

His True Colors Novel Chapter 3008 - 3009

chapter 3008

face this pangolin goods of this “attack”, Han three thousand did not even feel the effort and care for him, the people still immersed in the Phoenix woman shocked them.

Millions of years of reincarnation, from a race that does not know how huge it is, through self-elimination, finally completed the so-called end of the entire tribe and opened a new starting point.

Such a huge turnover, even if it is not the Phoenix clan but other races, it is enough to make people feel extremely shocked.

Sometimes things are so natural, but they are amazing.

George Han did not expect that he would be fortunate enough to see the reincarnation of a race, the end and rebirth of a race.

There is no opinion on Taishan, but he walks around, saying, I am afraid that is the case.

“It’s irritating, it’s irritating.” The pangolin “attacked” herself as boring. He let go, returned to his seat, and took a depressed bite of the peach, apparently still feeling bad in his heart.

But at this moment, a breeze blew from nowhere, and the peach blossoms suddenly fell like rain in the sky.

When the two raised their heads, only the smell came from a distance, but a beautiful figure had slowly arrived.

Xia Ran was wearing a pale blue dress, full of holiness and elegance, holding a delicate small box made of peach wood in her hands, with a faint smile on her face, and slowly walked over.

“Sister Xia Ran.” George Han stood up and said respectfully.

“What’s your sister’s name? I have a younger sister. Leave one for Lao Tzu.” The pangolin drew in a low voice, then raised his head and looked at Xia Ran who came by: “Hey, Miss Xia Ran.”

“It should be called .” Sister.” Xia Ran smiled lightly, bowed slightly with one hand, and motioned for the two to sit down.

When the two of them sat down, Xia Ran also sat down: “Two, are you satisfied with the taste of this peach?”

George Han smiled: "The juice is sweet and delicious, the world's top." The pangolin also said with a smile: "It is delicious like a seventeen-year-old girl." After the words fell, George Han and Xia Ran looked together. The pangolin seemed to feel a little embarrassed while he was watching him, and scratched his head: "This...doesn't it describe...that's not good?"

Xia Ran gave a bitter smile and looked at George Han: "In the source of peaches, every peach They are all rare fruits. Not only are they delicious, but more importantly, these peaches have excellent aura and are excellent tonics." "every million years, the Phoenix family will use this fruit, birds reward the families, however, the stone in your hand."

"Is peach treasure, the whole piece of peach orchard, is only There is one. It can not only pass the meridians and activate the collaterals, but most importantly, it can also prolong life, stabilize the body and solidify the body. , It can also gain the growth of a hundred years of skill." Xia Ran said with a chuckle.

Hearing this, the pangolin frowned, looked at the peach in his hand, and then looked at the peach in George Han's hand. Although the two peaches look similar in size, they seem to be much worse in color. .

"Girl Xia Ran, what about my peach?" the pangolin asked unwillingly.

Xia Ran smiled and said politely: "This peach of yours is naturally the source of our peach."

"What I care about is how long it can increase the skill after eating it." When the pangolin said this, his eyes still looked clearly. Xiang George Han.

"About ten years."

"Big..."

Mother, isn't it? It's fine if the beauties around you are treated so badly. Even if you eat a peach, is the difference so big?

He is a hundred years!

I think I can mix for seven to eighty years at the worst. The gap is there, but it shouldn't be much.

But who knows this fucking don't ask or don't know, when I ask, I'm surprised, where is there not much difference, it is clear that there is one world and one underground, okay?

Han three thousand heard this, a bit embarrassed, looking at the summer course, said:. "Such a valuable thing, but lost the next three thousand Korean stuttering, it is a sin."

No wonder that girl Xia Wei features previously told myself not to Fengyun peach Tell her sister that after a long time, it turns out that this peach is so precious.

“Since my sister gave it to you, that’s naturally her way of hospitality, Han Shaoxia, why are you guilty?” Xia Ran smiled lightly, and then she put the peach wooden box in her other hand on the table. Go up, and then push it in front of George Han.

George Han was taken aback, not knowing why: “Sister Xia Ran, this is...”

“Open it and take a look.” Xia Ran laughed softly.

Chapter 3009

George Han glanced at Xia Ran, and after hesitating for a while, he stretched out his hand to open the mahogany box.

Open the box, and what is inside is a necklace pendant.

About the size of an egg, there is a huge diamond-like thing inlaid, and the color of blood is yellow, which is really beautiful.

There are many strange lines in it, which seem to have no regularity on the surface, but if you look closely, you can find that these lines seem to form a strange pattern between them.

To a certain extent, George Han seems to feel that these patterns are quite intricate, but they can’t be said for a while.

“This is...” George Han looked at Xia Ran strangely.

“Can you see anything?” Xia Ran smiled.

George Han shook his head, but when he didn’t intend to see it, he seemed to take another look and felt that these patterns seemed quite meaningful.

With a frown, George Han focused on the gems in the mahogany box again. Suddenly, he seemed to understand something.

The location of these textures seems to have many similarities to the gossip art Qinglong taught himself. Or, to put it simply, these are two images of Tiangang and Earthshaker mixed together, just because they are too scattered and distributed. Very concentrated, looks completely chaotic and irregular.

As for these textures, they are actually not the kind of textures you imagined, but actually a kind of text.

It’s just that George Han will use this kind of writing, but it’s very strange.

He is a gossip term that is extremely difficult to understand, but it just so happens that the guy Qinglong taught himself.

On the boat that day, we had a long conversation day and night, and interacted with Qinglong. In this process, George Han learned a lot of gossip yin and yang, five elements and Tiankui.

Although George Han has good talents, it is obviously not easy to use these complicated techniques overnight.

However, George Han was curious as to what this seemingly unreasonable, but in fact, fine texture recorded. Therefore, even though it is difficult, George Han still tried to use the sacred position of the sky to clarify the original position of the texture, and then followed their position to translate word by word.

“At the beginning of the world, there were ancestors and phoenixes, and then there were nine sons. However, although the nine sons are excellent, they have the same character. Therefore, there are such as the green twin fire phoenix among the immortals, and there are also four wings and eight tails. Right and wrong are constantly attracting the wind, and there are even more terrible and vicious Dapengs. This kind of harm to the world is not the meaning of the ancestral phoenix.” “Zufeng was furious. From now on, the Feng clan has regulations. The younger generations of the Feng clan need to be cautious in selecting candidates to avoid rebirth. Therefore, only those who are capable can be worthy of integrating with the Phoenix and producing the next generation. “

Until the best generation, it will be the essence of the entire Phoenix family, and the beauty of the Phoenix family. At that time, the ancestral phoenix descended, and the Enze family, the Phoenix family, also ushered in a new life.” After translating these, Han Shaoqian has already I feel that my head is about to burst. Although I can see it roughly, I also know that there are many details that I have missed. Moreover, there are more than half of the things behind, and George Han really doesn't have the energy to read it.

Seeing George Han's embarrassed appearance, Xia Ran smiled lightly, just about to speak.

“This is the treasure of the Phoenix family? The heart of the Golden Phoenix?” Aside, the pangolin suddenly said.

Xia Ran smiled: “Unexpectedly, you are so knowledgeable. You know even the treasures of my clan.”

Hearing Xia Ran's praise, this pangolin really belongs to that kind of bomb fart. On the spot, the whole person was a little airy, and said proudly: “It's easy to talk about it, I don't dare to say how strong I am, but I am so knowledgeable and knowledgeable that I can barely count .” Then, he looked at Han disdainfully. Three thousand, said: “The heart of the golden phoenix is the most precious treasure of the Phoenix family. It is very precious. I heard that it contains amazing secrets, but most people can’t understand it.”

“Don’t pretend to understand.”

George Han Scratching your head, is it possible that you made a mistake in your translation?

“I’m right, girl Xia Ran.” The pangolin looked at Xia Ran confidently.

Xia Ran nodded slightly: “What you said is true. The Heart of the Golden Phoenix does record the amazing secrets of my Phoenix family. The texture is even more complicated and profound, and ordinary people can’t snoop it.”

“However, Han Shaoxia. There is nothing wrong with what I said just now.”

“What?” The pangolin’s triumphant expression turned into shock: “You mean, he can understand Jinfeng’s heart?”
