

His True Color Chapter 2871-2880

Chapter 2871

What kind of monster is this?

Its body is more than ten metres long and several metres wide, like a giant centipede, with hundreds and thousands of legs, each like a long sword of wind.

Even though there was no moon tonight, the cold light on its teeth could still be seen.

Even though the eyes on either side of the head were extremely small, the bloody mouth beneath the pincer teeth was already saying that it was up to no good!

"Roar!"

"Kee!"

Almost at the same time, along with its roar, its joints made an unpleasant sound, and its huge body pounced directly towards Han Qianqian.

Han Qianqian dodged sideways, and the Heavenly Fire Moon Wheel instantly transformed into the two edges of the jade sword, and as Han Qianqian slashed, the Heavenly Fire Moon Wheel also carried the fire and lightning of thunder, and in collaboration with the jade sword, ruthlessly smashed into the giant insect's head.

Bang!

With a loud bang, with Han Qianqian's strength, the jade sword smashed against the armour on the giant insect's head, sending flames everywhere, but the giant insect's armour seemed extremely hard, not only did it not reflect the slightest bit of pain, instead, it roared, slightly turned sideways, and stabbed Han Qianqian directly with the foot underneath.

Han Qianqian naturally could not be stabbed, and as he retreated, the insect's foot directly smashed the thick railing of the boat, which was several dozen centimetres in diameter.

Immediately afterwards, the millipede rushed towards Han Qianqian again.

Han Qianqian's teeth were clenched, but he was not afraid of the millipede, but the problem was that this creature was so destructive that if he fought him any longer, the whole top of the boat would be lost to it.

However, this guy was covered in armour, and even with his own sword, his tiger's mouth was numb, but this guy was not hurt at all.

You know, how terrifying was Han Qianqian's strength?

"However, even if you are a piece of iron, I will definitely turn you into iron water."

"Seventy-two Way Sword Technique!"

As soon as the words fell, Han Qianqian's figure transformed, holding a jade sword, and with extremely bizarre body skills, he directly attacked.

With Han Qianqian's Tai Xu Divine Steps and the 72 Sword Techniques, even if Han Qianqian was facing the true gods of the Eight Worlds, Han Qianqian's attack would never be at a disadvantage, not to mention a monster that was relatively slow in movement.

The strange insect, whose armour was even more indestructible, carried on with Han Qianqian's duel in a chaotic manner, but actually carried on in a chaotic manner.

Withdraw!

With a soft cry, Han Qianqian had already slashed hundreds of swords on the insect's body in succession, and the tiger's mouth on his right hand was already slightly numb.

However, although the monster insect was not injured, it was still very annoyed by Han Qianqian's constant attacks but could not hit him.

Seeing Han Qianqian pull out his sword and "flee", the monster did not let him off so rashly. With a cold roar, the monster went after Han Qianqian.

When the man and the monster landed on the ground, the flower boat continued to slowly travel ahead. After a few rounds, the dust and smoke rolled on the ground, Han Qianqian slightly stood up from the dust and smoke, looked at the monster, which was hundreds or thousands of times bigger than himself, and smiled gently.

He had succeeded in luring this creature out.

This was a good thing!

"Little centipede, remember your cultivation is not easy, if you obediently retreat, the loss of the flower boat I will not find you, but if you do not listen" Han Qianqian eyes rose a trace of ruthlessness, the heavenly fire moon wheel also fiercely attached to the jade sword, the red and blue light slightly trembling, ready to fire.

However, although the words were directed at the centipede, the rest of Han Qianqian's eyes kept glancing around.

What was clear was that the sudden appearance of such a large monster in the desert that was invulnerable to swords and spears was obviously not as simple as his own bad luck.

Soon, a cold smile twitched out of the corner of Han Qianqian's mouth, "Come out all of you."

"The temperature in this Realm of Desert is quite hot, and inside this sand, it must be even worse, right? Anyway, I feel sweaty even standing here."

As soon as the words fell, hundreds of meters around Han Qianqian, there were suddenly several consecutive explosions, and dozens of black-clothed men leapt out violently.

Han Qianqian smiled coldly

Chapter 2872

In the next second, Han Qianqian held the jade sword in his hand and looked blandly at the group of black-clothed people who had surrounded themselves.

"The people of the Fang Family of the Desert City?"

"People from the Liu family?"

"Or is it Lu Ruoxin's people again?"

When the words fell, Han Qianqian was on cloud nine.

The next second, they leapt up without any reason, each drawing a dagger like a snake's mane in their hands, in an eight-trigrams position, directly surrounding Han Qianqian.

How could Han Qianqian be worried about such a man? The jade sword was thrown across his hand and he directly met them.

"Roar!"

Almost at the same time, the thousand-legged monster insect also roared out, dragging its enormous body and attacking fiercely.

Han Qianqian's face was cold, and with the Tai Xu Divine Steps and the 72 Sword Techniques, he was able to attack like a fierce tiger and defend like a swift rabbit.

However, when Han Qianqian is at ease, it also surprises Han Qianqian even more, because these people in black, as a rule, under their own jade sword there is no way there can still be alive and well, but

This group of guys is almost the same as that millipede monster insect, sword on the body, as cut on iron, in addition to the fire constantly, is not even the slightest injury.

The actual fact is that you can find a lot of people who are not able to get a good deal on a lot of things.

What the hell is this?

It was understandable that the millipedal insects had armour all over their bodies, but these guys, wrapped in black, were completely lightly armored, so how could they be so strong?

While Han Qianqian was lost in thought, the thousand-legged insects behind him were already killing him.

Although Han Qianqian hurriedly fended off the attack, the inertia driven by the powerful force still caused Han Qianqian to retreat several steps and his right arm was vaguely numb from the impact.

What the hell power?

Seeing Han Qianqian being hit, a cold light flashed in the eyes of dozens of men in black, and in the next second, Lian Heng Gungan fiercely attacked Han Qianqian again collectively.

The two sides once again fought into a brawl, with dust and smoke rising in all directions, and sand raging continuously.

These guys were invulnerable to swords and spears, and if they could not find a way to break the enemy, Han Qianqian, who had lost the Jade Ice Pearl, would be gradually exhausted in terms of physical strength as time went by.

"This is not the way to go on, but these guys" Han Qianqian looked carefully at each of the men in black surrounding him, trying to see something in them!

But what was hard for him to understand was that these guys were all swift and extremely well coordinated, almost flawless!

What the hell was he supposed to do?

Han Qianqian was extremely frustrated, but he still used the Heavenly Fire Moon Wheel in his hand, and with the 72 divine swords struck by the Jade Sword, he quickly resisted.

On the desert night, one man fought against a group of men, sabre light and sword shadow, layers of streams rolling, yellow sand flying wildly.

On one side, although Han Qianqian attacked swiftly and fiercely, he could not help the group of people who were like blood cows and were not hurt at all. On the other side, although dozens of people were not only unable to resist Han Qianqian's attacks, but even their attacks could not touch Han Qianqian at all, but as mentioned earlier, they relied on their shameless defence and their desperate abandonment of defence to attack completely, making Han Qianqian, an expert, headache-ridden and exhausted for a while.

As time went on, Han Qianqian's body was sweating like beans, and his body began to move slowly because of the excessive heat, and he was losing his strength.

But on the other hand, these people seemed to be unaware of the heat and were still fierce.

Impossible!

Even though they were from the Realm of Desert, Han Qianqian understood perfectly well that they were only heat-resistant rather than unafraid of the heat, otherwise why would they have put little jade ice pearls on top of the flower boat? And why bother getting almost as flattering as a god for an ice god and a large jade ice pearl?!

But the guys in front of me

What's going on?

Just when Han Qianqian was confused, fiercely his eyes slightly shrunk, retreating as an advance, he suddenly had a novel idea

Chapter 2873

Since general attack was not an option, let's use spells!

With a shake of his hands, the Heavenly Fire Moon Wheel flew out from the jade sword, transforming into a fire dragon and a blue phoenix, and pounced down violently.

Boom!

A dragon and a phoenix, a fire and a bolt of lightning, the power of which was heaven-defying!

When the Heavenly Fire Moon Wheel shot straight at the gang, the whole sky was vaguely discoloured by the tremendous energy. In the midst of the flames, the dozens of black-clothed men were indeed hindered in their movements in the face of the Heavenly Fire Moon Wheel's encroachment, but the thousand-legged monster insect shook its body violently, directly ignoring the rushing light, and with a roar, attacked Han Qianqian violently.

"What?" Han Qianqian's brow furrowed.

Heavenly fire burned everything, the moon wheel swallowed a thousand transformations, but even such a ferocious spell was incredibly powerful against those experts of the Eight Desolate Realms, why was it that it was almost useless in front of this bunch of monstrous monsters?

Is it so strange?!

Clap!

Han Qianqian dodged the monstrous insects' attack with a sword block sideways, his body retreating several meters in a row, his entire body still staring at these guys incredulously.

How could this happen?

But just as Han Qianqian was puzzled, suddenly, his eyes fiercely fixed, and amidst the firelight, he vaguely found something fishy about it.

"Could it be that" Han Qianqian thought softly, this time no longer retreating, instead a dive straight down and rooted into the crowd.

The next second, the swords rose and the two sides were once again in a battle.

However, if the previous Han Qianqian had been mainly attacking and defending, at this moment Han Qianqian suddenly changed his style completely.

He just kept using the Tai Xu Divine Steps, quickly and frequently closing in on the gang, then quickly withdrawing to dodge.

He was constantly harassing and keeping a sufficient distance!

Although, this was extremely exhausting and made Han Qianqian, who was already extremely tired, even more exhausted.

At this moment, somewhere, seeing Han Qianqian like this, a man gave a soft sneer.

The heat makes people annoyed, and if something more annoying comes along at the same time, then for anyone, this is undoubtedly extremely devastating.

Once a person has a breakdown, anything they do becomes hysterical and haphazard!

Obviously, Han Qianqian is now on the verge of such a breakdown!

But is that really the case?

Almost at the same time as this man sneered softly, an imperceptible smile flashed across Han Qianqian's face at the other end.

"Heaven's Eye open!"

With a furious shout, Han Qianqian rolled over and directly activated the Tai Xu Divine Step under his feet, opening up eight golden bodies in his body and fiercely pulling them apart directly, then, as the eight golden bodies shifted and transformed into shadows, he suddenly rushed towards the back of that group of people, holding his jade sword horizontally and thrusting it in the air, then, slashing it towards the sky.

"Bang Bang Bang!"

There were several muffled sounds, and several thin ropes popped out of the sand with the sword, driving layers of yellow sand to fly!

Han Qianqian leapt forward, grabbed the ropes and flung them backwards.

At once, an incomparably bizarre scene appeared.

The dozens of black-clothed men and the thousand-legged monster insect, who had been fierce and fierce earlier, suddenly stopped moving, and as Han Qianqian fiercely tugged at the rope-like things, these guys were instantly pulled by Han Qianqian like paper and flew backwards.

"Bang Bang Bang!"

With a loud bang, the "things" directly concentrated and smashed several dozen meters behind Han Qianqian, suddenly the yellow sand flew to the sky, and then there was another explosion, a figure was blown out violently!

"A crooked and evil way." Han Qianqian laughed coldly and looked at the figure that flew out and said in a soft voice.

The black-clad figures and the thousand-legged insects that Han Qianqian had thrown to the ground were as motionless as a pile of scrap metal at that moment, with no trace of the bravery they had shown earlier.

The black shadow flew into the sky, and soon, after a flight across the sky, the next second, suddenly appeared behind Han Qianqian, sticking out his black tongue and slightly licking his already purple lips, a seeping smile crossed the corner of his mouth, then, he stretched out his slender but bone-like hand and gently clapped his palm.

"Interesting, interesting, very interesting."

A cold to evil voice rang out behind Han Qianqian, at this time, Han Qianqian retracted his eight golden bodies in one, and also slowly turned back

Chapter 2874

It was an almost dry corpse, as if it had been hung on a wall and dried after death, with no muscles at all, only dried yellow flesh on the bones.

The head was almost like a skeleton, but the face was as pale as paper, with purple lips, black eyes, sunken pupils and rather large pupils, which made people's bones feel creepy.

Han Qianqian looked coldly at him and said disdainfully, "Old demon, so it's you who's up to no good."

If it wasn't for the fact that the Heavenly Flame Moon Wheel was attacking in a spell-like manner beside the gang, and the light of the mana energy it triggered illuminated the gang's surroundings in a flash of lightning, thus allowing Han Qianqian to vaguely see the long line of starry points of light shining behind them because of the light, I'm afraid that Han Qianqian would still be half-exhausted by now, not knowing what exactly the enemies he was facing, were.

"Well said." He smiled gently, his eyes almost narrowed into slits, and he barely even needed him to say much before he was already able to detect from his expression that this kind of person was either treacherous or evil.

"It's just some copper-armored iron corpses that I've trained, not much of a skill."

Han Qianqian laughed coldly, no wonder these guys didn't feel anything in the heat that they could hardly resist, let alone know that they were tired, after all, they were not living people at all.

However, no matter what, such a strange move, Han Qianqian must not face cautiously, coldly looking at him, said: "What other moves, feel free to use it!"

"En....." that gloomy man nodded, rubbing his chin with a hand that was almost only bone, thinking, and after a moment, he raised his head slightly: "Honestly, although my copper-armored iron corpses are not considered capable, but the deaths at the hands of their hands, there are many experts."

"But today, I have lost to you, so I have to say, "Young man, you are very capable."

"This is my killing move, without the bronze armour and iron corpse, the old man is like a waste, so, frankly speaking, I have no more moves, if you want to kill me, you can do whatever you want."

After saying this, the old man actually hung his hands down and closed his eyes, as if waiting for Han Qianqian to kill him.

Han Qianqian frowned and did not make a move. Naturally, he would not be so careless as to kill him when he told him to, attacking him when he said he would, and admitting defeat when he said he would? Is that so rash?

Even a rabbit would have to stomp twice before it died.

"No need to play tricks, say it, who told you to come." Han Qianqian's jade sword was withdrawn, but the Heavenly Fire Moon Wheel appeared behind Han Qianqian in time, vaguely posed to attack.

Hearing Han Qianqian speak without making a move, he smiled eerily and ghostly and opened his eyes, "Take someone's money and do something for them, the rules of the jianghu."

"So the buyer you won't say either?"

"Since." He smiled softly.

"In that case, I'll send you to your death." Han Qianqian's face was cold, and in the next second, the Heavenly Flame Moon Wheel charged directly at the gloomy man.

Bang!

Almost as soon as the Heavenly Flame Moon Wheel leapt, it directly penetrated through his body, instantly piercing it straight through, followed by a loud explosion, but that eerie fellow directly exploded into white crumbs in an instant, fluttering all over the ground!

Looking at the flour-like powder, Han Qianqian's face sank, and he was about to fly after his flower boat, when he suddenly found his body stiffened!

And almost at the same time, a gust of sinister laughter rang out throughout the sky.

"Hahaha, hahahahaha, childish little boy, you want to kill me? Is it not that easy?"

Han Qianqian stared in bewilderment at the bursts of white ash staining his hands, were these white ashes poisonous?

But the next second, Han Qianqian ruled out this possibility, with his current body, he was invulnerable to all poisons, so how could he be poisoned?

"Han, I dare to come here to trouble you, do you think I am just here? I know you are not afraid of poison, but these stone powders are not poison!"

"They will only dry up on your skin and petrify it, thus affecting your movement."

"Of course, with your Han Qianqian's skills, I know it won't take long to trap you, just a few seconds at most, but for me, a few seconds is more than enough time."

As soon as the words fell, a black shadow slowly burst out of the yellow sand in the other direction, and beneath its hideous appearance, it revealed a burst of gloomy laughter

Chapter 2875

"The one just now was a fake body!"

Han Qianqian's pupils were slightly released, obviously, he knew that he had just been tricked, from the beginning to the end, that gloomy man that was blown out by himself was not his entity at all, he was just playing the same trick again, still using the thread to manipulate a so-called iron-armored bronze corpse

It's just that this bronze-armoured iron corpse may not have any attacking power compared to the others, but he is more realistic and human-like, so even he was negligent and careless for a while and completely overlooked the truth hidden inside!

This was simply a trap, the purpose of which was to lure oneself into killing that fake body, thus allowing the so-called stone powder in the fake body to explode straight away!

Han Qianqian laughed coldly, even though he was trapped, he still had no fear, and looked at the guy indifferently, humming disdainfully, "Not to mention a few seconds, even if you were given ten seconds, what could you do?"

While speaking, Han Qianqian was secretly exerting his strength, trying to bring his stiff body back to normal.

"I know what you are capable of in the Desert City, huh, an enemy of ten thousand people, even the Innate Six can't take you." He laughed grimly, "So what can be done about it this coming from your mouth, the old man is convinced."

"However, surnamed Han, I dare to take on these porcelain jobs, so do you really think that I don't have a diamond?"

As soon as the words fell, he fiercely gave a slight shake in his hand, and at once, those dozens of black-clothed men who had fallen into a mountain or plunged straight down into the earth suddenly returned to normal and instantly stood around Han Qianqian.

Then, with a slight trembling of the ground, the immense thousand-legged monster insect also violently regained its stance.

"Time is running out." He smiled grimly at Han Qianqian, and immediately afterwards, he closed his hands.

Boom!

Dozens of men in black instantly pulled their swords and rose up, heading straight for Han Qianqian, accompanied by the thousand-legged monster insect!

"Kill!"

Several people attacked!

Han Qianqian frowned and tried to move, but the men in black in front of him had already surrounded him, and then, as the millipede leapt into the air, it came straight down.

Almost on three sides, Han Qianqian was surrounded by them.

"Explosion!"

Suddenly, just as Han Qianqian was about to resist, he heard the eerie fellow roar in anger.

Boom!

Dozens of men in black, along with the thousand-legged monster insects swooping down from above, suddenly exploded like bombs, and then, in tandem with each other, sent out an even bigger explosion.

Buzz!

The whole desert trembled!

The flames of the huge explosion even shot up from where they had been, and they shone as brightly as daylight in the otherwise moonless night.

Even the flower boat, which had travelled far ahead, was shaken by the aftershocks of this huge explosion.

"Three thousand!"

When she saw the flames, Su Yingxia could no longer hold back and frantically ran all the way from the first floor of the cabin to the top of the deck. When she saw the sky-rocketing flames rising in the distance, Su Yingxia's whole body was almost on fire!

She knew that that place was where Han Sanqian had disembarked from the ship, and now, with the flames raging there, it meant that Han Sanqian was in danger.

She believed in Han Sanqian's skills, but such a terrifying explosion in the distance made her belief almost come to naught!

Qin Shuang hurriedly tugged Su Yingxia, but at this point she did not open her mouth to advise further, because even she was clear at this point that Han Sanqian might be in danger.

Su Yan followed her, bringing Green Pearl up almost as soon as the explosion occurred, and just as she reached the first floor she saw Su Yingxia rushing out of the house.

After instructing Green Pearl to take care of Han Nian, she also rushed up. However, when she reached the door, she could not help but be dumbfounded when she looked at the amazing explosion!

The next second, Su Yan turned around and ran towards the bottom, the only thing she could do at such a time was to make the flower boat speed up and leave!

"Three thousand!"

And on top of the deck, Su Yingxia, who was being dragged by Qin Shant, looked disheveledly at the fire raging in the distance, and couldn't help but be in tears already

And amidst the flames

Chapter 2876

The tremendous impact of the explosion and the huge flames that were detonated not only engulfed Han Qianqian's entire body, but even within a few dozen meters of Han Qianqian.

In the middle of the fire, under the swaying light of the fire, the gloomy man was facing the blazing fire and laughing wildly.

"Haha, hahahahaha!"

"Surnamed Han, when you meet the old man, do you really think you're that great?"

"Ginger, still old and spicy!"

"Burn, burn endlessly."

In response to his mad words, there was only the sound of burning flames.

In the midst of the flames, Han Qianqian had already been shocked by the powerful explosion almost to the point of unconsciousness. The Indestructible Mystic Armour and the Frost Jade Armour were glowing with their own light at this moment, and the two combined to protect Han Qianqian steadily together with the golden light on his body.

A faint black qi slowly flowed within Han Qianqian's body, and the Five Elements divine Stone also emitted several streams of light, quickly nourishing Han Qianqian.

Suddenly, Han Qianqian opened his eyes with a jolt!

Looking around at the sea of fire, he frowned and slightly raised his hand to support his temples.

He hadn't really thought that this gloomy fellow would do such a strange trick, let alone that the so-called copper-armored iron corpses that surrounded him weren't trying to surround him, but were instead exploding themselves!

The explosion was too sudden, and without any preparation, the immense energy made even a strong man like Han Qianqian a bit overwhelmed.

Looking at his burnt and charred skin, the Five Elements Divine Stone was releasing restorative energy to continuously repair his inner injuries, too late to heal the outer skin.

This gloomy old demon had some Daoist skills, and although he could not be said to be very powerful, his level of insidiousness was simply another person's hair on his fingers.

With a slight movement of his hand, the so-called stone powder had completely lost its effect and the ability to move was naturally a good thing for Han Qianqian.

Immediately afterwards, Han Qianqian forcibly turned on the Chaos Power in his body, running it throughout his body to help the Five Elements Divine Stone repair itself, and at the same time allowing the Chaos Power to help him recover his essence quickly.

Only when his whole body had recovered did Han Qianqian smile slightly.

"Old sinister boy, now it's time for you to taste my power.

The next second, Han Qianqian's qi opened up, and the black and gold blanket on his entire body fiercely spread out, and his person was like a missile, directly accelerating in place and rushing towards the fire.

The gloomy man was laughing coldly and recklessly, but suddenly he saw a stream of light flashing through the fire, and raised his eyes in haste, when a golden light rushed directly towards him.

The gloomy man's face instantly turned even whiter like paper, and a flash of fear fiercely flashed through his pupils.

"Bang Bang Bang!"

A black and gold qi struck down directly, and without waiting for the gloomy man to have any reaction, with him as the centre, a circle within a few meters radius presented a chain of explosions, hardening and directly trapping the gloomy man in place.

"What!"

The gloomy man looked around, a time of fear and drink, hastily raised his eyes, only to see at this time Han Qianqian has stood in front of himself in mid-air.

"Are you surprised?" Although Han Qianqian's face was extremely ugly and his body was completely burnt like black carbon, his whole body looked both wretched and disgraceful.

However, hidden on a face as black as carbon was a pair of eyes as gleaming as eagle eyes!

The gloomy man was clearly stunned, but then he gave a soft sneer: "You, Han Qianqian, shocked the Central Plains and suddenly became an Ice God when you came to our Desert Realm, and the battle in the Fang Family's Desert City even shocked the crowd. "

Speaking of this, the gloomy man tsked and said, "Do you think that such a supreme expert would really be so simply injured by my little copper-armored iron corpse?"

He shook his head helplessly, "It was unexpected that you lived, but it was within my expectations."

Han Qianqian laughed contemptuously, "Since you are so predictable, how about a little more predictability now?"

Hearing Han Qianqian's words, the gloomy man raised his head slightly, his eyes staring intently at Han Qianqian, but without the slightest fear on his face, and even with a hint of provocation in his eyes.

"What do you want me to materialize?" He hemmed and hawed

Chapter 2877

Han Qianqian smiled, "Naturally, I expect you to live or die."

Although he was laughing, his words were like a dagger that struck straight at the heart. If it were a normal person, I'm afraid he would be sweating on the spot!

When he heard Han Qianqian's words, he only smiled wickedly, "Good, since you have invited me, I dare not be late."

He then shook his head and shook his head in a pretentious manner, and then looked squarely at Han Qianqian and nudged his mouth: "According to today's celestial sign and my seal, Han warrior, I am afraid that there is only one outcome for my evil cover."

"That is death, is that right?"

Han Qianqian nodded, "Old man, you have the sense!

"Now that you know the outcome, you can choose. Or do you want to end your own life?"

"Master Han, this rabbit still has to bite and struggle before it dies, at least I have cultivated for a thousand years and have finally come to this day, if I were to kill myself like this, wouldn't I be burying my thousand years of dao and insulting you, Master Han?"

"There is no water in this desert, and after I sent myself on my way, this hand is too dirty to be washed, so I still ask Young Warrior Han to take more trouble."

As soon as the words left his mouth, this fellow smiled evilly out.

Han Qianqian nodded: "In that case, I'll send you on your way."

As soon as the words left his mouth, Han Qianqian's hands moved and the Heavenly Fire Moon Wheel instantly blossomed with powerful blue and red power, the flower boat was already far away, moreover, although Han Qianqian had rushed out of the fire, it did not mean that he was completely fine.

Although he had been briefly tempered by the Five Elements Divine Stone and Chaos Qi, his injured body was still in urgent need of healing, and in addition, the flower boat had travelled a long way in the heat of the Desert Realm.

Therefore, at the moment, it was necessary to fight quickly and not waste any time.

As Han Qianqian exerted his strength, the glow of the Heavenly Fire Moon Wheel grew larger and larger, and its might converged so violently that the surrounding air jumped and trembled madly as a result!

The ghoulish man also smiled wickedly and waved his hand, his long claws entwined with black air, and tightly palletized the ground beneath his feet, raising his body strongly!

The ground beneath his feet instantly cracked, and with a fierce movement in his hands, the black qi in his hands turned into a huge ball, which was drawn upwards with a bang and charged straight at Han Qianqian.

And the Heavenly Fire Moon Wheel was also hidden under Han Qianqian's control, waiting to be launched.

"Break!"

Boom!!!

The desert trembled and ten thousand miles of earthquakes shook, and with the explosion of the two energies, the entire dark sky was now completely re-lit as if it were daylight.

The flower boat, which could barely be seen, also felt the tremendous explosion of energy, as the boat was also pushed askew by the aftermath of the wave of air.

On top of the deck, Su Yingxia and the others looked at the explosion in the distance for a while and became even more distraught, people gripping the railing, wishing they could rush over there themselves.

As she watched, Su Yingxia was in tears, both anxious and hating herself for not being able to help Han Qianqian at all at such a time.

She hated herself for her incompetence, for the fact that she could only watch Han Sanwei in danger at such a time, and even for the fact that she had to drag Qin Shannon and the others out of helping her.

Su Yingxia teeth clenched her lips tightly

The other end of the world, the explosion roars for miles, and the rest is deadly lonely.

After the collision, the red and blue light of the Heavenly Fire Moon Wheel, almost only held with the black ball for a few seconds, and the next second it was as powerful as a thunderbolt from the sky falling to the ground, the four directions were flattened, and the whole ground spread dozens of meters with the gloomy man at the centre.

After that, the heavenly fire moon wheel faded away, leaving the

It was the gloomy man who stood frozen in place at this moment!

However, at this time, he has completely fixed there, not moving, even the breathing is completely gone

"Wow!"

The desert suddenly blew a hot wind, and as soon as the wind passed, the gloomy man's body disintegrated like a broken porcelain.

Han Qianqian was about to leave, but at that moment he suddenly noticed a jumping thing under the disintegration of the gloomy man's body, and the whole person could not help but frown

Chapter 2878

Beneath the dust, buried beneath the dust, was something that was faintly pulsating at the moment, and through those ashes, Han Qianqian could vaguely see the burst of crimson it revealed!

"What is this?"

Han Qianqian couldn't help but frown, could it be, that this gloomy fellow wasn't completely dead?!

Or had he left something behind?

Out of curiosity or for safety reasons, Han Qianqian leapt and landed next to the ashes of the gloomy man's body!

Because of the close distance, Han Qianqian could barely make out its shape through its outline, but because he could see it clearly, Han Qianqian's brow furrowed even more!

A heart!

What was left in the ashes of this creature's body was actually a heart about the size of a cow's heart!

The most bizarre thing was that it was beating extremely regularly at the moment.

This

Suddenly, just as Han Qianqian was wondering, the leaping cow-like heart suddenly moved, and the entire body violently turned into a stream of black water.

Han Qianqian hurriedly used his true qi to quickly search through his body, but the creature was so fast that it circled around Han Qianqian's body several times almost instantly.

However, Han Qianqian was no idle man, and the two forces quickly pinned him down. Then, with a slight force, the blood was instantly forced out directly into the air by Han Qianqian.

Just as Han Qianqian was about to destroy it, it suddenly turned into a ball, and then, with a soft boom, it exploded in the air!

Like a big blood bag suddenly exploded, countless blood spurted out directly.

Even though Han Qianqian was too close, his attention was completely absorbed by this completely illusory and movable heart, so he didn't expect this guy to explode so violently.

It didn't take much to smell the stench of the blood, but what annoyed Han Qianqian even more was, what the hell is this thing?

No matter how much Han Qianqian wiped, even if he wiped his skin to the point of breaking, the blood on his hands and body was still as good as new and didn't budge at all!

"Fuck, I've been tricked again." Han Qianqian let out a low bellow in depression, but saw a black shadow sweep by in the distance, running away in a more distant direction.

A fake body, another fake body!

This guy had never come close to this side from the beginning to the end, and had been using the same method over and over again, but it was the fact that he kept using the same method that made even Han Qianqian, as clever as he was, somewhat defenceless!

"Hahahaha, Han Qianqian, you're simply too young to fight me."

"But it's already late today, so I'm going to go back and rest, so I don't have time to deal with you."

"I'll leave you some souvenirs so that you don't forget me, the mountains don't turn, wash your ass and wait for me, I'll come to you anytime."

"Haha, hahahahaha!"

As the guy's arrogant laughter drifted in from the distance, his figure became more and more hidden in the darkness until the echoes swirled and his figure was gone.

"Damn." Han Qianqian punched his palm in depression, just like that, this guy had gotten away.

However, there was no time to chase after the poor guy, and seeing that there was a lot of time delay, Han Qianqian forced himself to endure the uncomfortable feeling inside his body and the bursting stench of this blood outside his body, and flew violently towards the flower boat with an acceleration.

However, almost immediately after Han Qianqian's departure, a man with a figure identical to that of the gloomy man just now manifested himself, looking at Han Qianqian's distant back, he licked his lips bloodthirstily, revealing an eerie cold smile: "Han Qianqian, huh?"

As the distant explosion dissipated, after making sure there was no great danger, Su Yan finally ordered the flower boat to slow down its forward speed and wait for Han Qianqian's return at a slow pace.

Su Yingxia, still reluctantly gripping the railing on the side of the boat on the deck with both hands under Qin Shannon's tug, stared with her beautiful eyes almost hopelessly into the endless darkness behind her.

She was waiting, waiting for the figure in her heart to appear soon.

But half an hour had passed, and an hour had passed, leaving her with nothing but endless disappointment.

But just when her heart was about to break, a figure suddenly appeared in the distance

Chapter 2879

Although, that figure was very staggering, flying extremely low in mid-air, even wavering at any moment, but after years of living together and hanging on to the tip of her heart, how could Su Yingxia not know clearly that this was Han Three Thousand!

"Three three thousand!" Su Yingxia shouted in shock, and her hand also desperately pointed wildly behind the flower boat, afraid that Qin Shannon and the others did not see it.

When Qin Frost saw Han Qianqian's flying state, her heart sank, her slender legs exerted a slight force, and her delicate figure flew out directly like a swallow, and flew all the way towards Han Qianqian.

When he saw that it was Qin Shuang who was flying towards him, Han Qianqian finally let out a long breath.

Even without moving, Han Qianqian felt the heat was unbearable, plus his body was already close to its limit in the heat from the flight.

If he hadn't been Han Qianqian, with his powerful golden body and all kinds of huge energy to support him, I'm afraid he wouldn't even have gotten to this point, he would have fallen completely halfway!

In addition, Han Qianqian's body had not fully recovered from the huge explosion and the baking of the flames.

All the way to the end, he had relied on his extremely strong will to struggle. Therefore, when he saw Qin Shang, Han Qianqian completely dropped all his defences, and without his strong will to support him, his whole body was completely slackened, and as Han Qianqian's eyes closed slightly, his body fell like a plane without fuel.

When she looked down and saw that Han Sanqian was covered in blood and his skin was badly burned, she could not help but feel the shock.

At almost the same time, Su Yan came up with Green Pearl. Once Qin Shannon had put Han Qianqian down, a group of people immediately surrounded him with concern.

Even though it was only a short distance away, Qin Shuang was drenched in sweat and half of her clothes were soaked through as she left the flower boat without the protection of the Jade Ice Pearl.

However, she was not in the mood to care about that, forcing an energy into Han Qianqian's body, then she looked at Su Yingxia, who had long been lying beside Han Qianqian, crying nervously, "Although there are quite a lot of injuries inside and outside the body, but Yingxia, you don't need to worry, Qianqian is only unconscious, there is no danger to his life."

Su Yingxia nodded heavily and stared at Han Qianqian who was in a coma, she slightly reached out and rested Han Qianqian's head in her arms, her slender jade hand gently stroked her lover's damaged skin and was filled with heartache for a while.

"Green Pearl, inform the following that the flower boat is back to normal speed." Su Yan hastily instructed.

Green Writer nodded and hurriedly went to the bottom of the dock to inform, Su Yan glanced at Qin Shantou and then at Su Yingxia, "First, bring three thousand back to the room to recuperate."

After saying this, Su Yan disregarded her noble status, and regardless of the foul stench on Han Qianqian, she put one of Han Qianqian's hands on her shoulder and helped Su Yingxia along, carrying Han Qianqian into the room Su Yingxia was staying in on the first floor.

The day gradually passed into darkness as Su Yingxia took care of the other women and ushered in a new round of dawn.

Han Qianqian opened his eyes in a daze and saw a tired Su Yingxia lying on the edge of his bed, sleeping gently, with Nian'er nestled beside him.

But when he was fully awake and opened his eyes, there was only Nian'er nestled beside him as he had seen her in his daze, and there was no Su Yingxia lying beside the bed.

But the marks on the side of the bed seemed to indicate that Su Yingxia had really been lying here before. He wanted to get up to take a closer look, but he made a noise, attracting Su Yan and Qin Shuang.

When the three women surprised Han Qianqian by waking up, Han Qianqian also searched for Su Yingxia among the three women, but the result was extremely disappointing.

"Buzz!"

Suddenly, just at that moment, a loud sound struck!

Chapter 2880

The group of people immediately frowned, especially Su Yan and Green Pearl, who looked at each other with almost incomprehension.

If the flower boat had not met something special, it would not have stopped suddenly!

But now, the flower boat had suddenly stopped, clearly signalling that something was wrong.

Han Qianqian suddenly jumped up from the bed, ignoring his injuries and rushed outside.

But when Han Qianqian rushed to the deck, the deck was empty, and the boat was surrounded by nothing, although the scenery was not beautiful, at least the wind and waves were calm, and there were no enemies coming!

Han Qianqian's eyebrows were locked and a hint of bad news rose in his heart. In the next second, he rushed straight back to the first floor and ran all the way to Su Yingxia's room.

As soon as the door was pushed open, Han Qianqian's heart suddenly went cold, and sure enough, the room was tidied up and clean, but only some of Su Yingxia's simple luggage had disappeared.

Then, Han Qianqian slammed his fist on the door of the room in frustration, then, he rushed back to the deck and flew down from the boat with a flying body.

Almost as soon as Han Qianqian flew out of the boat, Han Qianqian also suddenly noticed that a slender figure was slowly walking away from the side of the boat towards the distance.

"Su Yingxia!" Han Qianqian landed behind her, looking at her back, and couldn't help but shout out loud in some anger.

Hearing Han Qianqian's voice, Su Yingxia faintly froze, and then quickened her pace.

Han Qianqian gritted his teeth and took a few steps to catch up with Su Yingxia, grabbing her hand and pulling her to him, looking at Su Yingxia's face, Han Qianqian said with concern, "Are you crazy? You got off the boat without permission?"

"Where are you going?"

"This desert land stretches for thousands of miles, where can you go?"

Looking at Han Qianqian's worried look, her reproachful tone was tinged with concern, Su Yingxia was a bit silent, she had only walked a short distance, but her whole body was drenched in fragrant sweat because of the excessive temperature, she slightly lowered her head: "I don't know, I just want to"

"If you don't want to sit in the same boat as me, you don't need to do so, I'll just go." After Han Qianqian finished speaking, he turned around and was about to leave.

Su Yingxia hurriedly grabbed Han Qianqian's hand and shook her head at him desperately, "Without the protection of the flower boat, you will die of heat, thirst and sunlight in the desert."

"Even you, Su Yingxia, aren't afraid? Would I, Han Qianqian, be afraid? If you can, why can't I?" Han Qianqian turned around and questioned, and with his other hand up, he tried to remove Su Yingxia's hand.

Su Yingxia hurriedly gripped Han Qianqian even tighter, nervously shaking her head desperately at Han Qianqian, and her tears were also somewhat indisputable in her eyes.

"No, no"

Su Yingxia glanced at Han Qianqian, and saw that Han Qianqian looked at her patiently and did not urge.

"I feel that if we are together, we will only invite endless trouble, so instead of that, why not"

"How about you don't want to die and leave privately, do you?" Han Qianqian looked at her and was extremely angry for a moment.

Su Yingxia nodded, last night, seeing Han Qianqian's side fight, and then seeing Han Qianqian return covered in wounds and even almost fainted, those words of Lu Ruoxin kept ringing in her head.

As a wife, you will never bring any benefit to Han Qianqian, but will only make him keep getting into trouble, rubbing shoulders with life and death, and even one day, meet people outside of people, mountains outside of mountains, and from then on, fly into oblivion.

Yes, from the time he met the Fang family in the desert city, before he met Han Qianqian, he lived a life of wealth and prosperity that he could see, and was treated as a guest of honour.

But since his encounter with her, there has been a series of battles!

Isn't that enough to tell the story?

"Good, then the one who should go even more, is me."

With those words, Han Qianqian directly shook Su Yingxia off this time and walked away in the distance between quick steps.

Su Yingxia immediately panicked, and tried to catch up with him with a few steps, but the sand was extremely spinning, and because she was in too much of a hurry, she didn't catch up with him for a few steps before her feet slipped and she stumbled and fell to the ground on the spot.

The good thing is, at this time, Han Qianqian also seems to have sensed the difference, stopped and slowly turned back
