

His True Color Chapter 2821-2830

Chapter 2821

The smug Fang Kun, coupled with the fact that the lights in the heavenly prison were relatively darker, Fang Kun did not notice the cold hatred on Fang Watch's face at this time, he just playfully glanced at Han Qianqian lying on the ground, with a hint of provocative coldness in his eyes.

It seemed to be telling Han Qianqian that even if his father had come, that was no reason for Han Qianqian to save his life.

After looking around at the traces of a fierce fight that had taken place, the smugness on Fang Kun's face became even more unconcealed, thinking that the bastard had already been played with by that slayer.

However, what made him even happier was that Han Qianqian was still alive despite having suffered such a great humiliation.

If he found the Ice God, humph, everything that was happening was going just the way he wanted it to.

However, unlike him, at this moment, Fang Guan's teeth were already clenched and his anger was raging.

If Fang Kun used to be the biggest facade and pride of his life, now, he felt that even having an egg was better than having such a disobedient son.

"Did you capture the man?" Forcing down his anger, Fang Watch asked.

Not understanding his father's meaning in the slightest, Fang Kun answered freely, "Exactly."

"Who are you to arrest him?"

"This boy molested a woman in public, so he should be arrested." Fang Kun said.

"Is there some kind of misunderstanding here?" Despite his anger, it was his own son after all, and Fang Watch still did not give up his last chance to try to guide his son.

But in the eyes of the smug Fang Kun, not only did he not appreciate his father's good intentions in the slightest, but instead, he felt that Han Qianqian must have said something in front of his father, so much so that his father wanted to investigate clearly.

"There is no misunderstanding, there is all the evidence in this matter." Fang Kun said.

"If the evidence is all there, then bring it to me." Seeing that this foolish person was not the least bit on the right track, Fang Watch also said with slight anger.

Hearing this, Fang Kun frowned, "No, father? You mean you'd rather believe this brat than your own son?"

True son?

It was better not to mention it, but the more he mentioned it, the angrier Fang Guan became, "I can't wait to disown you now, and you're still talking to my own son?"

You're a fucking rebellious son.

"I only believe in facts." Fang Watch said angrily.

"Your father is right, if you have proof, show it yet." Chai Rong also said in a cold voice with an icy face.

"Master, even your old man" Fang Kun froze, completely dumbfounded in his place.

What is this situation?!

"Master?" Old Mr. Chai laughed coldly and said disdainfully, "Mr. Fang should not shout nonsense, Mr. Chai has been cloudy all his life and has long been accustomed to the days of idleness and solitude, never intending to bring a second person with him, so naturally he will not accept any disciples."

"Moreover, I wouldn't dare to climb high above the Fang family, and I would like to ask Mr. Fang, you can eat your meal indiscriminately, but don't say anything indiscriminately."

After saying this, Old Mr. Chai parted his face slightly, not even bothering to glance at Fang Kun.

Hearing this, not only was Fang Kun dumbfounded, but even the Fang watch at the side was also dumbfounded.

What does that mean?

Does this mean that Fang Kun's journey to worship his master is just over?!

This

If it was said that Fang Kun was so happy to learn that he would be able to learn from Old Mr. Chai, now, hearing this bolt from the blue, it was so tragic!

It was as if in an instant, falling from heaven into hell, and then also being viciously stepped on a few feet.

"Master Chai old man for why?" Fang Kun felt incredulous, the intent on his face turned into a face full of disbelief, "Just because just because I caught this bitch?"

"Bitch?" Old man Chai snorted coldly, if he is a bitch, then what are you?!

But just as Old Mr. Chai was about to retort him, suddenly, at this moment, Old Mr. Fang unintentionally swept a glance at Han Qianqian's legs, and when he saw the incomparably dark patch on his legs, he couldn't help but be shocked.

When Mr. Fang moved down with Mr. Chai's gaze and saw the same on the legs, his eyes widened in shock, and at the same time, his body lurched and he fell directly on the bars of the cell, pointing at Fang Kun, furious: "You you.... . you sinful son, you what exactly have you done to him?"

Chapter 2822

Fang Kun frowned, "I really don't know what you guys are doing with this look, just catching a man who molested a woman, do you need to exaggerate so much?"

"This guy was caught by me with the stolen goods, but his mouth is as hard as iron, I only punished him with a small punishment and used some minor torture."

After saying that, Fang Kun glared viciously at Han Qianqian.

This bitch, he didn't know what he had said to Old Mr. Chai and his own father, so that the two elders were so angry, when he had gotten through this, I want you Han Qianqian to pay back twice as much!

Little punishment?

Old Mr. Chai and Fang Watch both stared wide-eyed.

Their feet were already as black as charcoal, and this was still called a small punishment?

Besides, they were both veterans of the desert world, so how could they not know what kind of lynching this man had used when they saw the symptoms?

If it had been a normal person, it would have been fine, but this damned rebellious son had to be put on Han Qianqian's body.

The more Mr. Chai thought about it, the angrier he became, and even a cold smile curled the corners of his mouth as he looked at Fang Watch with a deadly gaze.

Fang Watch was also angry and anxious, but on one end was his own son, and on the other end were the Ice God and the old seniors of the Desert Realm, who were all waiting for his reply.

"Good, you have caught it well, you have caught it very well." Fang Watch nodded heavily, then, with a slight slant, he turned around in the next second and slapped out with great force!

"Slap!"

The sound of the slap was so loud that it even shook the ears a little in the Heavenly Prison!

"Father? You hit me?" Touching the right side of his face, which was sore and even red and swollen, Fang Kun looked at his father incredulously.

Ever since he was a child, he had been the future of the Fang family, being watched by all and cared for by his parents, and for many years, not to mention his father had beaten him, he had never even said a heavy word.

In his words, he was his father's flesh and blood, so how could a father be willing to do that?

But today, not only did he say something serious, he even hit himself, and for the sole purpose of a person who had nothing to do with him, no, to be precise, it was his enemy.

"Beat you? I will not only beat you, I will also beat you awake!"

Fang Watch roared in anger, and in the next second, his other hand swung up violently, then slapped down.

"Slap!"

The left side of Fang Kun's face was in another burst of fiery pain!

The few servants behind Fang Kun looked dumbfounded, they had never seen the family head do this before, let alone the family head do this to his own young master.

They were about to kneel down and beg for mercy for the young master when they heard Fang Guan suddenly shout in a cold voice, "Someone come."

"Yes!"

"Whatever young master Fang used on him in the Heavenly Prison, you, too, will use on him, remember, double!"

After saying this, Fang Watch stood with his back turned and raised his head slightly, both to stop his grief and not wanting to see Fang Kun to avoid his anger growing even more.

Hearing these words, Fang Kun's whole body was directly dumbfounded, and he even panicked, taking a few steps to walk behind Fang Miao, shouting in disbelief, "Father? What are you talking about?"

"I am your child."

A few servants also hesitated to make a move, standing by with difficult faces waiting for Fang Miao to change his mind.

But Fang watch didn't even turn back, just blandly and coldly bellowed, "What? Are your ears useless? Can't you hear me?"

Several servants no longer dared to hesitate, and hurriedly went to Fang Kun's side and escorted him down.

Seeing his father's determination, Fang Kun was completely panicked, and looking at Han Qianqian, who was lying on the ground and looking at him indifferently, he was almost irritated, "Fang Guan, have you gone mad? A tiger does not eat its son, you even want to kill your own son, do you deserve my dead mother?"

Fang Biao closed his eyes heavily, because his beloved wife had passed away before he gave birth to Xia Kun, so much so that he was extremely fond of his only son, and it is not too much to describe him as spoiled.

But how could he have imagined that it was this pampering that would lead him to such a catastrophe today?

Although he was a father who appreciated his son's youthfulness,

"In the next life, we are doing our best as father and son."

"Drag it on." Fang Watch gave a long sigh.

As soon as the words fell, Fang Kun's face showed horror, while several servants did not dare to say more, dragging Fang Kun then towards the rotten torture room next to him.

"How could this happen?"

Fang Kun stared in a daze at Han Qianqian in front of him, incredulously being slowly dragged away

Chapter 2823

Letting out a long breath, Fang Watch looked back slightly at Fang Kun, who was already being dragged further and further away, with both reluctance and more helplessness in his eyes.

"Ice God, the sinful son has been punished, if you still feel any dissatisfaction, Fang is willing to take the punishment for the rebellious son."

"Tomorrow is already the Duke's big wedding, it's a big celebration for the Fang family, and why do you need to do some big white thing that sees blood at this time?" Han Qianqian laughed softly and then slowly stood up, "I think it's better to keep this double punishment in mind and come back for it when he finishes his wedding or when I'm in a bad mood."

"How?"

When he heard Han Qianqian's words, Fang Biao's eyes were full of shock, how could he have thought that Han Qianqian would be so good at talking?

What's more, this condition was beneficial to Fang's family without any harm.

Old Mr. Chai frowned slightly and looked at Han Qianqian strangely.

The man in front of him, despite his youth, obviously made him, as an old man, unable to guess at all for a while.

Such a big disrespect, and just let it go?

Again or

He was deliberately somewhat biased in favour of the Fang family?!

He was not sure of the answer to this question, but to the Fang table, the answer was exceptionally clear.

If he was not biased towards the Fang family, how could the Ice God's old man have made a big deal out of it?

Thinking of this, Fang Biao immediately bowed his body slightly in a ninety degree position, "On behalf of my rebellious son, Fang Biao would like to thank the Ice God, and after the wedding banquet is over, Fang Biao will certainly personally bring my rebellious son here to thank him."

Han Qianqian smiled gently and nodded, slowly rising one by one and walking out of the cell.

"If Fang Kun asks about it, don't say much, besides it's better to have such places rarely, so as not to damage some Yin virtue."

After saying these words, Han Qianqian slowly walked towards the gate of the Heavenly Prison.

As they watched Han Qianqian walk freely, Fang Biao and Chai Rong only then reflected and could not help but stare at each other.

Hadn't he been tortured by ice and fire? The ice torture was slow to take effect, so it was just as well that it didn't show at this point, but this fire torture had burnt his feet like that, and he was still acting as if he was fine.

God damn it!

"Why are you still standing there? Why don't you hurry up and save your son? Also, Fang watch, hurry up and retreat from this pandemonium." When Chai Rong finished speaking, he also hurriedly followed Han Qianqian's footsteps and walked out of the Heavenly Prison.

"Retreat!" Looking at Old Man Chai's back, Fang Watch seemed to be answering him, but also seemed to be reminding himself.

What's the use of keeping this shitty place if you don't evacuate it yet! It almost angered the Ice God and wreaked havoc on the entire Fang family!

Not to mention the fact that the Ice God was not happy to see it, even he himself felt disgusted to stay in this shitty place now.

However, when he thought that the Ice God had intended to favour himself at this time, a smile suddenly spread across Fang's face, which had been quite heavy.

Then he rushed to the torture chamber to save his son.

Outside the Heavenly Prison, Mr. Chai caught up with Han Qianqian, and after a slight salute, he said that he had not greeted him properly, and that Han Qianqian had been in danger.

The old man even respectfully made his resignation to Han Qianqian, and only then did he hurry to welcome him.

"Good, Han Qianqian, it's really how others put you in, so they send you out. Where's that bitch Fang?"

"Don't let me see him, I'll rip his skin off."

But Han Qianqian shook his head with a smile and said, "Once it's light, he'll be the groom. If you beat up the groom on the eve of the wedding, aren't you afraid that the bride will seek revenge on you?"

"Shit, from what you're saying, you're not letting that Fang bitch off the hook, are you? Just thinking about his arrogant look makes me very unhappy."

Han Qianqian laughed gently, in fact, he was also upset, however, the reason why he was willing to leave Fang Kun alone for the time being was because he didn't want to fall out with the Fang family, after all, he still had to count on them for the matter of the flower boat.

Therefore, Han Qianqian did not want to do so.

The second, and in fact the most important one, was that, to be honest, nowadays Han Qianqian was really looking forward to what kind of good show this guy would prepare for himself, tomorrow!

Chapter 2824

"Alright, it's getting late, go back and rest early."

Patting the piercing beetle's shoulder, Han Qianqian smiled faintly and led him towards the backyard.

In the backyard, Su Yan was sitting in the house, dazed, with a pair of good-looking eyes that were both vaguely worried and a little despondent.

It was only when she heard Green Pearl's delighted entry to inform her that Han Qianqian had returned that the beauty's eyes suddenly took on their former glow and charm.

Even though she was a lady of the house and had always been gentle and sensible, at this moment she could not help but rush out with quickened steps.

When she saw Han Qianqian, there was a faint resignation and a faint peace of mind in her eyes, and she just looked at Han Qianqian, her vermilion lips unopened, her eyes containing a million things.

Han Qianqian couldn't help but be a little shocked by her eyes, and even a little distressed by them, but he still smiled at her slightly.

Although it was a smile, the meaning was already enough.

Su Yan understood the smile and was instantly sad in her heart, but her beautiful face could only hold the same smile.

"Hey, where have you two guys been? Do you know we've been worried sick?"

Green Pearl, however, was not as delicate as Su Yan, and rushed up with a few steps, shouting depressingly without ceremony.

The pangolin didn't dare to say much and looked at Han Qianqian, but saw that Han Qianqian only smiled blandly: "Nothing, there was just an accident."

"What accident?" Green Pearl said with a frown.

"It's a small matter, let's not mention it, it's getting late, let's get some rest." After saying that, Han Qianqian glanced politely at Su Yan and turned around with the piercing beetle and walked into his room.

"Hey, you guy, " Green Pearl's angry little face was unusually depressed.

"Okay Green Pearl." Su Yan called out to Green Pearl and shook her head slightly, "It's also getting late, we should also rest early."

"Miss" Green Pearl was so annoyed that she stomped her feet on the spot.

She herself was fine, but Miss had shown enough concern since she heard the news of Han Qianqian's disappearance, even though it had never come out of her mouth.

In the past few hours, she had barely touched a drop of water or a drop of rice, and even now she had not rested, even though she was used to going to bed early.

But this damn Han Qianqian, when she came back, she didn't say a word.

The house, Han Qianqian drank a mouthful of water and then lie directly on the bed, wearing a mountain beetle sneakily followed over, look east, look west, finally really can not stand, depressed said: "Holy shit, you are not it? That that what is really going to be like that?"

"Then what else do you want from me? Say body thank you? Or maybe buy them a late dinner before you show your gratitude?"

"It's not that bad, but you're being a little bit too heartless, aren't you? You didn't see the aggravation in Su Yan's eyes when she saw you coming back, obviously, she had been worried about you for a long time." The pierced beetle even felt a little unworthy for Su Yan.

"Just because I know this, that's why I can only go like this." Han Qianqian said.

Since her heart belonged to someone who was bound to break it, she might as well snuff it out herself while she was still in the budding stage.

Han Qianqian would rather be called a slag to her face than have her silently call herself a slag in any woman's heart.

"Shit, you're really fucking careful about being struck by lightning one day." The pangolin shook its head in depression, "What about you, you are surrounded by beautiful women, but you pass through a million flowers without bringing a single red one."

"What about me? I don't even have a dog around me, and I'm so desperate to find a woman, but I don't have one."

"God is blind." After saying this, the pangolin lay down depressed on a side bed, baring his mouth, as if lamenting the injustice of God, and as if he was depressed about his broken peach blossoms.

The long night passed slowly in the midst of the people's thoughts.

Early the next morning, the Fang family's bells were struck, music was played, and songs were sung and danced, as if a new day was dawning and a new poem was being written.

The events of last night were not mentioned by the few people involved, and for those underlings, they did not dare to ask questions if their superiors did not say anything, and besides, after several hours of searching, the people were tired and went to bed early.

With the early morning, the family head ordered the wedding to be held normally, and the group hurriedly got busy again.

The events of last night, like last night's mighty wind, faded away

The first thing that welcomed us was a joyous event like the first sun.

Han Qianqian pushed open the door of his room and slowly walked out. Today, he got up early on purpose, waiting for the special gift that Fang Kun had prepared for him

Chapter 2825

In Su Yingxia's room, she also rose slightly and went to the window.

But unlike Han Qianqian, who had woken up early on purpose, Su Yingxia had stayed up all night.

Although she knew what had happened and could not change it, the more she did so, the more upset she became.

Between tossing and turning, she was filled with Han Qianqian, their happy past, and Han Nian, and the happiness of the family.

She was sad, she missed it, but there was nothing she could do about it.

The weight of her grief was so heavy that she could hardly breathe, as if she were a canary locked up in this house.

She was tempted to open the window to get some air, but just as her delicate hand was placed next to the window, her hand gently withdrew.

Opening the window to let in some air, yes, the air in her body would be permeable, but what about her heart?

I'm afraid I'll never be able to get any air in my heart, right?

Thinking about this, Su Yingxia smiled bitterly, but after all, she did not open that window, and after all, she still missed Han Qianqian.

Outside, Fang Watch, with a group of elders, hurriedly came over, with three or five women beside her, all of them stunningly beautiful.

"Ice God, you're up early." A man like Fang Watch, who had become a great man, was naturally very good at acting, with a face full of smiles, as if yesterday's events had never happened at all.

Han Qianqian frowned slightly, swept a glance at Fang Watch, and smiled blandly, "Isn't the Fang family head up early as well?"

"Oh, there is something going on at home, so naturally I need to get up early, this wedding will be held at noon, so the Ice God can instead rest a little."

"No need, Lord Fang said he has a gift for me, I am quite looking forward to it." Han Qianqian laughed.

Hearing this, Fang Watch's heart finally felt a bit of relief, it was good that this rebellious son was not stupid and knew to make amends quickly after offending someone.

Only, how could Fang watch know that this gift from Fang Kun was in a way not the so-called gift he thought.

"You didn't talk to Fang Kun about my identity yesterday, did you?" Han Qianqian asked.

Fang watch nodded, "The Ice God ordered me, so I didn't dare to say anything, but I only told that rebellious son that he had done something wrong and therefore chastised him."

Han Qianqian nodded, "That's good, the gift you give will be true and sincere."

When he heard Han Qianqian's words, Fang watch's understanding was clearly off the mark once again, and he smiled gently, "Don't worry, that rebellious son will know his mistake and will make you happy, God of Ice."

Han Qianqian did not speak, but merely placed his gaze on the large box held in the hands of several elders behind Fang Watch, then smiled and said, "By the way, the Fang family head has not yet said, what is the reason for coming so early?"

"Oh, my rebel son's big wedding, the Ice God happens to be in the house as well, in terms of status, no one can compare to you, so I, Fang, am bold enough to want to ask the Ice God to officiate the wedding for my rebel son, behind this, besides the clothes for officiating the wedding, there are also some exotic treasures from the Desert Realm, as a token of gratitude."

Before Han Qianqian could answer, the mountain-penetrating armor walked out with a fart, then, under the compensating smile of Fang Watch, the bastard slightly opened a few boxes, and at once was feeling like his dog's eyes were all lit up.

The man in shining armour walked over with a few steps and gently whispered in Han Qianqian's ear, "They're all good things."

Han Qianqian smiled, he naturally did not care what was good and what was bad: "It is not necessary to officiate at the wedding, I will just make an appearance."

Hearing these words, Fang watch nodded awkwardly.

Although it was not as decent as the Ice God personally witnessing the marriage, in any case, the huge difference between the Ice God not being too willing to attend the grand banquet yesterday and now having agreed to attend the wedding already showed that the Ice God had already given in enough.

Moreover, the most important thing was that, with the presence of the Ice God, the Fang family had already gained the face they wanted, and everything else was secondary.

With this in mind, Fang's face smiled and he nodded to the people behind him, asking a group of people to carry several boxes of treasures into the Ice God's room.

Han Qianqian was about to refuse, but the man in the mountain armor forcibly pressed down on Han Qianqian's arm, and with a heated smile, gestured for the people to hurry up and move them inside.

Han Qianqian gave a bitter laugh and shook his head helplessly.

Only once the stuff was finished did Fang watch slightly salute Han Qianqian, "Then I'll be waiting for you, God of Ice, at the wedding."

"Well said, well said." The mountain-penetrator replied for Han Qianqian.

Fang Watch nodded, and at this point, placed his gaze on the several concubines behind himself

Chapter 2826

Then, Fang Watch said softly and said, "The few of you, then stay behind to take care of the Ice God."

"Yes!" The several women hurriedly bent down and saluted.

"Master Fang, there is no need for that." Han Qianqian was just about to speak, but he was interrupted.

Fang table smiled and said, "Last night really made the Ice God suffer, don't misunderstand, they are all from the House, all of them are ice-clean and pure, and they even have a hand in massage in their hands."

"Let them massage and relax for the God of Ice and your friends, there is no other intention."

Han Qianqian still wanted to refuse, but the mountain armor hastily stopped Han Qianqian's words and said, "I don't think there's anything wrong with this, last night made my body ache, anyway, it's still early, massage to relax, it's not bad."

Han Qianqian rolled his eyes speechlessly, if Fang wanted to send a massage, there was no need to send some young and beautiful woman, and deliberately emphasize the point of ice and purity.

Obviously, the intention of the drunken man was not the wine.

But the pity is that this guy, the Wearing Mountain Vest, could not move his eyes from the bodies of several beautiful women.

How could Fang watch miss such an opportunity to climb up the vine, he hurriedly smiled and waved his hand: "What are you all still doing? Why don't you hurry up and serve the two distinguished guests?"

"Listen to me carefully, if the two honoured guests are even half-pleased, your days will be over."

"Yes!" The four young girls nodded their heads slightly and answered in unison.

"Good, it's not too early, Fang has a garden full of guests and still needs to be busy with some tedious matters, so this will be more of a nuisance to you two." After saying that, Fang table rose his head, bowed slightly and led the crowd in a salute before turning around and leaving.

The pierced beetle looked at the several beautiful girls and was happy as hell, but how could he know that this was clearly just a tender place arranged by Fang Watch?

It was too obvious that Fang had hinted at the four girls, or Han Qianqian.

Or perhaps, the piercing beetle knew it was, but was willing to jump down without a second thought.

"Go go go, massage massage." The mountain piercing armor did not see the helplessness written all over Han Qianqian's face in the slightest, pulling the few women to head inside.

Almost at that moment, the door to the side room rang softly, and Su Yan slowly walked out with Green Pearl in tow.

The two women, who had been in a slightly better mood after a night of adjustment, were laughing and joking when they suddenly saw Han Qianqian and Pierced Mountain Armor leading the four women inside the house.

To be precise, it was the Wearing Mountain Armour who was impatiently leading the four women, while Han Qianqian was standing helplessly at the same spot.

But at least, this was not the case in the eyes of the two women.

Seeing this scene, the two women's faces turned unusually cold with a swish almost simultaneously.

Su Yan was fine, she made some adjustments and returned to her normal self, but Green Pearl's temper was too much to bear, so she shouted coldly: "Some people are really hiding deep, in front of my lady, they look like they are deeply in love, and make us think they are some kind of decent gentleman. As a result, it's just a matter of turning around and disappearing, then they're out wandering the flowers, buzzing like a bee, it's really disgusting to hear."

"Green Pearl." Although Su Yan was also unhappy, she still hurriedly drank Green Pearl from cursing.

"Isn't what I said right? People say that they are not afraid of a villain, but a hypocrite. Miss, don't look at people rejecting you now, maybe, they are putting in a long line to drop a big fish, after all, there is a trick called what, lusting for a catch!" After saying that, Green Pearl's eyes stared at Han Qianqian with a deadly glare.

If eyes could kill, Han Qianqian wouldn't have the slightest doubt that at this point he had already been killed by Green Pearl for an unknown number of times.

"That what is not what you think, I'll explain,," the piercing mountain beetle looked at the implication of Han Qianqian, embarrassed scratching his head, want to stand out to explain.

Green Pearl coldly snorted in disdain, "No need to explain, you are all so good at acting, who knows how long you will be played? Miss, let's go."

As soon as the words left her mouth, Green Pearl dragged Su Yan in a huff and headed in the direction of the bride's room.

The pierced beetle was anxious and tugged at Han Qianqian, "Still not chasing?"

Han Qianqian looked up at the two women's backs, should we chase them?

Chapter 2827

With a bitter smile, Han Qianqian chose to shake his head.

If it had been Su Yingxia, Han Qianqian would have chased after her, but this was Su Yan, so how could Han Qianqian

For Han Qianqian, perhaps this is the best outcome, let her really think that this is the case, at least this way, she may be able to forget herself more quickly.

The first thing he knew was that if he did go after her, what he would see would be Su Yingxia.

Shaking his head, Han Qianqian turned around and went back to the house, and almost at the same time, Green Pearl and Su Yan also knocked on Su Yingxia's door, only

One was just facing the door, while the other had already turned around

Just missed it!

"You are" Su Yingxia looked at Su Yan and Green Pearl on the door and was a little surprised for a moment.

Green Pearl is beautiful, Su Yan is even more beautiful even with a veil, even Su Yingxia, a super beauty, surprisingly feels a bit out of colour compared to them.

The attention was also all on these two, not even seeing that back of Han Qianqian.

"This is our Miss Su, Su Yan, I'm her servant girl, Green Pearl." Green Pearl said politely while glancing back at Han Qianqian and the others in the distance with hatred.

"Future young grandmother, the Su family is one of the four great families, Miss Su Yan is even the number one beauty in the Desert Realm, and of course, her handmaid is also known as the best of the Su family." Next to her, Dong Ju said softly.

Su Yingxia nodded and looked at Green Pearl, but saw that she was looking back, following her gaze, but Han Qianqian had already slightly closed the door of the room.

"Green Pearl!" Apparently, Su Yan saw Su Yingxia's gaze following her, and somewhat pouted in displeasure at Green Pearl's lack of manners.

"Huh?" Green Pearl came back to her senses, and when she saw Su Yingxia's gaze, she also scratched her head rather embarrassedly and said, "Don't look, girl, they are all just some scum and rats, it hurts your eyes if you look at them too much."

Su Yingxia smiled awkwardly and said, "But isn't that the new Ice God in the house? He's quite famous in your desert world, how come he's a scum?"

"It was originally a scum rat, Miss, am I right?" Green Pearl said angrily.

Su Yan sighed helplessly, "Green Pearl."

Green Pearl knew she was getting a little emotional again, so she hurriedly spat out her tongue and shut her mouth.

"She and I are like sisters, so I have spoiled her, and I have spoiled her to the point that she does not know what to do. Su Yan said apologetically.

Su Yingxia smiled gently, "Miss Lvzhu is just jealous, why are you laughing?"

With Su Yingxia's intelligence and being the same woman, how could she not see Green Pearl's little heart.

"Who said I was jealous, I wouldn't like that bastard." Being directly pointed out by Su Yingxia, Green Pearl immediately blushed slightly and hastily denied.

"The fact that you have the posture of a fairy descending from the earth, the person who can win your favor must be a phoenix among men, if there is a chance, Yingxia would like to meet this ice god, no other intention, just curious, what kind of man can have such an encounter." Su Yingxia politely smiled slightly and said.

When she heard this, Su Yan was both a little happy and a little bitter. Although the falling flowers were interested, the flowing water was heartless.

"Miss, you have spoken too highly."

"A talented man with a beautiful woman, a beautiful woman with a hero, Yingxia's words are true, I dare not say anything." Su Yingxia said softly, but this was her heartfelt words.

Thinking about this, she couldn't help but look twice at Han Qianqian's side of the house, envying the couple.

If it had been for Sanqian, they would have been able to do the same, but I'm afraid there would be no more ifs and don'ts for the rest of her life.

When she thought of this, Su Yingxia could not help but feel gloomy and sad. Seeing this, Dong Ju hurriedly touched Su Yingxia gently, and only then did Su Yingxia remember that there were guests in front of her, so she smiled embarrassingly: "Yingxia is negligent, she has not yet invited Miss Su inside."

After saying that, she glanced at Dong Ju and ordered, "Dong Ju, please pour some tea."

"Yes!" Dong Ju nodded her head.

Su Yan smiled gently and waved her long, white jade hand, "There is no need for you to do so, in fact, I am here for an important matter."

"What is Miss Su's business?" Su Yingxia was stunned, she never knew Miss Su, what could she have important business?

Chapter 2828

"Can we talk alone?" Su Yan said with a light smile.

Su Yingxia did not respond, but only looked faintly at Dong Ju and the others.

Dong Ju and the others were obviously stunned, however, at the thought of it being the Su Family's Eldest Miss, the few women still glanced at each other, then gently slightly body a curtsy and retreated.

"Please come in." Su Yingxia gently invited Su Yan towards the room with a gentle invitation.

"Green Pearl, you stand guard outside the door." Su Yan instructed.

Green Pearl nodded, made no sound, and stood at the doorway.

After entering the room, Su Yingxia invited Su Yan to take a seat, then poured a cup of fragrant tea and handed it to Su Yan, before slowly sitting down: "Miss Su, you and I have never met, so Yingxia really doesn't understand what you want to see me about?"

Su Yan frowned slightly: "Actually I am not sure what it is yet, but on the way here, someone asked me to give something to the future young grandmother of the Fang family."

Someone wanted to give something to herself?

Su Yingxia couldn't help but frown in confusion.

What kind of people she had in the Eightfold World, one thought would tell her that either, it was the Fu family's gang or Han Qianqian.

But the Fu family's people didn't know her whereabouts, and even if they did, what then? The way they treated him, they would have sent him a bell, not to mention a gift.

Could it be Han Qianqian?

But, from what she knew about Han Qianqian, if he knew she was here, he would have killed him single-handedly long ago, so how could he send any gifts?

Could it be that those two letters had really hurt him so much that he had sent something, such as a souvenir of their time together, to show that they had broken off their love?

Although she knew that this was very unlikely, she hurriedly took the small box that Su Yan took out of her arms and opened it quickly.

As soon as she opened the box, Su Yingxia was completely dumbfounded.

It simply could not be said that it was different from what she had imagined, and it could even be said that it was completely unlike the wind and the ox.

Su Yingxia glanced at Su Yan in confusion, but Su Yan could only smile bitterly because she had never opened the box, so she did not know what was in it.

"Dare I ask Miss Su, who entrusted you with this?" Su Yingxia did not open it directly and said in a soft voice.

Su Yan gently shook her head: "I don't know who he is, but I only know that he is over a hundred years old, his beard is white, and although he is only dressed in cloth, his body is full of divine light, so he is no ordinary person.

Hearing these words, Su Yingxia nodded and asked no more questions, but at the same time, her heart was somewhat relieved and lost because she knew it was not Han Qianqian.

Then, Su Yingxia gently took the paper scroll out of the box, then, unwrapping the thin string on the outside of the paper scroll, Su Yingxia opened the paper.

Phew!

Suddenly, the moment the paper was opened, a white powder violently spurted out from the paper, and throughout the entire surrounding, there was actually a powder confusion scattered.

"Not good." Su Yan's eyes fiercely flashed with a sharp light, and the entire person subconsciously used both hands to block it and hastily withdrew.

Over there, Su Yingxia did the same, and hastily withdrew her body.

However, even though they were quick, they were not as quick as Han Qianqian, and even though they had done their best, they were still a little late.

Su Yan was fine, she had a veil covering her face, so apart from a little powder on her body, she did not get anything on her face, but Su Yingxia had already put her head away, but when she raised her head, she had already got a lot of white powder on her face.

Su Yan frowned, slightly raised her hand and put it in front of her nose and smelled it, then her face turned cold: "Rootless poison!"

As soon as the words left her mouth, she hurriedly looked at Su Yingxia, and in a moment, looking at the white powder on her face, her whole person was completely dumbfounded.

"How could this happen?" Su Yan's entire body was completely dumbfounded and froze in place.

Su Yingxia also seemed to feel something abnormal inside her body, and looked at Su Yan in a panic, her eyes full of vigilance and incomprehension, at the same time, her hands slightly transported energy and took a defensive stance.

What does Su Yan mean by this?

Chapter 2829

Su Yan tried to take a step forward, but Su Yingxia took a half step backwards, while her hands were slightly placed on her body, clearly ready to make a move.

"Miss Su you have misunderstood." Su Yan hurriedly stood up while stepping back some, leaving Su Yingxia a sufficient safe distance, then she explained in some panic, "I didn't know that there would be these things in this paper. "

"I'm sorry, it's all my fault for not checking carefully before I gave it to you."

Thinking of this, Su Yan's tears of guilt were welling up in her eyes, if she had been a little more careful about giving people gifts, it wouldn't have turned out like this.

Su Yingxia already felt the five internal organs in her body rolling over slightly, an unpleasant energy made her whole body stagger a little, but even so, Su Yingxia did not rush to call for help, instead, her pair of good-looking eyes kept staring at Su Yan with a deadly gaze.

"Hoo!" Su Yingxia finally let down her guard and let out a long breath, and her whole body also fell straight down beside the table, barely holding on by her arms.

Su Yan hurriedly rushed up with a single step and held Su Yingxia up, then brought her to the bedside and made her lie down, after a slight movement in her hand, an energy slowly punched into Su Yingxia's body.

With Su Yan's help and Su Yingxia's own resistance, in just a few moments, Su Yingxia's condition improved a little.

"Miss Su seems to know this poison?" Su Yingxia did not look very well, but after the two of them combined their efforts to adjust, they were barely able to recover much.

Su Yan nodded, but looked at Su Yingxia with an even guiltier look.

"I'm sorry, Miss Su, if I hadn't brought this to you, you wouldn't wouldn't" said a drop of tear falling slightly down the corner of her beautiful eyes.

Su Yingxia laughed softly and shook her head with difficulty: "I believe that you also did not know about it, since not knowing is not a crime, Miss Su need not blame herself so much."

"Besides, you also know that I am in the Fang family, if it is poisoned, the Fang family has its own antidote."

Su Yingxia didn't really care about the antidote anymore, now that she had come to this situation, she didn't care whether she lived or died, she just didn't want Su Yan to feel too guilty, that's why she said this.

But obviously, hearing Su Yingxia's words, Su Yan's face not only did not relax in the slightest, but became even more guilty, and her little head was lowered to a deep level, not daring to look at Su Yingxia again.

The more open-minded Su Yingxia was, the harder it was for her, because while others might not understand such things as rootless poison, it was absolutely impossible for her, Su Yan, not to know.

A poison under the sky, even if it is poisonous, must have its root, and if it has its root, it must have its source, and if it has a source, it can be cured.

But the reason why Rootless Poison is called Rootless Poison is because it has no root at all, and naturally, there is no cure at all!

"This poison, it cannot be cured." Su Yan thought about it, but still forced herself to open her mouth.

Then, Su Yan looked at Su Yingxia with guilt, and Su Yingxia was clearly stunned, her face was filled with mixed feelings for a while.

Death, for her at the moment, might not be a kind of relief, but it meant that the separation from Han Qianqian would be an eternal goodbye.

Although there was no difference between this and an eternal goodbye, the thought of it seemed better than no thought at all.

But is no more thoughts really better than an eternal goodbye?

Su Yingxia's heart was torn, just like the expression on her face at that moment.

However, she quickly smiled softly, "It doesn't matter, if you can't solve it, then you won't."

"If you are poisoned with rootless poison, this poison can barely save your life when the weather is cold, but if the weather is hot, you will be in pain, so how can you say that you can't cure it?" Seeing how open Su Yingxia was, Su Yan's side became anxious.

Su Yingxia smiled bitterly, "What joy is there in life, what fear is there in death, her face was indifferent, since she did not know how to choose, let the heavens decide.

As for the fate with Han Qianqian, if there is an afterlife, we will be together in life and death.

Just as Lu Ruoxin said, perhaps, her existence is only a drag for Han Qianqian after all.

Thinking of this, Su Yingxia seemed to have figured it out and looked at Su Yan with a soft smile to show her that there was no need to be anxious, let alone guilty.

"Right, I know a person who can help you." Su Yan suddenly remembered something, and her whole person suddenly turned abnormally excited, and a hint of surprise surfaced on her ever-anxious face.

Su Yingxia frowned slightly, not knowing what person she was referring to, and could not help but wonder, "Who?"

"The Ice God!"

Chapter 2830

Han Qianqian had the Jade Ice Pearl in his hand, which could continuously produce cool Qi, and because it possessed the Jade Ice Pearl's original body, the cold Qi it released was also the most pure and massive.

If the Ice God could help, he could certainly help Su Yingxia suppress the Rootless Poison to the greatest extent possible, and subsequently, by relying on his purest Jade Ice Pearl, he could more or less make the attack of the Rootless Poison not so painful.

Thinking of this, Su Yan immediately said urgently, "I will go and invite him over now."

"Miss Su." Su Yingxia called out to her, smiled faintly at her and shook her head, "As you said, the person who possesses the Jade Ice Pearl is the Ice God who is revered by everyone in the Desert Realm, in other words, the Jade Ice Pearl and the Ice God are almost equal, you are asking an Ice God to bring his personal treasure to suppress Yingxia's condition, isn't that a fantasy?"

"I think that although Miss Su likes the Ice God, it is precisely because she likes it that she knows the reasoning behind it all the more, right?" Su Yingxia said.

How could Su Yingxia know that if the two really met, not to mention the tiny jade ice pearl, even if she wanted Han Qianqian's entirety, what would it be?!

On the other hand, hearing these words, the joy on Su Yan's face also completely stopped, yes, the Jade Ice Pearl is a symbol of the Ice God, how precious it is self-evident, using it to suppress the disease is indeed a fool's dream.

But how could she not care if she had caused Su Yingxia such harm?

Suddenly, Su Yan's gaze unintentionally skimmed to the box on the table and the piece of paper that had fallen on the floor.

Suddenly, she frowned slightly, and then, she lowered her body and bent down to walk over and gently picked up the paper.

"Miss Su, is this a map?" Su Yan shouted, and then carefully unfolded the drawing completely.

Without looking at it, it was a shock to see that the place depicted in the entire map was actually the entire Realm of Desert!

However, there were route markings on it, and following the direction it was located all the way north, it turned out to be the Demon Race's Burning Bone City.

"If you wish to cure the rootless poison, see you at Burning Bone City."

In the lower book, eight red characters loomed large!

Su Yan's face instantly turned frosty, what did this mean?

She looked at Su Yingxia in a daze, "I think this might be a conspiracy from start to finish!"

"Someone wanted to use me to deliver this to you, to lure you into poisoning, and then further force you to the City of Burning Bones." Su Yan immediately understood and frowned as she looked at Su Yingxia.

She tried hard to recall the old man's appearance, but strangely enough, she could still remember his general appearance and dress, and even every detail of his body was still fresh in her mind, but the old man's appearance had become abnormally blurred

The two of them were also directly face to face, so naturally, she was very clear about what the old man looked like.

However, why is it that when she looks back now, it has become completely blurry and she can't even begin to remember what he looked like?

The more Su Yan tries to think, the more her head hurts: "How can this be? I can't remember what he looks like"

Su Yingxia hurriedly dragged her weak body and got up strongly, an energy protected her mind, after she was emotionally stable, Su Yingxia blandly and said, "Don't think if you can't remember, just as you said, someone deliberately set this up."

"And, it should be a very powerful expert."

To be able to erase someone's impression so magically, this kind of extraordinary strength was obviously not something that could be done by anyone.

But who, exactly, would lay such a great trap for himself?

If it was a deep hatred, Su Yingxia could not think of anyone other than the people of the two families, but the question was, did Su Yingxia not know the top people of the two families?

They simply could not have such an expert.

And even if it was Lu Ruoxin, now that she had relied on her, it was even more unlikely that she would send an expert from the Lu family to take her away from the desert city by force, which was obviously the exact opposite of her original intention.

But who else could it be other than that?

Su Yan also does not understand, but one thing is very clear
