

His True Color Chapter 2841-2850

Chapter 2841

Even though he had already lost once, Fang Kun still wanted to resist Han Qianqian in his vanity.

For this reason, he did not rely on his reckless courage, but had made arrangements!

After a few exchanges, Fang Kun, who was clearly on the weaker side, gave a slight shake in his hand and used his momentum to barely dodge Han Qianqian's blow before quickly throwing some near-transparent powder in his hand directly at him.

However, Han Qianqian almost took advantage of this opportunity to slap Fang Kun's shoulder with a backhand movement, which instantly caused Fang Kun's entire body to fall apart and retreat several meters in the air before he could barely stabilize himself.

However, after only a few seconds of stabilization, his mouth was fiercely sweet and a mouthful of blood directly spurted out.

"Ah!"

After all, for most of them, they did not know Han Qianqian's identity, in their hearts, Fang Kun was the young master of their Fang family, the future of the Desert Realm, naturally a star among stars, a dazzling light among dazzling lights, but now he was directly beaten back by a young man he did not know, how could this not be shocking?

Apart from these people, those who knew Han Qianqian, such as Fang Watch, also let out their mouths, however, they were obviously different from the others in that their cries were more for Fang Kun's worry.

After all, what he was facing was the Ice God of the Desert Realm, wasn't that hitting a rock with an egg?

However, just as Fang Watch was about to hurry up and fly up to stop it, at that moment Liu Tao slowly walked up and reached out to pull Fang Watch.

Liu Tao smiled gently and attached himself to Fang Watch's ear, "Big brother, there is no need to rush."

Fang Miao frowned and looked at Liu Tao in confusion, what does this mean?

"If the situation is not right, you stop it at will, but, what if the situation is right?" Liu Tao said this and could not help but smile grimly.

If the situation was right, then the young master of the Fang family would have defeated the Ice God, how shocking would that be?

But the problem was, the Ice God was a symbol of the Desert Realm, if he was challenged, would it cause resentment from everyone?!

"Big brother, strength is the order of the day, but the strongest, one is an outsider and the other is your own son, is it still a difficult choice between these?" Liu Tao said sharply.

Hearing these words, Fang Watch's entire body froze.

Right, if even his own son could defeat the Ice God, then what was the need for a bicycle? The Fang family's present didn't even need to be tomorrow, but could be within reach today.

"But you and I have already seen the power of the Ice God, even you, together with so many elites of the Liu family, could not resist, let alone Kun'er?" Fang Watch doubted.

"Ice and fire have been mutually exclusive since ancient times, and I was careless in the beginning. If I had known his identity in advance and prepared adequately, I might not have lost in one go, as you can see, big brother."

"The Fang family is far more powerful than the Liu family, and has more capable people. I saw that the young master seemed to have a rebellious mind early on, and had deployed many elite soldiers around in advance, so if he were to bring this group of elite soldiers, it may not be impossible."

Hearing this, Fang watch gazed down with his eyebrows, and sure enough, the group of soldiers were secretly moving.

"What's more, although Young Master Fang is now temporarily behind, can you see the powder on the Ice God's face?" Speaking of this, Liu Tao revealed the slightest sneer.

He would naturally not forget the shame that Han Qianqian had given his Liu family, and if everyone worshipped Han Qianqian as the Ice God, he would naturally be obedient, but if a fly found a crack in the egg, how could it not drill!

How could he miss such an opportunity?

Even though the powder on Han Qianqian's face was almost transparent, as the head of the Fang family, he could naturally recognise what the powder on his face was!

Strange poison!

It was a strange poison from the desert realm, in powder form, and could be burned to make smoke, which would seal the meridians of the poisoned person.

It turns out that Fang Kun had deliberately avoided it, in order to give the Ice God this poison.

In that case, Fang Kun's chances of winning would go from very weak to extremely suppressed, and Fang watch's heart, which had been worried, actually started to get inexplicably excited at this moment.

"Well? Big brother?" Liu Tao laughed.

Chapter 2842

Fang watch did not answer immediately, but his eyes had begun to turn more and more greedy, and after waiting for a long time, he finally nodded his head.

If there was a chance, why not? Even if the Ice God was on good terms with him, he was still an outsider, but if it was his own son, then it would be different.

Then his family's present and future would be in his hands, and he would not need to look at anyone's face in this desert realm.

However, unlike Liu Tao, Fang Watch was prepared for both sides of the battle, and when the winner was not really decided, he definitely would not choose a side, but instead, he was slightly acting as a spectator.

At this moment, Han Qianqian, who was in mid-air, stood up slightly and looked back at Fang Kun with cold eyes, killing intent in his eyes.

Fang Kun, however, wiped the blood from the corner of his mouth and looked at Han Qianqian with a fierce smile: "What? Weren't you quite fierce just now? Why did you suddenly stop?"

"Isn't it, something feels a bit familiar."

Han Qianqian gently wiped the powder from his face and said, "Is it that strange poison scatter of yours again?"

Fang Kun smiled coldly, "Last time in the prison, I didn't let the Slayer get you killed, so you gave a fluke to find my dad and old Mr. Chai, it doesn't matter, now I'll let you relive it, how do you feel now?"

Fang Kun was naturally very confident about the Strange Poison Scattering, after all, Fang Kun had seen Han Qianqian being suppressed by this poison with his own eyes and was tortured by himself with ice and fire.

He had been able to humiliate him once in the Heavenly Prison, and today, he could humiliate him a second time in front of everyone.

Thinking of this, Fang Kun's sneer turned even more hideous.

Without a single word, Han Qianqian told him how he felt in the next second with his actions.

Moving like a rabbit, after which, like an eagle striking the long sky, he broke straight through a thousand miles and instantly attacked.

"What?!"

"What?!"

Almost at the same time, from mid-air to the ground, from the Fang family's father and son, even to Liu Tao, as well as the Chai Rong beside him, all of them had their mouths open wide in shock.

How could Chai Rong, a legendary senior in the desert world, not know about the strange poison scatter that the Fang and Liu families knew about? Even though he hadn't heard Liu Tao and Fang watch talking about anything else at all since the beginning, someone like him, who had eaten more salt than many people had walked, could tell almost at a glance what they were probably talking about.

The first thing he also wanted to do was to go and stop the fight, or even teach the boy Fang Kun a hard lesson, so that the boy would know what respect meant, but with the look in Fang Watch and Liu Kun's eyes, he also noticed the powder on Han Qianqian's body, Qi Poison San.

He knew well the power of this poison, even if he had accidentally gotten it on himself, it would be like a fierce tiger having its claws removed and a male lion having its teeth removed, at that point, his rash move would be nothing more than the equivalent of putting himself in danger.

This is the Fang family's territory, and the Liu family is watching over it, so if you are trapped, you are like a lion. If he lost the battle, he would lose his position as a legend in the desert realm.

So, he also decided to observe the situation and wait and see.

But where could he have imagined that, not even a moment after this thought had risen, Han Qianqian at the other end had already broken through the enemy.

"Bang!"

"Bingo!"

Almost at the same time when these people were shocked that Han Qianqian was still moving freely despite being poisoned, Han Qianqian had already thrown a fierce punch in front of Fang Kun, even though Fang Kun had already released his energy to resist.

But under Han Qianqian's merciless fist, Fang Kun's resistance melted away like a piece of paper in an instant, and then he only felt a dent in his stomach, and his whole body almost fell from the sky in a folded shape.

Boom!!!

Like a meteor falling to the ground, Fang Kun's body smashed heavily into the corner of the stone hall next to the main hall, and the stone hall and pillars made of stone directly exploded, turning into countless tiny pieces of west flying everywhere.

The whole scene was silent, dead silent.

Su Yan and Green Pearl were almost completely frozen in place, their eyes not even blinking, they were dumbfounded and dumbfounded.

Only Su Yingxia, with teary eyes, looked at Han Qianqian in mid-air. She was naturally worried about Han Qianqian in this scene, but she didn't know how many times Han Qianqian's performance had appeared in front of her.

And almost at the same time, the thousands of guards laid out by Kun above the ground also fiercely appeared and began to compile and take shape

Chapter 2843

"Someone is robbing the bride, idle people, quickly get out of the way."

Fang Kun had long since found a pretext, so the gang shouted under their breath as soon as they came up, so much so that many people who did not know the truth rushed to back off.

According to Fang Kun's plan, if Fang Kun made any slip-up or was unsupported, they would immediately support him.

Although they did not expect Fang Kun to be defeated so quickly, what had to be carried out still had to be carried out.

Fang Guan didn't say a word, he suddenly had a hint of foreboding in his heart, or rather, a sense of shame rising up!

He had promised to challenge the Ice God for the chance to astonish the world in one fight, but now it seemed like a fool's dream!

One punch, and he was killed in seconds!

What kind of perverted strength is this?

But as he was about to strike, the thousands of elite soldiers had already gathered and surrounded Han Qianqian in a small group of hundreds, while those who remained on the ground directly formed a large formation in human form.

"The Six Harmonious Formation of the First Heaven!"

This was one of the four forbidden formations of his Fang Family, and at the same time, it was also the strongest killing move of the Fang Family that had established the prestige of the four great clans in one fell swoop.

However, because it was too powerful, too fierce and too hostile, the formation was gradually included in the forbidden formations after the Fang family became famous.

"But this brat, actually one of his own has learnt this formation?" Fang Watch frowned greatly, even he in no way knew how to use this formation.

The master of the forbidden spell was usually the head of each family, but each head of the family in turn might not necessarily teach all the arts they had mastered, they would select some suitable spells from them and hand them over to the next head of the family.

Therefore, the Forbidden Formation, the Forbidden Formation, was not passed on to himself by the old master, but what he could not have imagined more was that the old master had passed it on to his own son.

And at this time in the field, facing the hundred people rushing up, Han Qianqian did not talk nonsense, the energy in his hand was greatly transported, a time when the clouds in the sky went wind roar, he was like a great divine immortal descending into the world, only hand between the wind and clouds, in his hand, a huge incomparable black and gold energy ball also slowly came out.

On the ground, thousands of people sat with their legs crossed, their hands gestured neatly in a hexagonal gesture, each gesture was a mirror, when the hexagon was completed, the six mirrors of emptiness flashed violently, followed by the formation of a strange hexagonal shape of the essence of the void, these guys violently pushed out a true energy.

The true energy in the six mirrors continue to fold, reflect, and finally gathered in the last big mirror, and suddenly a golden light as thick as an arm blasted towards the upper air.

As one person did the same, so did a thousand people in the formation. When a thousand golden lights as thick as an arm gathered together, it was like a pillar from the ground that shot straight up to Han Qianqian in mid-air.

The ground trembled and the mid-air was torn apart as the huge golden pillar clearly carried the power to destroy heaven and earth.

The arrangement of Fang Kun could not be described as imprecise.

Chai Lao's eyes shrank slightly and his head lifted gently, he could not help but feel a little gloomy, even for himself, under the siege of such a large formation and multiple experts, it would definitely be difficult to escape.

Fang Watch's fists were clenched, his expression tense, and there was even a slight trickle of sweat running down his forehead; such a rebellion, success or failure would come down to this.

Liu Tao also had a malicious look in his eyes, he could not wait for Han Qianqian to be wiped out by the Six Harmonies Forbidden Formation, in order to relieve his hatred and restore the prestige of his Liu family's four clans.

Su Yan glanced at Green Pearl, who was also nervous, but unintentionally glanced at Su Yingxia over there.

The other thing she found unbelievable was that although there was a trace of worry in Su Yingxia's eyes at this time, what could not be covered was the blandness on Su Yingxia's face.

It seems that she she is not worried about Han Qianqian at all?

And Han Qianqian, who was at the very centre, looked at the golden pillar that almost illuminated his face into a golden light as well as the hundreds of people surrounding him, without the slightest bit of timidity, instead, there was only a rushing battle intent.

"Die, all of you!" ,

Han Qianqian's body, the black and gold light, began to faintly through the body and appear

Chapter 2844

"Roar!"

In the next second, his arms were raised and the black and gold Qi within his body burst open.

The powerful aura was released from Han Qianqian's body, spreading all the way, and the attackers, who had previously been fierce, were like geese with broken wings and a sudden flood, suddenly losing their momentum in mid-air and falling backwards instead of forwards.

The black and gold light exploded more and more, and even half of the sky was coloured by it, along with the hundreds of people who fell at the same time, as if countless rains were falling under a big, cloudy cloth.

"Bang, bang, bang!"

In the face of the huge light, Han Qianqian's hands fiercely converged, and with a single movement of energy, eight figures suddenly emerged from his body, each of them using the No-Phase Divine Technique, and blasting directly at each other!

The power of the Six Harmonies was already extremely powerful, and the power of the Six Harmonies used by the Fang family was even more geometrically increased, so Han Qianqian, who had personally experienced the power, should be cautious.

But this guy, instead of dodging or dodging, actually tried to rebound directly with his Phaseless Divine Power, which could not be described as bold.

If the energy was too great, and if the Phase-less Divine Energy could not be replicated and transferred, then the end result would be the same as Han Qianqian taking this heaven-destroying blow defencelessly.

But Han Qianqian dared to try, firstly because he didn't want to dwell on it too much, and secondly because the existence of the Frost Jade Armour and the revival of the Undying Mystic Armour gave Han Qianqian the courage to do so.

A man of great skill is bold!

"What's he doing?"

The crowd, who had only just sobered up from the surprise of the hundred instantaneous seconds, didn't even have a chance to catch their breath before they were stunned again by this operation of Han Qianqian's at this moment, almost stopping their heartbeats and breathing.

Watching other people fight might really waste their hearts, but watching this guy fight was a complete waste of heart.

"Eight doppelgangers!"

"Isn't that guy the one from the Juying Pavilion?"

"Crazy?! Is he crazy? First, he fought the Liu family in the Gathering Pavilion, and now, he's fighting the Fang family in the City Lord's Palace?! What is he up to? To beat up all of us in the Desolate Mo's Realm?"

"Is this son that crazy?"

"The Fang family, not the Liu family."

Some of those who had been at the Gathering Pavilion in the first place quickly recognised Han Qianqian, and one by one, they said in shock.

But there were also those who had not seen Han Qianqian there, who simply scoffed at this act of Han Qianqian's.

"Not only is he crazy, he's clearly crazy to the marrow of his bones, the Innate Six, the strongest and fiercest of all the Six, this guy actually didn't dodge or dodge, instead he went head on, if he's not out of his mind, he's out of his mind."

"This man is indeed fierce, but youth always has to pay some price, impulsive and belligerent without knowing the danger is the root."

"It's a pity that although he is a hero, he is not a master, but an impulsive fool. Rather, the divine skill of leaving his eight golden light figures in vain is the envy of many."

In contrast, Mr. Chai and the others had both kinds of thinking, they felt both the strength and the recklessness of Han Qianqian.

Su Yingxia looked closely at Han Qianqian in the sky, her eyes worried but incomparably determined.

She knew that he would never let himself down, and he would never abandon himself, so he would definitely stand out alive, because he was Han Qianqian!

Su Yan gently and nervously took Green Pearl's hand, a pair of slender jade-like hands, but at this time the palms of her hands were already cold, and a slight fragrant sweat had long since appeared on her palms.

If she was worried about the last battle of the Liu family, but was also more curious about how strong Han Qianqian's real skills were, then this time, she had only worries and no expectations.

Because as the daughter of the Su family, she knew very well the power of the Innate Six!

And almost at the same time, as the golden light exploded in mid-air, the sky mixed and dyed so brightly that people could not open their eyes, and the golden light like a pillar in the sky collided directly with Han Qianqian.

"Boom!"

For a moment, the ground trembled madly and the void was as if shattered, everyone was completely stung by the incomparably strong golden light that they could barely open their eyes, and they all used their hands to shield themselves and tilted their heads to the side.

However, in this process, experts such as Fang Watch and Old Mr. Chai, while blocking the golden light, frowned deeply, the situation seemed to be somewhat wrong ah.

Chapter 2845

This is not just a confusing cover, although several people know the strength and power of this innate hexagon, but also because they know it so well that they understand it better than others.

Although the Sixth Harmony is fierce, such a dazzling light is like the fall of a divine sun, shining brightly, the golden divine light of the Innate Sixth Harmony is not so strong as this!

No, it's not right!

Thinking of this, Mr. Chai, relying on his high cultivation level, turned around and looked into the golden light in the middle of the sky, and when he did, he was frozen like a wooden chicken.

Even though he had been in the jianghu for many years and had already seen all kinds of extraordinary faces, at this moment he could not help but look at it like a child, stunned!

Fang Watch and Liu Tao, who were the next highest in cultivation, also noticed that something was wrong after Chai Lao and looked into the sky, but once they looked, they froze in their tracks.

Su Yan Green Pearl and others were next and after that

The next step was more others on the scene.

When he raised his head, even though the golden light had long since stained his face, it still couldn't hide the pallor on his face at the moment!

He stumbled to the ground, staggering, and looked incredulously into the sky, his eyes filled with a sense of dullness.

Far away in the desert, an exquisite flower boat was slowly moving, and on top of it, a white curtain swung lightly, and within it, a beautiful woman lay on a bed.

In the bow of the boat, a woman in black was holding an inexplicable wooden box in her hand, and at that moment, she carefully swept the mechanism on the box, and then, with a few steps, slowly walked inside the flower boat.

"Miss, the wooden box pointer has just moved greatly." The woman in black knelt down slightly and said respectfully.

Hearing these words, the woman in black nodded slightly, but her gaze remained on the desert scene, although to anyone, this desert was no scene at all, but she looked at it with extraordinary fascination.

"Miss, the pointer is moving greatly, which also means that there is a huge energy fluctuation on Fang Kun's side, which means that Han Qianqian may" Having said that, the woman in black did not dare to continue.

"Say on." The absolute beauty said softly.

"Chi Meng does not dare." The woman in black was actually Chi Meng, and it was obvious that the person sitting in front of her was since the first lady of the Lu family, the number one beauty in the Eight Directions world, Lu Ruoxin.

However, the words had just fallen, Chi Meng raised her eyes to see Lu Ruoxin's eyes suddenly withdrawing to look at herself, and the desert knelt even lower: "What the slave servant means is that it is very likely that Han 3000 has already arrived at the Desert City, and even is even breaking out into conflict with the Fang family."

The company's main business is to provide a wide range of products and services to the public. If Han Qianqian had saved Su Yingxia, all that you had done before would have been in vain."

The company has been following Lu Ruoxin for so long, but now she can't guess what Lu Ruoxin is thinking.

Lu Ruoxin smiled softly and rose slightly: "Chi Meng, don't look at things on the surface, and never look at people on the outside, the most important thing is, here."

As she spoke, Lu Ruoxin faintly compared her hand to her chest.

"Heart?" Chi Meng said.

Lu Ruoxin smiled gently, "If a person's heart is different, it is naturally different, taking away or not, does it still matter?"

When she heard this, Chi Meng looked at Lu Ruoxin even more incredulously, she couldn't understand what kind of enchantment Lu Ruoxin had put into Su Yingxia, how could she be so confident.

"Although the slave servant does not understand all kinds of details, but isn't it better if the person is not in the situation where the heart also changes? Besides, without Su Yingxia in the Fang family, our relationship with the Fang family, isn't that the same as working for nothing?" Chi Meng still could not understand.

Lu Ruoxin smiled gently, but not as impatient as Chi Meng had imagined: "Chi Meng, have you heard of a saying?"

Chi Meng raised her head slightly to make sure that Lu Ruoxin was really happy and smiling before she dared to answer softly, "I don't know, please tell me."

Lu Ruoxin gently walked to the window, looked out through the white curtain and opened her mouth leisurely

Chapter 2846

"The army is on the warpath, but the plan is in the heart."

"Who is more loyal, a friend or a dog?" Lu Ruoxin said indifferently.

When Chi Meng heard the word dog, she couldn't help but faintly stare, wasn't she then one of Lu Ruoxin's dogs?

"Miss, friends are equal, if not for the relationship of interest, naturally not as loyal as the inferior dog, because the dog needs your food at all times, naturally need to wag their tail and beg."

Lu Ruoxin nodded: "The Fang family is ambitious, if they can dominate the desert by relying on themselves, or even corner the eight worlds, then how much can this miss mean to them?"

"Chi Meng, a fed dog will only be vulgar, but a hungry dog will be vicious and extremely vicious, got it?" Lu Ruoxin smiled faintly and coldly, and the whole person could not help but have a few moments of complacency.

"Slave servant understands." Lowering her head, Chi Meng already roughly knew Lu Ruoxin's true thoughts, and her heart could not help but feel horrified by this woman's meticulous and sinister plan.

In other words, Su Yingxia's "gift" was more like a bomb sent to the Fang family by Lu Ruoxin!

No wonder Lu Ruoxin didn't panic when Han Qianqian fought with the other side, and even acquiesced to this state of affairs.

In fact, from the beginning to the end, it was just a set-up by Lu Ruoxin.

If Han Qianqian failed to find the Desert Realm, and failed to cross paths with Su Yingxia, it was the original plan.

But if they meet and a conflict breaks out, then for the Fang family, not only will they have a grudge against Han Qianqian and be manipulated by Lu Ruoxin, but more importantly, although the Fang family's future is gone, their ambition has already been squeezed to the point of expansion, so when the time comes, won't it be easier for Lu Ruoxin to catch them by the seventh inch?

The only variables are that Han Qianqian will lose, or Su Yingxia and Han Qianqian will reunite and fly together from then on.

But in the former case, even Chi Meng would not think that Han Qianqian would lose, while in the latter case, Lu Ruoxin seems to have a lot of confidence in Su Yingxia, and in that case, it is flawless.

Now that she understands this, she remembers the fundamental reason why the young lady has been late on her way to the Fang family wedding, even though she said she was attending it.

She was just sitting on the mountain watching the tiger fight!

How clever.

"We're almost at the Realm of Desert, right?" Lu Ruoxin said.

"There is still half a day to go, but the sun is blazing, so in my servant's opinion, should we rest first?" Chi Meng knew the general meaning of Lu Ruoxin, and had learned a lot of wisdom by now.

"It's because Miss has trained the dog well." After saying that, Chi Meng looked at Lu Ruoxin and opened her mouth, "Woof woof?"

Lu Ruoxin was even more satisfied, slightly returned to her bed, casually threw out a fragrant capsule: "This contains the Jade Qing Dan, since you are resting, you do not need to guard, and you can go to the lower cabin to cultivate."

Lu Ruoxin nodded slightly, looking at Chi Meng who had retreated after saluting, and gently raised her eyes, looking at the blazing sun of the desert outside her, which was almost as brilliant as her own mood.

The city of the desert was like a divine Buddha descending into the world, with golden light scattered all over the city, like a city of gold for a time, and in the mid-air, the golden light converged, bursting out in a light that was almost hard to see, like a blazing sun hanging there.

In the midst of the golden light, Han Qianqian glanced at his body, which was somewhat discoloured due to the damage, and his whole body revealed a fierce smile.

It was true that it was difficult to resist the Six Harmonies Technique, but the combination of the Immortal Xuan Armour and the Frost Jade Armour, a soft and hard pair, did not fail Han Qianqian's trust.

When the Six Harmonies Technique was resisted to the point where it could be digested, devoured and replicated by the Phase-less Divine Technique, it was the beginning of a nightmare for the entire Fang family.

Above the great hall, countless people looked at this scene with great surprise, and many had even begun to tremble in secret, but their weak feet made them powerless to escape, and they could only stare dumbly into the sky above, begging for heaven's blessing!

The two perpetrators, Fang Watch and Liu Tao, were even more terrified at this point, the strange poison scatter was ineffective? This is a fucking ice god, or a real god?

And at this time, the Han three thousand in mid-air moved.

Chapter 2847

With a mere shake of the hand, the enormous and incomparable huge golden light in his hand moved completely at once.

Like a blazing sun shifting slightly, the air trembled madly as the golden light exploded!

Boom!

The golden light struck, shattering the void!

With a momentum that destroyed the heavens and the earth, it came from above and pressed down wildly.

Even though they were on the ground, even though the golden light had only just started, everyone on the ground felt as if they were carrying a huge mountain on their backs.

Cold sweat broke out on their foreheads as they struggled to block it, even though they knew very well that their so-called blocking would have no effect at all under the golden light.

Boom!

The air exploded, linking the entire ground with a ripple that could not help but lift violently as everyone waited for death to come.

Especially Chai Lao, who hated it so much!

If Fang and Liu hadn't wanted to anger the Ice God, why would they have to do this?

If he had died, it would have been fine, but if he had managed to survive, he would not have spared the two wretched dogs.

But almost as soon as he had this thought, he suddenly frowned, because the explosion that followed the earth shaking did not come as expected.

The entire mid-air was completely golden, like a golden ocean, spreading for millions of miles from the sky above the desert city.

Such a glorious aspect, even in a lifetime, was not worth seeing more than once.

"He he didn't kill us." Old man Chai murmured and got up, and after a faint sigh, his gaze locked on Han Qianqian who was hanging in mid-air like a divine Buddha.

Immediately afterwards Fang Watch and Liu Tao also slowly got up, so did Su Yan and Green Pearl

All of them got up, and all of them looked at Han Qianqian, all of them stayed in a daze for a while, even forgetting to breathe.

Only Su Yingxia, who had stood there dumbfounded from beginning to end, looked at her beloved, gradually shedding tears and also revealing a smile.

Fang Kun scratched his hair incredulously, how could it be, how could it be?

The strange poison scattering, the Sixth Mirror, all the elaborate arrangements had all turned into nothing at this moment!

"Kill him, kill him for me. Quickly, quickly!" Fang Kun roared hysterically and angrily, unwilling to accept this cruel reality!

Those guards on the ground, who were in a daze but heard Fang Kun's roar, came back to their senses one by one, and although they were afraid in their hearts, as guards, they still mustered up the courage to regroup.

At almost the same time, Fang Guan, who could not sit still, flew out and blocked the guards in mid-air, shouting angrily, "This is the Ice God of the Desert Realm, whoever dares to touch him is an enemy of the Fang family."

And almost at the same time, Liu Tao also waved his hand widely, and hundreds of followers of the Liu family immediately surrounded those soldiers from behind, Liu Tao shouted angrily, and his long sword turned in his hand, holding it in his palm, "Also an enemy of my Liu family."

Boom!

A figure also flew up violently, residing above everyone's heads, and with a cold voice, he shouted, "If you want to touch the Ice God, step over my Chai Rong's corpse first."

As soon as the words left his mouth, Chai Rong's green qi radiated out from his body, his whole body was so powerful.

Seeing the Fang family move, the Liu family move, the old man Chai also moved, the stands, the masses on the hall have collectively overwhelmed, and when they reflected, the gang was even more stunned and dismayed.

"Ice Ice God?"

"What? That that's the Ice God?"

"That person is the Ice God of our Desert Realm?"

Everyone's hearts were instantly overwhelmed with shock, how could they have thought that this overbearing young man in front of them would be the supreme status Ice God of the Realm of Deserts!!!

And at this time, Fang Kun, also dumbfounded in place, if the surrounding stone platform shattered enough, then now, his heart along with the more miserable.

How how is this possible?!

How is this possible? He is just a Central Plainsman, just a trash that was cuckolded by himself, waste, what makes him suddenly jump to his head, or ice ice god?!

At this time Su Yingxia, also finally reflected, the body can not help but slightly stunned!

Chapter 2848

The Ice God!

Han Qianqian was the Ice God.

At this moment, Su Yingxia's sizzling eyes suddenly had a hint of extra sadness in them.

She gently turned her head and glanced at Su Yan next to her, while at almost the same time, Su Yan also turned her eyes towards Su Yingxia, the two women's eyes locked, but they were surprisingly unanimous in their sadness and envy.

By now, I am afraid that Su Yan has already understood that the so-called Su surname woman Han Qianqian referred to is Su Yingxia.

And Su Yingxia also understood that the close ice god who had been teasing Su Yan without guessing was Han Qianqian.

Her heart suddenly ached, not because Han Qianqian had changed his heart, but because of how right Lu Ruoxin had been.

Yes, without herself, with Han Qianqian's good looks and skills, as long as he wanted to, there were beautiful women all around him, and as long as he wanted to, there were women who came with power.

The daughter of the Lu family, Qin Shant, and now the daughter of the Su family, abound, but only herself, as the daughter of the Fu family, the Fu family brings nothing but disaster, and as a holy maiden, she is not able to give birth to a true god for Han Qianqian.

She would really only drag him down.

Just as the Fang family had seen this time.

Without herself, Han Qianqian was the ice god that all here admired, high above the people, but with herself, Han Qianqian was in danger, fighting viciously with others.

Perhaps Lu Ruoxin was right, she was simply a lonely star and would only bring Han Qianqian calamity.

She began to regret that she should not have met Han Qianqian here.

Like Su Yingxia, Su Yan was also sad inside. Although she knew that Han Qianqian had already had his heart, when she saw her actually appear in front of her, Su Yan could not help herself.

She was beautiful, her temperament was charming, and she even had many things that she did not possess, such as her trust in Han Qianqian, her understanding of him, and if she was a blank sheet of paper, then she was a book of spring and autumn, and the difference between the two was heavenly.

Now, she thinks she finally understands why Han Qianqian is the only one for him.

And at this time, the field Fang Kun's gang of soldiers panicked, although all are Fang Kun's cronies, although they all consider themselves prince soldiers, the future to assist Fang Kun to ascend the family head of the seat, a group of them merit.

Therefore, they had always stopped the young master's orders and did not listen to others, but at this moment, when they were faced with an attack on the family head and the Liu family head as well as the old man Chai, the gang was dumbfounded.

What's more, the man in the mid-air was the Ice God.

"If you dare not retreat, kill!" Fang Watch shouted coldly and raised his hand, a long sword instantly flashed in his hand.

"Fuck, dare to touch the Ice God's, I'll fucking fight you."

"That's right, if anyone dares to touch the Ice God, we won't fucking let him go."

The crowd quickly came to their senses as Fang Guan shouted, and then one by one they rushed towards the group of Fang Kun's trusted guards at the side of the hall.

"Ping Li Bang Bang!"

Almost at the same time, with a burst of crunching sounds, thousands of weapons fell directly to the ground, followed by them raising their hands and then bending their knees.

Boom!

All of them rushed to kneel down at Han Qianqian in unison.

"We didn't know that the Ice God was coming and had the audacity to hurt you, so we deserve to die, please ask the Ice God to condemn us." The group of guards spoke in unison.

Hearing this, Fang Kun's eyes were shocked: "You guys you guys"

He knew that he had lost, completely and utterly, even his own close friends had abandoned him at the last moment.

How glorious he had once been, and now, how desolate he was!

He stumbled to the ground, his face as white as paper. I am afraid he had never dreamed that everything he had planned, everything he had dreamed of, in the end, was just a dream, leaving nothing but sadness and desolation all over the ground.

At this moment, Han Qianqian, seeing that the battle had been settled, slowly fell from the sky.

At almost the same time, Fang Biao fiercely knelt down on one knee, driving the whole court to follow suit, and even Chai Rong also slightly bent down at this point to show his respect.

"Greeting the Ice God."

Fang Biao led a shout, and at once, the entire hall of ten thousand people shouted in unison.

Han Qianqian faintly swept a glance at everyone present, frowned slightly, sank cold for a moment, raised his head in a daze, and opened his mouth, "I am not some ice god of yours, I am merely the husband of one."

Having said that, Han Qianqian turned his gaze towards Su Yingxia!

Chapter 2849

"My? ah, it's so romantic."

Beside the piercing beetle, a young woman's eyes were at this moment with an intense flowery look, incomparably envious.

The other woman also nodded frantically, her eyes wavering in autumn, "Yes, thousands of beings, only taking your sister, my god, I'm falling."

"I thought these would only be found in books, but I never thought I would see this situation found before my eyes today."

"Ai, if only I were that woman, how wonderful it would be, even if I live ten years less in this life, I would still be willing."

One by one, the four women were even more flamboyant than the other, but the most embarrassed one was the pierced mountain beetle, obviously just now these women were still gentle and passionate towards themselves, but in the blink of an eye, they had completely left themselves behind and were madly infatuated with Han Qianqian in front of their own faces.

"Fuck, I don't want to lose face." He understood that if he followed this bitch Han Qianqian in this life, he would never expect to get off.

Fuck, the women were all captured by this guy!

Not only these few women, but all the women in the room were so moved, and the young girls were so nostalgic, while the old mussels were accusing their men of not knowing how to behave.

The old mussels accused their men of not knowing how to behave.

This woman attracted a lot of attention by her mouth, which was big enough to fit an egg, and by the colourful face she wore.

It was just as funny now as it was yesterday when she was so spirited.

Looking at Su Yan and Su Yingxia on the stage, and even many young girls or rich girls, who looked at Han Qianqian with fascination in their eyes, which one of them was not the most beautiful face?

It was the old clam who now looked full of comedy.

Many people have covered their mouths to snicker, touching the porcelain on the ice god, apart from saying that there is a damned good thing about you, the crowd is only left to laugh.

Even if this Samba's face is thicker than a tree, but at this moment, she is also embarrassed, wanting to dislike her mockers a few words, but found that today, no matter what, but simply can not open that old mouth.

With her head shrunken, the bitch slunk away with her tail between her legs amidst the jeers of the crowd.

Su Yingxia's eyes were filled with tears and she was moved to tears, looking at this man who only had eyes for her.

"No!" Fang Kun fell on his back beside the broken stone platform and roared out with life and death.

It was his wife, even if he had never married her, but this was far more humiliating than the marriage.

What is this?

A lover finally becoming a couple? Or was it just a splash of green on his head?

At least in front of ordinary people, they could be the former, while he was bound to be the latter.

Thinking of this, Fang Kun clenched his fist, gritted his teeth and rushed towards Han Qianqian.

With Su Yingxia in his arms, Han Qianqian was also in grief, but even so, with his skills, how could he not know if there was any movement in the wind?

However, in the face of the oncoming Fang Kun, Han Qianqian did not move at all, but only held Su Yingxia tightly, enjoying this little bit of rare warmth.

"I'll kill you!" Fang Kun roared in anger, and almost a few meters away from Han Qianqian, the long sword in his hand transformed and slashed away.

"Be careful!"

Over there, when Su Yan saw this, she shouted softly, but it was so sudden that she and Green Pearl wanted to help, but it was obviously a bit too late.

However, in the nick of time, two black shadows suddenly flew out, followed by a shout from the crowd and a scream.

When they looked back, they saw that Fang Kun, who was wielding a long sword, had somehow fallen to the ground in a solid heap!

At that moment, those two figures were standing beside Fang Kun, and when everyone saw them, they couldn't help but frown greatly, and there was an uproar.

And when Fang Kun barely managed to look up at these two people despite the intense pain, he couldn't help but be horrified

Chapter 2850

"Rebel son, what more do you want?"

Beside Fang Kun, Fang Watch was standing slightly, and the foot that had not yet been fully retracted was already stating that the person who had just struck him down was no other than himself.

On the other side, the claw that Chai Rong was holding in the air also indicated that if Fang Kun had not tripped just now, then what was waiting for him was Chai Rong's choke.

Two of the strongest and most majestic people in the Realm of Deserts had struck at almost the same time, and what was more, these two people were also almost inextricably linked to Fang Kun.

What was especially important was that one of them was also his father.

"Father? What are you doing?" Fang Kun almost roared towards Fang Watch, he was puzzled, he was very puzzled, what did his father mean by this? "Your son, in front of all the guests, is being robbed of his daughter-in-law, and it's just as well that you don't help your son, but you're helping an outsider to beat me?"

Fang Fang looked ice-cold, if it was normal, he would naturally make the person who stole his son's wife pay in blood, after all, it was the Fang family's reputation that was at stake.

However, that was Han Qianqian, that was the Ice God.

If he were to stand firm, I was afraid that what he would lose would not simply be his dignity, but all that the Fang family had.

"What? Just a cold face won't speak? Oh, Fang Watch, I'm afraid you yourself know that the one who is in the wrong is him at all, right?" Fang Kun saw that Fang Watch was not speaking at all, so he spoke coldly and mockingly.

"And you, Chai Rong, you boast of being an old-timer in the Realm of Deserts, and even more so, a guest of my Fang family, and now what? Clearly right and wrong is right in front of you, and you pretend not to see it? Hahahaha, are you worthy of your bold words?"

Although Chai Rong felt that he had lost some ground, he had no relationship with Fang Kun, and naturally knew which side he was on.

"And you! A bunch of people who come to my house to dawdle with food and drink, who usually treat my family politely and treat me like a young master, but today, what's wrong? What happened today? They don't dare to say anything anymore?"

"Ice God? He's just a piece of trash from the Central Plains, the future son-in-law of the top of the Blue Mountains, in the end, he's just a soft-spoken man. He is also worthy of being the Ice God of my Desert Realm?"

Fang Kun roared hysterically, but with his words, the people at the scene could not help but move.

"The future incoming son-in-law of the Top of the Blue Mountains?"

"A man who eats soft food?"

"The Top of Blue Mountain has heard that it is one of the three great True God families in the Central Plains and is extremely strong."

"I've also heard that there seems to be a number one beauty in the Eight Directions world in the Central Plains region, the so-called Miss Lu family, and that the Ice God is the man of Miss Lu's family, so who is this woman?"

"Hardly, is it the mistress outside?"

A group of people whispered, although Fang Kun's words did speak above the sore point of many people in the Desert Realm, but the identity of the son-in-law of the top of the Blue Mountains likewise made many people not dare to act recklessly.

Su Yingxia slightly loosened her grip, and sure enough, Han Qianqian and Lu Ruoxin had already or, even if they hadn't, so what? The people of the realm of the desert know the stain of the Ice God, but the name of the top of the Blue Mountains is pressed there, and they do not dare to act rashly.

This was what Lu Ruoxin said she could bring to Han Qianqian, and what about herself?

Feeling Su Yingxia's reflection, Han Qianqian immediately frowned, then, looking at everyone, he shouted aloud, "I, Han Qianqian, will never be the future son-in-law of the Lu family, not now, not ever."

"I, Han Qianqian, will always be Su Yingxia's husband, and I will always consider Su Yingxia as my only love, for the rest of my life."

As soon as the words fell, the whole room fell silent.

But the next second, the entire front of the hall began to stir.

"Han Qianqian?"

"That name, I seem to have heard of it in the Central Plains."

"I seem to have heard of it last time I went to the Central Plains, although it is a newcomer, it seems to be extremely famous, I just can't seem to recall it for a while."

Hearing the name Han Qianqian, some of them began to try hard to recall something, while those around them were all waiting with bated breath for their answers.

Suddenly, at that very moment, the few people who were recalling the name looked at each other in surprise, with horror on their faces!
