

Chapter 3226

Under the leadership of Yumian Shura, thousands of monsters have surrounded George Han. Seeing that George Han, who is getting more and more down, has submerged in the crowd.

As a green axe light fell from the sky, the encircling circle like an iron barrel was cut directly into a huge gap.

Afterwards, a dashing and domineering figure suddenly rushed out of the gap, and everyone who passed by fell down. Even the Jade Face Shura, who had been fighting George Han with a jade ruler in the front, was losing streak at this time.

“What kind of strange tricks is that?” Almost at the same time, the servant also saw the scene at this time, and couldn’t help but roar in surprise.

The seventh princess also opened her eyes wide, for fear that she would miss a bit on the court.

But some things are destined to become more frightened the more you look, and the more flesh you look at.

That guy George Han is...

just a pervert.

The sword skill of the jade sword in the right hand was amazed. The Seventy-two Way God Sword made his swordsmanship seem both extremely aggressive and fierce, but also seemingly drifting, full of killer moves and pleasing to the eye.

But this is not absolute, what is absolutely true is that almost during the period of using the sword, he suddenly held the giant axe in his left hand, and struck the axe suddenly with the force of smashing the Huashan Mountain.

Its momentum is so great that it is like a giant dancing arm between the big opening and closing, and it is brave and extraordinary.

But what surprised the two of them most was that George Han’s seamless connection of the operation of the two weapons was almost just attacked by Jianyu, and the next second was already a giant axe bombardment.

And these are not over yet, the two energies surrounding him are like fire and electricity, like twin dragons around a pillar, revolving around his body.

Once anyone approached George Han’s body, it was either instantly burned to ashes by a fireball like a fire dragon, or was wiped out by the electric snake-like purple electricity on the spot.

At the same time, there is a flying sword on top of George Han’s head that has been assisting the main attack. When the sword wind swept away, he fell. So even though George Han was surrounded by thousands of people at this time, there was nothing at all. That kind of despair like siege waiting for death.

On the contrary, the besieged person was frightened and trembling when he was beaten.

Who can imagine that their second attack, full of confidence, has almost just begun, and it is quite a tragic scene that is about to end? !

They are like this, how can the jade-faced Shura, who is at the core of the attack, be better than that?

He really wants to vomit blood now, and then slap himself fiercely.

Facing George Han's attack, although he barely resisted, in fact his whole body was numb.

This is not only a psychological sensation, but also a physical perception.

If this grandson's swordsmanship is to attack with ten thousand arrows, then every axe of this guy is a hammer that shakes the mountain. It is very fierce. He may not know that the mountain will not fall, but he knows that his resisting hands are numb. , My heart trembled.

The key is that these two types of attacks are fierce and sharp, one is unreliable and the other is soft and rigid. Not only is there no gap between each other, but they also cooperate very well. You can only see the difference between the axe and the sword attack. You can't see the switching gap between the two. If you don't say that there is a person in front of him, he even feels like he is beating a couple, and he is still beating a couple.

Cooperation cannot be said to be intimate, it is simply no mistake, perfect to the extreme of the extreme.

"Bang!"

Almost when Yumian Shura was depressed, George Han had already hit his chest with a kick, and he was not vegetarian either.

On the backhand, Yumian Shura slapped George Han's body with the same palm. Then, the two of them took a step back, and the corners of their mouths almost showed blood at the same time.

Yumian Shura smiled coldly: "Smelly boy, you're so shameless, you even attacked Lao Tzu?"

George Han smiled coldly, is that called a sneak attack?

What if it's called a sneak attack? So what is this?

In the next second, George Han was already holding a long sword and suddenly attacked. Jade-faced Shura subconsciously blocked his chest with a jade ruler in his hand, but at almost the same time he felt a sudden force of pressure above his head.

"Oh, is it the afterimage?" Yumian Shura roared, and hurriedly raised his head, only to see a giant axe already attacking...

Chapter 3227

"You are really despicable and shameless." Yumian Shura shouted, but at this time, he had no choice.

In panic, no matter how much scolding, it will not help. The only thing he can do is to hurriedly lift the jade ruler held in front of his chest and directly barely withstand the pressure of the giant axe.

It is impossible for him to have the opportunity to defend and counterattack accordingly, so in this case he knows that he suffers quite a bit, but in order to reduce the degree of loss, he made a decision that anyone would do, even George Han. Thousand will also do the move.

Instill all the strength on both hands and jade ruler, in order to form a perfect and extremely tough defense by this, which is conducive to the rapid positioning of oneself after successful defense.

Thinking about this, he didn't hesitate, and went straight up.

And almost at the same time, the great axe suddenly smashed down.

The two directly collided in an instant!

boom!

A loud bang almost ran through the surroundings, deafening.

And almost at the same time, between the two contact, a huge energy suddenly exploded from the intersection of the two.

boom!

The huge wave was like a nuclear explosion, and the powerful impact directly knocked down the human wall several meters closer to the two on the spot, and the space in mid-air was greatly distorted as a result.

"Seven princesses be careful." As the huge wave hits, even the seventh princesses and others who are far away are attacked.

The car shook and shook, and the surrounding maids were suddenly blown to the ground, and the entourage hurriedly raised their arms to cover for their princess. Simply, the elites in the convoy also joined hands to build an energy defensive wall at this time, and it stopped. Everything about this grumpy.

"That kid, the spell is very strong, and the close combat is so fierce?" The man saw that the seventh princess was all right, and looked back at George Han incredibly.

People say that no one is perfect. Naturally the same is true of this magical practice. People who prefer the body tend to be extremely strong in close combat, and those with good physical talents and bones usually have a good study of the methods, but George Han's method can reverse the world. It is really unexpected that the battle can be so fierce.

It's not that there are no geniuses in this world, and it's not that they haven't seen this kind of thing, but if this happened to a human race with extremely ordinary physique, it would obviously make them unacceptable.

The seventh princess also hurriedly saw it, she didn't even care about the injuries on her body, just wanted to see the situation above as soon as possible, so as not to miss any shocking moves.

"Pop"

Suddenly, at this time, I heard a very clear voice sounded.

It is very light and fragile, not to mention the kind of wind and waves hitting it just now, even the wind and grass at this time did not drive it at all.

However, the eyes of the Seventh Princess and her entourage were far wider than they had opened when they saw the air wave hitting. It can even be said that their eyes were full of fear and panic.

“This... how is this possible?”

One master and one servant, almost simultaneously opening their mouths and murmured.

They are like this, not to mention the jade-faced Shura in this crisp sound, his face is almost full of shock, and it has been a long time that he can't get out of it.

“This is impossible, this is impossible.”

He was stunned, and even a lot of godlessness was added to his eyes. He looked at his hands and his jade ruler.

It broke!

Almost after contacting George Han's Great Axe, it was completely broken into two pieces in less than two seconds after insisting on it.

He shook his head frantically. This is a personal weapon that has followed him for almost his entire life. From birth to death, no one knows it better than him. He knows that although it is a jade ruler, its hardness is far stronger than that of many strange irons.

Otherwise, just relying on a weapon with insufficient hardness, how can it be used in the world, and how can it have today's extraordinary status.

But right now, it was broken, completely broken.

Even, it has no way to add even a little friction at the next moment when the axe is cut, just like this to make the axe in front of itself.

Hanguang Axe Ying, his jade face Shura, lost.

It was completely defeated, but he didn't understand why his jade ruler was broken by an axe, he was very confused.

However, he knew that George Han would not tell him, just like he was undead before.

But after all, when he raised his eyes, he saw George Han smile: “Want to know why? I can tell you
