

His True Colors Novel Chapter 3178 - 3179

Chapter 3178

Faced with Gu Ye's charge again, George Han didn't have the slightest fear.

With a cold smile, although he is bound to be more ferocious this time, his emotional irritability will only magnify his weakness infinitely.

With his eyes fixed on the lonely man who rushed up, George Han naturally didn't have any speed advantage that he could be proud of without the true blessing of body skills.

But this is not important.

Even at this very ordinary time, he can rely on his own experience to make several conventional judgments on Gu Ye's next offensive trend.

When a person is angry, his reason will be lacking, and more actions will naturally follow instinct.

And a person's instinct is naturally what he is most accustomed to. Therefore, the regular attack trend is George Han who needs to predict in advance.

Thinking of this, George Han was already struggling, facing the Gu Ye's attack, he immediately made a defensive posture.

Seeing that George Han was almost indistinguishable from just now, Gu Ye sneered.

He dismissed George Han at all, the focus of his whole person was mainly on the strange flying sword beside him.

Although that thing is indeed famous, but the lonely master is not afraid.

As the body suddenly accelerated, the flying sword slammed toward him as expected.

Gu Ye turned with one hand, a burst of energy instantly gathered in his hand, and with a push in his hand, a magic energy immediately confronted the flying sword.

Boom!

There was a huge explosion.

But everything is obviously not over. ,

Sure enough, almost at the same time when the two collided, a black shadow shot out directly from the smoke of the explosion.

And that shadow, besides the lonely master, who else could it be? !

“You trash, can’t you think of it?”

He smiled coldly, and the eyes that looked at George Han were full of triumph.

With Qi transforming power, the vast real power in the body was used to deal with that flying sword. The flying sword was so fierce, he naturally didn’t dare to be careless.

But after resisting Feijian, he came to this trick to escape from the shell, and it seemed so unbelievable in his eyes.

After all, that kid must have never thought that he seemed to resist Feijian with all his strength, but he actually did it, right?

Therefore, even though most of his true abilities were used up at this time, he relied on such an unexpected attack, coupled with his prowess and strength that he believed would not lose George Han.

Even if it’s just a head-to-head, George Han has absolutely no chance of winning, and he is naturally no more than a dead dog in his eyes.

But what he didn’t expect was that George Han, who shouldn’t have thought of it at this time, not only didn’t panic at all, but was also unusually calm, and even had an urge to laugh at the corner of his mouth.

Damn, what is he laughing at?

Obviously, George Han was laughing at him stupidly.

He did make dangerous moves, but he just used it on someone who often made dangerous moves.

For a person who often makes dangerous moves, how can he not remember this possibility when judging his several offensives?

Although, George Han feels very low about this possibility.

Because this is in the eyes of George Han, although this trick is dangerous, it is by no means surprising.

It can even be said that it is stupid!

To completely abandon his own advantage in offensive innocence, and to play head-to-head with himself, doesn't it mean to fight the enemy's strengths with his own strength?

Therefore, how can George Han not laugh when he sees this situation? !

"Just play with you." George Han finished speaking, fisting with his right hand and raising his right arm lightly.

Directly aiming at the rushing lonely master, he slammed a punch.

boom!

The two punches met immediately.

Although there is no explosion that can really collide, the fight between the two is extremely eye-catching with the punch to the flesh.

Everyone on the scene looked at the two of them in unison, and even stopped breathing to wait for their victory.

The two crossed their fists, and George Han's legs supporting him had rubbed a ravine with a length of more than ten centimeters on the ground. Obviously, the situation was not optimistic.

"Smelly boy, you lost." Seeing that George Han had been beaten back by himself, the lonely master laughed coldly at this time.

Except for Xiaochunhua, everyone couldn't help showing a faint smile.

George Han smiled slightly: "Are you sure?"

Faced with such a question, Gu Ye was about to swear, but suddenly when he was about to raise his breath, his throat became hot, and blood continued to flow down his mouth.

His eyes opened sharply, staring at George Han...

Chapter 3179

how is it possible? !

How could this be? !

He couldn't believe it, but the pain from the tumbling of the five internal organs in his entire body kept telling him that it was all real.

Yes, George Han was rushed back by half a step.

But that was because of the huge inertia brought about by this guy rushing from a distance, so George Han, who was braking by static, would naturally be knocked back.

But retreating does not mean losing.

This is like a motorcycle hitting a car on the side of the road. The car will naturally be knocked back by inertia, but does this mean that the motorcycle has hit the car?

The car may have moved, but the more fragile motorcycle is apparently almost scrapped.

Right now, George Han and this lonely master are the two.

Although Gu Ye did seem to have won, but his body was like hitting an iron mountain, and the strong inertia and impact couldn't make it fully bear it.

Naturally, the five internal organs vibrated and suffered internal injuries. With a slight movement of him, blood gushing out of his body, it was naturally normal.

Xiao Chunhua, who had been the least energetic, saw the situation at this time, her eyes could not help but the spirits, and those onlookers who showed their smiles in advance were all dumbfounded at this time.

It's like hell.

"No, no, it's impossible..." The lonely master still didn't want to believe that this was the truth, even at this time his body could not even support him and still stand still.

It is impossible for him to lose, especially to the trash boy who looks extremely weak in front of him.

"Bang!"

But no matter how unwilling, the heart thought so, but the body was extremely honest.

With a loud bang, his whole body slammed heavily on the ground, and he could no longer stand up.

At this time, George Han patted the dust on his hands slightly, and the flying sword that could break the envelope of the lonely master flew back to his side in time, and George Han slowly stood up.

Following his stand, the crowd of onlookers all went back a few steps in an uproar again, and forced George Han to have nothing else within ten meters around him.

Of course, at this moment, there were waves of applause.

"Papa!"

Although the applause was lonely, it seemed unusually harsh at this time.

Following the voice, looking back, there was a dark shadow standing on an earth wall not far behind him.

However, even though the black shadow looked like a black shadow, when he looked closely, it seemed that there was nothing.

“Wonderful, wonderful indeed.”

A voice came out slowly from there.

When he heard this voice, George Han felt extremely uncomfortable, but before he could adjust, everyone around him knelt down, and Xiao Chunhua was sweaty instantly, scaring Liushen Wuzhu.

“See Guizun.”

Almost at the same time, everyone present yelled neatly and respectfully.

Guizun?

Hearing that they are so humble, and then listening to this title, George Han knew that the person must come from a big background.

But the lonely master lying on the ground, seeing George Han so solemn, he suddenly laughed wildly.

“Boy, you’re done.” He sneered wildly.

Even if George Han got it through Xiaochunhua’s relationship, none of this made any sense in front of Ghost Venerable.

Because of this city, Gui Zun is the highest leader.

He has the final say on everything here.

Including the life and death of all sentient beings.

It's just that Ghost Venerable would never personally appear in a place like the underground world, this place is so filthy, how can he be worthy of his supreme status?

This time, I don't know if it was because of the luck that he had taken, or the boy in front of him was in bad luck, even the master helped him, and the old man of Gui Zun actually appeared here in person.

Thinking of this, the lonely master suddenly became excited, endured the pain on his body, and reluctantly knelt down: "Eastern District supervises Gu Hai, I have seen Master Guizun." When the words fell, he pointed to George Han next to him, and said: " Ghost Venerable, this child is Xiaochunhua..."

"You don't have to say more, I already know everything."

Hearing this, the lonely master was even more happy. Since Ghost Venerable knows all this, then it is obvious that Ghost Venerable is here. It must be clearing the door, there is a good show to watch now...
