

Chapter 3326

George Han smiled slightly, then, Wei Wei retracted his right hand and suddenly pulled down his veil.

When the handsome face was completely uncovered, the surrounding area surrounded by heavy soldiers suddenly retreated by as much as half a meter, and the eyes of many soldiers changed from vigilance to fear.

There are not many people who know George Han's face in Xincheng District, which is understandable.

But it is impossible for most of the soldiers in the City Lord's Mansion to be unfamiliar with this fierce man from the sky who is making a big splash in the competition arena today and even causing the whole city to chase wildly.

Therefore, when you see that the person standing in front of them and being besieged by them is actually a fierce man from heaven, how can you not be afraid?

But in stark contrast to this group of soldiers, the middle-aged man and the seductive woman did not take a step back, and even looked at George Han and took a few steps forward.

At this time, there was not the slightest fear on their faces, on the contrary, it turned out to be a kind of joy.

"It's really you, George Han?"

"Damn it, aren't we dreaming?" The middle-aged man and the seductive woman were stupid. They wanted to reach out and touch George Han, but for a while they didn't dare. at him, muttering to himself.

George Han is also not shy at all, grabbing the hands of the two directly, placing their hands directly on his left and right faces, and smiling softly: "Do you think it's true or false?"

Feeling George Han's hands The temperature on Shanghe's face, how could the two of them not know that this is not a dream, but a real fact that happened in front of them?

"Damn it, that day, the two old thieves Lu Wushen and Ao Shane, even together with a bunch of dogs from Medicine God Pavilion, didn't kill you?" The middle-aged man was excited but indifferent.

Than unbelievable said.

George Han smiled and nodded.

"Hahahaha, Qingji, what the hell am I saying to you? Did you see it? Come on, facts speak louder than words." The middle-aged man shouted excitedly, pulling the seductive woman next to him.

The seductive woman also had a slight smile on her face. With her charming face, her smile was extremely warm: "Okay, you are right.

"I thought it was a goodbye, but then I vaguely heard the news that you are still alive, to be honest, it was all hearsay, we didn't take it seriously at all, but I didn't expect..." The seductive woman shook her head and smiled bitterly: "It seems that something is wrong. It's really no wind and no waves."

"I would like to thank the three of you for helping me in the sleepy fairy valley that day, otherwise, the hearsay is really just hearsay." George Han smiled.

"Hehe, how can we help, under the banner of saving you, we have to rely on you to save us in the end, let's not mention it." The middle-aged man laughed softly.

"In any case, since the three of them dared to risk their lives to save George Han that day, George Han remembered the three of them from then on. If they meet in another day,

I will be grateful." It's a happy event, but the fact is that you and I have different camps, so what George Han can do is to repay the love of the day with his life." After the words were finished, George Han glanced at the two of them: "Do it. Well, George Han will never do anything to resist."

That's right, this middle-aged man is none other than Mo Beitian, the palace lord of the Heavenly Demon Palace, and the seductive woman is Qingji, the palace lord of the Hundred Demons Palace. .

had already recognized the two when he saw them after they came out, so this is the reason.

"No wonder you just surrendered and didn't fight when you saw us. We thought there was something tricky about it, but we didn't expect it to be like this." Mo Beitian shook his head with a wry smile.

Qing Ji didn't speak either, just shook her head helplessly and smiled bitterly.

"Okay, since you've said this, George Han, I won't say more, where are the generals of the Tianmo Palace?"

"Yes!" In the crowd, many Tianmo Palace disciples directly raised their arms.

"Your Highness Disciple of the Hundred Demons!" Qing Ji also shouted coldly.

"Yes!"

Another group of elites shouted.

"Listen to my orders, be executed!" Mo Beitian raised his hand and called out.

"Kill!" Qing Ji Jin followed, showing her arms in one fell swoop.

Behind them, nearly a thousand disciples held long swords, ****.

But suddenly...

Chapter 3327

Mo Beitian turned over and slashed towards a group of soldiers beside him, and Qing Ji also bombarded towards the other side almost at the same time .

“Kill me!”

Kill!

At almost the same time, the disciples of the Heavenly Demon Sect and the Hundred Demons Hall suddenly raised their knives and slashed at the other soldiers around them as their leader frantically charged.

How could those people expect that their own people would suddenly raise their knives to look at themselves, and they could not dodge in time, but the casualties were huge, and the entire crowd instantly became a mess.

“In your heart, you can remember our feelings, have you forgotten what I said to you before I left?” Mo Beitian cut down the three elites in front of him with a knife, turned around and looked at George Han with a smile.

“I, Mo Beitian, said that if your mother can survive, I won’t say anything if you say something, and I will never say nothing about where you want me to go.”

“That’s right, since you can Since we have those, then we will naturally remember what we said more clearly, all the disciples, kill me ruthlessly.” Qing Ji also started to kill, and turned around and said while fighting.

George Han smiled helplessly and bitterly: “It seems that I can only sacrifice my life to accompany the hero.” When the words fell, George Han moved his hand, along with the jade sword, and the Heavenly Fire Moon Wheel also accompanied him directly, blasting away directly.

Ruyu Gongzi and Zhu San looked at each other, the master and servant were stunned. Sometimes the situation in the field changes too quickly and it is difficult to reflect it. This is normal, but the situation in front of you is not only changing too fast, but also too outrageous. ?

What is the situation?

It was clear that the two sides were still fighting, but in the blink of an eye, the two leaders suddenly turned their guns and helped George Han fight in the opposite direction.

you say this

It’s a spy planted by George Han, but it’s credible.

But just now the two of them heard clearly that this is one of the three palaces and four palaces of the Demon Race, the Temple of Heaven and Demons and the Palace of Hundred Demons, a proper old and powerful martial art.

Just like them, let alone being used as spies, even if you want them to help, it must be a person with a face, and there are huge benefits to be drawn.

But it happens...

George Han is just a few words...

This is really outrageous, isn't it?

"What's the matter?" Young Master Ruyi knew there was no answer, but he still looked at Zhu San subconsciously.

Pig San helplessly spread his hands: "I don't know, son, even if the Temple of Heaven and the Demons are afraid of the divine power of the gods, they should be the same as the four super masters. At most, they choose to retreat without fighting. As for turning around to help him under this kind of siege, it's going to take a lot of money."

And at this time in the field.

With the reverse attack of the two major demons and the addition of George Han, all of a sudden there were shouts of killing and explosions in the entire backyard.

At this time, in the inner room of the west wing, the four super-masters also supported each other and slowly planned to get up and leave.

"It seems that there is already a fight outside." The white-faced jade demon sneered softly.

"It looks quite intense." Old Immortal Fengji also snorted coldly.

The Black Mountain Demon Girl's face was cold, enduring the severe pain in her knees, she gritted her teeth and said in a cold voice: "The four of us, all of whom are famous, were humiliated by a human kid today, if this matter spreads out. , the prestige that I have accumulated over the years not only no longer exists, but also has no face to see the world, so we must find our place."

Venerable Bigfoot also stood up from the ground: "That's right, after the gang of heavy soldiers above wears out that kid, we will join forces to kill that bastard. Not only to regain face, but more importantly, Defeating such a rising star who has recently gained fame will only help the reputation of you and me."

As soon as the words fell, the four of them nodded and sneered almost at the same time.

George Han's strategy is indeed good, but the four of them are more likely to give birth to the meaning of not fighting because they know that the outside world is still heavily guarded.

But the situation is different now. The four of them walked out of the secret room with a smile and entered the west wing. They pushed open the door with satisfaction and joy. Then, the smiles on the four people's faces instantly solidified...
