

Chapter 3230

Some of them have relatively poor mental quality. They have already covered their foreheads with cold sweats on the spot. Sometimes they are panting, and they can really scare people to death. At least, right now. This is the case.

“However, you are all soldiers of the Ghost Venerable. Although the Jade Face Shura is dead, the Ghost Venerable is not dead. It is not impossible for me to let you go, but for the matter of defying the superiors’ orders, wouldn’t I make you a little bit harder? Is it?” George Han smiled.

Upon hearing this, a group of men shook their heads like a rattle.

“Forget it, why let you be such an unfaithful person?” George Han mentioned the axe in his hand.

“No, no, no, grandpa, grandpa, you never forced us to be unfaithful, but...” One of the slightly smart people immediately reflected it, and he paused when he said this. , And then looked at the people around with a bit of fear, gritted his teeth and said: “It’s our boss Guizun, who is dead at all.”

“Since he is dead, he naturally can’t follow his orders. This... What counts as you forcing us to be unfaithful?” After speaking, the kid looked at George Han eagerly, obviously waiting for George Han’s answer.

George Han smiled appreciatively, pretending to be suspicious: “Oh? Yes? The ghost is dead?” After the words fell, George Han turned his head and looked at the ghost over there.

Although Gui Zun had witnessed everything that happened over there, he was too far away. From beginning to end, he didn’t know what happened. At this moment, seeing George Han with his brothers looking at him, he couldn’t help but look at him. It is full of confusion.

What is this going to do?

In mid-air, almost waiting for George Han to turn his head to look at Guizun’s moment, the clever boy immediately gave a look at the kneeling brothers beside him. After a while, a group of people immediately got up, and then Passing by George Han directly, he flew towards Ghost Zun suddenly.

Seeing his brother flying over, Gui Zun was overjoyed, but when the group of people gathered around the pit, the joy on his face suddenly became solemn and alert.

Because it is obvious that the eyes of these men at this time are beginning to change extremely wrong, and even many people still have cold killing intent in their eyes.

He suddenly understood why the Jade Face Shura had died, but this group of men was harmless, and even returned to him obediently.

They don’t want to come back to themselves, they want to kill themselves.

“Reverse, reverse, are you trying to rebel?” Gui Zun shouted angrily.

“Lord, our brothers have followed you for many years, not to mention making great contributions, but at least the basic hard work is there. Our brothers don’t want to kill you, but just to survive.”

“As our boss, in fact, you It is clearer than us that in order to survive, you must use all means, so I’m sorry.”

“If you don’t kill you, we will let him put on the back of infamy for letting us go unfaithful and unrighteous. So, Only if you die, there will be no such obstacles.”

“When you die, our brother will still miss the old feelings, and find a good place for you to bury it, so you can go on the road with peace of mind.”

A bunch of ordinary Li’s low-pitched little brother, at this moment, whispered like a demon in his ear.

When the words fell, headed by the smarter boy, a group of people slowly raised their weapons, and their eyes were full of murderous intent.

Gui Zun panicked, he was also extremely desperate, but he became even more angry.

He understood, he thoroughly understood, just what George Han had said to them, and he also fully understood why they suddenly looked at him.

“You bitch, you are really cruel and poisonous enough to kill people without even seeing blood with a knife.” Looking at George Han in midair, Gui Zun was so angry.

With just one sentence, without even having other words to attack his mind, he directly allowed his subordinates to complete the rebellion. This is even the case for people like Guizun.

“But, you idiots, do you really think you are going to win?” Gui Zun said, his eyes glared, and he stared at his surrounding men, his mouth began to flash with a sneer.

Chapter 3231

Hearing this, a group of men were taken aback. Although they didn’t know what Guizun had, the Devil Cloud Ghost City was still his territory. It doesn’t seem to be unusual for the hand.

“Hong Luan!”

shouted, Gui Zun with great momentum.

When everyone looked back, they could see that Hong Luan was leading a team of about twenty people, slowly walking over from the ruins on the side.

“The guard of the Deadpool?”

When seeing the small group of more than 20 people behind Hongluan, the group of men suddenly became a little flustered.

As the people of Devil Cloud Ghost City, how could they not know this trump card assassination team that can be called Guizun’s.

It’s just that, most of the time, these assassination teams are Shenlong seeing the head but not the end. They don’t know much. They only know that this team only listens to the orders of the ghosts, and once they attack, they will never return empty-handed.

“Do you really think that I can sit in the Devil Cloud Ghost City for many years without any preparation?” Gui Zun laughed coldly.

Wherever there is a king, there are subordinates, and when there are subordinates, there is a class, and where there is a class, there will be rebellion. How can ghosts not know this?

This top killer team is the real trump card for the steady state in his hand.

Soon, Hongluan also brought the small team to the side of the pit, and looked at Ghost Zun indifferently.

“Take me these traitors.” Gui Zun roared.

It’s just that, unlike the usual order, everyone moved together differently. Today, the ghost yelled down with this anger, but the group of people just stood there, looking at the ghost without expression. .

“Why? Are you deaf? I tell you to take down these traitors.” Gui Zun roared angrily, but his heart was faintly uneasy.

“They are not deaf anymore.” Hong Luan said calmly, with cold eyes, “It’s just that their brains are not bad.”

“Hongluan, even you betrayed me?” Gui Zun asked inexplicably.

Hongluan is a rare confidant of her own. Although she is only a woman, to the ghost respected, she is her left arm and right arm.

“Guizun’s words are a bit biased, right? Hongluan is just a tool in your hand from beginning to end. When nothing is wrong, it is a toy that is satisfied with you, and when you need it, it is a sharp knife for killing. It’s just because of the different usages at different times.”

“In this case, where is a tool that is not betrayed? As far as tools are concerned, who is more capable of obtaining them, naturally, they are more qualified to use them. Isn’t it?” Hong Luan said calmly.

Good birds choose wood and rest. Ordinary people are like this, let alone these people who are struggling to survive?

“Okay, okay, there are you, there are you, and there really are you.” The ghost is so angry that the whole person has already suffered.

He understood that not only these little brothers, but even his own elite, along with his confidant Hong Luan, directly betrayed him and stood by George Han’s side.

The little brother just saw this, and his hanging heart was released again, looking at the ghost, with a sneer: “Ghost, if you want to have a fire, it’s better to keep it below and the king to sprinkle it, and we want to send you. On the road.” At the end of the word, the guy raised the knife again and started to do it.

“Dare you!” Gui Zun roared angrily.

The man didn’t have the previous fear, he just smiled indifferently, and said: “What else do you have last words?”

“Last words? I yeah, I remember you bastard, after a while, I will be the first to take you. You bastard.”
At the end of the speech, Gui Zun glanced at everyone around the scene, and said coldly: “Do you all think that the kid surnamed Han has won?”

“Do you have a second place in Gui Zun ? A small team?” Hong Luan replied coldly and disdainfully.

“The second team?” Gui Zun smiled coldly. The next second, he suddenly laughed: “What I have is not just a small team?”

“The one behind Lao Tzu is a force that you can’t afford to provoke, Lao Tzu is a messenger.” Gui Zun shouted angrily.

A group of people suddenly stunned, and then they thought of the Seventh Princess over there...
