

His True Color Chapter 2761-2770

Chapter 2761

"It's coming all the way towards the Desert City?"

"This"

The group of elders looked at each other, but soon, one by one, they all revealed a happy smile.

"So, we've come all this way without any trouble?"

"After going round and round in circles, we ended up appearing directly in front of our own."

"This is truly a blessing from heaven, a blessing from heaven."

The gang was so happy and unaware of what was going on, there was no trace of the caution and seriousness expected of an elder.

"This is true, is it?" Liu Tao was also excited and looked at the eight people and said in a sharp voice.

The eight people looked at each other and nodded: "We have followed its scent all the way over here, and at this point, we can basically be sure that it is definitely definitely in the desert city."

Hearing this, a hint of joy flashed in several people's eyes, and Liu Tao even clapped his hands together, "Good, in that case, then this thing can't escape."

The Desert City was their territory, and in their territory, what could they not get?

"It's been three years, three years after all, right now, I can finally sleep in peace and quiet."

"That's right, the young master of the Fang family is about to get married, and now its whereabouts have been made clear, this is simply a double blessing, heaven's grace, heaven's grace."

"Haha, wonderful, wonderful."

Liu Tao smiled with satisfaction and said, "Third Elder, go immediately and tell Brother Fang the good news."

"Yes." The elder smiled and happily retreated.

"Alright, today's great joy, all disperse early and rest, I also need to catch up on my sleep." Liu Tao said happily.

For three years of days and nights, he had tossed and turned almost every night, with it, the temperature in the Desert City could be controlled, and with it, the crisis in the Desert City would be lifted.

Once the situation was stable, the plan of the two Fang and Liu families to sit on the big board would really fall on the nail, otherwise, everything would be empty talk.

Fortunately, everything has settled down.

The patriarch, Liu Tao, was happy and the group of elders were naturally very happy too, but just as they were happy and ready to retire, at that moment, a family man hurried in.

"Master, it's not good, something big is wrong." The houseboy panted heavily and looked panicked.

Liu Tao was in the midst of his excitement, and when he was messed up by this houseboy, he got a little angry on the spot and said with slight anger, "Now even if the sky were to fall, I would definitely not consider it a big bad thing, panicking, what is the decency of it?"

That houseboy froze, thought for a moment still said sharply, "Young master, young master he was beaten up?"

"Young master was beaten" Liu Tao repeated half a sentence full of care, suddenly remembered something, the whole person suddenly turned into a big shock: "What? The young master was beaten up?"

And almost at the same time, outside the hall, the young master of the Liu family was being held up by two household guards, and the giant and the skinny monkey behind him were also being carried by a few people, and that appearance was as miserable as it could be.

Seeing such a scene, not only did Liu Tao panic, but even all the elders present could not help but frown greatly.

Their family's young master had actually been beaten up?!

"Lu'er, Lu'er, my Lu'er, this this"

Before Liu Lu and the others could walk into the hall, Liu Tao had already personally led a group of elders to the door of the hall, looking at the injuries everywhere on Liu Lu's body, as well as the giant's broken right arm, the skinny monkey almost vomited blood all over his body, and all of a sudden, they were all in a state of dismay.

"Who is it, who has injured my Lu'er like this?" Liu Tao hurried over, pulling his son by the hand, while roaring angrily in grief and anger.

"That's right, who on earth is so bold as to dare to injure my Liu family's grandson, this is simply seeking death."

"Young master, there is no harm for you to say, even if it is that God, we will definitely help you to take out this bad breath."

The group of elders were also filled with righteous indignation, to them there was no right or wrong, only when someone from the Liu family was hurt.

"Father, forget it, let's not talk about it." With a face of bitterness that was simply not too realistic, Duke Liu said with a desire to speak, "It's a guest from the Fang family."

"I don't care if he's a guest of the Fang family or whoever, even if it's the King of Heaven, if he dares to touch my son, I'll make him eat his words." Liu Tao roared in anger.

Hearing Liu Tao's words, a bad smile appeared in Liu Lu's eyes, "Seriously?"

Chapter 2762

"When has my father ever lied to you?"

"That's right, young master, just tell me who he is, beating someone from my Liu family means that he doesn't put my Liu family in his eyes, this kind of person, kill him before he is killed." Several elders also helped the voice appropriately.

Seeing this, Liu Lu nodded his head and pretended to be badly injured, "Actually, it is indeed time to teach him a lesson."

"I didn't want to be normal with him, but he was really bullying, first hurting my friend Prince Yuan, and then hurting me, even when I reported the great name of our Liu family, he didn't take it into consideration at all."

"Even"

"Even what?" Liu Tao said angrily.

"Even the Supreme Fire of our Liu Family was humiliated by him in public." Speaking of this, Liu Lu looked quite guilty, "That guy has some skills, but my child is stupidly gifted and does not have enough mastery of the Supreme Flame, so that not only did the Supreme Flame not hurt him, but he was even humiliated in public after he blocked it, saying that our Liu Family's Supreme Flame is nothing but a rubbish fire, it is not even strong enough to burn wood in the woodshed."

"What!" Hearing these words, Liu Tao's nose was almost smoking with anger.

The Supreme Flame was the signature of the Liu Family, the foundation left behind by the old ancestors, but now it was being humiliated like this, how could this be endured?

"Family head, this person is really arrogant, if we don't kill him, heaven forbid."

"That's right, how can my Liu family lose face in the future?"

Looking at the indignant elders, Liu Tao nodded vigorously, "Lu'er, tell father, who is this beast's name? Today, I will help you to take your revenge."

"I don't know his name, but father, I heard that he is here with Miss Su's family and he is dining in the Ying Pavilion."

"Miss Su?"

Hearing these words, the elders who had just been filled with righteous indignation suddenly froze, and then they all suddenly stopped speaking.

The Su Family was also a big family, and its strength naturally could not be underestimated.

"Hmph, the Su family's young lady would actually dine with someone in a place like the Gathering Pavilion with her head out in the open, just this alone, what's wrong with the old man teaching the Su family a lesson for their offspring?" Liu Tao was eager to protect his son, and after hearing Miss Su's family just froze for a moment, he quickly found a reason.

"The family head is right, as the Su family's eldest young lady, instead of staying in her boudoir properly, she insists on running out to show her face, with such a heavy influence, it is time to take care of it for the Su family."

Hearing that there was an excuse, the group of elders followed suit again.

When faced with a great family like the Su family, as long as they had the upper hand and the upper hand, the division would be famous, then it didn't matter.

"It seems that, both in public and in private, we can't let this go. Everyone knows that our son is interested in Miss Su, but Miss Su is out in the open for another man, how can my young master's face still look? We are going there to take revenge, and also to shake the tiger, so that Miss Su will understand that a woman should follow the ways of a woman."

A group of people spoke eloquently about how morally bankrupt others were, but in reality they did not know how dirty they were and how disgusting they were.

"Someone!" Liu Tao bellowed.

"Yes!" All of them answered at the same time.

"I want to see who has the guts to hurt my son in the first place, and who has no regard for my Liu family."

"In this battle, I will not only teach that beast a lesson in blood, but I will also make Miss Su and everyone else open their eyes to see that the might of the Liu family is like the might of a tiger, and it is not something that can be messed with by mice and rats."

At this point, Liu Tao suddenly let out a cold laugh, "Speaking of which, it has been a long time since I let the world have a good taste of the Liu family's dominance and holy might."

As soon as the words fell, Liu Tao waved his hand and brought his family members and a group of elders, hundreds of them, out of the young master's residence in a great wave, and all the way directly towards the Gathering Pavilion to kill.

The Liu family passed by, all the passers-by were shocked, and many even heard about it and rushed to the Gathering Pavilion.

At that moment, in the Pavilion, Han Qianqiang and Su Yan were having their meal.

Suddenly, the shopkeeper came running in from outside the door in a panic: "It's not good, it's not good, it's not good."

Chapter 2763

Seeing the panicked shopkeeper, several female attendants immediately took a step forward and stopped him two meters from the table.

The shopkeeper flung himself onto his knees, "Miss Su, and several other masters, hurry up, something is wrong, something big has happened."

Green Pearl frowned, displeased, and gently shouted, "Panic, you should be damned, disturbing my lady's meal, do you know the crime of death?"

Su Yan gently waved her hand, indicating to Green Pearl that there was no need to do so, and then, looking at the shopkeeper, she softly said, "Shopkeeper, what is the matter that is so alarming?"

The words were extremely soft, and she really deserved to be Miss Su, even at such a time, she made people's hearts soften.

"Miss Su, there's a lot of noise outside, the head of this Liu family with a group of elders and hundreds of elites is rushing this way in a killing rage."

"I think this looks like it's probably because just now Duke Liu was beaten up by this master and this Liu family has come to seek revenge."

"As the saying goes, a good man doesn't want to suffer before his eyes, so you two should hurry up and leave before they arrive." The shopkeeper advised impatiently.

Su Yan frowned slightly, a pair of electric eyes seemed to be thinking about something, after a moment, she looked at Han Qianqian and said softly, "Why don't we go to another house first and stay there temporarily."

"Although it is the Fang family's place, it is reserved for the Su family, I expect that even if the Liu family is bold, they would never dare to barge in."

After saying this, regardless of whether Han Qianqian agreed or not, Su Yan glanced at Green Pearl and gestured for her to clear the way first.

But just as he was about to get up, a strange force suddenly struck him from behind, and before he could react, his body fell out violently due to the great inertia.

With just a thud, the shopkeeper's body had directly smashed a nearby table into pieces, and then a big foot mercilessly stepped on the back of the shopkeeper who was struggling to get up.

"Do you know what the Liu family hates the most?" Raising his eyes, a sturdy middle-aged man of about forty years old was disdainfully stepping on his back and drinking in a cold voice.

When he heard this, and saw this man, the shopkeeper wanted to cry, it was too late, everything was too late.

"What I hate the most is a dog like you who tipped me off." As soon as the words fell, the middle-aged man fiercely exerted a slight force on his foot, and all of a sudden, the shopkeeper under his foot was in pain, unable to even make a sound, only his body kept struggling, and his hands even violently slapped the ground, as a way to express his endless pain at this moment.

"That's enough." At this moment, Han Qianqian fiercely stood up, "You came here to take out your anger on some ordinary people, there is no need to do so, right?"

Seeing Han Qianqian's voice, Su Yan was anxious, but at this moment, Han Qianqian's eyes were firm, and she let out a slight sigh, it seemed that a big battle could not be avoided again.

However, for some reason, she, who had never been fond of fighting and killing, still had a small hint of anticipation at this moment.

She had seen Han Qianqian reveal his body, but it was obvious that Han Qianqian seemed to have fought with great restraint last time on the flower boat, so she was looking forward to seeing what it would be like if he used his full strength!

She was looking forward to it.

But she was also worried, because she knew very well, as a member of a large desert clan, how powerful the Liu family was and how strong the Liu family's instincts were.

Moreover, according to the shopkeeper, the head of the Liu family had not only come personally this time, but also had a large number of elites.

Not to mention Han Qianqian alone, even the Su family might not have the strength to compete with them completely.

"You, are that beast?" The middle-aged man saw that Han Qianqian was only a youth, and at once he said coldly in disdain.

Han Qianqian let out a cold laugh, not bothering to argue with him in the battle of words, and glanced blandly at the shopkeeper at his feet, "Let him go."

And almost at the same time, the Liu family's family head also brought a group of people, officially stepped inside the Ju Ying Pavilion

Chapter 2764

"You're so young, but you have such a strong mouth, is that what your parents and master taught you?"

As the group entered the room, one of the elders shouted loudly, the tone of his lecture and domineering, putting himself on a high pedestal and treating others as mere ants, making it unpleasant to listen to.

Some people, although their words are not too unpleasant, sound as if they are putting their hands into your stomach and pulling it out, making you sick.

This was the case with the elder in front of him.

However, he did not know it, but he looked like an immortal and a moral man.

"Do you know who he is? How dare you ask him to let him go? You are so young, you don't know what you are. Who are you to say such things?" The elder finished his sentence and swept his eyes at Han Qianqian with disdain!

"As the saying goes, a dragon crossing the sea has to ask the sea, and a snake walking the earth needs to know the earth." He said in a mocking cold voice.

"Old little boy, don't look like you know everything, saying anyone can say, but doing not necessarily anyone can do, like you." The pangolin shot back.

"Little monster, what do you mean by that?" The elder drank with a sinister look in his eyes.

"What I mean is, who are you again? And have you asked who we are?" The Mountain Piercer laughed coldly.

Hearing these words, that elder was instantly enraged and was about to make a move.

Luckily, at this moment, Liu Tao blocked in front of that elder with a hand, his eyes slightly shrinking as he said softly, "Watch your master when you beat the dog."

"Hmph, it's just relying on Miss Su's family beside him, otherwise, I'll take his dog's life right now." That elder said in a cold and disdainful voice.

Liu Tao smiled gently, looked at Su Yan and said softly, "Niece Su, it has been three years since the last banquet, how have you been?"

"Uncle Liu has a heart, Su Yan feels good about herself, but it is you, Uncle Liu, " Su Yan said with a polite smile.

"I also count each variety, still as Gu, niece Su, you also have a heart." Liu Tao finished, the words turned, said: "However, your concern is concerned, uncle has a point, but have something to say straight."

"Uncle Liu, but there is no harm in saying it." Su Yan said.

"As a daughter, you should be reserved and respectful, and you should stay in your bedroom. But look at you now, although this Ju Ying Court is not a place of flowers and willows, it is still a place where many people and visitors come and go, you are the Su family's young lady yet you appear in such a place, and you are still staying with two human-like things, the impact can be extremely bad."

Liu Tao's remark immediately drew a response from the crowd behind him.

One of the elders immediately nodded and said, "That's right, Miss Su is well-known in the desert world, no one does not regard her as a fairy, not only because of her wonderful appearance, but also because of her aura of being high above the world and her gentle and elegant interior, but now it seems that she is drinking with a bunch of vulgar men in the downtown area. I'm afraid that this will be the end of you."

"What is the difference between a woman who doesn't behave in a proper manner, even if she is a fairy, and a woman in a youth house? The only difference is the difference between a common and a top girl."

"The Su and Liu families have always been good friends, Miss Su, it's better to listen to your Uncle Liu and go back to your separate house to recuperate as soon as possible."

These people stood on the moral high ground, adopting rules and regulations that were in their own interest, seemingly knowing what was right, but in reality, they were only seeking their own selfish interests, which was simply disgusting.

Su Yan is not angry, not even verbal mood swings, can not be said that the psychological quality is not strong, if put on the body of the piercing mountain beetle, I am afraid on the spot will have to storm out, laughed: "Su Yan is only with friends to meet, which is not as exaggerated as Uncle Liu said?"

"You're talking about our young lady as if she'll have to be dipped in a pig cage if she continues to eat." Green Pearl muttered rather unhappily.

"How dare you!" That elder immediately scolded Green Pearl, "Do you have the right to speak among masters, you slave girl?"

"You also know that it's between masters, so why are you interfering?" Green Pearl shot back.

Although Green Pearl was a maid, she was not as gentle and courteous as Su Yan, this girl was sharp-tongued and quirky.

"Friend?" Liu Tao suddenly let out a cold laugh, "Niece Su you mean that these two, are your friends?"

"Exactly!"

"Shouldn't, shouldn't!" Liu Tao shook his head and laughed bitterly.

"What are Uncle Liu's words?" Su Yan wondered, not knowing what medicine this Liu Tao was selling in his gourd again.

Chapter 2765

"You are at least the daughter of the Su family, while these two are nothing more than a monster and a reckless youth, and looking at their dress, they are even more human underneath a human and a dog among dogs... Su Yan, you are simply confused."

"And how can this swan be friends with a toad?"

As soon as the words left his mouth, Liu Tao's eyes turned somewhat fierce as he looked at Han Qianqian and said in a cold voice, "It was you who injured my son?"

"Exactly." Han Qianqian returned his look, unwavering.

"I don't know how brave you are." Liu Tao finished his sentence and looked at Su Yan, laughing softly, "Niece Su, you heard it too."

"Since he is the disciple who hurt my family's Lu'er, he must be an enemy of my Liu family, how can such a person become friends with your Miss Su? Yan'er, don't be confused."

"Miss Su's family, you'd better obediently retreat to the side, lest the sword will be merciless later and hurt you, and even more so, the peace between the Liu and Su families."

Hearing these words, Green Pearl instantly and a few female attendants fierce a pair of eyes, the next second, only to hear a few clattering sounds, a few female attendants body clothes then by their qi shaking away, immediately after, jade hand in the back backhand claw, immediately, each hand soft sword silver bright, cold air forced.

"Is the Liu family threatening our Su family now?" Green Pearl shouted in a cold voice.

Han Qianqian and Piercing Mountain armor were directly shocked, these two goods actually had not noticed until now, it turned out that these seemingly weak female attendants around Su Yan, actually

The two of them had never noticed that these seemingly weak female servants around Su Yan were actually so fierce, and even had soft swords hidden in their bodies.

This is out of their expectation.

The fact is that the company has a lot of money to spend on the project.

"I can't say I'm threatened, but if Miss Su persists, as an elder, I wouldn't mind teaching my daughter a lesson for Old Su." Liu Tao chuckled softly.

"Then go ahead and let your horse come." Green Pearl shouted coldly, and with a slight swing of her right hand, a long sword was instantly pulled out directly from her sleeve and fell into her hand.

"Yo, this chick is quite spicy." Seeing this, Piercing Mountain Armour could not help but whisper.

Several elders looked at each other and were about to make a move, but just then Han Qianqian suddenly and slightly stood in front of Su Yan and the others.

With just one stop, it was cloudy and clear, yet imposing and overwhelming.

"But it's all between me and the Liu family, not the Su family, so just come at me if you have anything to say." Han Qianqian said in a soft voice.

Hearing Han Qianqian's words, the Liu family was stunned, but then again, they seemed to be able to think straight.

After all, although this guy was Su Yan's friend, if he provoked conflict between the two families, he could not afford to take the blame.

Secondly, as a man, how could he not behave like a man should at such a time? Otherwise, he would only be looked down upon by Su Yan.

At that time, it would be just as unappealing to the hearts of the beautiful people.

This was something that Liu Tao had repeatedly reviewed before he arrived. With this move, he could force Han Qianqian into the centre of the room, and he would not be able to be seen inside or outside.

The problem is, once this guy comes forward, there will be no worries for the Liu family, and killing him will be easier than killing an ant!

Seeing that Han Qianqian had already hit his mark, for a moment Liu Tao couldn't hold back the joy in his heart and laughed, "Still a man, at least he has some bearing at such a time, I was really worried that you were like a shrinking turtle, only daring to hide behind a woman."

The elder next to him, who was also arrogant and domineering, sneered coldly, "Dying vertically is better than dying horizontally, just because of your attitude, if you kneel down and kowtow to my young master and admit your mistake, then disable your own meridians, for the sake of Miss Su, I will spare your dog's life."

"Of course, you can also die horizontally, later we will make you beg for your life and beg for death."

As soon as the words fell, the group of elders and Liu Tao looked at each other with a smile that was full of playfulness.

Han Qianqian also couldn't help but shake his head with a bitter smile, "None of us have fought, it's still unknown who will beg for their lives and beg for their deaths... Are you afraid of smashing your tongue when you say something so early?"

"What the f*ck did you say?" Hearing Han Qianqian's words, that elder frowned in dissatisfaction!

Just then

Chapter 2766

The pangolin pulled out his ears disdainfully: "Old man, are you getting too old to have good ears? Do you want me to repeat it for him? I'm not good at anything, but I'm not bad at caring for the elderly."

Hearing this, that elder could no longer hold his face, his breath was like a bull, and he could not wait to peel off the piercing beetle with his eyes.

As soon as Liu Tao gave the order, he would be the first to result in this abominable monster.

The Mountain Piercing Armor laughed coldly, "Hey, a bunch of bitches, just look for trouble, and blow themselves up like they are so high, bashing this and that again."

After saying that, the piercing mountain beetle attached itself to Han Qianqian's ear and said, "If you want to fight, you can't let them take advantage of you, being a bitch and making a name for themselves."

Hearing the bastard's words, Han Qianqian shook his head with a helpless, bitter smile.

"You bastard, beating my gongzi, and now you're full of rudeness, I want you to die a horrible death." The elder broke into a cursing speech.

"Look, everything has turned sour in your mouth." The Mountain Piercer laughed disdainfully, "If there was any black and white assembly, your Liu family would go for a bit and would definitely take the first place for turning black and white upside down."

"Obviously you bullied us first, we put up with it, even if we couldn't stand it anymore and fought with you, we quickly stopped, but it was you, the young master of this old cunt, who took advantage of us letting you go, but secretly played a black hand, being beaten is not even light."

"What did you say?" Liu Tao coldly glanced at Liu Lu, who was vain, but still shook his head desperately.

"Are you deaf too?" The piercing beetle laughed coldly.

"Father, don't listen to his nonsense."

"I'm talking nonsense? All those present can testify to that." The pierced mountain armour laughed.

"Is that so?" Liu Tao finished, his eyes fiercely swept over everyone present, and the gang instantly lowered their heads one by one, none of them dared to pit a sound.

The power of the Liu family, the power of the Fang family, how could they be messed with by others?

Liu Tao laughed coldly and very recklessly, "Little monster, what else do you have to say?"

As soon as the words fell, those elders beside Liu Tao were also laughing grimly and coldly at this time.

Seeing this, the Mountain Piercing Armour's smile instantly froze. Obviously this guy, not deep enough into the world, by which knows that the world is dangerous and the hearts of the people are not ancient.

The nimrod, can still play like this?

But just at this time, suddenly, a loud cry from the crowd, "I can!"

With the sound, a man slowly stood out in the middle of the crowd.

When everyone looked at that person, they could not help but be amazed, because that person was actually the shopkeeper who had been bullied by Liu Lu just now.

At this moment, the shopkeeper clenched his teeth, obviously having gathered enough courage, and stepped forward with firm eyes in full view of everyone.

"I can testify that it was Mr Liu who had been aggressive, not only did he intentionally make things difficult on the stairs, forcing Miss Su's friends to live in the woodshed, but he even made me serve them some dishes that had been sprayed with their spit. After that, he even made me buy pigs and dogs and intentionally put them in the woodshed. Even when the two sides fought later, Miss Su's friends also intended to stop, but unfortunately, Mr. Liu played dirty behind the scenes and sneaked up on others."

As the shopkeeper's words fell, everyone in the Liu family was angry, while the shopkeeper on the ground who was stepped on shook his head and sighed bitterly, "You stupid donkey."

This kind-hearted shopkeeper was obviously sending himself into the fire.

Liu Tao was so angry that he was about to blow his beard and glare at each other, and the elders looked at each other, and in a flash, they seemed to have reached some sort of consensus with each other, and in the next second, he suddenly looked at the shop boy, "And who are you?"

"I am the junior of the Ju Ying Pavilion, I was involved throughout the incident." The shop boy was a little numb inside from Liu Tao's look, but he still gritted his teeth and said with courage.

As soon as the words left his mouth, an elder slowly walked out and laughed coldly, "A mere shop boy is just an inferior beast, what credibility is there in what he says?"

"Although I am a man of few words, but every word"

"Ka-ching!"

Suddenly, just as the shop boy's words were generally spoken, the elder's hand had suddenly rested on his neck, and with a crunching sound, the boy's neck was snapped by him on the spot, and with unwillingly widened pupils, he fell violently to the ground.

"Now, are there any witnesses?" The elder chuckled softly.

Han Qianqian wanted to step in to save him, but obviously hadn't expected them to just kill someone in full view of everyone, and by now it was clearly too late.

Looking at the shop boy who had fallen to the ground, Han Qianqian's eyes were filled with rage!

Chapter 2767

Seeing this scene, the onlookers present lowered their heads, this is what happens when you go against the Liu family.

"Tsk, since there are no more witnesses, it won't prove that what you said is true?" That elder gave a strange laugh.

The few elders behind him also burst into laughter.

Even Green Pearl and Su Yan were furious at the moment.

Killing people to silence them had never been seen so blatantly.

"You bunch of"

The pierced mountain beetle roared in anger, but was stopped by Han Qianqian faintly, his eyes staring deadly at that elder, Han Qianqian faintly spoke, "There is no need to be proving anything."

"Because" Han Qianqian suddenly smiled coldly, "For those who are going to die, there is no such need!"

As soon as the words left his mouth, Han Qianqian's fierce body had already turned into a residual shadow, but his body had already attacked that elder with great speed.

Han Qianqian's speed obviously caused the Liu family members to be visibly stunned, but in the next second, a group of people, worthy of being the elders of the Liu family, the elites of the elites, reflected extremely quickly and slightly withdrew their bodies to make enough space, and immediately afterwards, the elder shouted coldly, "Go!"

The dozens of elites behind him immediately attacked Han Qianqian directly.

"Boom!"

But almost instantly, those dozens of elites had just taken one step forward, and some of their feet hadn't even hit the ground, but in the next second, they collectively stood still.

Han Qianqian's figure, like lightning, passed through them, holding a jade sword, and was already standing there.

The sword's light was cold, but there was not a trace of blood!

But those dozens of disciples suddenly fell to the ground in a flash.

The sword was fast!

So fast that it even killed dozens of people without their blood having time to stain the sword!

The onlookers' jaws dropped, unable to say anything in shock.

Even the elders of the Liu family and Liu Tao could not help but look shocked, and the elites behind them could not help but take a half step back in fear!

What the hell kind of speed was that? What the hell kind of sword technique is this?

With a single sword strike, dozens of elites had already become his dead!

Han Qianqian bent over slightly, and then, picking up the shopkeeper's corpse slightly, smiled bitterly.

What was wrong with him?

He had only told the truth, and he had to pay with his life?

And what was wrong with him?

To be stabbed in the hand with such a wound for just telling a lie for himself!

He was not at fault, it was you who were at fault!

With a fierce look of anger, Han Qianqian looked at the Liu family and Liu Lu!

The Liu family members were shocked by Han Qianqian's look, and Liu Lu almost rolled off his recliner.

What kind of look was that?

The eyes of the gods of hell!

"Brother, I'm sorry." Han Qianqian suddenly smiled gently and bitterly, as if talking to himself or to the dead shopkeeper, "I am to blame for being careless and costing you your life, the only thing I can still do is to let you see clearly how I avenged you."

As soon as the words left his mouth, Han Qianqian shouted coldly, "If you don't want to die, get lost!"

This shout made the elites of the Liu family retreat another half step, while the crowd of onlookers also hurriedly retreated outside.

Only Liu Tao, with a group of elders, stood in front of Han Qianqian in a deadly manner.

"Zip, zip!"

With his left hand supporting the shopkeeper, his right hand held a long jade sword, only at this moment, the sword was half wrapped in red fire and half wrapped in blue and purple light!

It was actually the Heavenly Fire and the Moon Wheel!

The twelve elders on the other side were also lined up, ready for battle!

The atmosphere was at its peak as the two sides drew swords.

Han Qianqian suddenly smiled wickedly, and in the next second, with a sword in one hand and the corpse of the shopkeeper in the other, he charged violently at the Liu family elders

Chapter 2768

The Liu family elders also quickly turned into a formation against the charging Han Qianqian, fiercely forming a circle in a single line and directly surrounding him.

"Boom!"

As soon as the two sides came into contact, a pair of twelve, twelve in one!

In an instant, there were shadows of swords and sabres and explosions of Dharma energy!

A group of spectators gathered their energy together to resist the attack. Although they were of average ability, by gathering the strength of all the people, they could at least support the boundary and avoid being affected.

In the midst of the crowd, Han Qianqian's jade sword swept across, the Heavenly Fire Moon Wheel wrapped around the sword, sometimes adding to the power of the jade sword, sometimes moving with the sword and causing fire or purple and blue lightning to jagger.

The twelve elders of the Liu family are obviously no ordinary people, especially the formation formed by the twelve is invincible in attack and solid in defence thanks to their skilful coordination!

The six elders were responsible for the main attack, while the six elders were responsible for the defence and also assisted from the side in a feint attack.

This is the strongest combined move of the twelve elders of the Liu Family, and it is also the magic weapon they have used to overcome their enemies over the years.

The Twelve Formations of the Lights!

"How does it taste, brat?"

Seeing that Han Qianqian had failed to break the formation several times, one of the elders laughed coldly.

Han Qianqian laughed coldly, but did not reply. The Twelve Light Formations were indeed somewhat powerful, thanks to the close cooperation and tacit understanding between the twelve of them.

However, these could only give their cultivation and ability a certain boost, but it did not mean that their cultivation and ability could directly jump a few paragraphs.

Since they could not do so, how meaningful were these co-ordinations, in the face of Han Qianqian, who was obviously of a higher cultivation level!

Without further ado, Han Qianqian held his jade sword, and the Heavenly Flame Moon Wheel was instantly drawn from the sword, transforming into two flying dragons that opened up left and right to accompany Han Qianqian's fierce attack on one of them, killing him straight away.

The unlucky elder was visibly stunned and subconsciously tried to block as soon as he could, but in the next second, the bastard completely regretted it.

Han Qianqian's attack was swift and fierce, and his sword was so powerful and the angle was so tricky that after only a few swords, his mouth was already tingling and he was already exhausted.

"Protect Lao San." The crowd shouted, and the other eleven people instantly surrounded him.

The unlucky elder was already exhausted, and when he was faced with the 72 divine swords, he was so dazed and confused that he had forgotten how to resist.

Although the twelve were as tightly connected as iron barrels, able to trap people larger than themselves like water, there was a problem: if any one of the barrel plates collapsed, then the remaining others would be meaningless.

Han Qianqian understood this, and how could the twelve elders not understand it?

Seeing that Han Qianqian had simply ignored the attack behind him and was only targeting that one elder with more force, the group looked at each other and simply used their full strength to attack Han Qianqian even more fiercely.

They were determined to kill Han Qianqian with a single blow!

But almost as the eleven elders were attacking Han Qianqian with all their strength, Han Qianqian suddenly flipped over.

Like an overlord returning to his horse!

Turning around, he directly met the elder who was attacking from behind!

The elder was attacking Han Qianqian with all his might, so how could he have known that he would suddenly choose to turn around and attack back? He was shocked, but his arrow had already left the string, so he could only attack Han Qianqian with his head.

Almost at the same time, Han Qianqian's fast figure also attacked the elder.

"Poof!"

"Clang!"

There was a metallic sound, a poof, and the two figures crossed paths.

Han Qianqian had already rushed out of the twelve people's encirclement, while that elder also flew some distance forward through and then stopped violently.

"Surround him." When the leading elder saw that his senior brother had already returned to his position while Han Qianqian had already rushed out, he let out a loud shout and led a group of senior brothers to once again line up and surround Han Qianqian heavily once again.

"Brat, do you think you can get rid of our Tie Tong formation like this? Idiot's dream." The leader, the eldest elder, shouted coldly and looked intently at Han Qianqian.

Han Qianqian smiled gently and swept his cold eyes at the group of elders surrounding him.

Suddenly, someone seemed to sense that something was wrong and looked around in desperation, and was horrified for a moment.

The Iron Barrel Formation had been re-laid, but of the twelve men, there were only eleven.

The eleven men turned back in panic, but saw that behind them, the elder had not moved with them, but was standing still

Just when everyone was puzzled, suddenly, he moved

Chapter 2769

Or rather, he did not move.

Everything was as normal in his green and grey tunic, but a stream of blood suddenly flowed out between his abdomen, staining a large part of his clothes and also dripping slowly down his shirt.

Bang

This time, he finally moved.

Only, it was a heavy, stiff body that smashed directly into the ground.

"He he's dead." Someone said in panic.

But what was even more horrifying was the manner of his death and the process.

He clearly looked like nothing had happened, but in the blink of an eye he was suddenly bleeding like water and then he was dead!

"This may not be too fast of a sword, right?" Someone exclaimed.

"The sword is fast!"

There was only one answer to this!

When one's sword is fast enough, a sword goes by and one doesn't even seem to feel the presence of the wound on the body, and before any reaction is made, it's all over!

But such enough is speed, what kind of speed must it be?

The crowd didn't know, much less ever thought about it!

"How is this possible?" Liu Tao looked at the scene in front of him with incomparable shock.

Twelve elders, almost the Liu family's family shaking treasure, any one of the elders had at least the strength of the Evil Punishing realm, even if taken out alone, not to say invincible existence, but at least it was difficult to meet an opponent.

Even if an expert like the Eight Wastelands existed, it would never be possible to kill them in seconds with a single sword.

What's more, this Elder was not alone, but in the midst of their strongest twelve-man formation.

How could he be killed like that?

It wasn't that I hadn't thought of it, but that I hadn't thought of it at all.

The eleven elders also looked shocked, especially when they set their eyes on Han Qianqian, but they were shocked to find that there was not the slightest trace of injury on his body.

It was clear that both sides were not defending against each other, so why did their elder die while Han Qianqian was unharmed?

This was impossible!

Even if they were as stable as old dogs, at this moment, they could not help but feel a trace of fear and incomprehension in their hearts under the shock.

However, there was no more time for them to figure out the reason for this, because at this moment, Han Qianqian, with his sword in one hand, came over once again.

The elders hastily responded to the battle!

But without the support of the Iron Bronze Formation, how could the eleven, who were already struggling, win against Han Qianqian?

As the battle progressed, the eleven were not only pushed back by Han Qianqian, but they were also suffering from sword wounds, and the elders, who were still quite immortal, were now in a terrible state.

"Fierce, this is too fucking fierce, right?"

"Shit, those are the top pillars of the fucking Liu family, not only do they have no advantage in front of him, but they are completely being pressured and beaten, am I fucking looking at it wrong or not?"

"You're not wrong, this guy's swordsmanship is outrageous, and his swords are incredibly fast and powerful at the same time, where the hell did this kid come from?"

The people watching the battle were so shocked that they all had to show their inner shock even in front of the Liu family.

Over there, the faces of the Liu family were obviously not good either. At this moment, Liu Tao's cronies beside him looked at the scene and said in an urgent voice, "Master, the situation is not right, the eleven elders can't hold on any longer, if they continue to consume like this, they will die."

Liu Tao also nodded his head, he was not blind to such a situation, besides, the situation was already like this, if the eleven elders were to lose again, where should the Liu family's reputation be put?

"Family head, make a move." The man said softly.

Liu Tao no longer said anything, but his hand had already slightly transported energy, and a red flame slowly appeared in his palm at once.

"Supreme Flame!"

"Holy shit, the head of the Liu family, is this a strike?"

When they saw that Liu Tao's side had already started to transport the flame, at once, the people watching the battle could not help but collectively let out a shocked cry.

Even though at this moment, Han Qianqian was occupying the absolute upper hand against the eleven elders, he could not stop the group of people from expressing their deep concern for him at this moment.

The Supreme Flame.

That was the Liu family's true mastery and foundation.

And the Supreme Flame unleashed by Liu Tao was clearly not a three-legged cat like Liu Gongzi!

"I really didn't expect to see the might of the Liu Family again, here, after so many years!"

The group of people were extremely shocked, and at that moment, Liu Tao also fiercely made his move

Chapter 2770

Boom!

With a raise in his hand, the red fire at his palm was then instantly flung to the ground, and then with great speed, he rushed directly towards Han Qianqian.

The ground fire spread, but when it rushed to the general, the red light had turned ghostly blue.

"Withdraw!" The leader elder shouted, and after a fierce palm strike at Han Qianqian in his hand, he led the men to retreat with a sharp body.

And almost at the same time, the other ten elders who had long been in tacit agreement also fiercely attacked Han Qianqian after each, pulling back.

"Fuck, despicable and shameless, hurting people behind their backs, what kind of heroes and heroines are you?" Seeing that the eleven attacks in front of Han Qianqian had not been resolved while the earth fire had come along, the Mountain Piercing Armour could not help but break into a cursing fit.

This was the case with the Mountain Piercing Armor, and also with the Green Pearl, such a despicable act, there is no style of a great man, it is clearly a nest of snakes and rats.

Su Yan, on the other hand, quietly watched the situation unfold.

She was a little worried because Han Qianqian was dealing with twelve people on his own, and it would have been fine if they were normal people, but these twelve people were all good fighters.

As the saying goes, it is hard to beat four hands with two fists, but Han Qianqian has two hands, but he can beat twenty-four hands, which makes Su Yan's expectation of him even higher.

"Han Qianqian, this time, are you still up to it?"

And almost at the same time, boom!

A loud sound of flame, in the next second, the earth fire of this but gap suddenly and violently rose up, hard as the fire of the sky, directly engulfed the whole Han Qianqian.

Han Qianqian only frowned, he had just defused the combined attack of eleven people, and there was no way he could resist the attack of the supreme fire on the ground.

Almost as soon as he reflected, the flames had already completely enveloped him.

As soon as the flames wrapped around Han Qianqian's body, the heat became unstoppable, and even though Han Qianqian used his true energy to resist, the flames still ate away at his clothes directly through his energy shield.

Although there was no open fire, his clothes turned into ashes one after another.

The whole body also felt hot and dry for a while.

It was as if he was about to be cooked.

"How could this happen?" Han Qianqian frowned greatly.

Clearly, although the Supreme Flame both came from the Liu family, Liu Lu and Liu Tao were clearly not on the same level in terms of their control of fire. If Liu Lu's Supreme Flame was only barely an introduction, then Liu Tao's had already reached the peak and reached the ultimate level.

The two were the same fire, but their power was vastly different.

"Haha, hahahahaha!" Over there, seeing the fire engulf Han Qianqian, the two fathers and sons behaved almost identically for a while, Liu Tao, like Liu Lu last time, could not help but laugh coldly in triumph.

The eleven elders also finally breathed a sigh of relief, drenched in sweat, as they were really surprised by Han Qianqian.

The good thing was that this kid had finally received his comeuppance!

"What should we do?" Green Pearl looked at the blazing fire and asked the lady and the piercing beetle in several voices, although she hated Han Qianqian for rejecting her.

But she was also clear that Han Qianqian had captured her heart a long time ago, otherwise, how could she be angry?

When it came to a life and death situation, how could she not be worried!

"Don't worry, he can walk out!" The Mountain Piercing Armour forced himself to play it cool.

Even though Han Qianqian had walked out of the Supreme Flame just before, even he, an outsider, was clear that the Supreme Flame today was no longer the same as the Supreme Flame back then, and the difference between the two was enough to compare an ordinary person to the Eight Desolate Realms.

To put it simply, there was no comparison at all.

Sharing the same attitude as the piercing mountain beetle, there were also many onlookers.

They were just as convinced that Han Qianqian would walk out, but when they saw the expression on Liu Tao's face and the even more massive flames, they couldn't help but beat a retreat at this point.

That was the head of the Liu family after all, and without certainty he would naturally not laugh as wildly as a young young master like Liu Lu.

Moreover, even though they were far apart and had specially drawn up a protective shield, they could still feel the bursts of heat coming from that supreme fire.

But don't trust Han Qianqian, what if he walks out again, what should this be?!

At this moment, Han Qianqian's body had long been soaked through, and his whole body was as if he had just come out of the water, but even though his whole body was covered in water, his lips were so dry that they were basically about to crack.

The intense heat not only baked his body making him dying, but also made his spirit step by step towards weakening, slowly, he was about to faint

But just then
