

His True Color Chapter 2851-2860

Chapter 2851

"Han Qianqian!"

"Mystic!"

"Demon God!"

Several people blurted out almost simultaneously.

Seeing that the people next to them were even more curious, the person at the head of the group was incomparably excited at that moment, "Do you know what kind of existence this guy is in the Central Plains?"

Those few people hurriedly shook their heads.

"Oh, if the Central Plains region is a pot of soup, then this guy is a huge soup spoon that can cause the entire Central Plains region to be in turmoil with a single movement."

"One person killed the Demon Dragon of the Trapped Dragon Mountain, and the most terrifying thing is that this guy fought against the two true gods of the Central Plains region with the strength of one person!"

"What?!"

Both the few curious people who wanted to hear the answer and the crowd at the side were appalled when they heard that they had fought the two true gods of the Central Plains.

They knew that although the Desert Realm was far away and had little contact with the Central Plains, they still knew all about the three true gods who had set the order of this world.

Even the Ice Gods they believed in were powerless to resist, let alone the True Gods who were far above them.

But now, this new Ice God had not only fought the True Gods, but had even fought the two True Gods in one breath, how could anyone not be terrified by such a power?

Such explosive news quickly spread through the crowd.

And at almost the same time, Fang Watch and Chai Rong's group of experts, who had obviously heard the rumours going around underneath, looked at each other in shock.

An Ice God who could fight with the True Gods?

Fang Watch's heart suddenly turned incomparably frenzied!

However, just at that moment, Han Qianqian turned back.

Han Qianqian looked at Fang Kun with cold eyes, clearly looking at him, but he actually frightened Fang watch, "I have yet to settle the score with you for taking my wife, and you want to add another crime of rumour-making?"

Fang watch coldly spat blood out of his mouth and shouted coldly, "Han Qianqian!"

But as soon as he shouted, a sword pierced through his back and came out of his chest with a steady stream of blood.

He spat out blood on the spot and looked up to see that the sword had been stabbed by his own father, Fang Biao!

He looked at his father with resignation, why?

"You rebellious son, I gave you a chance when you sent the Ice God to the Heavenly Prison, but now you don't know how to repent. I wonder why Miss Su has been sulking in my house.

As soon as the words fell, Fang Watch gripped the hilt of his sword, a group of Fang Family elders hurriedly raised their voices to stop it, but it was obviously too late, as Fang Watch moved his hand, the sword made a violent twist in Fang Kun's body.

"Poof!"

Blood even spurted out directly from the wound on Fang Kun's back, spilling all over Fang Watch's entire face. With a final wave of resignation and disbelief, Fang Kun tried to reach out to touch his father, but in the end, his breath was cut off and his entire body went limp on the ground.

He took a few steps to Han Qianqian's face and then knelt down, "I have not taught my son well, so he has caused a lot of trouble, so I will kill my son with my own hands to apologise to the Ice God.

With the words "to be buried with him", the people of the Fang family were so shocked that they knelt down in a panic.

Han Qianqian was stunned and then smiled, "What is wrong with the Fang family head? It is Han Qianqian who has caused the Fang family head to lose his beloved son, so I am sorry."

Hearing Han Qianqian's words, Fang Watch let out a long breath, knowing that Han Qianqian would not take advantage of the Fang family, at least after he had killed Fang Kun with his own hands.

Looking at the rising Fang Watch, Han Qianqian's eyes also flashed with a trace of coldness, the tiger alone does not yet eat its son, this Fang Watch, seemingly generous, but the actual heart of the hatred, the hands of the spicy.

"Fang Jun!" Fang watch got up, then softly shouted.

Fang Jun hurriedly ran over, bent slightly, then gently glanced at Han Qianqian and said, "Family head, here."

"Hold this fellow's corpse down for me and feed it to the dogs!"

"Yes!" Fang Jun nodded, and with a flourish of his hand, called a few men over to carry away Shang Kun's corpse from the ground.

Han Qianqian's gaze slowly looked towards Fang Kun's corpse that was being carried away, but he revealed a weird one smile, and only when he saw Fang Watch looking up at him did he suddenly withdraw these smiles and return to his normal self: "By the way, Master of the Fang Family, can I trouble you with something?"

"Please speak, Ice God."

"I want to get married!" Han Qianqian laughed.

"Huh?"

Chapter 2852

"Just take advantage of the thousands of guests, take advantage of everything the Fang family has prepared, let Han Qianqian borrow a flower and offer it to Buddha, naturally, I can make compensation for what you have spent." Han Qianqian laughed.

The long goodbye is better than a new marriage, moreover, how can Han Qianqian not understand what is in Su Yingxia's heart at this time after all that he has experienced recently?

He wanted to use this as a way to make amends, and also as a move to prove his feelings in front of thousands of people.

"Oh, what the Ice God needs, since it is an honour for my Fang family, what more compensation is needed?" Fang watch hurriedly bowed his body and said, "I can't wait to serve the Ice God."

With Fang's nod of approval, Han Qianqian smiled faintly and looked towards Su Yingxia.

Han Qianqian knew what Su Yingxia wanted, and how could Su Yingxia not know Han Qianqian's intentions? What regrets would there be in this life if the husband was like this?

But obviously, what Han Qianqian did not know was that what Su Yingxia had pent up in her heart at this time was not whether Han Qianqian loved her or not, but more of an inferiority complex.

The reason for this is because she knows very well that she is not the only one who loves her.

Because she knew very well that she loved Han Qianqian, she had to think more about him.

Thinking of this, Su Yingxia forced out a smile and shook her head slightly at Han Qianqian.

Han Qianqian immediately frowned and said urgently, "Yingxia?"

"Three thousand, there's no need to bother." Su Yingxia smiled, and after she finished speaking, she turned around and walked quickly towards the backyard.

Looking at Su Yingxia's departing back, the sadness in Han Qianqian's heart suddenly rose up, and he froze in place, bewildered.

Remembering Yingxia's two heartless letters, even Han Qianqian, as determined as she was, could not help but feel a little more sad and uncertain at this moment!

Could it be that Yingxia had really grown tired of it?

As a man, this was the thing that he was most sorry for.

Every time he thought of this, Han Qianqian felt guilty.

"Why are you still standing there? Go after them." Su Yan walked over with a few steps and said sharply.

After them?

Han Qianqian raised his eyes and glanced at Su Yingxia, who was leaving, was it really good for Su Yingxia if he went after her?

Han Qianqian was confused!

"I'm really pissed off at you." Su Yan dropped a sentence and hurriedly turned back towards Su Yingxia and chased after her.

"Ice God, this" Fang watch is a little embarrassed, at this point up and down, the atmosphere is dead, and 10,000 people set below to watch, really can not help but ask quietly.

Han three thousand did not speak, turned around, also towards the backyard.

Fang watch hurriedly greeted Fang Jun to greet the scene, while he himself brought a group of Fang family members, and joint Chai Rong and other people also hurriedly followed.

The pierced beetle also lost his mind of picking up girls at this time, and hurriedly chased after them as well.

In the backyard, Su Yingxia ran all the way back to her room in tears, even though she had refused Han Qianqian's request, but how could she not be sad and upset? Especially when she refused Han Qianqian, his desperate and wandering eyes, like a child who suddenly didn't know what to do, I'm afraid, he had never dreamed that he would refuse him.

"I'm sorry, Sanchi." Turning her back and closing the door to the room, Su Yingxia could no longer hide her inner sorrow, flung herself onto her bed and cried out of breath.

At this moment, Su Yan, who had also followed on her heels, saw Su Yingxia close the door to her room, and as Han Qianqian followed, she hurriedly stopped Han Qianqian and shook her head at him, signalling that she would go and talk to her.

Then she gently snapped the door of the room and slowly pushed it open: "Miss Su it's me, can I come in?"

Su Yingxia did not return, but did not deny it either. Su Yan entered the room, nodded at Han Qianqian, and then gently closed the door.

Han Qianqian was in a complicated mood and depressed, glanced at Su Yingxia's room, turned and also went back to his own room, behind him, Fang Watch with a group of people also rushed over in a frenzy.

However, even though they knocked on the door of the room outside, Han Qianqian didn't pay any attention to them.

"I'll go in." The piercing beast glanced at everyone and stood out from the crowd.

"Mr. Yellow Sand Monster, you should tell the Ice God that since this Miss Su Yingxia is his wife, the Fang family no longer has any involvement with her, and even if he did not have a wedding with Miss Su, no one would dare to deny it thereafter." Fang watch respectfully said.

The piercing beast nodded, "I understand." After saying that, he turned around and knocked on Han Qianqian's door.

And at that moment, inside Su Yingxia's house

Chapter 2853

Listening to Su Yingxia's soft, painful sobs as she flung herself on the quilt, Su Yan walked slightly to her side, patting her back gently and said, "You love him very much, don't you?"

"If I didn't have him, I wouldn't be able to live for even a minute." Su Yingxia said sadly.

"If that's the case, then he asked you to marry him, and you still" Su Yan wondered.

Su Yingxia did not answer immediately, after crying for an unknown period of time, slowly raised her head, the whole person still could not stop sobbing: "Miss Su, I can see that you also like three thousand very much, right?"

Su Yan hesitated and embarrassed slightly, but eventually nodded her head.

"Like to what extent?"

Faced with this question, Su Yan was even more embarrassed and hastily explained, "Miss Su, you wouldn't be jealous of me and Three Thousand, would you? Although I do like him, but, I am not going to lie, three thousand has already rejected me and told me clearly the person she likes, only, at that time I did not know it was you."

Su Yingxia shook her head, her teary eyes looking at Su Yan, obviously waiting for her answer.

Su Yan's face drooped slightly: "I liked him very much, if I had to a certain extent, perhaps, righteousness."

Su Yingxia nodded: "In fact, when I used to, I was like you, I liked him more than everything about myself, as you said, righteousness."

"But, Miss Su, is righteousness really love for him again?"

Su Yan said sharply, "Miss Su"

"It's like you are now, about to righteously interfere and ruin our good?" Su Yingxia looked at Su Yan.

Su Yan was silent and shook her head, "No, I just want him to be happy, not to watch him"

"That is right, even you, Miss Su, would say that to love someone is to want them to be happy, then Yingxia thinks she loves three thousand more than you, so how can I stand by and watch him suffer?"

"Miss Su, are you worried that you have been poisoned by rootlessness?" Su Yan said urgently.

Su Yingxia nodded and shook her head again, "This is on the one hand, as you said, there is no antidote for the rootless poison at all, not only can I not give anything to three thousand at this time, but I will only drag him down. But more than that, it's actually the various difficulties we've faced along the way."

"For his sake, I'm not even afraid to die, but that doesn't mean I can safely let him accompany me to these torments ah. Miss Su, you're also a woman, what do you think of him, Han Qianqian?"

"Although I don't know much about him, I have gotten to know him after spending a few days together." After saying this, Su Yan gently glanced at Su Yingxia and saw that she looked serious and very earnest, so she gritted her teeth and said bluntly, "To me, he is the perfect person I have dreamed of. He has a low profile, is modest and courteous, and is straightforward, and as for his looks and skills, he is a dragon among men, unrivalled in the world."

Su Yingxia nodded gently, perhaps it was a welcome thing to be complimented on one's beloved, so even though there were tears in her eyes at the moment, she still wore a happy smile.

"Yes, three thousand he is just so good, and the most important thing is that he has a quality."

As soon as the words left their mouths, the two women blurted out almost simultaneously, "Devotion."

Yes, there are many good men in the world, but there are very few who are both good and loving!

Even if he is good, if he cannot withstand these temptations, he will not belong to himself, and other women will divide him up, or he may not belong to himself at all.

If so, what is the point of his excellence?

But if one is in love, it is different. He is one's own and will always be one's own.

When the two women finished, they saw each other's tacit understanding, both could not help but smile, and the atmosphere instantly eased a lot.

"Miss Su, do you think, like him such an excellent man, the world's daughter and will let go?" Su Yingxia finished laughing and said with some bitterness.

"I understand what Miss Su means, you are thinking that you will only bring him a drag, but if you were not there, with his skills, the women of the world would choose at will."

"Not only do you like him, there are actually many other outstanding women who are also in love with him, but no matter what, whether it's you, or the famous number one beauty of the Eight Directions World, Miss Lu Family, what you give to three thousand will be a great help, like a fierce tiger suddenly adding two wings, when I say this, do you understand, Miss Su?" Su Yingxia looked at Su Yan and said in a soft and gentle voice.

And at this time, Han Qianqian's room

Chapter 2854

"That was quite handsome just now."

"Oh, a move that could have killed the world in seconds, but instead he stopped halfway, bull, quite a bull, worthy of being my brother in the Wearing Mountain Armor."

As soon as he entered the room, Piercing Mountain Armour made all sorts of jokes, but apparently, there was nothing more in the room than the incomparably cold atmosphere responding to him.

Han Qianqian just sat at the table, cup after cup of wine in his cup, and just by the time the pierced mountain armour came in a little later, the large jar of spirits in front of the table was already at the bottom of the sky.

Seeing that this didn't work, the pierced vest sat down on his butt, picked up the bottom of the jug and poured himself a little bit into the glass, then clinked his glass with Han Qianqian before slowly saying, "Is that my sister-in-law?"

The first thing you need to do is to get a good look at your sister-in-law, and she has a great temperament, and her eyes are full of love. In front of so many people."

Han Qianqian smiled bitterly, "It's not her fault."

Damn, indeed, mentioning his sister-in-law Han Qianqian opened his mouth, the pierced beetle frowned, "Why?"

"It's all my fault, I'm the one who's incapable, ever since Yingxia and I got married, I almost never let her have a good life, even though I kept trying to pay it back, I still owe him too much after all."

"Even before I went up to the Eight Worlds, she was still full of crises, in fact, if it wasn't for me, Yingxia would have had a good life." Thinking about it, Han Qianqian couldn't help but smile bitterly.

The daughter of the Su family and the daughter of the Fu family, in either capacity, she should have had a very good life without her choosing herself.

Not so much as to follow herself, uprooted and living this life anyway.

"So, what you're saying is that if you love someone, you should learn to let go and let her chase happiness?"

Han Qianqian didn't deny having this thought, but he really couldn't let go of Su Yingxia.

"In fact, it's probably true that she could marry Fang Kun, just as you said, husband and wife are originally birds of the same feather, but they fly separately in times of trouble, so it's actually good to understand that she made this choice."

When Han Qianqian heard this, he couldn't help but lower his head, it was indeed true. Theoretically, if Su Yingxia made any choice, Han Qianqian would abide by her wishes, but this time

Han Qianqian felt that he might have missed the mark.

Seeing Han Qianqian like this, the mountain piercer smiled and patted Han Qianqian's shoulder, "But actually, you don't have to be too discouraged, although I don't know what has happened between you and what you have experienced, I know that you love your sister-in-law very much, and the way she looks at you is also full of love, I believe that the problem is temporary and will always be solved."

Han Qianqian nodded, and his gaze couldn't help but move outside the house.

He was waiting for Su Yan.

"The gang outside the house, I'll tell them to disperse." The pierced beetle would get the wrong idea, get up and open the door, then he waved his hand at Fang Watch and the others, signalling for them to leave the place.

Han Qianqian did not stop them, this was good, at least it would be clear.

When he saw that the mountain-people had returned, Han Qianqian let out a long sigh, picked up his own wine and gave half of it to the mountain-people before taking a drink.

He raised his glass and drank with Han Qianqian without saying a word.

And almost at this time, Su Yan also slowly retreated from Su Yingxia's room, after closing the room door, Green Pearl had already waited for herself at the door, seeing the young lady come out, eyes looking at her bashfully.

After all, when she didn't know that Su Yingxia was the Miss Su that Han Qianqian was talking about, she had said a lot of bad things about Han Qianqian in front of Su Yingxia.

How could she not be annoyed when the two of them were in such a state?

Su Yan let out a long sigh and then looked over at Han Qianqian's side.

"Miss?"

"Come with me to find Han Qianqian." After Su Yan finished speaking, she took Green Pearl with her and quickly headed towards Han Qianqian's room.

"Miss Su is coming over."

In the room, the wearer shouted sharply, followed by Han Qianqian standing up violently

Chapter 2855

He wanted to take a few steps over to know Su Yan's news, but he could not help but get up too hard and the wine was extremely strong, so he almost stumbled backwards for a while.

When Pierced Mountain Armor hurriedly assisted Han Qianqian and helped him towards the bed, over there, the door also opened, and Su Yan walked in with Green Pearl looking not very well.

"How is it?" Han Qianqian was about to get up in a hurry, despite the support of the pierced mountain beetle.

Su Yan glanced at the Wearing Mountain Armor, then at the wine jug on the table, and instantly understood something, nodding: "You guys go out first, I have something I want to discuss with Three Thousand."

"But he" Pierced Mountain Armor glanced at Han Qianqian who was not in very good shape.

The strong wine had entered his throat so quickly that he was already a little drunk.

"I'll take care of her." Su Yan finished and slowly walked over with the fragrant nose.

The piercing beetle glanced at Su Yan and then at Green Pearl, nodded and followed Green Pearl back out.

Su Yan gently assisted Han Qianqian, then, slowly laid him on the bed, looking at the usually very sensible Han Qianqian who was now in a state of confusion, a trace of heartache appeared on her face, however, she still shook her head: "She has already made up her mind."

"What?!" Hearing these words, Han Qianqian's entire body seemed to hear the sound of her own heart breaking, and her expression turned into an abnormal trance.

How could this be?

Could it be that, as she had said in her initial letter, Ying Xia she really had completely died of heartbreak?!

"This is what she asked me to teach you." Saying this, Su Yan gently took out a note from her hand.

The note was of a large red colour, obviously cut temporarily from the red paper used for any wedding, and although it was somewhat rushed, it was more than certain that it was written by Su Yingxia.

When the note was opened, a line of incomparably beautiful words inside made it even more certain that it was written by Su Yingxia.

"I miss you, but the past is fleeting, even if I try hard to keep it, it is like holding fine sand in my hand, but it will be empty in the end."

"Three thousand, the past with you has never been without regret, but in the future, you and I will have to say goodbye, take care of yourself, take care of Nian'er, and welcome Xia Li."

After reading these words, Han Qianqian's entire hands trembled slightly, and his eyes were devoid of their usual sharpness and steadiness; instead, they were somewhat dull.

"Impossible, impossible, this can't be." Han Qianqian violently crumpled the paper into a ball, followed by the whole person throwing the paper in an unusually violent manner, and in a smooth manner, he was about to stomp on it with one foot.

Seeing this, Su Yan hurriedly reached out to stop Han Qianqian, hoping that he could calm down a little.

Although Su Yan was only a woman, Han Qianqian, who had lost his mind and was intoxicated, was no better. As Su Yan took her hand, Han Qianqian's body, which had not yet fully risen, was instantly pinned down by her.

With a thud from the bed, Su Yan's entire body fell on top of Han Qianqian's body, and the veil on her face loosened at that moment, revealing her stunning face.

Su Yan was very nervous, and her breathing became abnormally rapid, but at this moment when they were in such close contact, Han Qianqian could clearly feel her every breath, and the alcohol, together with the anger of the letter, made Han Qianqian, after freezing, suddenly press Su Yan back onto the bed, and put his mouth on her with one big mouth.

Su Yan's face was flushed and her heart was anxious, but she couldn't help but close her eyes and wait for Han Qianqian's vigorous kiss.

However, she didn't wait for the moment of electricity to hit her, but suddenly, she felt a lightness on her body, and when she opened her eyes again, Han Qianqian had already stood up.

"I'm sorry." Han Qianqian half-skimmed her face and said apologetically.

Su Yan's heart was broken, even this face of hers would fail at this time? But while her heart was breaking, she was also very moved, looking at Han Qianqian and saying, "It's because of Su Yingxia, isn't it?"

"I will only love her alone, even if, she doesn't love me." After Han Qianqian finished, he got up and opened the window next to him in order to let the cold air in and calm himself down.

Su Yan smiled bitterly, picking up the clothes that had slipped down her shoulders a little, it really wasn't because she wasn't pretty enough, but because of Su Yingxia.

Gently rising, Su Yan picked up some of Han Qianqian's leftover wine from the table, tilted her head and drank it down, the spicy taste instantly hitting her throat.

Chapter 2856

Hearing this, Han Qianqian immediately turned his head back and stared at Su Yan nervously and eagerly, this was the first time since Su Yan had known Han Qianqian that she had seen him so nonchalant: "You have a solution?"

"What solution?"

"Although I can't persuade you to make peace, however, I can give you some time together, are you willing?" Su Yan looked quite determined on her face, but in reality, she was dripping blood inside.

How could anyone else think of the sadness and heartache of pushing the person you loved to someone else?

Han Qianqian was satisfied even if he could meet her, not to mention getting along with Su Yingxia.

"When the Fang family makes the flower boat, you can give us a ride." Su Yan said.

"Give you guys a lift?" Han Qianqian frowned slightly, not quite understanding what she meant.

"We're going to the City of Burning Bones, don't you have to go all the way north as well? You can give us a slight ride along the way, and I can find an excuse to tell her my flower boat is broken when the time comes." Su Yan responded.

Hearing this, Han Qianqian's brow locked tighter: "The City of Burning Bones? Why are you going to this place?"

The City of Burning Bones was the most central and core territory of the Demon Race, and also the most dangerous place for the entire Demon Race, it was strange enough for Su Yan to go to that place, but even Su Yingxia had to go to that place.

Su Yingxia should not have any involvement with the demon race, so why would she go to such a place?

Could it be because she had been threatened by some demon tribe under her own influence?

Although this worry seemed somewhat unbelievable, it seemed rather reasonable when one thought about it.

However, seeing Han Qianqian so worried, Su Yan only smiled lightly, "This is something that I won't talk to you about, and you shouldn't ask any more questions, okay?"

"But you also know what the City of Burning Bones is, I'm just worried about your safety."

"I have already deployed the three elders of the Su Family to come over, they will accompany me on the journey, you don't need to worry about safety." Su Yan said.

Han Qianqian nodded, since Su Yan was unwilling to say more, it was useless for him to press on, besides, Su Yan only knew that she was heading north, but she didn't know that she was actually heading to the City of Burning Bones as well, so when the time came, she would only need to act stealthily herself, and she would be able to protect them in secret as well.

"Good! This matter, if you didn't want to talk about it, I wouldn't have taken the initiative to mention it again." Han Qianqian responded.

Su Yan barely managed to squeeze out a smile, "Since I've done you such a big favour? Could it be that you are just going to use this leftover wine to entertain me?"

Han Qianqian immediately revealed a smile, rushed to the door with a few steps, and as soon as he opened the door to the room, he greeted the pierced mountain beetle to prepare some wine and food.

The mountain-wearing armour took a strange look at Han Qianqian, who had a smile on his face, and was depressed for a while.

The most important thing is that when the wearing beetle's eyes skimmed towards Su Yan, but unconsciously found that Su Yan's clothes were quite loose, and Su Yan saw the wearing beetle looking at his own clothes, but also can not help but blush pink, the lewd wearing beetle suddenly oh so, have his own unique insight.

It didn't take long for the fart to return with two or three jars of wine, followed by a few underlings with trays of dishes. After the dishes and wine were put back on the table, the Wearing Mountain Armour tugged on Green Pearl's arm and retreated out.

In the room, only Han Qianqian and Su Yan were left. How could Han Qianqian not know the meaning behind this lewd act of the pierced vest, but those who are clear are clear, so Han Qianqian raised his glass of wine and toasted Su Yan: "This glass of wine is a token of my feelings."

Su Yan smiled gently and raised her glass too, covering her face as she drank.

"I've never felt so intoxicated by wine." Su Yan put down the cup and smiled gently.

It wasn't the wine that was intoxicating, it was the presence of the person she loved that made her intoxicated, but how could Su Yan open her mouth? The only thing she could do was to cherish the rare time she spent alone with Han Qianqian.

At this moment, after greeting the guests, Fang Biao, in a somewhat depressed and complicated mood, walked quickly towards the inner room on the far right side of the front hall.

When he stopped in front of a closed hall, he looked up at the plaque on the hall and resolutely pushed open the huge door which was a thousand pounds in size!

And inside at that moment

Chapter 2857

Once inside, there was a variety of thumping sounds, and once inside, you could see that there were no houses or halls in the hall, but there was nothing of the sort in the hall, only a huge, incomparably deep pit.

At the edge of the pit, the bottom was about 20 metres deep, with all sorts of equipment resting underneath, and a group of workers were working feverishly underneath, while in the very centre of them, a large ship had already taken shape, with only some basic parts being installed.

"House Master!"

Soon, the workers underneath spotted Fang Miao standing at the fence and put down their work, then knelt down and bowed.

"Greetings, Family Head."

Fang Watch smiled faintly and waved his hand, "All continue working."

"Yes!" The crowd nodded and got up before continuing with the work at hand.

Just now, Green Pearl approached him and asked him about the flower boat, which suddenly reminded him of something he had almost forgotten. This flower boat was something Su Yan had asked herself to build for her friend. Originally, with the relationship between the Fang and Su families, building a small flower boat was just a handy task, so naturally Fang watch did not take this matter to heart.

But as things became clearer, Fang began to wonder if this flower boat was actually the one Su Yan had asked him to build for Han Qianqian.

Building a boat for the Ice God was naturally not a problem, and even if he were to ask for half of the Fang House, he would definitely not frown.

But a boat was different, it was a means of transport, and what did it mean to want a means of transport, to think that the Ice God was leaving this place?

Obviously, this was the last thing Fang Watch wanted to see, for the Fang Family, now that Fang Kun, the son of tomorrow, was gone, even the Holy Maiden who could have given birth to a True God for the Fang Family had been taken away by Han Qianqian!

Therefore, the future of the Fang family was almost tantamount to nothing, and the only thing left was the present, a present with only the Ice God!

If the Ice God were to leave, for the Fang table, the loss would almost reach its peak in this situation.

But then again, even if it were true, as one would expect, that the flower boat ended up being given to the Ice God, could he himself object? As mentioned earlier, the Fang family no longer had the capital, much less the possibility of offending the Ice God at such a juncture.

It was difficult to do it, but it was also difficult not to do it.

This was also the fundamental reason why Fang Watch was now frowning thickly and at a loss.

"Ai!" Fang Watch let out a long sigh, everything was going well for Mei Mei, why did it turn out to be so passive now!

But just as he finished his sigh and was about to turn around to leave, suddenly, a faint rotten stench hit his side, and before he could get used to it, a black shadow suddenly gathered in front of him.

He was wearing a black coat and his head was wrapped in black cloth, leaving only a pair of bloodshot eyes that glowed red.

At the sight of this shadow, Fang was startled and immediately assumed a defensive stance, ready to strike back.

But the black shadow only smiled lightly, slowly walked to the railing, looked at the busy workers in the cave, and slowly opened his mouth: "This flower boat is quite beautiful."

"Unfortunately, beautiful things are like shooting stars, they are fleeting."

"The day the flower boat is completed will be the day when the Fang family has nothing left, am I right? Master of the Fang family?"

The Fang family's desert city had been hidden in the desert by a special and hidden formation since ancient times.

But this person in front of her, how did she manage to do that?

If I were to say that I knew her well, Fang had gone through his mind and never felt that he had seen this person at any time.

"Who are you? And how did you appear inside my desert city?" Fang watch said coldly in a wary voice.

She just smiled blandly, "It doesn't matter who I am, what matters most is whether what I said happens to be a sore point for the Fang family head?"

"So what if it is? So what if it's not? What's that got to do with you? I warn you, you'd better reveal your identity in a hurry, or else, don't blame Fang for being ungracious."

When he heard Fang's words, the man in black only laughed lightly and coldly, "You're not polite? Are you joking, Master Fang? Or do you want to repeat the same mistake your son made?"

"You" Fang watch was furious.

"There's no need to be anxious, Family Head Fang, I don't mean any harm, but I'm looking for you to ask for something!" After saying that, she smiled grimly

Chapter 2858

"Want something?" Fang Watch frowned, "You want the flower boat?"

"Master Fang family, it is better to ask others than to ask yourself, I think you should understand this truth better than anyone else now, right?"

Fang Watch did not speak, but did not deny this view either.

"My son died tragically, my daughter-in-law was robbed, and I endured all of this with patience, only to have others not appreciate it in the slightest and to leave the Desert City... I am afraid that only the Fang Family Master himself, can feel the depression in this world."

"And what does this have to do with you?" Fang Watch said in a cold voice with some displeasure.

"Good, since Family Lord Fang is not willing to say more, I will not mention it again, let's open the door to the mountain towards, what I came here this time, what I want is very simple."

"What!"

"A corpse!"

A corpse?!

Fang table frowned, had seen those who wanted money and jewellery, even those who wanted spiritual pills and gongfu, but this one who wanted a corpse, he still had never heard of it, never seen it before.

"One's own son is always one's own son, Master Fang, why do you need to hide it from me? Is it really possible that it was really taken out and fed to the dogs, as the Fang family head said?"

When he heard these words, the entire Fang table was shocked. Yes, although he had scolded his subordinates to take Fang Kun's body down to the dogs in front of everyone, he had not actually done so, but had ordered his son's body to be hidden in the ice cellar, waiting to see if there was a chance to save him.

He had only one son, how could he let him go?

However, not many people knew about this, apart from a few of his close friends at the time, no one else knew about it, so how did this man know about it?

Could it be that there was a traitor among his own cronies?

If there was, then what was the origin of this woman?

Fang looked warily at the woman in front of him and said in a cold voice, "What do you want with my son's body?"

"What else can I do? Can your son be so handsome that he can charm anyone with his corpse? Even Han Qianqian can't do that, who is he? I only took your son's corpse because I saw him in pity and wanted to give him an extra dog's life." The woman in black said in a cold and disdainful voice.

Hearing these words, Fang watch was suddenly agitated, "What are you saying?"

"You mean, you can save my son?"

"The desert land is still a few days' journey from the Central Plains, so if you are not afraid that your son will stink on the way, perhaps you can give it a try."

"However, there is no free lunch in the world. If you want your son to live, you have to pay something, right?" The man in black bellowed coldly.

Fang frowned, "What do you want?"

The man in black smiled gently and slightly hooked his hand. After a moment of silence, Fang Watch put his head over and then the woman in black said something next to his ear. After hearing what she said, Fang Watch's entire face suddenly turned pale and he looked at the woman in black incredulously.

"You're not joking with me?" Fang Watch said in shock.

The woman in black laughed softly, "Do you think I'm as idle as you are? Coming to your desert city just to play a joke with you, Fang Watch?"

Fang watch looked at him in fear, for the condition the woman in black had proposed was too shocking for him.

To be an enemy of the Ice God!

Moreover, it was an Ice God of Han Qianqian's almost heaven defying battle power!

Is this insane?

"For your Desert Realm, the Ice God may be supreme, and for your Fang Family, having the Ice God sitting in the town is indeed something to look forward to. However, what if the Ice God isn't there anymore?" The woman in black said, adding a cold smile, "I mean, what if he might not even ever return to the Realm of Desert?"

"What you mean is that this flower boat"

"It's just a tool for him to travel to the Far North." She laughed softly.

Fang Kun's face was ashen, he had thought that Han Qianqian would leave the Desert City, but he had never thought that Han Qianqian would just leave the Desert Realm, if he never returned, then the Fang family would be completely and utterly destitute.

"Do as I say and return a living son to you in a month, plus" the woman in black suddenly glanced at the cellar factory behind her, "Build another flower boat, there are people still waiting to use it. "

After saying that, she smiled gently and handed a sign with a seal in her hand to Fang Watch: "Remember to pick up the goods with the ticket."

As soon as the words left her mouth, she disappeared, while Fang Watch slowly raised his head and looked at the imprinted

Chapter 2859

The moment he looked at the seal, Fang Watch's entire body could not help but be startled, but in the next second, he held the seal in his hand with a deadly grip and, turning to the bottom, bellowed coldly, "Build another flower ship."

As soon as the words left his mouth, Fang Watch turned and left, leaving only the craftsmen in situ, standing there dumbfounded!

The sun was setting, and Su Yingxia's room was silent. According to Su Yan's earlier plan, she was busy packing her luggage, but Su Yingxia packed very slowly because she knew that the faster she packed, the closer she would be to leaving.

After packing up her things, Su Yingxia slightly pushed open her window and looked out at Han Qianqian's room through the moonlight.

The house was brightly lit, but from afar, through the shadow of the window, two shadows could be seen in the house, talking or drinking, talking happily.

Su Yingxia gave a heartfelt and bitter smile: "Three thousand, even if I can't be by your side, Yingxia's wish for the rest of her life is for you to be happy and prosperous."

"In the future, maybe one day, when you are standing on top of the world with a beautiful looking woman by your side, overlooking the world, you will be able to remember the wonderful years we once had."

"Even though we had a bitter time together, the sweetness that was engraved in our hearts will always be in Yingxia's heart. 3,000, if you can hear me, I really want to say I love you."

Su Yingxia smile nightmare like a flower, but the tears on her face can not help but keep falling down, for her, give up, not because do not love, but because more love, so wish him well.

The house was lit by candlelight at this time, Su Yingxia looked as if it was a tall talk with the earth, but in reality it was just Han Qianqian and Su Yan after drinking, talking about his and Su Yingxia's past.

Even if they were separated by the sky, or by a stone's throw, no matter what, there was a tacit understanding between them that belonged to a husband and wife.

Su Yan smiled gently and knocked a glass of wine onto Han Qianqian's cup of her own accord, her face already lightly haloed with wine as she smiled, "After hearing all about your past, I am very emotional and envious."

Han Qianqian smiled gently, "So in my eyes, Su Yingxia is the only one and irreplaceable, even if I spend my life alone, I will not marry Su Yingxia."

Su Yan laughed gently and looked strangely at Han Qianqian, suddenly saying, "Do you think it would have been nice if I had known you on your planet Azure?"

"Everything is predestined, right?" Han Qianqian smiled gently.

"This is about a month's journey from the City of Burning Bones, and I believe that with your foundation, you should be able to make up with each other as long as you cheer up." Su Yan smiled gently.

Han Qianqian nodded.

"However, if we leave the Desert City so rashly, have you thought about Fang Watch's feelings?" Su Yan said softly.

This was something that Han Qianqian had thought about, having given almost everything, even killing his own son with his own hands, the aim was naturally to stabilise himself, but if he never returned from then on, it seemed to be the norm for Fang Watch to be annoyed and angry!

"I think that someone else should do this." Han Qianqian smiled.

Su Yan was puzzled and looked at Han Qianqian oddly.

It was Han Qianqian who smiled, "You'll know tomorrow."

It was very easy to explain, Su Yingxia could come here, so it was natural that one person had something to do with it, that was Lu Ruoxin.

This woman had placed Su Yingxia here and knew that she would pass through here, so conflicts between the two would definitely erupt, but until now, she had not taken action, which was obviously not her style.

Although Han Qianqian did not know the details, Lu Ruoxin would definitely intervene in the Fang family's situation.

Obviously not!

As long as she doesn't, there will be a clue when we leave tomorrow!

"I'm drunk, rest early, tomorrow at dawn, we'll leave." As soon as the words left her mouth, Su Yan staggered her delicate body and collapsed onto Han Qianqian's bed.

Chapter 2860

Han Qianqian frowned and looked blandly at the slightly smoky wine colour on the bed, the outstanding and evenly perfect figure, a primitive impulse belonging to the most primitive constantly rolled in the hot blood.

Suddenly, Han Qianqian smiled and with a direct movement of his hands, several chairs in the room were instantly combined together.

One sleep, and it was dawn.

When Han Qianqian woke up, he had a blanket on his body, rubbed his temples, and looked around him.

Next to him, Han Qianqian's bed was also cleaned up very well.

Those who knew knew that Su Yan had done it, but those who didn't thought that some maid had come in early in the morning.

Han Qianqian smiled bitterly, this girl!

After getting up and washing his face, Han Qianqian was about to go out when the pangolin barged in, almost knocking Han Qianqian over.

Han Qianqian frowned slightly: "What are you doing this early in the morning?"

The mountain-penetrating beetle also knew that he had been reckless and scratched his head in embarrassment: "Hey, my pot, my pot, I was thinking that Miss Su was no longer in your house, right? I didn't think it would ruin anything for you, so I didn't think too much and just barged in, sorry."

After saying that, the bastard snorted, a look of shamelessness, Han Qianqian speechlessly rolled his eyes: "We are just drinking, messy."

"Hehehe, you drink hers and she drinks yours?" The mountain piercer laughed heatedly.

"If you don't want to use this mouth for eating, I don't mind tearing it up for you." Han Qianqian pretended to be angry and said.

The Mountain Piercing Armour held back a flex and picked his brain, "Alright, down to business, the flower boat is ready, Miss Su asked me to call you over to take a look, so if there's no problem then you're ready to go."

Han Qianqian nodded and let the mountain beetle lead the way, and the two of them hurried towards the main hall.

On the playground outside the main hall, a huge ship of forty to fifty metres had slowly stopped in place, and a group of servants were busy with the final checks.

Fang Biao stood by with a few elders as well as Liu Tao and Chai Rong, looking at the beautiful flower boat but could not be happy.

Su Yan walked gently down from the boat, she had just sent Su Yingxia to the second level of the boat to settle down.

"Yan'er, the Ice God he" Fang said with a puzzled look on his face and a suspicious voice.

Su Yan was about to speak, over there, Han Qianqian has been led by the wearing mountain armor, slowly walked over, Su Yan will look at Han Qianqian, indicating that Fang watch have what you want to ask or personally in the side to ask it.

When he saw the big boat, the pierced mountain armor excitedly left the crowd and ran to the side of the boat and patted the hull, laughing, "Shit, this is a nice boat."

At this moment, Fang Watch took a few steps to Han Qianqian's side, smiled sarcastically and said, "Ice God, you have this"

Han Qianqian smiled and did not hide, "I guess Su Yan has already told you."

Fang table nodded, Su Yan had indeed said, only concealed the point of where Su Yingxia went, for Fang table, he did not have any suspicion, after all, Su Yingxia and Han Qianqian's relationship, how could he not know!

"But since ancient times, the Ice God is not only the guardian god of supreme glory in the realm of the desert, but also because of the Jade Ice Pearl's temperature regulation of the desert land, which is almost related to the life and death of everyone here." Old Mr. Chai also stepped forward at this moment and said softly in an urgent voice, "If you were to leave, what would happen to the hundreds of thousands of lives in this desert?"

Han Qianqian nodded, "I know this too, so I don't intend to take the Jade Ice Pearl with me."

Hearing this, Elder Chai and the others were first stunned, and then, delighted, did this also mean that they might whether the Jade Ice Pearl would choose one of theirs?

Thinking of this, the group of people instantly looked at Han Qianqian with seemingly calm faces, but incomparably hot eyes.

Han Qianqian gently took out the Jade Ice Pearl, then, with a faint smile, "Old Mr. Chai is highly respected, but the Fang family head is also extremely kind to me, so for a moment I really don't know who to give it to."

Saying this, Han Qianqian swept his gaze towards the Fang table, and then, looked towards Chai Rong.

Even though one was the head of a family and the other was a senior of a party, the two of them, at this moment, could not help but lose their composure, swallowing between their throats and looking at Han Qianqian with eyes wide open, waiting for his decision
