

His True Color Chapter 2931-2940

Chapter 2931

Shattered shattered?!

Han Qianqian smiled contemptuously and looked blandly at the turtle man, "What are you looking at me for? It's not like I like men, and besides, it's such an ugly thing as you."

"This is not possible, you you, you"

"You what you? Can't even speak clearly anymore? Weren't you full of shit just now? What? Now you're not talking?" At this point, Han Qianqian suddenly laughed disdainfully, "I forgot that how can a thing that spews shit speak?"

Hearing these sneers, if it were a normal turtle man, he would have already rushed up to teach Han Qianqian a lesson, but now, he didn't dare.

He was afraid!

Even his proudest turtle shell could be shattered, so what qualifications and capital did he have to teach Han Qianqian a lesson?

For years, he had been unable to defeat his opponent, but with his invincible turtle shell defence, he could at least be invincible, but today, everything was in pieces!

Staggering backwards two steps, he shook his head, even though he had seen it with his own eyes, he could hardly believe it: "You hit my hard tortoise shell with your body, it has shattered, and you are really not half hurt? "

This is what the turtle man was most shocked by.

Perhaps there is someone in this world who can restrain his tortoise shell, but what he imagines is also at least the other party's various divine weapons, and never Han Qianqian, a body of flesh and blood.

"Excuse me, do you look at me like something is wrong?" Han Qianqian smiled faintly.

It wasn't that Han Qianqian hadn't thought of other methods, he had considered the Jade Sword and even the Heavenly Fire Moon Wheel, but Han Qianqian had also tested its hardness with his own fist, and I was afraid that all of the things mentioned above would not be able to help him.

It was not impossible to use the Five Elements Divine Stone to transform fire and water attacks, but this would defeat Han Qianqian's original purpose of breaking his tortoise shell.

Therefore, there was only one way left for Han Qianqian.

A hard fight!

Although the tortoise's shell was strong, but was Han Qianqian's defence any worse?

With a top-notch heavy armour like the Immortal Xuan Armour on the outside and a top-notch soft hedgehog like the Frost Jade Armour on the inside, Han Qianqian thought that he didn't need to be afraid of the tortoise shell at all, no matter how he compared himself.

Therefore, after thinking about it, Han Qianqian decided to fight hard.

Although in the eyes of outsiders, Han Qianqian's move looked extremely silly, in his heart it was the most perfect way.

The impact of falling from a height of 10,000 miles was immense, and with the acceleration of his true energy, the inertial acceleration would allow the turtle shell and his two defensive artefacts to have a perfect "short encounter"!

The result was what Han Qianqian had expected!

Even the very hard tortoise shell was not worth mentioning in comparison to the hardest.

So, the result was obvious!

"Bull shit, this is simply the most outrageous method I've ever fucking seen, yet the most fucking amazing result." The pangolin couldn't help but spit out and say.

Qinglong also couldn't help but smile helplessly and bitterly, it was really absurd under the sky, but when you thought about the night of the fiasco of his own group of brothers, this Han Qianqian's way of playing was not only strange but always new at the same time.

It's like someone stabbing an elephant with a small knife, which seems absurd, but always kills with one small stab!

Interesting, quite interesting!

Su Ziwu was also dumbfounded, but, compared to the others he didn't have as many thoughts, a thousand words all coalesced into one sentence at this moment

The nimrod, can still play like this?

The few girls in Su Yingxia were also dumbfounded, especially Su Yingxia and Qinshang, although they trusted Han Qianqian a lot, they had to admit again in the square that they doubted what Han Qianqian was doing.

But as usual, the answer Han Qianqian delivered was still so standard.

The turtle man went limp on his butt and looked at Han Qianqian, who was completely fine, as if he had seen a ghost, in a completely unsettled mood.

"Anyone else want to play?" Han Qianqian snapped, his gaze looking at the other monsters present

Chapter 2932

As Han Qianqian's gaze struck, the gang of unbeatable, arrogant monsters all unexpectedly took a step backwards in fear.

In the killing world where strength is paramount, if you are not capable enough, you will naturally be trampled on infinitely, or even trampled on with your feet, but on the other hand if you are strong enough, it is the same as holding a big sword in front of all the unarmed people, and naturally, they will fear you, and naturally, they will be the ones on top of the people.

There was fear in the eyes of the monsters, some of them kept their heads down and kept dodging Han Qianqian's gaze, fearing that they would be targeted by Han Qianqian because of their peculiar looks or for some other reason.

Only the toad, with a fierce look on his face, swept a glance at the uncertain turtle man on the ground, who seemed to feel his gaze, and his lax eyes suddenly had a hint of determination.

The toad laughed coldly, and at this point, took a slight step forward and stood at the forefront: "I'll play with you."

With a cold cry from the toad, Han Qianqian's gaze locked onto his body, covered in Jianzi meat, as if muscles might explode out of him at any moment, giving an extremely strong visual impact as well as a display of strength.

He had a strong visual impact as well as a display of power. Together with the slippery toad's head, he had both a feeling of power and an eerie evil feeling.

"This one is a hard character at first glance, three thousand, you have to be careful." The mountain-penetrator ordered in a soft voice.

Qinglong also nodded as he scanned the toad's appearance, "Although he looks like a very powerful person, however, this kid's calves are unusually slim, which means this guy's explosive power and speed, is also extremely terrifying."

Su Ziwu also interjected at this time, "I've seen this toad a few times in this tavern, although he doesn't hang out in the tavern often, but every time he comes, this guy has to be greeted by everyone standing up to welcome him, from my experience of hanging out in Youming City, this toad is by no means of extraordinary status, and in a place like Youming City where the devil race is present, status is completely equated with strength. "

Hearing these words, Su Yingxia's worry could not help but rekindle, even more than just now, all monsters are backing up, but this monster, after witnessing Han Qianqian break the tortoise shell, still dare to stand upright and forward, how can he do it without excessive ability?

On the contrary, at this moment, Han Qianqian was not the least bit worried, but on the contrary, he was exceptionally calm, looking at the toad man and saying disdainfully, "Fine, how do you want to play?"

"Very simple, either, you beat me to death, or, I won't beat you to death, but play with your chick to death." As soon as the words fell, the toad man already sneered, followed by his body but suddenly disappeared directly in the same place.

"Three thousand, be careful!" Su Yingxia shouted urgently.

At this moment, to the right of Han Qianqian, the toad figure suddenly appeared, a fist as big as a casserole had already appeared less than five centimeters from the left side of Han Qianqian's face.

Faced with such a thunderous yet powerful fist, even the wind of the fist already blew Han Qianqian's face raw.

Perhaps for others, the punch was frightening enough, and some would even have been overwhelmed with fear on the spot, but for Han Qianqian

He smiled contemptuously, and with a slight flash of his head, his left hand then formed a palm to block the right side of his face, directly in front of the toad's huge fist.

Immediately afterwards, his left hand slid along, driving this toad's fist and directly withdrawing it to the left, and in a flash, four two paddled a thousand jin, and with just a loud sound, the toad's incomparably huge body was directly pulled to Han Qianqian's left side, stumbling several steps in succession, before it slightly stabilized itself.

"Wow!"

The bottom was in an uproar!

Faced with such a fierce and swift punch from the toad, Han Qianqian simply dodged it in a breezy manner, how could this not surprise them?

"That's it?" Han Qianqian gritted his teeth and looked at the toad, disdainfully saying.

The toad's heart was secretly astonished, such a blow, this guy actually dodged it?

However, compared to the surprise, the uproar at the bottom made the toad's face even more upset, and the anger in his heart was naturally stronger.

Gritting his teeth, the toad snorted coldly and turned back around, "The party was just to whet your appetite, the real show is just beginning now."

As soon as the words left his mouth, the toad's fists were clenched, veins bursting, and the muscles of his body crumbled violently, his clothes instantly turning into strips of cloth and exploding.

"Is that so?" Han Qianqian smiled faintly, but only his hand gently patted the dust on his body!

The toad smiled evilly

Chapter 2933

In the next second, this one was already attacking again.

The figure is extremely fast!

The same move to be used twice? Or on the premise of failure?!

Han Qianqian frowned slightly, it shouldn't be that stupid, right?!

Seeing that Han Qianqian was not moving, just frowning in place, Qin Shannon quit and said softly, "Qianqian, what are you doing? Don't be careless."

It's not right, it's definitely not right!

Han Qianqian shook his head, even if he was a fool, but if he could survive in the killing world until now and still be quite prominent, then his attainment in combat would never be too low.

To use a failed move twice was obviously impossible!

So, this one time, it must just be a feint!

Thinking of this, Han Qianqian braced his legs slightly inwardly in an octagonal position, ready to defend while secretly observing all other changes!

Sure enough, just as the toad's fist came in, he simultaneously opened his mouth towards Han Qianqian's backhand.

"Ha!"

A mouthful of green gas spurted out directly from his mouth, instantly spraying directly next to Han Qianqian Han Qianqian's face.

There was indeed a trick!

Han Qianqian smiled grimly, because there was advance forethought, so Han Qianqian basically had all the time and ability to dodge this green gas.

However, once he saw that it was this kind of green qi, Han Qianqian felt that it was a waste of energy to even dodge it, so he simply did not move.

The toad struck and passed, and when he looked back at Han Qianqian who had already been hit by his own green qi, his entire being revealed a grim smile and his hand stopped.

"I thought how powerful you were, but it turns out you're just a waste." Having won the hand, the toad was naturally very pleased with himself, and the look in his eyes at Han Qianqian seemed to be looking at a cold corpse already.

"Is that so?" Han Qianqian gently fanned away the green air in front of him, but it stank as bad as it could: "Have you eaten garlic? Such heavy breath?"

"Three thousand." Su Ziwu hurriedly tried to remind him that the green gas in front of Han Qianqian was an extremely poisonous gas, almost anyone who was struck by it would lose their fighting ability in a short time and eventually die of poison.

Although Su Ziwu had never seen it himself, he had heard of it during his years of trading and commerce.

However, he was just about to move, but Han Qianqian had already indicated with one hand that he did not need to say more.

In the poison, can it poison Han Qianqian, the great poison king?

"Hmph, having been poisoned by old me's toad poison, and you're still talking tough here, I'm afraid that later on, I won't even know how you died." The toad laughed coldly.

At once, the group of people behind him followed suit and laughed loudly, and their previous fears and worries about Han Qianqian dissipated in a flash.

After all, to these monsters, Han Qianqian had already been poisoned by their toad, so naturally, he was no different from a dead man.

A dead person, what was there to fear?

"This stinking fool, he's been poisoned by our Toad Master's poison, and he's still here unaware of it."

"Hehe, Master Toad's Toad Poison, anyone who is poisoned, no matter how high his cultivation is, that only results in one thing, waiting for death."

"Little fool, are you feeling tired now, and your whole body also feels extremely heavy eyelids and shortness of breath?"

"In a short time, you will also feel numbness in your limbs, and then dizziness, and finally fall to the ground, and die from then on."

Several monsters let out loud mockery, unable to say how happy and mocking they were for a while.

But Han Qianqian only smiled faintly, what could they do if their words were fierce and violent? With Han Qianqian's body, what was there to fear? The so-called symptoms that they were so proud of, I am sorry to say, Han Qianqian did not have any.

Not only did Han Qianqian not feel the slightest discomfort, but he was also refreshed and relaxed because of the inhalation of the poisonous gas.

What is the difference between a poison to others and a nutrient when he has it?

When he heard the little monsters behind him, he was even more confident, and with a cold snort, he walked towards Han Qianqian with disdain.

In his eyes, Han Qianqian was no different from a mole, so he wouldn't dare to resist.

"Little girl, from now on, you are Laozi's."

As soon as the words fell...

Chapter 2934

As soon as the words left her mouth, those big, disgusting hands moved.

Su Yingxia instinctively dodged towards the back, but she knew very well that the counter was behind her, so even if she retreated, there was nowhere to go.

However, just as those big hands were about to approach Su Yingxia, suddenly, they stopped steadily.

The toad frowned and made an effort, but the hands remained there, not moving at all.

When he raised his eyes, he saw that Han Qianqian, a hand much smaller than his, was stuck to his arm in a death grip.

"How dare you fucking fight back?" The toad was furious, never imagining that someone would dare to stop him at this point, and that it would be this punk who had already been poisoned by himself.

"Fuck you." With an angry shout, the toad directly raised his hand and tried to block Han Qianqian away.

However, when he did so, Han Qianqian, who had grabbed his hand, didn't even move the slightest bit!

"Ouch? You're still fucking strong? I'll kill you." As soon as the words left his mouth, the toad lifted his foot and kicked at Han Qianqian.

As Han Qianqian slightly dodged, he heard a loud boom and a big hole was kicked out of the counter beside him.

By the time Han Qianqian looked back, the guy's kick had already been withdrawn.

He had both speed and strength, and was a good fighter.

Unfortunately, he met Han Qianqian, who was stronger in both aspects.

With a single movement of his hand, his fist struck the toad's muscular body, and with a muffled grunt, his body fell back a few steps before it slowly stabilised.

Seeing this, several monsters ran over on the spot.

The toad waved his hand to show that he was fine: "Hmph, he won't last long with my poison.

As soon as the words left his mouth, the bastard slumped to the ground like a toad, his face and cheeks swelling, shrinking and swelling again in an instant!

"Haha, this kid, he has made the toad angry, this toad's divine power can fly to the sky and disappear to the earth, can do anything."

"That's right, before being poisoned to death he had to be beaten up so badly by the toad, I feel sorry for this kid."

"Ai, miserable."

A few demon monsters laughed softly, their mouths sympathetic, but their eyes full of teasing.

Han Qianqian didn't respond at all, looking at the somewhat hideous and disgusting toad lying on the ground as if he was watching a jumping clown.

"Croak!"

The next second, his entire body flew up as if it had been fitted with springs.

The speed of the bullet, coupled with the speed of the drop from above and the indistinguishable position, might have been too much for others to handle, even to the point of panic and confusion.

But to Han Qianqian, he didn't even bother to take a second look, just stared blandly ahead as if nothing was happening.

"Fuck, stinking punk, how dare you belittle me, I want you to pay the price! Toad divine Kung Fu First Form!"

On top of the roof, the toad shouted coldly, and the next second, his body leapt across the roof a few times at a great speed, then he increased his strength, and then he rushed straight down!

The speed was astonishing!

Almost as soon as the toad rushed towards Han Qianqian, Han Qianqian just fiercely lifted his leg high and then slashed his leg down!

"Bang!"

There was a loud bang, followed by a roll of dust and smoke!

The toad's enormous body was struck by the leg and smashed directly into the ground!

"Wow!"

A mouthful of green blood spurted out of his mouth, and the toad was so dizzy from the fall that his eyes felt like stars were popping up between them.

However, how could he be willing to accept such a great humiliation? A hint of ruthlessness flashed in his eyes and he shouted angrily, "Toad Divine Kung Fu Second Form!"

In an instant, he could only see his body spinning wildly in place for three hundred and sixty degrees, and in the next second, he directly bounced off again before swooping down again at a great speed!

"Fuck you." Han Qianqian didn't even move from where he was standing, just lifted his foot and kicked the swooping toad directly in the abdomen.

"Boom!"

A huge body this time flew straight up into the sky and smashed into the ceiling of the roof

Chapter 2935

"AHHHH!!!"

Without being seen, all that could be heard was a voice of both pain and immense annoyance coming from inside the huge hole smashed at the roof.

"Toad Divine Kung Fu Third Form!"

Clatter!

Inside the shattered roof, another divine shadow rushed out!

Immediately afterwards, the toad's figure quickly spun madly around Han Qianqian in a spinning motion.

When the speed reached its peak, there were already four toad figures around Han Qianqian, but, just after these four figures, another figure quietly retreated.

Then, it fiercely killed Han Qianqian.

The little phantom might have been useful if it were someone else, but to Han Qianqian, it was just a fart. Almost as soon as the toad's real body withdrew, Han Qianqian was able to take it all in.

Han Qianqian didn't move as the toad came at him, but just as he was about to reach him, Han Qianqian slapped him with his backhand.

"You mother fucker!"

Bang!

It seemed like a slap, but it hit the toad's body like the top of a mountain, and on the spot it rushed sideways instead of falling straight down, and then hit the floor heavily!

"Ah!!!"

"Toad's Divine Kung Fu 4th Form!"

"The fourth stance, right?"

"Bang!"

"Toad"

"The fifth stance right?"

Dust and smoke rolled, loud noises were heard, and all the monsters' jaws dropped, hardly believing their eyes.

There was no imagined Toad Divine Power flying into the sky and killing the enemy invisibly, instead over, the Toad under the Toad Divine Power was like a stinky ball, being beaten by Han Qianqian with a left and right kick, a left and right punch, dizzy and bleary-eyed.

This was not a fucking abuse, this was clearly being played with as a chicken.

The toad, who had been a wise and powerful man just then, was now ashen, and as he smashed into a ruin for yet another, or I don't know how many, times, he reluctantly struggled to get up: "Clam"

The word was only out of his mouth when he looked up in dismay, but he saw Han Qianqian already crouched beside him, and the clam word was broken hard in his mouth.

"How many stances?" Han Qianqian said in a soft, cold voice.

The toad panicked, despite his face pretending to be strong, it was obvious that his mind had fallen to the clouds long ago, and it was time for the eighth stance, but he didn't dare to speak.

Because at this point he had already found out that what the fuck is Toad God Kung Fu, this is not used to kill the enemy at all, this is completely upside down, being used by the enemy to beat their own ah.

The first seven stances, being beaten a whole seven times, wanting to cry were fucking hard without tears.

The crowd was quiet, and even a few timid ones, or those who had just roared the loudest, were already at this point, as you gently pushed me down, and I gently pushed you down, feeling the oil on the bottom of their feet as they quickly retreated towards the outside.

Even the toad was beaten to the point of not knowing his mother, so how could they dare to fight against Han Qianqian? If they didn't leave now, when would they wait?

"What? You were so arrogant just now, why don't you say anything now?" Han Qianqian crouched down, but with just this one action, the toad was scared to death and backed up like a lost soul.

Arrogance?

This point the toad said has long ceased to exist, or how arrogant just now, now how doggy goat.

"Hey hey!" The toad showed it with a laugh, and for a moment was embarrassed and about to take off.

However, at the moment, it seemed that this was the only method that might be able to barely calm Han Qianqian's anger.

"You're laughing so hard, didn't anyone ever tell you?" Han Qianqian frowned slightly.

As soon as he looked at this, the toad's smiling face instantly revealed its truest emotion, the desire to cry!

Only, this crying and laughing look was really uglier among ugly: "Master, I was wrong, I was wrong."

"Wrong?" Han Qianqian laughed and shook his head, "Someone as arrogant as you should never be wrong."

"By the way, didn't you try to reach out and touch her just now?" Han Qianqian made a slight sideways turn, giving up his line of sight so that the toad could see Su Yingxia.

But just after seeing Su Yingxia, Han Qianqian's words made the toad's liver and guts split on the spot

Chapter 2936

"Which hand was it?"

Which hand?

The toad immediately subconsciously extended his right hand, because just now, he wanted to use his right hand to touch Su Yingxia. This was not because the toad was honest, but rather, it was the most realistic action under fear.

However, the moment his hand was extended, the toad's liver and guts split

Which hand?

This is not the rhythm of the hand that will be lost if the hand is extended?

After reflecting, the toad immediately panicked.

The toad divine kung fu is a fundamental part of the body, if this hand is gone, how can this toad divine kung fu be used? And if he couldn't use it, in a place like the Demon Race where the weak are the strong, there would only be one ending!

Death!

In the demon race, no one will give a cripple any room to live.

And bullying is death!

"Master, no don't, I'm wrong, I'm wrong, I'm wrong, can I?"

"Okay." Han Qianqian smiled blandly, "However, I would like to ask you, if it was someone else who begged you like this, would you let him go?"

The toad's face was cold, would he let others go if they came to beg him like this?

Of course not, he would even be more ruthless and mocking to kill them!

Thinking of this, the toad panicked and kowtowed directly to Han Qianqian: "I will, great master, I will let him go, please give me a way out, in the future in the future I will never dare to act recklessly again."

After the words, he kowtowed desperately, without the slightest pause.

"Put down your right hand, you can go now."

Han Qianqian finished in a cold voice and rose slightly.

With a grit of his teeth, the toad seemed to have made a great determination, "Good, sooner or later, you have to pay back what you have done, it's just a hand, at least I'm not dead yet."

"I'll give it to you!"

As soon as the words fell, the toad directly an overhead a grab, grabbed someone else's waist large knife, raised the knife, closed his eyes, made a gesture to cut.

The few women in Su Yan turned their heads to the side, unable to bear to look at it, and at this time Han Qianqian also slightly turned towards Su Yingxia.

He was not interested in this, because he was not interested in hurting or killing people, but this guy had gone too far, repeatedly messing with him, especially when he had reached out to Su Yingxia, so how could Han Qianqian not be angry? How could he not teach him a lesson?

However, just as Han Qianqian turned around to leave, the toad's closed eyes slowly opened at that moment, and instead of the softness of the previous tail wagging, there was only cold insidiousness.

He slowly shifted his gaze once again to the turtle man on the other side, whose gaze was also fixed on his side.

The two exchanged a look, then nodded to each other, and in the next second, two figures attacked Han Qianqian violently.

"Three-thousand be careful."

Several women, led by Su Yingxia, shouted sharply almost at the same time.

Han Qianqian's brow furrowed, even without their warning, he knew deep down that behind him, two forces were really coming towards him.

Once, twice!

Han Qianqian always gave these people a chance, but nay, not only did these people not cherish it, they were even worse at sneak attacks!

Helplessly, he shook his head, enough was enough, enough was enough of everything.

"Since you don't want to live, let's send you to the West." With a clench of his teeth, his killing heart rose.

With a cold cry, his true qi burst from his body, and with a "buzzing" sound, the two toads and tortoises who were rushing towards him instantly hit an iron wall, and then a powerful burst of true qi came from Han Qianqian's body.

"Wow!"

The eyes of the bunch of monsters widened.

To them, Toad and Turtle Man's surprise attack was already fierce enough, almost a sure shot, and Han Qianqian not dodging or dodging, even giving his back to them the whole time, it was simply tantamount to seeking death.

But who would have thought that things would not turn out the way they thought they would?

On the contrary, the toad and the turtle man were even bounced straight back!

The toad and the turtle looked at each other, and in the next second, they looked up at Han Qianqian with a vicious look in their eyes.

And at this time, Han Qianqian, slowly, also turned around, indifferent eyes filled with, is a deep cold intent

Chapter 2937

"Brothers, go!" The toad shouted coldly, and in the next second, took the lead to add strength to charge directly towards Han Qianqian again.

The Turtle Man was no slouch either, as he accelerated and attacked Han Qianqian with a vengeance.

Although the toad was defeated, his strength was still there, and although the turtle man's shell was gone, what was lost was only his defence.

As they both attacked Han Qianqian, there was a flash of lightning in the room, the energy moving and the air pressure dropping.

The energy was flickering and the air pressure was low.

At the same time, the surrounding tables and chairs shook madly, and the floor cracked wherever they passed, which was enough to see how powerful they were using at this moment.

"Toad God Kung Fu 8th Form."

"The power of the turtle wave."

Boom!

A left and right surprise attack!

Two huge blasts of energy came straight at them.

"Although this kid had the absolute upper hand just now, but unfortunately, he miscalculated a move, the toad's attack itself is fierce enough, this turtle man has some offensive power himself besides the turtle guest's invincible defence, it's just as well not to cut off the grass, but actually let the two of them join forces."

"People with a Bodhisattva's heart are not destined to end up too well. I hope this kid knows a little better in his next life that to be merciful to your enemies is to be cruel to yourself."

"I pity the girl beside him, she's so damn beautiful, it's a pity she's with a fool."

In the world of killing, there is no mercy, nor will anyone appreciate your mercy, because mercy in their eyes is an act only for fools.

And Han Qianqian was this fool.

To be precise, Han Qianqian was soft-hearted. In his eyes, although a few people had made him furious by molesting Su Yingxia, it was enough to take off an arm, even though the crime did not lead to death.

However, he did not know that these guys were almost the same as Liu, who had a backbone in the back of his head and did not know how to advance or retreat at all.

At this moment, in the face of these two men's vicious attack, Han Qianqian's eyes flashed with a trace of coldness, and in the next second, his fists clenched tightly, the Heavenly Fire gathered in his right hand, and the Moon Wheel gathered in his left hand.

"Bang!"

A fierce right fist was thrown at the incoming toad, directly as if he had used the Toad's divine Kung Fu to send him flying, sending him bouncing into the wall dozens of metres away, cracking the entire wall before the toad landed heavily on the ground.

He was in pain, so much pain that his chest was burned black because of the heavenly fire.

It had almost been expected that he would be beaten, he had never expected that he could suddenly beat Han Qianqian.

What he wanted, was a sound blow to the east!

"You can dodge the left, are you still capable of dodging the right?" With a cold, evil smile, the toad's eyes showed a brilliant light.

The turtle man was incredibly fast and his attacks were not bad at all, so if he feigned to attack Han Qianqian's left, he would be unable to defend his right side.

Although his own side looked more fierce, it was the turtle man who was actually hiding the killing move.

"You're still not dead this time?"

As the turtle man looked over to the right side, the turtle man had already rushed to Han Qianqian's far right side, while a spike was caught in his fist in his hand and came fiercely.

"Oh no." Su Ziwu shouted sharply, his whole body very worried.

The opponent was fierce, and at this moment Han Qianqian had just repelled the toad, so there was obviously not enough time to turn back and defend against the turtle man's attack.

Not only Su Ziwu, but also Qinglong and other good fighters, could not help but pinch a cold sweat for Han Qianqian when they saw this situation.

It was not a matter of how clever the turtle man's attack was, but based on the fact that the current situation had turned extremely fierce, Han Qianqian's situation was extremely dangerous and deadly for anyone who had experienced many battles.

But is this really the case again?

Perhaps, the whole world thought so, but for Han Qianqian, yes, indeed he attacked extremely well, but how could Han Qianqian not have thought of this before he started?

If he hadn't thought of this intellectually, Han Qianqian would have been riddled with holes, not to mention the fact that he and Cool-Son Yeh had outsmarted the chain of command at the bottom of the mountain of the Void, even on Earth.

But it was one thing to think of it, and another to be willing to care.

Han Qianqian, on the other hand, was clearly in the latter category.

That's it?

A cold laugh, another breathless extreme operation, appeared

Chapter 2938

Almost as soon as everyone thought it was impossible, Han Qianqian suddenly made a sharp turn!

"What?!"

"This"

"How is this possible?"

"What kind of speed is this?"

That's right, what was impossible in almost everyone's eyes was happening right now right under their noses.

With almost no time and no room to spare, and with others almost only likely to even return to their hands already considered very extreme, Han Qianqian had directly completed the entire turn.

Not only that, but Han Qianqian slowly raised his left hand, which was bred with the power of the Lunar Wheel, in an instant, and fiercely formed his fist and struck out with a fury!

Boom!

Even though the turtle man's fist had a sword in it, it did not hit Han Qianqian's body, and the two fists were almost facing each other in the air, although the distance between them was only a fraction of a second.

But no matter how hard the turtle man tried, it was unable to move even a little further forward.

"The turtle man was sweating coldly. It was just as well that he couldn't move any further, but an invisible pressure was pressing down on him through Han Qianqian's fist.

"Roll!" With a cold voice, the next second, a powerful force erupted from Han Qianqian's fist.

"Boom!"

That power mixed with the power of the Moon Wheel, directly and completely wrapping up the turtle man.

The blue and purple lightning jumped jaggedly, driving the turtle man's body to fly straight to the stone wall tens of kilometers away.

Only, even so, the purple lightning on his body still hadn't subsided, and the occasional jump hurt him, making him grimace.

"Bull Bull that lot!"

"I'm convinced."

At the bottom, a bunch of monsters were collectively dumbfounded, what the fuck is this?

It was simply a textbook fight scene, it was simply an extreme scene that no one could imagine ah.

Over there, Qinglong was already laughing, clapping his hands while he couldn't help but shake his head and applaud.

Wonderful, wonderful, just wonderful to the extreme.

Not a hair out of place, not a hair out of place, one could even say that a second in the evening, or a second in the morning, would definitely have been a mess in the extreme manipulation just now.

But Han Qianqian was controlling every detail, even manipulating every moment of time.

"To be able to display speed in such an exquisite manner is the first time I've seen it in the hundred or so years I've lived."

Su Ziwu, who had been crumbling his nerves, had just finally relaxed at this point, and looking back at the appreciative smile on Qinglong's face, Su Ziwu could not help but say in appreciation.

Qinglong nodded: "His speed is unimaginably fast, and most importantly, his timing is simply exquisite. No wonder he didn't even want to move when those two attacked, at first, I thought he didn't reflect, but now, I know."

Su Ziwu nodded, "That was contempt, the contempt of a king."

Qinglong smiled, yes, it was like a real king laughing at a group of minions posing with their heads, not only not the slightest bit of alarm, but, instead, probably full of disdain and ridicule.

"It's okay, it's okay." Thinking of this, Qinglong sighed.

Su Ziwu was stunned, "What's okay?"

Qinglong shook his head and didn't say anything more, but he knew in his heart that what was okay was that they had admitted defeat in time, and what was also okay was that after admitting defeat only, they kept their word and never crossed the thunderbolt by half a step.

To be an opponent with such a person is simply anyone's nightmare!

Su Yingxia's women were all smiling with relief at this time, and their previous worries had finally dissipated at this moment.

Han Qianqian stood up slightly and swept a glance at the toad in the corner, who had been burned by the heavenly fire and was in a wretched state, and then swept a glance at the turtle man who had been injured by the moon wheel, and now the purple and blue lightning still occasionally jumped.

"Any more moves?" Han Qianqian said in a cold voice, "If not, it's time for me to send you on your way."

The Turtle Man and the Toad looked at each other, and then, instead of having the slightest expression of fear on their faces, they laughed, even with an extremely open and arrogant smile.

"Send us on our way?"

"Hahahahahahahahaha!"

"Just by you?" The toad looked evilly at Han Qianqian and said in a cold voice

Chapter 2939

Han Qianqian didn't say anything, just looked at the two men indifferently.

"Do you really think that you've won?" The turtle man also spat out the blood in his mouth and stared at Han Qianqian viciously.

Seeing that Han Qianqian remained silent, the turtle man glanced at the toad and laughed, "It's time, isn't it?"

Hearing this, Ha? laughed and nodded, "Three to five minutes for the average person, maybe ten minutes for those with a stronger body, and half an hour for those who are even stronger."

"However, when this guy fought us just now, he had obviously moved to move his qi and his blood was boiling, so it should be about the same time for the poison to come out."

Yes, when the two men had seen what Han Qianqian could do, naturally, as long as they were in their right mind, they would not be stupid enough to still resist.

But the fact that the two men dared to fight back based on such a situation showed that they had absolute confidence in Han Qianqian.

These confidence stemmed from the green gas that the toad had spewed at Han Qianqian earlier.

Naturally, they did not think that the poisonous gas was ineffective, but that Han Qianqian's physical quality was stronger than others, and so the onset of the poison was delayed.

This also happened from time to time in most cases and was purely normal.

So the two men quickly devised a move that they thought was perfect and the two of them combined their forces to attack.

If they could beat him, they would both be happy, but if they could not, at least they would have consumed Han Qianqian in the process and caused the poison in Han Qianqian's body to flare up.

Whether they succeeded or failed, the two of them would be the winners.

"Poison attack?" Han Qianqian could no longer at this point, and could not help but laugh out loud.

"What? You forgot about this?" The toad laughed coldly.

"The great battle just now intensified the flow of your blood, and the toxicity spread faster with it, you forgot, but we didn't." The turtle man laughed coldly.

"You are despicable and shameless!"

"Using such nasty tactics, are you people?"

When the Turtle Man's words were released, Su Yan and the other few women naturally became righteously indignant for a moment and pointed at each other in anger.

"You fools, in the Demon Race, only those who are alive are the victors, as for those who have fallen, who cares if they live or die? Not to mention, how they died."

As soon as the words fell, the turtle man and the toad let out a loud laugh, while some of the little monsters around, seeing the two of them laughing so arrogantly at this time, knew for a moment that they might really have a secure victory, and one by one, hesitantly, they also laughed along with them.

"Haha!" It was at this moment that Han Qianqian also laughed aloud, hard enough to make those little monsters, who were already very hesitant, dumbfounded for a moment.

The turtle man and the toad instantly glanced at each other, and the turtle man laughed, "This silly man, he's still laughing at this moment."

"People who are about to die are naturally crazier and more brainless in their actions, maybe they are still trying to play the good guy in front of us before they get poisoned." Toad said disdainfully.

Hearing this, the turtle man snorted disdainfully, "Pretending to be a good man here at grandpa? Does he really think that grandpa is scared?"

While the two were talking, at this moment, Han Qianqian slightly took out his jade sword. Originally, when they saw Han Qianqian draw his sword, although these two were indifferent on their lips, they were still more or less faint in their hearts.

After all, they had seen Han Qianqian's skills with their own eyes before he was poisoned.

However, the worry was only for a moment, because at this moment Han Qianqian slightly raised his hand, and then unexpectedly put the sword up, but directly towards his own arm with a slash.

Seeing this, the two first froze, and then laughed out loud, followed by the laughter of the crowd of little monsters behind them.

"Fuck, is this dumb-ass stupid? Cutting himself with a sword?"

"Maybe it's not stupid, but he knows he's poisoned and has no way out, so he just kills himself, at least he can still save his reputation and die a quiet death, free from the pain of his skin."

Su Ziwu and Qinglong looked doubtful, they didn't understand why Han Qianqian would do that. Even if it was really poisoned, it wasn't so bad, was it?

Only Qin Shannon and Su Yingxia, suddenly remembered something, and then a faint smile curved out of the corners of their mouths...

Chapter 2940

That's right, as soon as Han Qianqian cut his arm and the slightest bit of blood flowed out, the two women thought of Han Qianqian's poisoned blood almost at the same time.

As witnesses, whether it was Qin Shan or Su Yingxia, they had both witnessed Han Qianqian's demonstration of his poisoned blood at least once.

Especially Su Yingxia!

I am afraid that the events in the Fu family's heavenly prison are still vivid in my mind even today.

The power of that poisoned blood, even the Fu family's heavenly prison, was completely corrupted in the poisoned blood, and she would naturally never forget it.

Obviously, since the other party mentioned poison, Han Qianqian obviously had a new way to play!

Han Qianqian cut open the wound and looked blandly at the few drops of blood flowing from her arm, then raised her eyes and looked towards the toad and the turtle man.

"What are you looking at? You think that if you've been poisoned by Laozi, you can dilute it by letting out some blood?" The toad said in a cold voice.

"I'm afraid your IQ is really wrong, if a poison can be diluted by letting out blood, then what kind of poison is it?" The turtle man also sneered.

"When it comes to poison, I can play with you guys, but" Han Qianqian said while lowering his head and slightly wrapping the two drops of poisoned blood with energy, then looked up at the two playfully.

"But what?"

"If you have a fart, just hurry up and let it out, don't pretend here, in our eyes, you are just a dying man, do you want to pretend any longer?"

Faced with the two men's rantings, Han Qianqian only shook his head lightly and said, "But I'm afraid you can't afford to play?"

Hearing these words, the two first stared at each other, then looked at each other, and in the next second, they threw back their heads and laughed.

"Hahahahahaha, what did this stinky foolish than just say about the comer?" The toad laughed extremely exaggeratedly, his hand simultaneously kept digging his own ears with his hand, and his eyes were even filled with disdain.

"He said, he said he was going to play poison with you, hahahahahaha." The turtle man was even laughing his head off, his hand covering his stomach already laughing until he was about to die.

Not to mention the two of them, even the group of little monsters at the back were also sneering softly and repeatedly.

Su Ziwu covered his forehead with his hand in depression and turned his face to the side.

Qinglong was close to him and when he saw him like this, he couldn't help but frown and said softly, "What's wrong with this?"

"As I have said before, this toad is quite popular within this Youming City, not only because of the Toad Divine Skill in his hands, but also because of his handful of deadly poisonous Qi."

"It's not easy to stay alive in a place like this where the strong live and the weak die, but if you want to make a name for yourself, how can you not have two tricks up your sleeve?"

"If that turtle man's tortoise shell is his native defence, then this toad's native life is his study of poison."

"I can say this, within Youming City, if he says he is the second King of Poison, no one dares to say the first, three thousand this is confused ah, he attacks fiercely, even if he is poisoned by the poison of the toad, he should use his advantage to repel them before the poison breaks out, as for the poisoning, when we are safe, I will naturally think of a way."

"But now, he is completely giving up these advantages and turning to disadvantages against the advantages of others, which"

"This old man has been walking in the jianghu for many years, but I have never seen such a situation." At the end of the sentence, Su Ziwu was a little angry.

Child's play, child's play, simply taking life as a child's play ah.

He had seen young men who were mad, but he had never seen one like Han Qianqian who was so mad that he didn't even have an edge!

He really did not know what to say, depressed, very depressed.

After hearing Su Ziwu's words, Qinglong did not hold back like Su Ziwu, he just frowned slightly and looked at Han Qianqian's back, he could not help but feel curious, after all, as Su Ziwu said, if this is so bad for Han Qianqian, then this guy, how should he deal with it this time?

The two women were anxious like ants on a hot pot, and for a while they could not even stand still, pacing in place and holding each other's hands tightly.

However, just as they were having doubts and the monster was laughing, Han Qianqian over there had already made a movement in his hand.

In an instant, the two energies wrapped in Han Qianqian's poisonous blood flew directly into the mouths of the toad and the turtle man who were laughing maniacally with an extremely fast thud!
