

His True Color Chapter 2861-2870

Chapter 2861

Han Qianqian smiled gently, he had considered this question yesterday, the Fang family was naturally Han Qianqian's first choice, but as Han Qianqian had said yesterday, Lu Ruoxin would definitely have a curse behind it.

If he were to give it to him and the Fang watch had a rebellious intent, wouldn't he be aiding and abetting the enemy?

But if he did not give it to him, it would be tantamount to intentionally pushing the Fang family towards Lu Ruoxin.

This required a degree, but overnight, when he thought about it, to be honest, Han Qianqian did not know exactly how this degree should be mastered.

So, he took Chai Rong into consideration.

"I like the Fang family head, but I also respect old Mr. Chai, it's really a dilemma." Han Qianqian said, taking the two men's hands, and then, placing the Jade Ice Pearl in both of them at the same time, "For the time being, I'll leave it in the hands of the two of you."

"As for what exactly to do, it is up to you to decide, after all, you are the ones from the Realm of Desert." After saying this, Han Qianqian moved the energy in his hand, and a faint breath of energy urged the Jade Ice Pearl.

Feeling the call of Han Qianqian's power, Fang Watch and Chai Rong were no longer slow to do so, and one after the other, they used their energy and tried to let their power enter the Jade Ice Pearl under Han Qianqian's guidance.

Su Yan laughed bitterly and helplessly. By now, she understood why Han Qianqian had said last night that he would discuss this matter today.

The fact that he had created a controversy and then deliberately set it aside, it was obvious that Han Qianqian was having trouble making up his mind on the surface, but in reality he had only deliberately planted a mine here.

"I've already channeled your power into the Jade Ice Pearl, but I'm not sure if you're able to manipulate it, I've done everything I need to do, the rest is up to you." Han Qianqian finished speaking and slightly withdrew his power.

"Thank you, Ice God, for making it possible."

At almost the same time, Elder Chai and Fang watch half knelt on the ground and thanked Han Qianqian respectfully.

Han Qianqian smiled faintly, a hint of cunning flashed in his eyes, although he was not sure what exactly Lu Ruoxin would be up to behind the scenes, she was bound to make a move, but if she had a cloud ladder, didn't she have a Zhang Liangji for herself?!

With a slight wave of his hand, he took Su Yan and Green Pearl, as well as the mountain beetle, and Han Qianqian turned around and walked into the flower boat.

On top of the boat, Han Qianqian stood there, and below him, Fang Watch and the others looked up, their eyes full of gratitude and respect. He had never thought in his life that he would one day be able to get his hands on the Jade Ice Pearl, or even walk up to a more powerful godly position in the desert realm.

Though, only half of it.

"Well, gentlemen, when we meet in the rivers and lakes, we will eventually need to say goodbye. Master Fang, this time I have really added a lot of trouble to you, if it is fate, I will sing and drink with you for the next three days and nights."

"Mr. Chai, it is an honour to meet you. If there is a future day, we will talk about our past relationship."

After Han Qianqian finished, he clasped his hands to the rest of the crowd, bowed slightly and waved goodbye.

"Take care, Ice God."

With these words from Han Qianqian, Fang Biao and Chai Rong were happy and led the crowd to wave goodbye to Han Qianqian as well, while at that moment the flower boat also slowly drove towards the outside of the city with a faint chirping sound.

It was early in the morning, and the timing was deliberate, so although Han Qianqian's flower boat was large, it did not cause much commotion, and even when many people reflected and came out of their houses to check, they could only see the dust at the end of the boat.

"How's that? Are you in a better mood after leaving the city?"

When they left the city, Su Yan and Han Qianqian sat in the penthouse on the top floor of the boat, seeing the desert again, but at this moment, they felt that the deserted landscape was very beautiful.
Past

Han Qianqian smiled and did not say anything, Su Yan smiled gently: "It seems that Su Yingxia's magic power is really big for you."

Han Qianqian poured a cup of wine and slightly toasted Su Yan, then drained it in one go, after a long breath, he shook his head and looked at the desert in front of him, his mood was a bit complicated for a while.

"By the way, what do you think, what would Fang Watch and Elder Chai be doing now? I guess, they might be amicable on the surface, but in reality they are fighting openly and secretly, hating each other's heads." Su Yan said curiously.

Han Qianqian laughed and rose proudly, carrying his glass of wine to the parapet of the attic, but shook his head, "I guess, not really."

Su Yan frowned and looked at him in confusion, "Could it be that ....."

Chapter 2862

"Could it be that the Jade Ice Pearl is a fake? You took a fake one and deliberately drew them into a fight?" Su Yan faintly stared.

Han Qianqian smiled, "With Miss Su's talent, I'm sure you can guess the answer."

Su Yan smiled and fell into deep thought. In fact, even she herself thought that this doubt was extremely unlikely.

But if they found out that it was a fake, then all their anger would be directed at Han Qianqian, so why would Han Qianqian bother to annoy both of them? It would be better not to give it to them at all!

But if it was true, why wouldn't they fight?

Su Yan didn't quite understand, but it seemed that something suddenly occurred to her: "Could it be that ..... the Jade Ice Pearl on ....."

Han Qianqian nodded, about how to unseal the Jade Ice Pearl, Han Qianqian himself did not know, after all, the horse-headed woman at the beginning also just let Han Qianqian infuse energy into it and that was it.

Han Qianqian didn't know anything about the so-called ice gods passing on the ice gods, so he just drew a gourd according to the pattern and put their energy into the jade ice pearl under the wrapping of his own energy.

It was always Han Qianqian's outermost energy that lit up the Jade Ice Pearl, and as to whether they could use it alone, Han Qianqian did not know.

Of course, Han Qianqian was not interested in knowing either. The only thing Han Qianqian knew was that these two guys would definitely start a series of questions and explorations about the use of the Jade Ice Pearl after he left.

No matter what Lu Ruoxin had done behind the scenes and what the Fang family had in mind, for Han Qianqian, he didn't want to guess, nor was he interested in guessing, so he could just use a delaying tactic and plant a mine to split them up, and then all his worries would be lifted.

"I didn't know that you were such a dark person." Su Yan let out a bitter laugh, looking at Han Qianqian's back, the more she looked at him, the more she liked him.

"You can't be too guarded against people." Han Qianqian smiled faintly, "This vast desert is all your territory, maybe some monster or killer will appear from nowhere."

Su Yan laughed bitterly, but admitted that what Han Qianqian said was true.

"By the way, I must help thank you for your help this time, as a reward, how about taking you to a place?" Han Qianqian said with a smile.

Seeing Han Qianqian's sunny smile, Su Yan's heart was sweet and she was both curious and puzzled, "Sure, but where are you taking me to when there's a desert as far as the eye can see?"

After Han Qianqian made sure there was no one around, his hands moved slightly, Su Yan only felt herself wrapped in a burst of white light, and when she opened her eyes again, there was no desert land in front of her, but a world of oasis, unbelievably beautiful.

"Where is this ..... place?" Su Yan looked around in surprise, feeling incredulous: "Is it an illusion?"

Han Qianqian smiled gently and didn't answer her, leading her all the way towards the small bamboo house in the distance.

It had been a few days outside, but for Qin Shannon and the others who lived in the Eight Desolate Heavenly Books, it had been an unknown number of sunrises and sunsets, and many years of reincarnation.

When they saw Han Qianqian return again, the crowd was overjoyed, but when they saw the immortal-like Su Yan behind her again, they were stunned, and many of the women had even gloomy eyes in their eyes.

"Three thousand." Ning Yue quickly greeted her, "Are you alright?"

And at almost the same time, Han Nian, who was being held in Qinshang's arms, also called out for her father while jumping into Han Qianqian's arms.

Su Yan stared at Han Nian in awe. She really had some of her mother's beauty and her father's handsomeness.

"I'm fine, by the way, let me introduce you, this is my friend, Miss Su Yan of the Su family." Han Qianqian picked up Han Nian and turned around to introduce her.

Su Yan smiled slightly, as a greeting to the crowd, who also hurriedly responded with a smile.

"By the way, three thousand, you suddenly came back, did we get out of the desert?" Ning Yue asked.

Han Qianqian shook her head, looked at Nian'er and said, "There's still a long way to go in the desert, I was bringing Miss Su over to have some fun, and taking Han Nian to see her mother!"

"Mum?"

"Yingxia?"

When they heard this, the crowd all stared in awe .....

Chapter 2863

"Three ..... thousand, you ..... what did you just say?"

"Did we hear you right? You've found the alliance master's wife?"

The group of people were extremely stunned and looked at Han Qianqian in a dumbfounded manner.

Han Qianqian smiled gently and nodded, "That's right, however, she's not very convenient to come in right now, so she can only take Nian'er out for now."

"As for you guys, you may still need to wait in here for a while."

Smiles were released on the faces of the crowd, to them, staying for as long as possible was not a problem, the main thing was that now the Lord of the Alliance had found the Lady of the Alliance, this was a great joy in the sky.

"Dad, Nian'er can see mum now?" The nimble Han Nian also looked at Han Qianqian excitedly at this moment.

Han Qianqian nodded: "Is Nian'er happy then?"

Han Nian nodded his head like a chicken pecking rice, so excited that he couldn't bring himself to do it, and even stood on Han Qianqian's body, his little hands gesturing the yay pose!

"Well, in that case, let's not delay, I'll go and cook first, after properly entertaining Miss Su, we'll hurry up and let the family reunion go, I reckon some of them are afraid they've been waiting for a long time." Ning Yue smiled and teased, turned around and was about to go into the kitchen.

"Hey!" Han Qianqian pulled her back and shook his head gently at her, "No need, I'll do this meal myself."

As soon as the words left her mouth, Han Qianqian turned towards the kitchen with Han Nian in her arms.

She didn't know how long it had been since she had seen Han Qianqian in such an elegant mood, perhaps because of his new friend and even more so because of Su Yingxia's return.

As she watched the cooking smoke quickly rise from the kitchen, Nings Yue invited herself slightly and said to Su Yan, "Miss Su, please go into the inner room for a moment."

Su Yan smiled gently, nodded her head and followed Ning Yue into the house.

Looking at the bamboo house, which was simple, yet full of life, Su Yan could not help but look at it a few more times.

Ning Yue smiled and explained, "This is the usual place where the three thousand and Ying Xia's family live, it's rather simple."

"In Su Yan's eyes, it has a different style." Su Yan said lightly, envy flowing from her eyes. If she could have the company of Qian Qian, she would also be willing to give up her glory and wealth and live in seclusion with him in the bamboo forest.

Only, she did not have this opportunity.

"Let me pour you a cup of tea." Ning Yue smiled.

"Also, take a look at this." As soon as the words fell, Ning Yue scattered them in her hands, but a huge vapor screen appeared in the middle of the room: "There are ten thousand kinds of strange beasts in here, three thousand have instructed, so please choose a few of Miss Su's choice to take away."

Su Yan couldn't help but smile slightly, the more she came into contact with Han Qianqian, the more interesting she found him, and the more she understood why Su Yingxia loved this man so deeply.

"In the eight worlds, strange beasts are hard to find, yet this place has almost become a zoo." Su Yan smiled bitterly and, with the help of Ning Yue, began to select the strange beasts.

In the kitchen, Han Qianqian was very busy, and little Han Nian was not willing to "stand by" and acted as a handyman for Han Qianqian, burning the fire and washing the vegetables, and was very busy.

Although there were many people living here, there were only a few who wanted to eat together. However, Han Qianqian still prepared a lot of dishes and used energy to lock them up in advance to keep them fresh after they were ready, naturally, these were reserved for Su Yingxia alone.

At this moment, Su Yan, who had already put off Ning Yue to hang out by herself, was leaning against the door of the kitchen, her eyes with tenderness, silently looking at Han Qianqian who was sweating like rain in the kitchen.

Who would have thought that one moment the "Ice God", who was killing people in the Fang family residence, would be sweating like a family man in the kitchen the next moment?

"Miss Su, I envy you, but thank you for allowing me to taste the dishes of this "murderous devil" for myself." Su Yan gently murmured and smiled.

But at that moment, Su Yan frowned, an icy coldness suddenly appeared behind her .....

Chapter 2864

Looking back, even the number one beauty of the desert world, at this moment, could not help but be deeply shocked by the beauty of the person behind her.

It was a beauty as cold as a mountain, like a snow lotus on the top of a snowy mountain, standing proudly in the wind and snow, and dotted with thousands amidst a blanket of white.

She was so beautiful!

Her cold eyes were like silk, looking quietly at Han Qianqian, seemingly ice-cold and yet seemingly with a tender love.

"Sister Qin Shuang!" On Han Qianqian's side, he was busy with the dish in hand, and simply raised his head and smiled slightly.

The kitchen again, busy with the most common things in the past, I think back to the time when I was in the earth was in the Su family every day doing such things, that time although the days were suffocating, clear and flat, but better than Yingxia, there is Han Nian, unconsciously actually some nostalgia for those.

"This time, I'm going out with you." Qin Shuang's words were simple, without the slightest turn of phrase.

Han Qianqian smiled gently, having spent so much time with Qin Shou, she knew her personality, although her exterior was as iceberg as snow, her heart was actually very soft and kind, Su Yingxia had been guilty of her disappearance at the Firestone City, now that Su Yingxia had returned, Han Qianqian naturally knew what she wanted.

"Is there any difference between your personality and mine?" Han Qianqian shook her head, seemingly discussing with herself, but in reality she was merely informing herself.

Qin Shantou did not say anything, and after receiving Han Qianqian's answer, she turned around and left straight away.

Su Yan was shocked as she looked at these two people, completely unable to reflect for a moment, this was too cold between their words, right? Obviously that pretty girl's eyes were full of tenderness when she looked at Han Qianqian .....

"What are you doing standing still? Eat." The first thing you need to do is to get your hands on the food.

Su Yan came back to her senses, and she, who had never touched spring water, also helped Han Qianqian carry out the food.

As the food was served, the aroma was overwhelming, and the Mystic Alliance gathered over in a fart-like manner.

Su Yan also couldn't wait to take a bite. Having grown up with the delicacies of the sea, she had lowered her expectations of Han Qianqian's cooking skills, but to her surprise, Han Qianqian's cooking was far beyond her imagination.

It was even much better than those top-notch catering officials in her family.

Thinking of this, Su Yan looked at Han Qianqian with more tenderness and expectation in her eyes.

To be able to go to the battlefield and go down to the kitchen, completely refreshed her perception of Han Qianqian time and time again!

When the crowd saw Su Yan's appearance, they couldn't help but shake their heads and laugh lightly, for them, this seemed strange and they were already used to it.

After she had eaten, Han Qianqian helped Su Yan to make a contract with the strange beast she had chosen, then she took the packed meal, Han Nian and Qin Shannon with her and said goodbye to everyone.

But what surprised her even more was that she had just entered the place where she had just eaten and chosen a beast, delaying several hours, but the scene in front of her was still the same as when the sun was shining and the light was first spreading, as if she had just come out of the desert city.

What was this?

She looked around in amazement, while Han Qianqian handed the packed things to Han Nian, then, squatted down and looked at Han Nian: "Mom is in the room downstairs, when you see her, remember to spend more time with her, and tell her to eat all these things, okay?"

Han Nian nodded obediently, "I know, but won't daddy accompany Nian'er to see mommy?"

Han Qianqian froze in embarrassment and was about to say something when the ghostly Nian'er made a face, "Hee hee, did daddy upset mummy?"

"Don't worry, leave it to Nian'er, Nian'er will make mummy happy for daddy, how about that?"

Han Qianqian suddenly had a warm smile in his heart and nodded, "Then daddy thanks Nian'er in advance?"

"Hey, then daddy will take Nian'er to play more fun and eat more delicious food."

Han Qianqian nodded his head.

"Pull the hook!" Han Nian held out her little hand.

Han Qianqian smiled and followed her with a hook, then stroked her head and smiled dotingly, "Go on."

Han Nian nodded and ran towards the stairway of the boat pavilion with a bounce, while at this time Han Qianqian's smile suddenly dissipated, rose slightly and slowly looked into the desert, and for a time could not help but be frowned upon .....

Chapter 2865

"What's the matter? Sanqian?" Seeing that Han Qianqian's situation was not right, Su Yan hurriedly came to Han Qianqian's side, following Han Qianqian's gaze, but saw that the desert ahead was still the same, not to mention what was wrong, the scene did not even bring the slightest change ah.

Han Qianqian didn't say anything, he just quietly stared into the distance, and only after a long time did he turn his head slightly and look at Su Yan next to him: "How long will it take to get out of the desert realm?"

"With the current speed of the flower boat, we can reach the border in about five days, but then we will also officially enter the territory of the devil race, the devil race's extreme north is extremely large, the road to the city of burning bones is also quite far, if all goes well, I'm afraid it will take about a month as I said to you before. " Su Yan wondered.

"We have a saying on Earth that a trip that you say you're going to take may seem very cool, but it's also extremely expensive, so we always have to plan ahead." Han Qianqian let out a whisper, "It seems that there is no way to leave this desert realm for five days."

Han Qianqian smiled, then got up and walked towards the staircase, "It's still early, rest early."

Su Yan looked at Han Qianqian foolishly, she had heard of early rest when it was late in the day, but this was the first time she had heard of early rest.

"It's late, I'm afraid it's not good to rest."

Su Yan frowned slightly and couldn't help but look at the desert that was still nothing in the distance, she shook her head in depression, then she still obediently went down the attic and went back to the inner cabin to rest.

Almost immediately after the flower boat had sailed farther and farther away, the desert, where there was nothing at all, suddenly became a flow of yellow sand, and then several figures slowly emerged from the mud and sand.

A few people nodded to each other and split into two groups, one following the deeper line of the flower boat and the other returning quickly towards the original path.

Within a few moments, the group suddenly leapt up from the sand, and almost as soon as they fell, a huge flower boat suddenly appeared, and several people instantly landed inside it.

In the attic of the boat, Lu Ruoxin closed her eyes and recuperated slightly.

As soon as several people landed, they hurried over in a panic and then knelt down on the ground, "Miss, Han Qianqian and the others have set off, but ..... the Fang family did not send troops out of the city as promised."

Hearing this, Lu Ruoxin frowned slightly and opened her eyes, "Why?"

"Han Qianqian handed over a bead to the Fang family, and Fang Watch and Chai Rong are surrounding the bead in the city."

"Bastard!" Lu Ruoxin slapped the side of the bed and shouted angrily, scaring several people into a mixed shiver.

"The jade ice beads! A delaying tactic! Good for you, Han Qianqian!" Lu Ruoxin's eyes flashed with a cold light, but then she let out a cold laugh, "Not bad for a man I've taken a fancy to, Hucheng, open the door."

"Yes!"

Several people hurriedly nodded their heads, turned to the side of the boat, then picked up a few horns on the boat and blew them into the sky.

As the whine shook the sky, soon there was a great movement in the desert, and the castle of the Desert City slowly reappeared.

When Lu Ruoxin gave her a look, she immediately understood and stood still, nodding respectfully as she watched Lu Ruoxin slowly walk off the ship with a group of followers.

Afterwards, when Lu Ruoxin and the others had officially entered the city, Chi Meng waved his hand and took the flower boat and turned around, heading slowly towards the Central Plains.

Although there was one less Lu Ruoxin on the boat, there was one more corpse on the way back.

In the Desert City, the arrival of the First Lady of the Lu Family in person was like a heavy bomb that blew up the city, which had just fallen into tranquillity because of Han Qianqian's departure.

The Fang family residence was once again busy to welcome Lu Ruoxin.

When Lu Ruoxin and her group walked into the city lord's residence under Fang Jun's invitation, Fang Biao, Chai Rong, Liu Tao and others immediately greeted them with respectful bodies, but as soon as Lu Ruoxin sat down in the main hall, she said something that made everyone's jaw drop .....

Chapter 2866

"On my way, a little late, how was it? The wedding is already done, right?"

"With the power of the Fang family, and the fact that the Holy Maiden can give birth to a True God, Uncle Fang, the future of your Fang family is promising." As she said this, Lu Ruoxin looked at Fang Watch indifferently.

Fang watch lowered his head, but his forehead was sweating profusely, and his entire face was embarrassed, "I'm not hiding it from Miss Lu, the wedding was cancelled."

"Canceled?" Lu Ruoxin asked knowingly, putting on an extremely surprised look, "Why? Is it because the saint girl introduced by the Lu family did not meet the Fang family's wishes?"

"By the way, where is Fang Kun?"

Hearing this, Fang Watch's brow furrowed even more, and his head lowered even deeper.

At this moment, Liu Tao took a tiger step towards the front and gave a slight salute, "Miss Lu, Brother Fang is too embarrassed to say it, so I'll say it for him. The Lu family arranged for the holy maiden, the Fang family naturally likes it and is very grateful, but the problem is that halfway through, an ice god called Han Qianqian killed out, not only forcing my big brother to kill Fang Kun, at the same time, even the holy maiden was also taken away."

Lu Ruoxin pretended to look like she was suddenly displeased, and looked coldly at Fang Miao, who over there felt ashamed of himself and buried his head deeply.

Then, Lu Ruoxin withdrew her gaze and laughed coldly, "Even the holy maiden can be lost, Uncle Fang, this see beforehand, not to mention how you will explain to my father, even to all of you in this desert realm, I'm afraid you, the patriarch of the first family, can't explain it, right?"

The moment Fang table heard this, he hastily raised his head, obviously, Lu Ruoxin is intentionally expanding the matter, holding the Lu family to press her again: "Miss Lu, this ....."

"Uncle Fang, to be bent over without fighting is cowardice too, the Lu family will never have such a friend." Lu Ruoxin coldly said, "Moreover, those who do not even dare to avenge the murder of their sons are even more cowardly of cowards."

"Originally I regretted that I was a bit late, but now it seems that this shitty place is not worth coming to."

As soon as the words left her mouth, Lu Ruoxin got up and was about to leave.

Liu Tao hurriedly stepped forward to stop her, while nervously looking at Fang watch, "Big brother, the Fang and Lu families have been friends for generations, if you break off their relationship, will you be able to face the ancestors of your Fang family?"

At this moment, Fang Biao was also completely panicked and took a few steps to Lu Ruoxin's front, "Miss Lu, please calm down, what do you want me to do?"

"Naturally, you want to get back the scene, do you still need to ask me?" Lu Ruoxin said in a cold voice.

Again, he was asked to do this?

Wasn't this the same as what that man in black had asked for before?

It wasn't that Fang hadn't thought about it, after all, in order to save his son, but who would have expected that Han Qianqian would suddenly put down such a divine object as the Jade Ice Pearl when he was leaving, so Fang's otherwise sturdy heart was once again shaken.

If he and Chai Lao both had access to the Jade Ice Pearl, and if he were to draw someone to seek revenge on Han Qianqian, it would mean that the Jade Ice Pearl would most likely be obtained by Chai Lao.

His Fang Family had already sacrificed too much for an Ice God, and he could not afford to lose anything else that might help the Fang Family grow.

Therefore, he had secretly even made the decision that it did not matter whether Fang Kun could be reborn or not, but the Jade Ice Pearl had to be taken.

But who would have thought that Lu Ruoxin would come late at this point.

Moreover, compared to the man in black who used his son's life as a bargaining chip, Lu Ruoxin directly pressed himself with the Lu family, which was a more direct hit on his seventh inch.

If the Fang family, which has nothing, loses its tree, where will it go in this hot desert?

"But that man is very powerful, the Liu family's supreme fire was defeated by his hand, Kun'er's gang of good men can hardly defeat him, with the power of my Fang family ....." Fang table forgives.

"You only need to do your best along the way, the other matters, do not need you to care."

"But Han three thousand has been out of the city for some time, at this time if we chase, this vast desert ....."

Lu Ruoxin smiled gently, a wave in his hand, at once, the few people who had just burst out of the sand walked into the temple with quick steps.

"A few of them, will lead the way for you." Lu Ruoxin finished speaking and looked at Fang Watch.

Fang watch frowned slightly, he really did not know, what was the meaning of Lu Ruoxin's arrangement like this? If he was seeking revenge, he should have killed his enemy, how could he just do his best?

The first time he looked up, he saw that Lu Ruoxin was also looking at him, and there seemed to be some strange intentions in his eyes, so he suddenly thought of something and looked at Lu Ruoxin in confusion.

Could it be that .....

Chapter 2867

At that moment, Lu Ruoxin's eyes also slowly looked at Chai Rong who was on the side.

The token handed to him by the man in black was then directly in his hand.

With a cold look in Lu Ruoxin's eyes, Fang meter directly tapped an energy into the token and aimed it at Chai Rong.

"Boom!"

The fire was so big, so pure and so fast that even an expert like Mr. Chai could not resist it for a while, not to mention that Chai Rong did not expect Fang Watch to attack him suddenly at this moment.

He hurriedly retreated and fended off the attack, but at almost the same time, Lu Ruoxin's side also moved violently!

"Xuan Yuan Sword!" Looking back at Lu Ruoxin's attack, Chai Rong suddenly lost his composure and exclaimed.

The Xuan Yuan Sword is an ancient divine weapon, who does not know it and who does not know its power? In his panic, Chai Rong was unable to look ahead or back.

In almost a split second, he waved his hand and gripped his longsword, choosing to resist Lu Ruoxin's Xuan Yuan Sword, while the fire of the token on his opponent's watch chose to resist with his body.

Boom!

The flames hit his body, and strangely enough, what was originally a small fire that grazed his body, burned violently and rapidly when it hit Chai Rong's body, and even though Chai Rong tried to resist with his true energy in a panic, he could not resist the intense pain of the flames burning his body.

"Ah!"

Chai Rong cried out in pain, and the fire on his entire body became a complete sea of fire, spreading wildly and engulfing him.

Looking faintly through the fire, Lu Ruoxin at that end, however, seemed to have never moved, just standing there indifferently.

"Poof!"

Almost at the same time, Chai Rong also suddenly felt a pain in his back, and when he looked back in a wooden manner, Fang Miao was already holding a sharp sword and had ruthlessly stabbed into his chest!

"You!" Chai Rong looked reluctantly at Fang Biao in the midst of the flames.

Despite their rivalry, Chai Rong had never imagined that Fang Biao would hit him so hard, not even the thought of killing him himself.

With a cold laugh, Fang Watch looked at Chai Rong viciously, and with a movement of energy in his hand, he directly took out the Jade Ice Pearl that he had temporarily placed on Chai Rong's body in the air.

"Bang!"

With a final muffled sound, Chai Rong's body hit the ground heavily, allowing the blazing fire to burn and turn his body into ashes.

Fang Watch smiled sinisterly, then, with a change of face, he bowed to Lu Ruoxin with unparalleled respect, "Thank you, Miss Lu, for helping me out of my worries."

"Chai Rong was killed by you, it has nothing to do with me, from the beginning to the end I have never touched it." Lu Ruoxin said and smiled coldly, "Therefore, you don't need to thank me."

Fang Watch was stunned, but then nodded happily anyway, does it matter who killed or not? Not important!

What mattered was that the Jade Ice Pearl belonged to him now.

But how could Fang Biao have imagined that Lu Ruoxin would help and not charge a corresponding price? The moment he thrust a sword into Chai Rong's body, he was also destined never to jump off Lu Ruoxin's boat.

"Executing a highly respected senior of the Realm of Deserts, if the people of the Realm of Deserts knew about it ....." Lu Ruoxin smiled coldly and looked eerily at Fang Watch.

The Fang table then fiercely froze, if this matter spreads out, this Desert Realm his Fang family is afraid of a thousand accusations.

"However, the Fang and Lu families are so friendly, naturally, I will mention you to keep this secret." As soon as the words left his mouth, Lu Ruoxin looked at Liu Tao and other people of the Liu surname who were present as well as several other noble people from the Realm of Desert, several higher guests of the Fang family who had not yet been sent away as well as a group of servants.

Fang Watch nodded, exchanged a glance with Liu Tao, and in the next instant, led the elders of the Fang Family directly towards those guests with foreign surnames and the inferior servants.

With the screams of misery in the hall, blood flew everywhere, and then, everything returned to peace .....

The sun was setting and the desert land was entering a hotter night.

And in the flower boat.

Han Qianqian slowly, in bed opened his eyes .....

Chapter 2868

Han Qianqian rolled out of bed, opened the door and went straight up to the deck, looking out over the desert like the darkness of night.

Han Qianqian smiled faintly, "Senior sister."

"Worried about a change?" Qin Shuang said, pouring herself a cup and sitting next to Han Qianqian, but looking around, there was nothing but a brighter starry sky, where was the end?

Han Qianqian took a shallow taste of tea and smiled without saying anything.

Qin Frost looked at this fellow strangely, waiting for his answer.

"Always a little distracted." Han Qianqian gave a bitter laugh and looked at Qin Shrost, "I see you're in a good mood, have you apologised with Yingxia?"

Qin Shrost nodded, and the iceberg beauty only faintly revealed a faint smile at this point.

The guilt that had been piling up in her heart for a long time was naturally relieved when she was forgiven by the person concerned after actually saying it, and it even felt like the sky above her head had become a few points brighter.

Han Qianqian smiled faintly and nodded.

"She's a little thin, but with the loving meal you personally made from your daughter, her appetite is good today, I'm afraid she'll be able to put on weight when she gets out of this desert realm." Qin Shuang chuckled softly.

With her intelligence, she naturally noticed the two of them when she saw Su Yingxia, but since Han Qianqian didn't mention it, Qin Yanshang didn't intend to say anything, but instead conveyed some of Han Qianqian's concerns in a different way.

Han Qianqian nodded, picked up the teapot and filled it up for Qin Shang, then smiled, "It's not because of Miss Su."

"I never mentioned that young lady." Qin Shrost smiled, picked up the freshly filled cup of tea and took a slight sip.

For Han Qianqian, Qin Shang naturally understood that something like moving on would never happen to him, or rather, Qin Shang was still extremely confident in himself, even he could not make Han Qianqian change his mind, let alone others!

Even though that Miss Su's face was not inferior to her own, even though her temperament was equally outstanding, even though she was gentle as water and knew her books.

"There's someone in the Heavenly Book, isn't there?" Qin Shou suddenly changed the subject.

Han Qianqian frowned, wondering at Qin Shrost's topic, but before she could speak, Qin Shrost took the lead in sealing Han Qianqian's mouth, "What I said, it's not us."

Han Qianqian was stunned, but then nodded, Senior Sister Qinshang was naturally someone he trusted, he just wasn't sure why she suddenly had this question, or how she had noticed it.

"After we stayed in the Heavenly Book for a long time, the whole of it turned extremely hot for a long time, and even when all of us joined our luck to resist, it was hard to resist being melted after all."

"However, at the critical moment, an extremely huge white light mist suddenly appeared in the middle of the Heavenly Book, and it was only with the presence of these light mists that the deadly heat finally subsided, and we were able to barely get out from the danger."

Hearing these words, Han Qianqian slapped his head and cursed himself.

It was almost unnecessary to think about this heat, it must have been caused by the fact that he had been caught in the supreme fire.

Although there was a cave inside the Heavenly Book, the body of the Heavenly Book was always in his own body, and when he was surrounded by fire, although a treasure like the Heavenly Book was not so much as to be melted, the temperature inside .....

When he thought of this, Han Qianqian's entire body was remorseful, he had been so negligent and careless for a moment that he had overlooked such an important matter.

As for this person that Qin Frost mentioned, Han Qianqian believed that this should be the Heavenly Book guy who saw the people and beasts he put in danger and stepped in at a critical moment to help himself, otherwise, the consequences would not be conceivable.

"But I always feel that this person is not the illusionary body of the Heavenly Book, but ..... another person. Because the aura of that white mist is completely different from the aura in the Eightfold World." Qin Frost shook his head.

"Another person?" Hearing this, Han Qianqian frowned.

In the Heavenly Book, apart from the Eight Desolate Heavenly Books, anyone and anything else, that was bound to be brought in by themselves, and apart from that, there was no one else, but now, with one word, Qin Shannon was talking about there being someone else?

How is this possible!

"The aura of that white mist." Speaking of this, Qin Shannon suddenly looked at Han Qianqian with incomparable seriousness, "Déjà vu."

"Do you still remember, the top of Qishan Mountain?"

Chapter 2869

Hearing these words, Han Qianqian felt extremely incredulous, and almost simultaneously blurted out with Qin Shannon, "The Earth-Sweeping Elder!"

There was and could only be one person who could resist the so-called Supreme Flame with his own ability, and that was the Elder Earth Sweeper who had taught him.

But there was one thing that Han Qianqian did not yet understand: although the old man knew the Book of Heaven, and they had often spent time together when he was helping to rebuild his body, the essence of the problem was that he was the one who had taught him.

But the essence of the problem was, how did he enter the Book of Heaven without his knowledge?

And, hidden within it, he hadn't even noticed?

What was the purpose of his stay in the Book of Heaven?

A series of questions suddenly rose in Han Qianqian's mind.

Qin Frost faintly said, "If you're free, you'd better go and check it out, I'm not sure if it's him."

Han Qianqian nodded, he would certainly go and check this out, however, the most urgent task was not now, because in the end, the old man who swept the floor had no malice towards himself, while right now something else was approaching him with danger.

Almost at the same time, the two of them exchanged a glance, and with a movement in Han Qianqian's hand, the Heavenly Flame Moon Wheel immediately appeared, while Qin Shang also the Demon Subduing Sword appeared, and without giving it much thought, he went straight towards the cabin to kill it.

The tacit understanding with Han Qianqian and her understanding of Han Qianqian was such that she hardly needed Han Qianqian to tell her that the best thing she could do for Han Qianqian was to guard Su Yingxia.

Boom!

Suddenly, the boat shook violently, and all the people in the boat swayed violently, and those with a lower level of cultivation were even thrown out directly on the spot and smashed heavily on the hull.

When Su Yan and Green Pearl heard the commotion, they hurriedly ran out of the room and almost subconsciously ran all the way to the bottom of the dock.

The lowest level of the dockyard was almost entirely occupied by craftsmen, both to ensure the production of the ship's needs and, more importantly, to ensure the movement and direction of the ship.

For the entire flower boat, the bottom level of the dockyard, although the lowest in the boat, is the heart of the boat.

Without any further ado, the two women used their energy in their hands, and then quickly released their magic doors to temporarily stabilise everyone, while a group of Su Yan's servants and maids also rushed over.

As they often walked in the desert, it was inevitable that they would encounter various critical situations, and the women were able to handle them with ease.

And almost at the same time, the mountain beetle also ran violently onto the deck and went to help Han Qianqian.

The sudden and violent shaking caused Su Yingxia to be frightened and she was holding Han Nian tightly and was about to go out.

Seeing Qin Shannon, Su Yingxia said in an urgent voice, "Senior sister, what has happened?"

Qin Shannon, holding her long sword, shook her head, "I'm not sure."

Su Yingxia looked worried, but when she saw that there was no one else behind Qinshang, she thought for a moment, but opened her mouth, "Where are three thousand."

Even though Lu Zhu had told her privately after she boarded the boat that the boat she was on was Han Qianqian's, Su Yingxia did not feel any resistance inside, it was not that she did not love Han Qianqian, it was just that .....

"I don't know, but ....." Qin Frost said this, his face slightly froze.

Hearing these words, Su Yingxia's entire face was as pale as paper for a while, and the eyes that looked at Qin Frost were even tinged with tears.

"We were drinking tea when the boat then suddenly suffered a violent rocking, and then three thousand of him ..... he was thrown out of the flower boat."

"What?!" When Su Yingxia heard this news, her whole body was immediately about to freak out, rushing and then running towards the outside of the cabin.

Qin Frost grabbed Su Yingxia's arm, then, shook his head at her: "The situation is urgent, three thousand deal with it up there, I'll come down to protect you."

Su Yingxia was stunned, and only then did she realise that Qin Frost was only intentionally testing herself. Her face was slightly parted, not wanting her to see her worried appearance, and when her emotions had slightly stabilised, Su Yingxia said softly, "Sister, I can take care of myself and Nian'er, you go and help three thousand."

Qin Frost smiled and looked at Su Yingxia, "If you are so nervous about three thousand, why do you need to go with him ....."

Su Yingxia raised her head and looked at Qinshang, wanting to say something for a moment, but, almost at that moment again, an even more violent shaking came with it.

Boom .....

Chapter 2870

Immediately afterwards, in the midst of the violent shaking, the two men almost fell to the ground, but through the window they could faintly see a huge object emerging from the ground and attacking them.

Although the window was too small to see how big it was, the speed at which it rose and leapt up, as well as the time it took to pass by the window, made it obvious that the size of this creature was no less than that of the entire huge flower boat.

At this moment, not to mention Su Yingxia, even Qin Shannon could not help but be secretly alarmed.

"Senior Sister Qinshang, I don't have time to explain to you, hurry up and help three thousand. No matter what happens to Yingxia and him, Yingxia's heart's wish is that he can be happy and joyful, and if anything happens to Three Thousand, Yingxia will never live."

Su Yingxia shouted sharply while trying to push Qin Shannon out of the room, so that she could go and help Han Qianqian.

Qin Shuang pushed Su Yingxia away and put her arms tightly around her shoulders, "Calm down."

After saying that, when Su Yingxia's emotions had stabilized a little, Qin Frost then said with a straight face, "You have such thoughts, what about three thousand?"

"If something happens to you, do you think Han Qianqian will survive?"

"Do you know, not to mention your death, just the time you disappeared, do you know how he came through?"

"He was so desperate that he bloodied Firestone City, fought against three major forces such as the Eternal Sea and the Fu Family with his own strength, and even when he was surrounded by more than a hundred thousand people, he had no fear, just to avenge you, just to find out your whereabouts!"

"Do you know that Han Qianqian's soul was destroyed in that battle, if it wasn't for the help of a high ranking person, Su Yingxia, Han Qianqian he would have been dead long ago!"

Qin Shannon cursed in a cold voice, and tears in her eyes unconsciously kept falling.

"Dead!"

Su Yingxia looked at Qin Shannon in a daze, as if she was personally present at that magnificent and incomparable scene, seeing that Han Qianqian who was besieged by hundreds of thousands of people.

"Even when he came to this desert land, he went to the extreme north for you, obeying Lu Ruoxin's arrangement to go deep into the devil's cave, he even gave up his life for you, what else do you want me to say?"

"Su Yingxia, I envy you, I envy you for having all of Han Qianqian's love, a love that has no other heart, why? Why do you still have to have a falling out with him?"

She wanted to scold Su Yingxia, even though, the better the relationship between Su Yingxia and Han Qianqian, the less likely it was for Qin Shou to be with Han Qianqian.

But she didn't want Han Qianqian to lose his soul, she just wanted to see him happy, so even if she never had a chance, Qin Frost still had no regrets!

Su Yingxia also burst into tears, sobbing slightly all over.

When she heard what Han Qianqian had done for her, how could she not be moved?

"There are so many more things you don't know." Qin Shuang sighed helplessly.

"This time, when we went deep into the demon tribe, in fact, not only three thousand, including us, the group of people who followed him, actually understood in our hearts that this trip was almost nine deaths but hardly a lifetime."

"Especially me, deeply know three thousand now he even Pan Gu axe is also no longer used, if you go, more ....."

"But I still still the choice to go with him, will this life completely entrusted to him, not only because I like him, also not only because I feel guilty to you, more because ....."

The two of you will be able to go on lovingly for the rest of your lives."

A lifetime of love and affection?

Su Yingxia stumbled violently as she stared at Qin Shannon in a daze. She had never thought that Qin Shannon would throw away her life for herself and Han Qianqian.

She was shocked, moved, but also warm!

She couldn't hold back any longer and threw herself into Qin Shant's arms, crying out loud.

And at that moment, Han Qianqian, who was on top of the loft on top of the ship, holding the Heavenly Fire Moon Wheel, his jade sword gently encircling his body, almost subconsciously took a slight step back as the huge thing came barreling up!

Boom!

The monster shot up into the sky, bringing with it the rolling yellow sand, pouncing on top of the dock, actually causing the entire dock to sink instantly, while Han Qianqian's brow was locked tightly, staring deadly at the behemoth in front of him .....
