

Chapter 3328

Where can I imagine the situation of China and South Korea being surrounded by the enemy, not to mention the sweating and exhaustion of the three thousand Han being surrounded. There was a large-scale scuffle at the scene, but unfortunately, it was George Han who was leading a group of people to madly press on in three ways.

The backyard, which was originally watertight, was guarded, but at this moment, three major gaps were highlighted in the intellectual world.

One is George Han, the second is Mo Beitian, and the third is Qing Ji.

"This... what's going on here?" The Black Mountain Demon Girl looked at the scene in front of her and couldn't help but be stunned.

Old Immortal Fengji wiped his eyes, and could hardly believe that what he saw in front of him was true: "What do you mean by Mo Beitian and Qing Ji? Aren't they two of us? Why are you helping me at this time? Are they crazy?"

"It's the other way around, it's completely the other way around. The Demon Palace and the Hundred Demon Palace are the famous Three Palaces and Four Palaces of our Demon Race. At this time, they turned their guns around. It's really, really outrageous." How could the four masters still have the leisurely and carefree mood just now, they couldn't help but become a mess, I don't know why this is the case in the field.

"What are we going to do now?" The white-faced jade demon said anxiously: "Whether to participate in it, or do it for him."

"Go back first, as if nothing happened, otherwise, we will just take it for ourselves. It's humiliating, and it's still in front of so many people." The white-faced jade demon said and retreated into the house on his own.

Almost at the same time, the other three also looked at each other, followed closely behind, and even Venerable Bigfoot quietly closed the door of the wing by the way.

Outside the house, as the three of them rushed all the way, the backyard defense line quickly collapsed.

"There are still a large number of defenses outside the city, Qingji, you take George Han to break through the defense from the west, and I will help you block the troops from the east." After Mo Beitian cut down a few people with one hand, he turned around and said.

Qing Ji nodded and glanced at George Han. After getting his confirmation, she raised her hand: "Hundred Demon Hall, follow me."

"Kill."

As the disciples roared in unison, a large wave of People rushed out of the backyard and opened the way first.

George Han was also called Shang Zhu San and Ruyu Young Master, and followed closely behind.

And almost at this moment, in the main hall of the city lord, hundreds of meters away, the whole room was brightly lit. Zhu Yanshuo was sitting elegantly in the center, a guqin was gently caressing in front of him, and the elegant music sounded, so that the whole house Very calm.

“Crack!” Seven

suddenly, the door was slammed open, and at the same time as a loud muffled sound, a soldier rushed in in a hurry.

Even in the face of such a sudden change, Zhu Yanshuo was not affected in the slightest, the accordion was still gently stroked, and the piano sound was continuous and graceful.

“Why are you so panicked?” Zhu Yanshuo asked indifferently.

“Report... report to the city lord, over there in the backyard, over there...” The soldier was out of breath, and it was obvious that he almost exhausted his strength when he arrived.

“Is it done in the backyard?” Zhu Yanshuo laughed while playing: “It took so long today, I’m afraid they are playing in the backyard?”

“Haha, although they are all for my use, but after all, people from the rivers and lakes are free I’m used to being sloppy, and I need to learn to understand and respect them.”

“One dog, one hook, there’s no need to make such a fuss.”

“No... No, City Lord.” The soldier swallowed his saliva, and then took a deep breath: “The Tianmo Palace and the Hundred Demon Palace in the backyard suddenly turned against the water, so that our army’s defense could not be reflected directly, and was caught by surprise. The soldiers were defeated one after another in a hasty challenge. At this time, the gang who broke into the backyard not only killed them from the backyard, but also... They were divided into two groups. Break through.”

“We... we can’t stand it anymore!”

Slap!

The strings suddenly broke, and the entire elegant sound of the piano came to an abrupt end. The calmness and indifference on Zhu Yanshuo’s face suddenly disappeared, leaving only a tight and frowning brow: “What did you say?”

“The people in the demon hall have turned against the water?”

“Where are the four masters?”

“I haven’t seen them from the beginning to the end, I think... they have already been defeated in the secret room.” The soldier lowered his head and said depressedly: “You... You’d better go out and have a look.”

Leaving the violin in his hand, Zhu Yanshuo hurriedly got up, then rushed out of the main hall and came to the outside of the hall. When he saw the scene outside, he couldn’t help being stunned...

Chapter 3329

The war is raging outside. If the lights of the previous defense made the city lord's mansion like daylight, then the endless explosions at this time will completely Daylight becomes the most dazzling phase of the sun.

Standing in front of the temple gate, Zhu Yanshuo could even see every texture of the floor tiles on the ground.

The sound of killing sounded everywhere, and the screams continued. At the same time, one team had obviously made a bloody path and went straight to the west. As for the key defense in the east, another team used the terrain to get stuck. It is difficult to support the sky. .

Zhu Yanshuo staggered and was almost unsteady. If it weren't for the soldiers' support, he would have fallen to the ground immediately.

"How is it possible? How is this possible?" Zhu Yanshuo couldn't believe it.

The defense of the entire city lord's mansion can be said to be like an iron barrel. Not only is there the deployment of various elite soldiers, but also the help of the four major masters and the two major demon gates. It can almost be said that it is difficult to fly.

But it is this iron barrel defense that he is most proud of, but at this moment, it is almost in chaos.

Stabilizing his mind, Zhu Yanshuo looked at the soldier next to him, and said slowly, "Have you found out who did it?"

Hearing Zhu Yanshuo's question, the soldier did not speak, but lowered his head.

"Let's just say it." Zhu Yanshuo shouted coldly.

The soldier gritted his teeth: "It seems... it seems like the person at the martial arts competition today, who destroyed the ghost city of Demon Cloud."

"What?" Zhu Yanshuo was shocked, and then roared: "No Possibly, impossible."

George Han was already drunk with his own eyes, and he and his sister were looking for a room in a restaurant, and the two even did that in the room, and... how could it suddenly appear in the city lord's mansion? !

"My subordinate's sentence is true, and I will never dare to deceive the city lord." The soldier hurriedly said: "Actually, our defeat, apart from the two major demons, is also because many people have seen with their own eyes that it is the gods who are here. Lax, unwilling to fight."

"Bang!"

Zhu Yanshuo sat on the ground with a buttocks, after a brief surprise, he had to accept this fact, because it is obvious that even the four masters can't stop the person, then it is true In a sense, only people who can really be gods are right.

But what Zhu Yanshuo didn't understand was how he managed to steal the dragon and turn the phoenix and deceive himself into layers of eyeliner.

Mu Ran raised his eyes to look at the west front, where it was close to collapse, Zhu Yanshuo knew that all defenses had failed, and after calling out the soldiers to help him up, he turned around and chose to go back to the hall.

He knew it was over.

After staggering back to his seat, the soldier let go of his hand in peace: "City Lord, is that the case?"

"Forget it?" Zhu Yanshuo gave a wry smile: "I also want to forget it, but It's a pity, will he forget it?"

"Then what do you mean..."

Zhu Yanshuo nodded, his teeth clenched: "Since he doesn't eat the toast, he can only invite him to drink the fine wine. Go, follow the It's normal procedure."

"My subordinates understand." After the soldier finished speaking, he saluted slightly, turned around and walked out.

At the other end, under the cover of Qing Ji, George Han and his party finally broke through the western defense and rushed out of the city master's mansion.

Afterwards, under the leadership of Qing Ji, a group of people quickly disappeared on the avenue in the city and hid in a ruined temple.

"The defense here is very weak, and the terrain is easy to defend but difficult to attack. Although the environment is a bit poor, the chasing soldiers should not think that we will be here." After Qing Jibu made the defense outside, he walked in and rushed to George Han. road.

George Han nodded: "What about Mo Beitian?"

"Don't worry, that guy is better than a monkey, and it will be fine. I think he should be attracting the chasing soldiers to go in another direction, and wait until it is safe. He will naturally join us." Qing Ji said.

George Han nodded, took out some medicines refined on Xianling Island from the space ring and handed them to Qingji: "Just now, many people were injured when we broke out of the siege, and these medicines should be given first. They will take it."

After instructing, George Han got up a few steps and took Xia Wei from Young Master Ruyu's hand, and after placing her on the temporary hay, George Han directly removed the black bag to the extent that he could.

When the black bag was opened, George Han directly retreated from the black bag, but when he saw the person in the bag, George Han was shocked..
