shell was gone and whose zither sounds had disappeared, and although Qinshang's eyes were still a little dazed, he had at least begun to recover.

At that moment, the jade sword crossed over and directly blocked the wolf tooth stick he smashed down.

There was a loud boom!

Beside Han Qianqian, a series of several explosions!

Immediately afterwards, the two retreated!

Piercing Mountain Armour's face was scarlet at this point, his expression slightly twisted.

He had used almost all his strength in that blow, but he had never thought that it would not be able to shake Han Qianqian in the slightest, but that the rebounding impact would make him feel very uncomfortable.

Han Qianqian's tiger mouth was slightly tingling, this pangolin, though not particularly big, was a tiger!

"You kid, where did you come from? You have some skills? You can break my confusion and have such strength in your hands." The mountain beetle said in a cold voice.

"From the village." Han Qianqian said softly.

"Since you want to stand up for them, I'll take your dog's head."

As soon as the words left his mouth, the mountain-penetrating armor pounced again, his wolf teeth flung in his hand, his tiger was so powerful that the air around him seemed to be torn apart in an instant.

Han Qianqian naturally wouldn't give way, and with a grip of his jade sword, the 72 divine swords swung back and struck back with a cold face.

"Boom! Boom!!! Boom!!!"

The entire space exploded in all directions, and the grey and hazy space began to tremble wildly, and for a moment, it all seemed like it was about to break apart.

The victory was not to be won or lost!

The Mountain Piercing Armour's angry body rises again!

Mountain Piercing Armour attacked swiftly and openly, while Han Qianqian's swordplay was exquisite, moving like a rabbit and as still as a virgin.

If not for the fact that Han Qianqian had not yet recovered and did not want to destroy the place, he would not have gone all out.

Otherwise, there was no telling what would have become of the place.

However, even though he had been fighting with a closed mind, Han Qianqian couldn't help but be secretly surprised at the skills of the Mountain Piercing Armour in front of him.

This guy was fierce and fierce, and the more he fought, the more courageous the killing aura in his body became.

On the other hand, the mountain-piercing beetle on the other side was far more shocked than Han Qianqian, after all, whether it was during his years around the village or his travels outside, with his skills, it was almost difficult to meet such a difficult opponent.

It was just as well that the boy was so young.

Naturally, the mountain beetle began to be very curious about Han Qianqian, but when he stretched out a breath detection, he couldn't help but be dismayed, what was this kid's cultivation level?

Such a low level?

If the Mountain Piercing Armor was not fighting Han Qianqian, he would really think that Han Qianqian's cultivation level matched his age.

But

"Have you seen enough?" Han Qianqian suddenly smiled, and with a fierce movement in his hands, the power of Chaos was suddenly wide open.

Seeing the extremely strong chaos power suddenly released by Han Qianqian, the piercing mountain beetle suddenly said something bad, and as soon as the words left his mouth, he fiercely pointed at Qin Shannon over there and shouted, "Look."

Almost the moment Han Qianqian looked back, the Mountain Piercing Armour immediately mentioned its wolf tooth stick and directly sneaked in.

Han Qianqian smiled coldly, although he already knew that this creature was clearly deliberately disrupting himself, however, he really had nothing to worry about.

"Northern Underworld Four Souls Formation!" With a roar of fury.

Han Qianqian's figure suddenly transformed, buzzing!

One transformed into two!

Look at the silly piercing beetle!

Two transformed into four!

The pangolin's eyes went straight.

Four becomes eight!

Bang!

At almost the same time, the wolf tooth stick struck one of Han Qianqian's incarnations directly!

It was like hitting iron, and with a loud buzzing sound, the Mountain Piercer could only feel his arm go numb with pain!

But what annoyed him the most was not this, but the eight Han Sanchens in front of him!

Eight of them, for f*ck's sake!

He felt like a chicken suddenly landing in the middle of eight hungry lions!

"What the f*ck is this?" The pangolin was stunned.

"Is it funny?" Han Qianqian smiled gently, with a teasing look in his eyes, "But don't be too happy, because, it's just beginning."

The pangolin suddenly felt a partial chill

Chapter 2635

Han Qianqian shouted angrily, and the eight true bodies had long since defended each other against its wolfsbane attack, at which point they each raised their jade swords and thundered in from all eight directions.

"Shit, you're fucking cheating!" The mountain beetle cursed, its body retracted, and suddenly it lay on the ground like a turtle, revealing only the thorn-like cloak on its back!

Boom!

The eight swords came with immense force.

The eight swords were so powerful that they struck the armour of the Mountain Piercing Armour, causing the ground to roll with dust and smoke!

However, to Han Qianqian's surprise, the armour on his back was really something else!

Even with Han Qianqian's eight sword cuts, he was unable to hurt his armour even a little bit.

"Poof!"

The eight swords, although not fatal, brought about a powerful force as if a huge mountain had directly pressed down on his body.

The huge impact still made him come into close contact with the ground, and at that moment, as dusty as he wanted to be, he was as dusty as he could be.

"Not bad, quite capable of carrying it!" Han Qianqian smiled faintly.

He raised his sword again in his hand and slowly raised it.

"You're still fucking coming?" The pangolin shouted, and in the next second, its body shrank again, followed by a direct jump, and with a cough it dug straight into the ground and ran all the way outside.

Han Qianqian frowned: "You can actually disappear into the ground? Is it possible that you are really a mountain-wearing demon?"

"Where to escape!"

As soon as the words fell, the eight figures transformed into one, and Han Qianqian fiercely chased in the direction the Mountain Piercing Armor had fled.

Seeing Han Qianqian chasing, the Mountain Piercing Armor suddenly panicked and hurriedly drilled its body downwards continuously so as not to have the mud have a different appearance being tracked by Han Qianqian.

But after half a circle, the pangolin was a little desperate.

Even after drilling into the ground more than a meter deep, but Han Qianqian this guy has been following his own footsteps closely, even had even stopped several times several meters in front of itself!

Apparently

"Fuck, no more games, I just can't figure it out, I'm more than a meter underground for fuck's sake and you can find my whereabouts too?" Depressed to the point of depression, the pangolin fiercely burst out from among the mud.

Han Qianqian had already stood in front of him, and although the mountain beetle had changed its path several times, what did it mean to Han Qianqian?

Under the Eye of Heaven, there was nothing to hide!

"Still running?" Han Qianqian smiled gently.

"You're just too fucking arrogant, shit, I swear, either you die or I die today." Losing wasn't terrifying, what was terrifying was that even his fucking dignity was completely gone with the insult.

Gritting his teeth and shouting angrily, the piercing beetle couldn't hold back any longer.

Han Qianqian's eyes gently swept around, the terrain here was obviously quite open, plus the time had dragged on for so long, I think Qin Shantou didn't dare to say that he had fully recovered, but at least at this time he had no big problem getting out.

"Quite good, I also want to play with you thoroughly and completely, today, I must demolish this shitty place of yours and pull out your ragged skin." Han Qianqian laughed coldly as his jade sword was drawn once again!

The next second, Han Qianqian stopped talking nonsense and brought up his sword to directly face the piercing mountain beast's wolf tooth stick!

With one beast in a rage, the other was in full form, not holding back, and the two could be described as a thoroughly powerful duel for a time.

When the two met, explosions erupted all around them and the three ancient mountains were shaken by the huge explosions.

Not only that, but the ground beyond the three ancient mountains was also trembling wildly, and the surrounding low hills were shaken by the constant ground shaking, with rocks pouring out and some of the more fragile ones even collapsing!

The village, which had been surrounded by a group of low hills, also began to lose these low things at this time

Inside the village at this time

All the people were busy with their own business, when they suddenly felt the ground shake, they rushed out of their houses.

A group of people from the village were surprised to see the mountains collapsing in the distance under the moonlight in the dead of night

Chapter 2636

"What's going on with this"?

"Is it an earthquake? Or is the flash flood about to erupt again?"

"Or is it Huang Sha Daxian he's angry and he's going to punish us?"

All the villagers looked at each other, shocked and not knowing what to do at the same time.

"It's over, it's over, it must be that young man who has angered Huang Sha Daxian, the mountains have collapsed and the flood is about to hit us again, we will also have the same disaster that happened several years ago."

Someone suddenly howled a tragic cry, and at the same time, everyone who heard it was also plunged into endless sorrow and despair.

Despite the years that had passed, the flood that had destroyed the world was still deeply engraved in everyone's mind.

"Young people are always arrogant, so they end up burying their own lives and harming us at the same time." Lei Gong shook his head helplessly and let out a long sigh.

He wasn't afraid of death, but it was just a pity that Han Qianqian was a young hero, and also a pity that most of the young villagers in the village had been unjustly killed.

But at that very moment, Ning Yue led Wang Simin and the others, also because of the great commotion, slowly gathered from the town guard in all directions, to come together.

Unlike the villagers who had panicked and unaware expressions on their faces, the faces of Ning Yue, Wang Simin and the others were filled with panache, confidence and even a faint smile on their faces.

Seeing such expressions on their faces, the old village chief was puzzled: "Several of you, do you ever know what has happened?"

"It's not just that the mountain in the village has been blasted down." Wang Simin laughed softly.

"If that's the case, you guys are still laughing? You know, your friends are in there. Don't you guys feel any pain at all?" Lei Gong said with anxious disbelief.

After all, that was their leader and their friend, the so-called human nature, how could they not be sad and heartbroken?

"Why should I be sad and heartbroken?" Wang Simin said with amusement.

"How is this" Lei Gong was depressed.

"Could it be that you want to be sad for me for that yellow sand monster?" When Wang Simin finished, she and Ning Yue a few people a look at each other, and at once a group of people looked at each other and laughed.

"You guys" Seeing that these people from the Mystic Alliance were smiling collectively, the old village chief and Lei Gong and a bunch of others were even more confused, and it was really hard to understand.

"How long do you guys think, how long before Han Qianqian returns?" Mo Yang looked into the distance and couldn't help but whisper.

"An hour at most." Wang Simin said.

"I'd say half an hour." Ning Yue also said.

"Looking at this situation, I however think that in a quarter of an hour, three thousand will be back."
Jiang Hu Bai Xiao Sheng laughed.

Hearing that several people were happy to make a bet, the old village chief was in a daze when Wang Simin added, "Old village chief, you won't renege on our bet, will you?"

"What you guys mean is that this mountain collapse earthquake, it's not the Yellow Sand Daxian who won, but" the old village chief wondered.

"Right now, the Yellow Sand Monster should be getting beaten up all over the place." Wang Simin laughed softly.

Hearing this, the old village headman sucked in a cold breath, the yellow sand daisy was being beaten up all over the place?!

This could not be said to be impossible, or even could only be said to be a pie in the sky.

However, looking at the smiling faces and confident and calm appearance of a group of people, it seemed to be really fatal again.

A group of people, collectively, fell into silence, was it really not Huang Sha Daxian who was angry? Rather, was it Han Qianqian who was beating Huang Sha Daxian violently?

"If so, isn't this young warrior a god?" Zhang Erhu couldn't help but wonder.

When Han Qianqian entered the village, he was responsible for leading Han Qianqian's men to their accommodation, so he had met Han Qianqian's gang of men.

Although he was a villager and had no cultivation skills, it was difficult for him to tell what kind of skills Han Qianqian's men had, but just by looking at their appearance and aura, he knew that they were a group of elite soldiers.

And to be their leader, Han Qianqian should indeed be capable, so it was easier for Zhang Ershu to accept the words of Wang Simin and the others.

"A godly man?" Hearing these words, Wang Simin laughed softly and did not say anything, instead he looked at each other and laughed with the others, not making any more remarks.

After all, in everyone's heart, what was a god-man, what was it?

Or rather, what would it mean to Han Qianqian to remove the word human from the word god and leave the word god alone?

"Gentlemen, what do you mean by this? Is it possible that he is really a god man?" When the village chief saw this, he couldn't help but wonder.

At this moment, Fu Li, who had not spoken, slowly walked out, and if he did not speak, he would shock the world!

Chapter 2637

"God or not we dare not say, however, he did fight the two great true gods."

True Gods!

Even in such a small, remote and unknown place, it was natural to know very well what the True Gods in the Eight Directions world meant.

They were the strongest people in this world, the kings who made and maintained the order of this world.

Even if one disobeys the True Gods a little bit, one naturally knows what will happen to them.

Who is not aware of the power of the True God? Who would dare to challenge them? Otherwise, the eight worlds would have been in chaos.

But that young man had not only fought a True God, he had even fought two of them!

How could this be possible?

Isn't this bullshit?

But looking at how confident and calm they were, they didn't look like they were lying, did they? Besides, what could be gained by lying to a group of ignorant villagers who had nothing to offer?

Shock, confusion, disbelief, all these emotions surfaced in their minds at once, so much so that their brains almost crashed for a while.

"Could it be that a divine being has really come to help us?" Lei Gong's eyes were shocked as he murmured softly.

"Our sincerity has moved the heavens, so the heavens have sent down divine soldiers to save us!"

"Perhaps, that is indeed the case!"

As a group of people said this, they could not help but look at the great mountains in the distance and at the night sky where the bright moon was hanging, filled with awe.

There were others, however, who held the opposite attitude.

"Bragging, it must be bragging, it's fine if you say he's strong, but I really don't believe you when you say he's picked off the two great True Gods and still managed to live to this day in good health."

"Yes, do you really think we are poor and ignorant and simple?"

"Even bragging should be stopped in moderation!"

But almost at the same time, the collapse of the mountain had come to an end, and the earth had returned to peace, with only the mountains, which had become flat, and the dust that had not yet dissipated, still telling the story of the fierce battle that had taken place here.

The moon was high in the sky, like a man looking peacefully at what was happening beneath the dome of the sky.

It was very quiet around him, and Qin Frost stood up a little tiredly, looking around with some panic and worry.

Not far away, on top of the ruins, two black shadows were facing each other.

Only, the two black shadows were one taller and one shorter at the moment.

In terms of stature, Han Qianqian was not extremely tall, but he was not short either, while the yellow sand monster was hunched over, but he was not small after all, so naturally it was not easy to form a situation where one was tall and one was short.

And the situation can be today, that is because

One of them was standing, but the other was kneeling.

The night breeze blew by, Han Qianqian still stood with his arms folded, his jade sword emitting a cold glow in the moonlight.

But on the contrary, the pierced mountain beetle in front of Han Qianqian was not so dashing, instead it could be said to be in a wretched state.

His face was bruised and swollen, and his eyes were set on his broken face like money, and the armour on his back was like a hedgehog. Now it was as if a dog with fried hair had been poured down by a heavy rain, and at the same time, it was incomparably weak and kept its general shape, and the two nostrils were still bleeding.

If Han Qianqian, who had been fighting with a closed mind, still had the strength to fight, then when Han Qianqian was completely unleashed, this creature was instantly pulled away from the level and gap.

It would not be too much to describe it as a second kill.

It hurt, a heart-breaking pain, almost to the point where his entire person was grimacing.

"Who the hell are you, anyway?" The mountain piercing beetle topped that purple and red face and looked at Han Qianqian reluctantly, "Those who can defeat me can't find many people."

"Go to hell and ask." Han Qianqian raised his hand icily, and the jade sword was placed directly on the neck of the Mountain Piercing Armour.

"Wait a minute!" The Mountain Piercer said in a sharp voice.

The sword stopped, but the blade was already away from the piercing vest's neck, not even a hair's breadth away, except that the force that should have caused his head to fall apart suddenly disappeared at that moment.

Piercing Armour froze, and just from the control of this force, he knew that he had truly met a master.

"What are your last words?" Han Qianqian said.

"You want to think about taking a bite out of the villagers, don't you?"

"Knowingly, you still have to ask?"

"Since that is the case, you cannot kill me." After saying that, the piercing mountain beetle looked at Han Qianqian with firm eyes.

"Give me a reason!" Han Qianqian's brow furrowed slightly!

Chapter 2638

When he heard Han Qianqian's words, the mountain beetle did not say much and reached out with one hand, wanting to grab Han Qianqian's hand.

Han Qianqian subconsciously retreated slightly, but then gently stretched out his hand, wanting to see what this guy really wanted.

"Don't worry, although I've taken on a daughter's body, it doesn't mean I have an interest in men." The mountain piercing beetle sighed helplessly, "I'm not trying to pull your hand, I just want you to summon the stone you used when you fought me just now."

"The Five Elements Divine Stone?" Han Qianqian muttered slightly in his heart, he had indeed used the Five Elements Divine Stone after he had fought with this guy earlier, "What do you want?"

"Could I still rob you? I have the heart, the question is do I have the strength?" The Mountain Penetrator said without good humour.

Han Qianqian said no more, and with a slight force in his hand, he instantly catalyzed the Five Elements Divine Stone out and landed it in his palm.

The Mountain Piercing Armor also stopped talking, and with a movement in its hand, an energy was directly transformed into its hand, and then, it pointed its finger at the Five Elements Divine Stone, and a wave of energy shot straight from its finger to the Five Elements Divine Stone.

Han Qianqian looked at the Five Elements Divine Stone with astonishment. What was surprising was that the already three-coloured Five Elements Divine Stone suddenly glowed with a faint earthy yellow colour after being shot by the energy of the Mountain Piercing Armour.

In the next second, a faint earthy colour began to appear on top of the fourth colour on the Five Elements Divine Stone!

Han Qianqian immediately frowned, how could this happen?

This guy's energy can

"Shifting mountains and drilling earth, could it be that you are" Han Qianqian looked at the mountain piercing armor with incomparable shock, and suddenly seemed to understand something in a flash.

"I am an earth spirit!" The mountain piercing armor looked at Han Qianqian "I am also the incarnation of the earth spirit pearl."

As expected by Han Qianqian, this fellow was indeed almost the same kind of thing as the Fire God Stone, the Divine Face Pearl and the Jade in Flower, only the only difference was that this fellow had turned from a pearl into a spirit.

However, there was something even more frightening, that is, how did this fellow know that his energy would leave a mark on the Five Elements Divine Stone?

Could it be that this guy knew the Five Elements Divine Stone?

"You already have three colours, I believe you are now wondering why I am different from the other three colours, not a jade body, but a demon body, right?" Without waiting for Han Qianqian to speak, the Mountain Piercing Armour did speak up first.

Han Qianqian nodded irrefutably, "Also, how do you know this stone again?"

"What do you call it?" The Mountain Piercing Armour asked softly.

"The Five Elements Divine Stone!"

"We call him the Devil's Heart."

"Devil's Heart?" Han Qianqian frowned at once.

The Fire God's Stone came from the land of the Demon Race, so Han Qianqian had wondered if the Five Elements Divine Stone was really involved with the Demon Race, and now, upon hearing the word Demon Heart, Han Qianqian was basically certain of his suspicions!

But the bigger fog apparently made Han Qianqian's head hurt even more, how could something in the Eight Desolate Heavenly Books have anything to do with the devil race?

"I don't know exactly, but there is someone who might be able to tell you if you're interested."

"Who?" Han Qianqian frowned slightly.

"It's about the second reason you can't kill me, or rather, you can't kill me even more if you want to know." When the Mountain Penetrator finished speaking, he gently used his hand to remove Han Qianqian's jade sword that was resting in front of his neck.

"What do you mean by that?" Han Qianqian did not understand.

"Because those women in the village, although chosen by me, were not killed by me. If you kill me, someone else will take my place just the same, and the women in the village will keep disappearing just the same." The pangolin whispered.

"You didn't kill them? Obviously you disillusioned their forms!" Han Qianqian said in a cold voice.

"I was just playing with their corpses. You can at most call me a pervert, but feel free to call me inhuman, I'm not human anyway." The bastard's words directly put Han Qianqian at a loss for words.

It was a combination of reasoning and shamelessness, and it was irrefutable!

"Do you want to know?" Seeing that Han Qianqian was irrefutable, the bastard said softly.

Han Qianqian nodded.

The bastard smiled gently, "Good, come with me to a place!"

As soon as the words left his mouth, the bastard suddenly dragged Han Qianqian and drilled straight into the earth

Chapter 2639

The journey through the earth was like smoke, and the ground, which should have been incomparably solid, became, at that moment, like air.

The speed at which they travelled was almost staggering, and in a way, it was exactly the same as flying through the sky.

All along the way, the Mountain Piercing Armor was constantly using his breath to detect Han Qianqian's cultivation level, obviously so rubbish, but he was playing with it like it was a game, which was simply mind-boggling.

Unfortunately, even though he was holding Han Qianqian's hand and the two of them were so close together, he could not detect any of Han Qianqian's true cultivation level by all means, which was really depressing.

This was really depressing. Given Han Qianqian's skills, he was naturally aware of the small tricks that the Mountain Piercing Armour had been playing on him. However, he was not in the mood to answer this guy, as he would not be able to figure it out even if he was confused.

And how many mysteries could this man solve?

A few moments later, the yellow earth in front of him disappeared, and a bright white mountain stood proudly in front of him, with an ethereal aura of immortality, a few green stains and a few peach blush.

"Where is this?" Han Qianqian frowned.

There didn't seem to be such a divine mountain outside the village's several hundred mile radius.

"This is the Realm of Earth, the land of mortals, and the bottom of the mountain!"

"You mean we're at the bottom of the earth and it's upside down?" Han Qianqian frowned?

"Very clever!"

"Who is the person who lives here?" It was hard for Han Qianqian to imagine that the earth and the mountain, like an inverted mountain character, were at the bottom where normal people walked, but in turn, were at the bottom of the mountain.

"You will find out later, follow." As soon as the words left his mouth, without the mud and yellow sand, the Mountain Piercing Armor accelerated and flew towards the big mountain.

Han Qianqian also stopped talking nonsense, his body luck, follow the piercing mountain armor also fly like the mysterious immortal mountain.

Everywhere he passed, there were green mountains and beautiful hills.

There were several palaces on the top of the mountain, surrounded by immortal energy, just like a heavenly palace.

On the palaces, although there was no rush of pedestrians, it was at least common to see servants or disciples passing by, cleaning or watering flowers and water.

"The mountain is one, but it is made up of three mountains hugging each other. On the left, at the top of the peak is a peach garden, see?"

Han Qianqian nodded.

"Inside there are three ginseng trees and a ten thousand year old peach tree, the fruit produced, eat that is not only endless aftertaste, the most important thing is hey, prolong life"

"See the mountain peak on the right?"

"That is the earth's Yaochi, the male washed the power multiplied, the female washed the youth forever!" When he said this, this guy looked like his mouth was watering.

Han Qianqian knew what was going through this guy's mind, because at that moment, Han Qianqian's gaze was also fully attracted to the Yaochi.

The pond was as blue as the sky, and the pale pearl-like light was reflected by the light from somewhere. The most important thing was that several women were playing in the pond at that moment.

Although they were dressed in glazed clothes, they could not hide their beautiful faces and fair skin.

At the edge of the pool, a pair of stunningly beautiful legs swayed gently, kicking at the blue water in the pool, and with a gentle lift of her jade hand, the water splashes slid down her palm like pearls.

She smiled like a flower, captivating the city.

Even though Han Qianqian had seen countless beautiful women, this woman could definitely leave at least a top five position in Han Qianqian's heart.

"How's that? Hey, isn't she especially pretty and makes people want to fuck her?" At this moment, the mountain beetle came up to Han Qianqian's side and said in a soft voice.

Han Qianqian was indeed a little dumbfounded by the beauty, and the Mountain Piercing Armour's words woke him up with a slight flinch and said, "Don't talk nonsense."

Beauty is beauty, Han Qianqian did not deny it, but the kind of dirty thoughts that the piercing mountain beetle had, Han Qianqian really did not have.

"Know who she is not?"

"Hey, the Qilin Saintess, the girl of my dreams."

"The Qilin Saintess?" Han Qianqian's brow furrowed, "Is she the one you're leading me to?"

Chapter 2640

The Mountain Piercing Armor shook its head, then sighed, "Come with me."

As soon as the words left his mouth, the Mountain Piercing Armor had already accelerated and flew straight towards where Yao Chi was.

And he still fucking said he wasn't looking for this Qilin Saintess?!

"She's your key, so if you don't want it, just stay." Seeing that Han Qianqian was unmoved, the Mountain Piercing Armor added.

Han Qianqian had no choice but to follow with a single acceleration.

As the man and beast drew closer and closer to the pond, the few women in the pond took a shot at the water and flew up, their bodies spinning slightly in the air, with all the water they were covered in on display.

By the time they landed beside the stunning woman, they were already each holding a long sword and looking like a stranger not to be approached.

"No one else is allowed to stop at the Yao Chi, Yellow Sand Monster, how dare you."

As soon as the two landed, they were greeted by the angry stares of several women, as well as cold shouts.

Han Qianqian frowned slightly, looking at the other party's attitude, it was obvious that they didn't like the pierced mountain beetle very much, did they follow him to this place, did they follow the wrong person?

"Hey, my little master just misses my little fairy and wants to come and see her, you all are dancing around with swords and guns, it really makes me sad." When the Mountain Piercer finished, he sighed helplessly, then he looked up and swept the few women, saying, "All of you hurry up and get out of my way, don't provoke Little Master into a rage!"

"Yellow Sand Monster, don't you dare be unreasonable!" The women didn't give an inch, and they took up a direct position on the spot.

When they saw this situation, the Mountain Piercing Armor also quit, and with a movement in his hand, the Wolf Tooth Stick was summoned directly.

"All right." Almost at that moment, a nice voice came, and the beautiful silhouette of the Qilin Saint Maiden slowly stood up from the edge of the pool and gently glanced at the Piercing Mountain Armour: "You're here?"

"Hey hey, did you miss me?" The pierced mountain beetle laughed without shame.

"I see that you are clearly looking for a fight." The Qilin Saintess laughed softly and then said, "Today, why have you arrived early and, I have told you not to bring anyone!"

"Also is still a man."

Hearing these words, Han Qianqian frowned slightly.

What did this mean?

Could it be that the mastermind behind the capture of those women was this Qilin Saintess?

But looking at this Qilin Saintess, not only did she have a pretty face, but she was also gently facing and spoke in a soft and courteous manner, and seemed to have nothing to do with that kind of vicious people.

"Ai!" When I brought her back to the cave, she was already just a corpse, I wanted to use her shell to steal the dragon, but this guy ruined it."

After saying that, the Mountain Piercing Armor glanced at Han Qianqian in depression.

While the Mountain Piercing Armour was depressed, the Qilin Saintess couldn't help but let out a long breath as she listened, "Then I guess he should be for the righteous and couldn't stand to see those deeds you did, that's why he stepped in to help those villagers."

"I told you not to do this long ago, but you insisted, and I also told you that what is the difference between what you did like this and a murderer?"

"But I can't let that bitch Pei Hu be the one to do it," said the pierced beetle with pain.

"Perhaps Xian'er is destined to be like this, so why struggle?" The Qilin Saintess Xiao Xian'er smiled slightly bitterly, then she looked at Han Qianqian and asked, "So be it, things have come to this, then what did he come for? Is it to seek justice?"

"He ah?" The mountain-penetrator's eyes rolled, and then, he said something that almost made Han Qianqian sputter, "No, he said he just wanted to simply fuck you and fuck you, and then threatened me to bring him over."

When he heard this, Han Qianqian's brain went on the spot for several seconds!

What the fuck is going on?

But Xiao Xian'er instantly blushed and became irritated, "Asshole!"

"Even if Xian'er is guilty, she should not be humiliated like this even if she should be killed!"

As soon as the words left her mouth, her face turned slightly cold, and an extremely strong aura pressed directly towards Han Qianqian.

Although it appeared that nothing was happening, Han Qianqian himself felt as if a titanic mountain was rushing towards him.

Han Qianqian frowned, although she was a woman, her inner strength was as strong and domineering as Han Qianqian had rarely seen, except for the True God.

With a cold cry, Han Qianqian stopped talking and hurriedly used the chaos power within his body.

The two unseen internal forces met at once!

Boom
