

His True Color Chapter 2751-2760

Chapter 2751

Because at this moment, there was already obvious anger in Han Qianqian's eyes.

This also means that this guy had been giving in, but had already tolerated it to the extreme.

After all, these guys had walked too much at night and had always met a "ghost"!

It's not enough to be a ghost, you have to grab a big one and keep on trying like crazy!

The mountain beetle was indeed right, Han Qianqian was no longer going to hold back.

He had already given in step after step, but the gang in front of him, not only had they not restrained themselves in the slightest, but were going further and further out of line.

Even a Buddha should be angry, and besides, Han Qianqian had never been any kind of Buddha!

"Boom!"

As the dog-legged gang rushed violently towards Han Qianqian, the wind rose from Han Qianqian over there without moving, and in a moment, with Han Qianqian's feet as the centre, Qi energy surged wildly, rolling up layers of sand.

What was even more terrifying was that above Han Qianqian's head, layers of wind and waves rolled up.

"Roar!"

The shadow of the four divine beasts must have appeared on Han Qianqian's body, and when one looked at it, it looked like a god of war.

"What!"

"How handsome!"

Some unmarried women were even suddenly attracted by Han Qianqian's elegance, and could not help but be a bit confused.

Seeing such a reaction in the crowd, Liu, who was already losing face, was furious.

Where he was present, how could he allow others to steal his thunder.

"Kill him for me." Duke Liu shouted in a cold voice.

"Yes!"

Dogleg's gang shouted fiercely, and in the next second, they directly rushed towards Han Qianqian.

Even though, they were all the first-rate fighters chosen by Duke Liu, in Han Qianqian's eyes, they were just a bunch of ants.

"Qi Break!"

Han Qianqian shouted coldly, and without moving his body, he instantly swept away directly with the true qi radiating outwards from within his body alone.

The group of Liu Gongzi's men, who were eyeing him intently, only ran forward a few metres before they suddenly felt an extremely strong wind blowing in their faces, before several of them could reflect.

Boom!

A group of people were directly lifted to the east and west.

At almost the same time, Han Qianqian's figure over there was still in the same place, but the residual shadow had already rushed into the crowd at some point.

Like a wolf entering a flock of chickens, the men who had been so aggressive earlier were reduced to shouts of pain and screams in a panic.

It was like a purgatory on earth.

"What kind of speed is this"?

"Isn't he still in place, not even moving? How, how come all of a sudden he is jumping in front of the gang?"

"This speed makes me, makes me feel my scalp tingling ah."

Not only them, even Liu Gongzi and the thin monkey who was proud of his speed at this moment and was lying on the ground due to severe pain, were also like seeing a ghost.

If they hadn't seen it with their own eyes, they would never have imagined that the speed of a human being could be so fast as to be in the blink of an eye.

Even the skinny monkey suddenly understood why he had suddenly defused his attack with just one hand, and could even jam his throat with a backhand when he was upset.

He wasn't shit out of luck, or even, not even an expert's instinct.

It's just

It was as simple as raising his hand in disdain, because his own speed, in front of him, was like that of a child walking the ground.

Slow, just too slow.

"Get the hell out of here."

Suddenly, there was a violent bellow from the crowd, and in the next second, the dozen or so large hands that Dogleg had brought with him exploded violently from their places and flew in all directions.

The centre of their explosion, however, where there was still any human figure, there was just the motionless Han Qianqian and the piercing armour, a dozen metres away.

From the eyes of the crowd, Han Qianqian, that guy, seems to have moved from the beginning to the end, but also seems to have not moved at all

Chapter 2752

"This"

"What the f*ck is this?"

"Is it hard to say that I just blinked?"

"He just clearly moved, clearly directly knocked all those people around him away, how, how now suddenly suddenly seems to have stayed in place without moving ah."

"It's not blurred vision, it's not that he didn't move either, but the speed was so fast that we didn't notice anything at all."

Speaking of which, the gang's jaws dropped, so how fast did that have to be?!

Unbelievable!

At least, at this point in most people's minds, one thing had begun to dawn on them, and that was that the duel between Fang and that skinny monkey was no longer just a simple dodge by luck.

Rather, he had relied entirely on his hard skills to block it.

If that was the case, then there was a very terrifying fact before us!

This man was, by all means, an absolute master.

But the question is, how would an absolute master let someone bully him to this extent?

"Could it be that he was pretending to be a bully? Never strikes easily until the critical moment? "

"Or perhaps, his temperament is far beyond that of an ordinary person?"

No one knew the answer, or rather, there was no time for them to find out the answer right now.

Because at this moment, Liu Gongzi had completely stormed out.

Having been slapped in the face again and again, as self-respecting as he was, he had long been unable to endure it, especially with the change in the crowd's attitude, from coming to see Han Qianqian laugh, to now, some even started to see him laugh, this huge difference had become the final fuse that ignited his anger.

"Fuck, you forced me to do this, today, this young master will let you have a taste of my power." As soon as the words left his mouth, Duke Liu suddenly had the same Dou Qi outflowing from his body, his aura moved greatly, and his entire body also fiercely rose without wind.

"Fire Crack!"

Boom!!!

With his feet as the centre, a wave of earth fire directly burned and attacked directly towards Han Qianqian.

When the fire passed by, the earth was scorched, and the air within three meters of the surrounding area was instantly brought to a boiling state, and the pain was as intense as fire when touched.

"Shit, the Liu family's supreme fire, this fire is very fierce, once it touches your body, it will burn until it's gone, and you won't stop until you die."

"I've also heard that some desperadoes went to challenge the Liu Family decades ago, but they ended up being burned to ashes by a Supreme Fire from the Liu Family Master."

"This fire is extremely domineering, and what's worse, it's extremely difficult to deal with, and has been a unique technique that the Liu family has been proud of for many years, this Liu Gongzi didn't expect that at such a young age, he had actually mastered the art of his own family's lifeblood."

"Hehe, only high ranking people can hang out with high ranking people, how could it be as simple as a mere blood relationship for Duke Liu to be like his cousin, Young Master Fang."

Among the crowd, there were not a few people who saw the wind and the rudder, especially when Duke Liu directly released this supreme fire, the wind direction changed even faster.

"Old Han, fuck, this fire is not simple, it's so hot." Beside Han Qianqian, the Mountain Piercer said softly and in a soft voice.

Han Qianqian nodded, a slight shrinkage in his eyes, and in the next second, the golden-black aura on his body was immediately released from his body, slightly wrapping around his body.

Then, the corners of Han Qianqian's handsome mouth hooked up into a disdainful smile, "Is that so?"

As soon as the words left his mouth, Han Qianqian fiercely pushed the piercing mountain beetle several metres away directly with a bolt of energy, after which, with his own body, he directly confronted this Liu family's so-called supreme fire.

"Fuck, is he crazy? He had an absolute speed advantage against the skinny monkey earlier, but now, what else does he have?"

"Speed advantage doesn't fucking mean invincibility, much less being able to use it to block fire."

"Hehe, this kid is afraid he doesn't know how terrifying this Supreme Fire really is, to this point, he still wants to pretend!"

When a group of people saw that Han Qianqian was not moving at this moment, they were shocked, but more than that, they were hurling abuses, many of them even had a slight admiration for Han Qianqian, but at this moment, it was all gone.

All that was left in vain was the invective.

Looking at Han Qianqian like this, even Liu Gongzi himself could not help but feel a sense of joy in his eyes that victory was close at hand.

Boom!

The fire came and engulfed Han Qianqian's entire body, and when he saw such a sight, Liu Gongzi burst out laughing.

And almost at the same time, the skinny monkey and the giant over there couldn't help but laugh out loud.

"This time, you're still not fucking dead?"

Chapter 2753

"Fuck, let this kid be arrogant, now keep being arrogant, fuck!"

"He really thinks that because he has some skills, he is really untouchable, but he doesn't know that in this world, there are people outside of him, and there are many people who are more capable than him."

"People, they always have to pay a heavy price for their arrogance and ignorance, and this foolish boy in front of me will pay the price of his life."

The two, the skinny monkey and the giant, seeing such a situation, could not help but cursing painfully at the mouth to get rid of the depression in their hearts.

"I thought it was really a hero, but I didn't expect it to be a foolish man."

"Using his body against fire, does he really think he is made of iron, even if he is made of iron, he should know clearly that fire can turn iron."

The onlookers, too, shook their heads and sighed.

"Haha, hahahahaha!" Liu Gongzi, who was at the head over there, could not help but let out a loud and indulgent laugh when he saw that he had regained his face and the situation had been stabilised again.

The Duke Yuan inside the crowd also let out a long breath at this moment.

Han Qianqian is indeed capable, this, also eat beyond his original perception of defeating him, he must admit a fact. However, it was obvious that this guy was not sure if he was not smart, or if he had seen enough, or if he was so vain that he felt invincible after winning against himself.

In any case, this fool had been so reckless in front of the Liu family's supreme fire, so reckless that it was only to be expected that he would swallow such a bitter fruit.

The Liu family's fire was by no means an ordinary fire, and compared to his Yuan family's Devil's Claw, it was not even in the same league at all.

Although the Devil's Claw was the Yuan Family's family treasure, the Liu Family's Fire was the most sacred existence that could make the Liu Family one of the four desert clans.

This fool, actually bold to this extent, country bumpkin, really country bumpkin.

"This time, if you can still walk out, I, Yuan, will give you fried fish in my hand to eat." Duke Yuan sneered.

But almost as soon as he sneered, sometimes, the smack in the face came faster than expected.

His cold smile was suddenly and truly as cold as it was too cold, and it froze completely at that moment.

When looking with his eyes, and the eyes of everyone present, in the midst of that supreme fire, at that moment, a human figure slowly walked out.

Despite the slightest trace of burn damage on his exterior clothing, that handsome face remained indifferent, while almost at the same time, the blazing fire that was originally surrounding him actually suddenly and abruptly went out completely, even disappearing in place.

"What?!"

Everyone's pupils seemed to widen dozens of times, and some exaggerated ones were even about to come out of their eyes.

"What did I see? He can actually walk out of the Supreme Flame?"

"No, that can't be right? In that great battle decades ago, even if that desperado's cultivation level was already close to the Eight Deserts, he was burned clean and had no ability to fight back, how did this guy do that?"

Everyone looked at this scene in disbelief, even Liu Gongzi, who was extremely knowledgeable about the Supreme Flame, was at this point dumbfounded like a wooden chicken.

"How is that possible?"

The Supreme Flame is the Liu family's masterpiece, according to the Liu family's ancestral training for ten thousand years, this thing is the Supreme Flame that can burn immortals above and slay demons below, even that Samadhi True Flame is extremely inferior compared to it.

How, how could anyone survive this flame, or even, walk out of it?

"I I'm changing my attitude from earlier, he's not some stupid guy with muscles and no brain, he he's actually a hero of unearthly proportions."

"Yes, it's simply too handsome, people have the phoenix that is reborn in the fire, he has the god of war that comes out of the fire, he is simply the prince charming in my heart."

There were a few nymphomaniac girls who experienced adoration, contempt and then now incomparable admiration, and even deep love, and they wanted to rush up to Han Qianqian right now and show their affection to him.

Since ancient times, beauty loves heroes, whether they are beautiful or not is another story, but heroes, everyone loves them.

The only flames of the Supreme Flame appeared on the palm of his hand, just like a good little pet, and then Han Qianqian looked at Liu Gongzi: "Is this it?"

Chapter 2754
That's it!

Even though it was just two simple words, to Liu Gongzi who was present, it was an irony that struck more directly to the heart than any thousand words.

Yes, one moment he was reveling in the invincibility of the Supreme Flame, but the next moment, the Supreme Flame that he was so proud of, had simply vanished into thin air.

Or rather, even if it had survived, the way it existed was more like a mockery of his, Duke Liu's, foolishness and ignorance in taking rotten grass as a treasure.

"You" Liu Gongzi was speechless.

"Although this fire is okay, however, the fire is too poor, so give it back to you." As soon as the words left his mouth, Han Qianqian's hand moved slightly.

In an instant, the tiny fire on the palm of his hand was thrown straight over to him.

But almost as soon as it rushed over to this side and flew over, the flames roared and directly transformed into a huge sea of fire that came straight to cover them.

"What?" Duke Liu's pupils snapped open wide.

He would release the Supreme Fire, but what he had never thought in his life was that this Liu Family's mastery would one day suddenly turn back on itself and hit him ah.

"Young master, be careful."

Almost at the same time, that giant and the skinny monkey shouted sharply at the same time, and in the next second, regardless of the injuries passing on their bodies, one turned into the wind and the other gritted his teeth to endure the severe pain in his knees, directly double blocking in front of Duke Liu's face.

Immediately afterwards, as both of them shouted fiercely, two extremely strong energy strands burst out from their respective hands, directly resisting the Supreme Fire that pounced on them.

It was so hot, so hot that the two men were sweating like rain just as they faced each other.

What was even more annoying was the consumption of energy, for this Supreme Fire was no ordinary fire, and even with their combined strength, they were still struggling to resist it.

"Boom!"

The fire exploded violently, and almost at the same time, the giant and Liu Gongzi were also violently overturned by the wave of air from the explosion of the Supreme Fire. Although they could barely resist, the three people who were knocked to the ground were all blackened by the fire, and even their hair was burned, and they were in as much of a mess as they could be.

"Now, do you want to forget it?" At this point, the mountain-penetrator laughed softly and slowly walked back to Han Qianqian's side, sneering at the three people lying on the ground, as well as at Liu Gongzi's men lying everywhere.

"Or, as you say, come over and call out to your grandfather, and we'll spare you."

The Duke Liu's eyes were furious, and he was even more annoyed when he looked at the smile hanging on the face of the Mountain Piercer, but, seeing Han Qianqian standing there peacefully, he was surprisingly at a loss as to what to do for a moment.

"Damn it, just your kind of trash is worthy of our Duke Liu calling you grandfather? I pooh." The giant roared in anger, unusually displeased.

"Yes, we are trash." The mountain piercing beetle laughed, "But what are you things that are cleaned up by trash?"

The giant was furious at his words and was about to struggle to get up, but was grabbed by the skinny monkey, who looked coldly at Han Qianqian, seemingly, waiting for his answer.

"Why don't we just leave it at that?" Han Qianqian opened his mouth.

"I'll count your mother." The giant roared, but was yanked down again by the skinny monkey, who nodded with a brilliant light in his eyes, "Okay, let's just forget it."

"Are you fucking crazy?" The giant roared in anger, his whole being very puzzled.

But just then, Duke Liu also nodded, "Okay, this matter, let's pretend it never happened."

After saying that, he glanced at the skinny monkey, who nodded and hurriedly assisted Duke Liu to slowly stand up.

Over there, although the giant was depressed, however, the gongzi's words dared not be disobeyed, and while glaring angrily at the two Han Qianqian, he gritted his teeth and also stood up after him.

"Go back."

Han Qianqian glanced at the Mountain Piercing Armor, and in the next second, got up and walked towards the woodshed.

The pierced mountain armour was also obviously a little short of relief, but, since Han Qianqian was like this, he could only give up, sweeping a glance at the other three, the pierced mountain armour turned back and followed Han Qianqian towards the woodshed.

However, after taking a few steps, Han Qianqian suddenly stopped.

It was because behind him at that moment, a harsh and murderous wind force was rapidly coming.

"A sneak attack?" Han Qianqian fiercely turned around, and his palm directly hit the skinny monkey who was sneaking up on him, but suddenly, Han Qianqian's face froze, "Oh no, I've been tricked."

And almost at the same time, a supreme fire, with a casserole-sized fist outside, also smashed heavily into himself

The skinny monkey's clear attack was in front, the Supreme Fire's supplementary attack was then behind, together with this giant's heavy fist, completely sealing Han Qianqian from the top, middle and bottom in a deadly manner.

"Be careful." The piercing beast shouted sharply, but it was obviously too late at this point.

The huge fist blasted directly at Han Qianqian's face.

If this fist went down, it would have to turn into a meat cake.

At this moment, Han Qianqian wanted to dodge, but he understood that it was simply too late.

"Northern Underworld Four Souls Formation!"

Buzz!

The eight golden bodies suddenly unfolded, and then with the strength of their bodies, they directly ate the trio's attack in one hard breath.

Boom!

A punch to the flesh was accompanied by a fierce attack from the Supreme Flame!

Han Qianqian took it as it was, while holding the skinny monkey's hand, and a fierce force struck directly.

Bang!

The skinny monkey flew tens of metres, and as the ground shook tremendously, driving countless dust and dirt, Han Qianqian's eight figures also retreated slightly, while each figure also faintly flashed with golden light.

Although Han Qianqian had been attacked by these three shameless people using such a dirty trick without much preparation, it must be said that when the eight golden figures stabilised, everyone present was just as shocked, with their mouths hanging open.

What the hell is this?

A straightforward hard carry?

What's more, he was carrying a master like a giant?

The key thing was that they could directly carry three at once, and at the same time, they could also knock one away?

This was not a question of whether one could do it, but something that no one dared to even think about.

After all, anyone present who could survive the full force of any one of the three of them would already be the highlight of his life.

This guy, however, had simply played out his highlight moment three times at once.

The most important thing was that he could open up eight figures in an instant.

The gang was both dumbfounded and confused, and by the way, they were also extremely shocked.

"Pfft!"

Over there, the skinny monkey violently spurted out a mouthful of old blood, and this time, he could no longer move.

In the previous attack, Han Qianqian had held back once, but this time, Han Qianqian did not.

The tremendous impact made the skinny monkey feel like his entire body was tumbled to the side inside, and the pain was so hot that it almost made him numb.

And over there, Liu Gongzi and the giant looked at Han Qianqian, who had retreated off to the side, in almost disbelief.

How could this happen?!

"Fuck, you guy, you're really the most domineering person I've ever seen, you're actually more hung up than I thought, carrying it hard." The mountain-penetrator looked at Han Qianqian and couldn't help but shake his head and sigh, "It's a good thing I'm a guy, or else I'd be in love with you."

"However, think about it, internal strength can be compared to Xiao Xian'er, external strength can even make Pei Hu eat suffocating people, old me should have thought about it long ago, you have the capital of madness."

The man who had been chasing Xiao Xian'er for seven years was unsuccessful, but this guy could capture her heart in an instant.

If she were Xiao Xian'er, such a choice would be too easy to make.

It's not that he's not good enough, it's that this guy, Han Qianqian, is so good that he's already ridiculous.

"Even a child knows what to choose." The mountain piercing armor gave a bitter laugh.

At this moment, Han Qianqian's eight golden bodies swung violently and transformed into a single figure, and his eyes were no longer indifferent as before, instead, there was endless anger.

Even the people present felt a terrifying aura of death in his eyes.

Han Qianqian, this fellow, was furious.

Liu Gongzi and the giant looked at each other, and it was impossible to say that they didn't panic at this point, and even their feet couldn't help but start to tremble slightly.

Suddenly, Han Qianqian smiled, a very cold smile, and slowly walked towards the two.

Liu Gongzi's body unconsciously backed up, he a look to signal the giant first block, but arrogant used to the giant, but at this time, but also unconsciously step backwards

Chapter 2756

One step, two steps, three steps

Even after stumbling to the ground, still staring at his legs, panicking, he kept backing up, trying his best to get as far away from the guy as he could, because what was clear was that with every step closer, the two men's feeling was that they were one step closer to death as well.

"Fat Tiger, block, block" Liu Gongzi panicked, even though he had been pampered for decades, had always humiliated others at will, and had never known what fear was.

But now, he was scared, even uncharacteristically, and what he normally recklessly humiliated others with was now replicated in his own body.

Even though, it was extremely insulting and immensely ironic, at this moment, did he have any other choice?!

Hearing his own son's words, Fat Tiger subconsciously moved forward, but in the next second, when he saw Han Qianqian who was getting closer and closer, his body still honestly kept backing up.

Blocking?

Now it's just blocking a lonely!

"Don't come over, don't come over, do you know who I am? I am the young master of the Liu family." Duke Liu shouted sharply, his head uncontrollably shaking desperately at Han Qianqian.

Han Qianqian laughed coldly. To Han Qianqian, all people in the world were equal, and it wasn't as if he hadn't been given a chance, but he didn't cherish it himself, and he actually used such a despicable means to sneak up on himself.

It was only himself who could block this sneak attack, but what if it were a normal person?

I'm afraid that if he had let them go, he would have gotten himself into danger, and these thieves would still be wagging their tails like that? I am afraid that they would only be complacent and arrogant now.

So, how could Han Qianqian pity such trash?

With a cold laugh, in the next second, directly and violently raised his leg, the giant who was blocking some of the front was violently and directly kicked away by Han Qianqian, and Liu Gongzi's face was fearful only half of Ah's voice came out, that hand like an iron hand was already deadly stuck on top of his own throat.

Immediately afterwards, all the power was gathered above his throat, and his body began to lighten and slowly rise.

The crowd was shocked.

Duke Liu was actually directly lifted up by someone with one hand stuck to his throat, just like carrying a baby chicken.

This was not only a sign of strength, but more importantly, with Liu Gongzi's status, who would dare to do such a thing?

There was absolutely no other person in this vast desert.

Han Qianqian was the first, and would only ever be the first, unless the Liu family collapsed, and unless the Fang family was annihilated and the desert city saw a new change in the landscape.

But these two unlesss are simply foolish dreams.

"Let go, so hard, I I can hardly breathe." Duke Liu's face had turned scarlet, and the uncomfortable breathing made his whole being almost feel the fear of death right in front of him.

Seeing this, the giant and the skinny monkey looked at each other anxiously, they knew clearly that if anything happened to the gongzi, death would await them all, but unfortunately, the skinny monkey was now dying, unable to protect himself, so how could he make a move?

"I'll fucking fight you." The giant man roared in anger and rose from the ground, bringing his mountain-like body with him as he swung his huge fist directly towards Han Qianqian.

At this moment, Han Qianqian, not even willing to take one more look, clenched his free right hand slightly and fiercely into a fist, followed by a slight concentration, gathering his strength, and likewise punched straight up.

In a flash, Han Qianqian was carrying Liu Gongzi in one hand and blasting the giant with a single fist.

It was arrogant and cocky, with a hint of dominance in its arrogance.

"What is he doing here? One-handedly trying to match strength with a fat army?" Someone exclaimed.

Bang!

Almost as soon as the man's words left his mouth, there was a muffled sound and the two fists collided!

Gah...

There was another strange sound!

At this point, almost everyone's eyes went wide with horror as they looked at the two people who were blasting at each other, or to be precise, the two people's arms.

One arm was relatively fine but clearly muscled, while the other, thick and incomparably large, each muscle like a boulder, made people look at it and feel its strength.

From a visual point of view, one would be a tarzan and the other an egg and egg, and there is no comparison between the two.

But at this moment, they were smashing into each other, and what was even more shocking to everyone was that the fine arms of the hands were still intact, but the thick arms of the giant mountain

"What?" A bunch of people can't help but suck in a cold breath

Chapter 2757

The thick mountainous arms were, at this moment, severely distorted, making people's skin tingle.

Even, the bones in the arm have pierced through the incomparably thick muscles, revealing silky white bones, mixed with blood flowing out, making people's bones look creepy.

"This"

Everyone was stunned, the giant mountain's hand bones alone were already far thicker than Han Qianqian's entire hand, but who would have thought that such a thick arm would directly break in the middle of a spar that was almost a descending strike?

"Poof!"

The giant fiercely spurted out a mouthful of blood, his eyes carrying a mixture of shock and disbelief.

He had been burst bodily in front of the power he prided himself on.

And on top of his right hand, Liu Gongzi, who had Han Qianqian's throat squeezed, was also staring at his feet in terror at this moment, in his eyes, Han Qianqian was no longer any Han Qianqian, he was clearly an unfathomable and extremely terrifying demon!

"Get lost!" With a soft voice, Han Qianqian's right fist moved violently, and an extremely strong force instantly struck the giant's arm, which looked like a mountain but was actually as soft as cotton.

Everyone was silent, completely shocked beyond words for a while.

Terrifying, just too terrifying.

"In terms of speed, the thin monkey is no match for it, in terms of strength, the fat army is also completely and directly crushed, in terms of cultivation, this guy can even walk out of the Liu family's supreme fire, this"

"It's not Liu Gongzi and the others who are descending dimensional strikes, it's him, it's him who is really descending dimensional strikes."

"Who would have thought that a man who holds back his anger would actually be such a godly man? This great world is indeed full of experts."

"The so-called high achievers, small hidden in the mountains, while big hidden in the city, speak of this truth."

"This man is not from the desert, he looks more like someone from the Central Plains. This Central Plains region is indeed a place where dragons and tigers are hidden and should not be underestimated."

"This incident, also tells us a truth, don't show off first, need to know that there are people outside of people, there is a heaven outside of heaven, convinced, I am really convinced."

"At such a young age, so domineering, it seems that we in the desert land are really young and narrow-minded, misplacing the pearl and being blinded by the wind and sand."

"That's right, given time, how much of a pervert this guy can become, no one knows."

After the shock, several people spoke eloquently. And those few women who were already in love, at this time among their eyes were even more starry-eyed, the kind of desire that came, even willing to give birth to a monkey to Han Qianqian in situ.

"Tick-tock, tick-tock."

Suddenly, at that moment, the sound of crisp and delicate water drops broke the whispers and dullness of the scene.

The crowd looked for the sound, only to see those tiny sounds of water, coming from Liu Gongzi.

One drop, two drops

Those "water" dripped down the corner of Liu Gongzi's trousers and hit the ground, forming a small pool of water.

Pee.

Almost after the giant was shaken away, the guy was completely scared to pee.

He knew that he had completely lost any hope, because his two biggest helpers, had been completely crippled, and he had no ability to fight back, especially, against a demon like Han Qianqian.

He somewhat regretted what he had done today, otherwise, instead of being stuck by the throat and waiting to be pronounced dead, he would be sitting on the third floor with good wine and food.

He was still the young master of the Liu family that everyone respected, not today, like a down and out and frightened dog.

But is there any use in regretting? He had lost even his last chance.

"No, don't kill me, whatever you want me to do, I can give you money, or something else, in short, as long as you don't kill me, anything is fine, please, please." Liu Gongzi begged in desperation.

At this moment, he had no dignity left. Or rather, he didn't need dignity when he was directly scared and pissed in front of a large audience.

Han Qianqian stared at him coldly and was pondering the credibility of his words, but at that moment, behind him, over in the main hall, the shopkeeper suddenly ran over in a frenzy: "Which one of you is Master Wearing Mountain Vest? There is a VIP looking for you!"

"I am, " the pangolin subconsciously returned a mouthful.

The shopkeeper smiled and frowned for a moment, this is not right, huh?

"Ah, he's" the mountain wearer froze for a moment and said back.

Then, the shopkeeper put his gaze towards Han Qianqian, and at once he let out an ouch, startled.

Isn't that that Duke Liu?

However, if the other party could treat Duke Liu like that, plus the giant and the skinny monkey were both knocked to the ground, how could the shopkeeper, who dealt with the essence of the matter, not know what was going on?

Even though he did not know the details, he could guess the general picture, and did not dare to say a word more. Looking at Han Qianqian, he respectfully bent slightly: "Master, are you the Wearing Mountain Armour?"

Han Qianqian nodded, and then, with a slight loosening of his hand, he let go of Duke Liu.

At once, Duke Liu sat down on top of his masterpiece, the "water bank", and at that moment, he didn't care about any common courtesy, but just breathed heavily, enjoying the nourishment of the air that he normally didn't take for granted.

"I see." Han Qianqian answered, then, casually swept a glance at Liu Gongzi on the ground, then, this time, he slightly walked towards the shopkeeper.

Without any nonsense, the Mountain Piercing Armour followed behind Han Qianqian, and slowly walked towards the hall under the guidance of the shopkeeper.

Even though Han Qianqian and Pierced Mountain Armour had gone, the scene, however, still fell into a dead silence.

If it were usual, these people would have gone to help Mr. Liu or ask for warmth.

But today, they all chose to look on indifferently.

Obviously, Mr Liu's status has fallen from the world to the ground, from everyone wanting to flatter him, to everyone now wanting to distance themselves from him.

For one thing, he wasn't that important, and for another, who would want to stand against that young man from Fang just now at this stopping point?

"Look, look, look at your mother, get the hell out of here." And how could Duke Liu not understand this from the eyes of the crowd.

The loss of status, the loss of dignity, had broken his whole being. In front of Han Qianqian, he did not dare to act rudely, but above this group of crooked people, what did he not dare to do?

The crowd looked at me, I looked at you, scared and still unable to find an excuse to leave, as Liu Gongzi shouted, a group of people crowded forward and backward to rush away.

If you don't let us stay, we don't want to stay here.

It's just that the Liu family is so powerful that many people don't dare to do it out in the open.

The best opportunity now is to go and befriend that young man, and to see what kind of guest of honour is invited to him.

Looking at the crowd leaving, Liu Gongzi was anxious and angry.

Obviously, he did not want the crowd to see him make a fool of himself, but he did not want to be the centre of attention and be left out of the crowd.

His teeth creaked tightly, but fortunately, there were a few people in the crowd who stayed behind.

The first to bear the brunt was Duke Yuan.

When he saw Duke Liu looking angrily at himself, and the rest of the crowd around him leaving, only then did Duke Yuan take a few steps over and try to pull Liu up.

"You get out, it's all your fucking fault, get out of here." Duke Liu angrily slapped Duke Yuan open, his whole body was furious, if it wasn't for this bitch, how could he be in this situation?

Duke Yuan sighed and still chose to walk over again, forcing Duke Liu to his feet, "Young Master Liu, I can't be blamed for this matter, before this, I already said that this kid is extremely uncomplicated."

"I just didn't expect that the kid wouldn't even give you face."

Hearing these words, Duke Liu's anger suddenly subsided, Duke Yuan's words were indeed somewhat true, even for himself, how could he have ever imagined that his wise life would turn over today?

Even his Duke Liu's face was not sold, this man was simply arrogant to the extreme.

"Young Master Liu, let's not just forget this matter. Even if you can't help me take revenge, the most important thing is, how can you still lead this desert area in the future?"

At these words, Liu Gongzi frowned and looked at Yuan Gongzi, full of doubts.

"I have a plan that will definitely help you grow a sigh of relief." Duke Yuan let out a cold voice, and then, gently attached himself to Duke Liu's ear and whispered something.

A moment later, a burst of cold sound surfaced on Duke Liu's face.

And at this moment, in the middle of the hall

Chapter 2759

When Han Qianqian and the mountain beetle followed the shopkeeper back to the hall, the hall had long been almost deserted, except for a table of sumptuous dishes in the small attic in the centre.

Beside the table, the rockery was beautiful.

A few women's names stood around respectfully, dressed in beautiful clothes and even more beautiful people, invisibly making the place even more beautiful.

At the table, a woman sits there, quietly waiting.

Although she was wearing a veil, her beautiful eyes were still captivating.

Han Qianqian smiled gently, and without having to guess, he already knew who it was.

"Han wears a mountain vest gongzi." Seeing the two Han Qianqian walk in, Su Yan gently rose and greeted warmly.

This had almost never been seen in the history of the Green Pearl maids.

Miss figure and looks almost one of the best, so since always are still many suitors, plus Miss still come gentle and delicate, so not to mention the initiative to greet others, even in the usual, but also mostly with their own sitting behind the bead curtain, want to say anything, but also mostly by themselves to pass the word.

But this time, not only was it upside down, it was even a big upside down.

Green beads sighed helplessly, she understood that the young lady's heart had already moved.

It was just another feeling of helplessness that Miss had clearly never had a man she liked and was even willing to spend her time choosing a husband for herself.

But this was such a boring young lady, and now, all of a sudden, there was a change in her normalcy.

This is something that if it were placed on any other man, it might be something that one could wake up laughing in their dreams, but instead of laughing, that guy, not only did he not laugh, but he even rejected the young lady outright

Thinking of this, Green Pearl gave Han Qianqian a white glance: "My lady knew you were at the restaurant and was afraid that the two of you were unfamiliar with the place, so she didn't even eat the beautiful feast specially made in the garden and specifically came to this shitty place to eat with you."

The subtext of these words was close to telling Han Qianqian directly, "Look how well our lady treats you."

Han Qianqian naturally understood, smiled faintly and sat down, "Why go to such trouble."

"You" Green Pearl was furious.

It was Su Yan, who smiled gently, "One person eating is also eating, eating together is at least lively."

Han Qianqian nodded and did not say anything.

The reason why Su Yan was able to do this was because she was worried that Han Qianqian and the others were unfamiliar with the place, so she was kind enough to take care of them, which Han Qianqian certainly appreciated.

However, since Han Qianqian knew what Su Yan wanted, he could not show it on the surface, and it would be even worse if she misunderstood him.

He only loved Su Yingxia.

"Huh? Isn't that the green pearl of the Su family's one and only?"

Over there, among the crowd who had arrived from the back, a sharp-eyed one recognized Su Family's most beautiful Green Pearl at a glance.

Even though she was only a maid of the Su Family, her outstanding looks had long been quite famous in the Desert Realm.

However, seeing Green Pearl there while still standing, a terrifying thought occurred to some!

"Shit, that sitting there, could that be the Su Family's Eldest Miss?"

"The woman who can make Green Pearl stand, who else has that qualification other than the Su Family's Eldest Miss, that legendary even more beautiful woman?"

"Fuck, that can't be right, Miss Su's family is stunningly beautiful, but she has always kept her door closed, and regular people don't even see her face. Even if she comes out, she is mostly guarded by special people, and often lives behind the pearl curtain, today"

"How dare she run away to the middle of the city today? And is even eating with others?"

"Shit, this is simply a fucking wonder of the desert realm."

"Strange, strange, first the unbeatable Liu Gongzi capsized his ship, and now, there's Miss Su's unprecedented descent to earth, is this fucking eight-sided world changing the sky, or is it that I can't wake up from my dream?"

The two most unlikely events in the desert land actually appeared today, and moreover, two of them at once, how could this not shock people?

However, this did lead to an even bigger question.

That is the young man who can make the desert world change twice, who is the god?

And at this time

Chapter 2760

The most imposing part of the Desert City is the City Lord's Palace, which covers an area of 10,000 acres, and its buildings are invisible from the front to the back, and from the left to the right.

Adjacent to the imposing City Lord's House is a black and white mansion, which is not as grand as the City Lord's House, but is unique in its grandeur, and the two jade lions in front of the door highlight the low-key luxury of this mansion.

This is the Fang family's young master's residence, but there is no young master of the Fang family here today, because the wedding is coming up, so the young master of the Fang family has already taken up temporary residence in the city master's residence, and this young master's residence has naturally given way to the most powerful family of the Fang family, or rather, the family closest to the Fang family.

The Liu family!

At this moment, the young master's hall, the Liu family head is with several elders will sit on, although the city master's house next door has long been decorated with lights, in the young master's house can also be heard in the city master's house of laughter.

However, at this moment, the people in the Young Lord's House were full of sadness.

"Report!"

A household servant hurriedly entered, kneeling down with a sharp shout.

"Rise." Liu Tao, the head of the Liu family, gaped and gently drank.

"Yes." The servant rose and then said respectfully, "The spies from the eight detachments have all come over."

"Very good, please come in quickly." Liu Tao said sharply.

When the servant left, Liu Tao and the elders looked at each other with a smile.

"The desert land is already getting hotter by the day, climbing by almost one degree of terror every year."

"The temperature of one degree per year may not seem to reflect much, but it is actually terrifying."

"Warm water is boiling the frog, the desert land is now becoming warm water, and we are the poor frog."

One degree per year may indeed not seem too hot, and ordinary people will not even notice much difference in three or five years, but if you build on the fact that in normal times in the desert lands it would only rise by zero degrees for thousands of years, this too becomes instantly alarming.

"If this continues, it won't be long before nothing living will exist in this familiar land of ours."

"Right now the scouts from the eight teams have returned, and I believe they should have brought certain good news." Liu Tao nodded, his face relatively relaxed.

Also almost at that moment, eight young men dressed in black walked in quickly.

"Greetings to the family head and the elders." The eight men were well trained and knelt down almost in unison as they spoke in unison.

"We are all family members, why do we need to be polite, hurry up and get up." Liu Tao hurriedly said.

The eight men looked at each other and hurriedly stood up.

"You have all been out for nearly three years, have you gained anything?" Liu Tao said softly and joyfully, his eyes filled with longing.

When he first went out, Liu Tao had given the eight teams a deadly order, if they did not find news for one day, they would not return for one day. Now that all eight teams had returned at the same time, there was bound to be some good news.

"Your Excellency, in these three years we have trekked through the mountains and almost searched the desert land as well as thousands of miles around, but there has been no news of its whereabouts, so for three years we have never returned to the Liu family."

"Unfortunately, today, three years later, we still haven't found it. But"

"We have its whereabouts."

Hearing the first half of the sentence, Liu Tao and the group of elders were already ashen, but when they heard the second half of the sentence, they finally saw a glimmer of hope amidst their despair.

It was good to have news, at least it was better than sinking into the sea.

"Strangely enough, for the past three years, we have spread our eyes all around, but we have not been able to sense it until a few days ago, when we found an anomaly in a village."

"A village?" Liu Tao frowned.

"It's already far on the outskirts of the desert land." The handlers explained.

Liu Tao nodded, "Then what next?"

"We have limited manpower to station people in every place, so when something was found we immediately rushed over, but strangely enough, the village that we had detected a few years ago suddenly disappeared." The handlers said.

"There is still something so strange?" Liu Tao frowned, "Could it be that the people in that village also knew that you had gone over there, so they hid?"

"People can hide, how should the buildings of the village be hidden? It was as if that village had ceased to exist overnight, and even the ground had grown a lot of green grass overnight, as if no one had ever lived there at all."

"There is still such a strange thing?" Liu Tao said with a frown.

"Strange though it is, what is even stranger is that the scent did not disappear with the village, but came all the way towards the Desert City." When his handlers finished speaking, they looked at Liu Tao.

"What?!" Almost simultaneously, Liu Tao and the elders, instantly stood up nervously.
