

Chapter 3410

Although George Han has long guessed that it is Qiongqi, but his body is as small as gravel, George Han has always only guessed him It's just a long image, and now it has been confirmed by him, how can it not be shocked?

The most bizarre thing is that the name of this beast seems to be very similar to Evil Taotie, whether there are similarities between the two, but one thing is almost certain, they must be guys of the same period.

"What, are you afraid? Are you afraid that you still don't obediently withdraw your broken power? Don't think that you can trap me now and you will win. I'm only temporarily like this for a while. Once Lao Tzu recovers by 10% or 20%, let alone you kid, even ten of you are not my opponent at all."

"If you let me go, I can forgive you temporarily for the sake of the innocence of you who don't know. I am even willing to accept you as my little brother, and I will eat and drink spicy food with me in the future. But if you are still obsessed with it, you will be finished in the future."

Hearing these threats, George Han nodded and said: "Sounds like an easy multiple-choice question, but I have a question that I don't think I can do if you don't explain it clearly."

"Fuck you!" heard George Han in turn threatened himself, and he was very poor, but after thinking about it, it didn't seem to be unacceptable. He turned around and said, "What do you want to know."

"The explosion in the bamboo house just now and the current purple What's going on with the body of love, are you kidding me?" George Han asked.

Although it was a communication of consciousness, I couldn't see his expression, but George Han could clearly feel it. This guy was quite proud at this time: "Yes, it is Lao Tzu."

George Han did not speak and waited quietly. This guy's post.

He didn't know why this guy jumped out to make a fool of himself, and now only his own answer can make things clear.

"Hmph, it's all my fault for this stinky bitch of my host."

"Grandma's, she used to be extremely deprived of nutrients and almost starved to death for Lao Tzu. Now, she has finally changed her mind and her body has accumulated a lot. As a result, not only did she not know how to cherish the energy, but she also sent most of the energy out to save people."

"What the hell is this? It's because I'm dying of thirst, and I'm still worrying about whether others have enough to drink. The water. So, I have to punish her."

"As for the woman who was rescued, hehe, without my permission, who the hell is entitled to enjoy these things, can she bear it? Damn!"

“So, Of course I have to move my hands and feet, hum, I want to treat her with these things, fuck J8 eggs, go to hell.”

After he finished speaking, he then looked at George Han and said, “Are you right? Should all broken things be punished? I also told you the questions you want to ask, I believe you are not confused, hurry up and get out of the way.”

George Han shook his head: “There is one more question.”

“Fuck you!” Qiong Qi was obviously very angry, but after his anger, he still suppressed the anger in his heart, and shouted through gritted teeth: “You have no end, okay, fuck, the last question, ask me quickly. “

George Han smiled slightly: “Why did I use the power of chaos to find you just now, I couldn’t sense your existence at all, but when I changed the energy, I could feel your existence to some extent?”

This The problem is that George Han is unusually confused. Logically speaking, although George Han’s strength is actually not bad, it is obviously not qualified compared to the power of chaos.

But it happens that the power of chaos can’t do it, but his own power is strange. George Han certainly doesn’t think it’s because of the particularity of his power, but suspects that there should be something different. .

Obviously, George Han’s doubts are not unreasonable. When he heard that George Han asked this question, even that Qiongqi couldn’t help but smile and said, “I knew you would definitely ask me this question. “

However, let’s talk about it first, this is the last question.” Qiong Qi said.

George Han nodded and waited for his next sentence...

Chapter 3411

“It’s very simple, because I deliberately hide from you.” Qiong Qi said softly.

Hide yourself on purpose?

George Han obviously sounds very strange. In fact, he has been hiding all the time, but why would he say this?

“You kid does have some skills, but he can still have the power of chaos, which really surprised me. Of course, you are also relying on it to seal me.”

Yes, but since it has been sealed Now, how did this guy come out? Moreover, the anti-Buddha is still much stronger now.

“Although I don’t know why you are qualified to possess the power of chaos, it is a fact anyway. It’s just that although you are a fact... you also ignored a fact.”

“What fact?” George Han Completely puzzled.

“I’m called Tian

Zhiqiongqi, Laozi is an ancient beast, you have the power of chaos, and I also have it.” Hearing this, George Han was a little surprised, this day Qiongqi actually also has the power of chaos. ?

However, if you think about it carefully, George Han will soon be able to understand the reason. After all, just like what he said, he is a poor man in the sky, and he is the same ancient beast as the taotie of evil, and the taotie of evil can possess Yes, of course, he can also have it even in a desperate period of time.

After thinking about this, George Han also understood why his seal not only failed to seal this guy, but this guy is now not only free, but also full of vitality. He doesn’t need Xiao Heiren’s package, and he can even transform into a peaceful person. Holy power is almost the same.

Because it is also the power of chaos, the seal not only no longer appears

The role of the seal has even become an additive to strengthen this guy’s cultivation in disguise.

After this guy ate his chaotic power, he quickly grew to what he is today.

This is a bad thing, but it is also a good thing to a certain extent, because it has been devouring the energy of Ziqing before, so even if Ziqing eats more medicine pills and cultivates more and more cultivation, in the end it will only be just Its belly wraps. Although George Han’s seal did not have the effect of a seal, at least such a pure power is enough to make it temporarily stop receiving the energy of Ziqing, which makes Ziqing at least have accumulated a lot of energy, and now has the energy. Cultivation.

“I also have the power of chaos, so I’m naturally very familiar with it. You want to use it to check me, isn’t this a dream?” Tian Zhiqiongqi said with great disdain.

Because of the familiarity with the power of chaos, naturally when George Han uses the power of chaos to sense it, he can release the same power to confuse George Han, hide himself, and the power of chaos is the ancestor of all qi , George Han could use his energy to transform into holy power to assist the night devil, so naturally today, Qiongqi can also use the power of chaos to completely integrate his body into the holy power.

“Interesting.” George Han shook his head bitterly, and after a long time, it turned out that this was the case, no wonder he had been unable to probe and said.

“As for your power to detect me, it’s not because you are powerful, I just didn’t expect you bastard to have two powers, I use all my strength to disguise with your power of chaos... After all, I know your The dog’s eyes seemed to be able to see me, so I had to disguise myself.

“But what the fuck happened was that after you left, a new force came, and I fucking thought it was some unlucky bastard, so I watched for a while. In the future, I plan to... plan to eat it. Speaking of this, Qiongqi was quite depressed, he never thought that he would become the unlucky one in the end.

Then, it asked Xiang George Han: “Now, you know everything you need to know, is it time to give way to Lao Tzu?” ? “

George Han nodded, and he basically understood: “I understand, I really should have let you go, but I changed my mind.”

“What the fuck do you mean?”

“You didn’t say that just now. Have you ever been? That injured woman is not worthy of treatment.” “

It’s none of your business?”

“She’s my wife!”
