

Chapter 3414

. Completely gone again.

“It hurts, it hurts!”

George Han retracted his strength slightly and let his strength retreat a little bit: “You fought with me, are you just using this big trick?”

Tian Zhiqiongqi was completely speechless. , he knew that George Han was mocking it frantically again.

However, it didn't have the courage to resist. With its head in front of the knife, it had to admit it: “What do you want?”

“What do you want?” George Han said.

“Don't you hurt your friend and your wife. It's a big deal. As long as you are willing to let me go, I won't mess with your friend. As for your wife, isn't she injured? I can help you heal it.”

Hearing its release, George Han was very surprised, especially about its final conditions, which made George Han excited.

But how could George Han, who is well versed in the art of gaming, show it? He frowned slightly and said, “With your small body, you can't protect yourself, and you can save people?”

“Besides, I've only heard of people who hurt people, but I've never heard of Qiangqi being able to save people. You want to be funny. I'm playing, don't think I'm too stupid.”

Hearing this, Tian Zhiqiong snorted coldly: “At first, I really changed my mind about you, but I didn't expect that I really didn't watch it from beginning to end. It's your fault, ants are ants, bed bugs are bed bugs, and today fell into your hands, and it really tarnished my reputation for life.”

George Han did not refute, but quietly waited for its next article.

“It's good that Lao Tzu is an ancient beast, and he likes to eat people, but,

Tzu does not do bad things. If Lao Tzu is in a good mood, he will also do good things. “

“Have you heard of Qiong Qi Teng Root Shared Food Gu?” Coincidentally, I happen to be very good at the world's epidemic poison, that bitch, no, your wife is not poisoned, I can really reluctantly save her. “

Speaking of this, Tian Zhiqiang is obviously very confident and proud again.

“How? no deal? The guy asked: “However, I agreed in advance that if I can't save you, don't make it difficult for me, but if you can, you have to promise me a condition. “

” under what conditions ? “George Han frowned.

“This is kept secret for the time being, and I'll tell you when it's done.” However, looking at you like this, I can guarantee in advance that my request will never harm anyone, and even help your friend, and you can do your best. “

It is obviously false to say that George Han is not interested. No matter how you look at it, this transaction is not a loss to him, and the most important thing is that this matter is about Amelia Su's safety. Even if he suffers a loss, what about George Han? Can I refuse?

Don't mention these conditions, even if George Han is killed, George Han can only bite the bullet and agree.

"Okay!" George Han nodded.

"Okay, you tossed me too hard just now, leave some Chaos power, and leave the rest to me." "

George Han didn't say any more. After leaving some chaos power, he removed all the energy, and almost at the same time as he removed the energy, the white energy on Zi Qing's body instantly became more violent.

However, there was no previous pain on Ziqing's face. She just closed her eyes and seemed to fall into some kind of coma. Wow

Surrounded by white light, Ziqing's body slowly rose from the ground, and then stood up slightly, She floated a few centimeters above the ground.

Then, her body was windless and automatic, and quickly flew towards the bamboo house.

George Han was a little surprised for a while, because it was obvious that Tian Zhiqiong completely controlled everything about Ziqing at this time, so that Ziqing was completely unconscious and still moved freely.

It's really interesting.

That guy is only the size of gravel, but his ability is quite arrogant, and he is indeed a goddamn ancient beast. Even a thin dead camel is smaller than a horse, but the remaining power is still terrifying.

However, after being stunned for a short time, George Han still packed up his mood in time and hurried to the bamboo house. He was really curious about what magical powers this guy had...

Chapter 3415

When two people and one beast, or one person and two people rushed to the bamboo house, Amelia Su was still lying on the bed quietly, obviously not There was no sign of sobering up from the poison.

Zi Qing moved slightly to the side of the bed, and then lifted her hand slightly, and a white air lifted Amelia Su's hand slightly.

Anti-Buddha felt like a pulse in the air. After about a minute, she gently put down Amelia Su's hand. Although Ziqing still closed her eyes, she seemed to be lost in thought when she saw her stagnant movements.

"How is it?" George Han opened his mouth and asked carefully.

Ziqing raised her head slightly, her eyes still closed, but her mouth opened gently: "The situation is a bit complicated."

"The poison in her can't say how strong the poison is, but the root of the poison is extremely deep."

"Everything in the world exists . Existing must be detrimental, good must be bad, and the same is true of poisons. Some poisons are extremely vicious, and once absorbed, they will attack quickly, but such poisons are often easy to be removed, but some poisons choose to reduce their own toxicity. , the aggression is reduced, so that it can coexist better with the host or absorber, so as to achieve the purpose of being unable to be removed."

"Although it can't cause death for a while, but boiling a frog in warm water will make people feel unbearable. Among your wives, It is the poison of the latter."

"Also, it is the poison that brings the latter to the extreme."

"To solve it basically means to completely destroy your wife's body."

George Han nodded: "She The one in it is rootless."

"It's no wonder that this is the case, there is no cure for this poison at all."

"Why does everyone say it has no cure, but some people leave a note saying it can be cured? "

Can someone solve it?" She was obviously a little surprised, and then shook her head: "It's impossible for anyone to solve it, because it has been made for no cure since it was made, so how could it be solved by people? What is the solution? I believe that even a pharmaceutical person has no ability to remove this poison."

Hearing this, George Han was worried about Amelia Su, but his heart sank. Is it actually a trap at all?

It's already a dead end, but you still want to deceive the City of Burning Bone together with yourself? !

"However, there are no absolutes in the world, unless..."

Hearing this, George Han frowned: "Unless what?"

She sighed: "It shouldn't be possible for this unless."

George Han was raped by her Cloud and fog: "If you have something to say, just say it."

She was silent, and after a while, she shook her head: "Even if there is such a thing, it is not something I can tell you, even if you kill me now."

When the words fell, she seemed to be really not afraid of death at all, standing still, waiting for George Han to make a move.

George Han stared at her, very puzzled in his heart. He didn't understand what it meant, let alone why it couldn't be told to himself, and even an ancient beast like Tian Zhiqiongqi would not Dare to say.

What is it afraid of?

What can make it not even afraid of death but to be afraid of this? !

George Han was full of questions, and even more confused.

"I won't kill you." George Han shook his head, then turned slightly sideways to walk away from the aisle:

"We made an agreement earlier that even if you can't save you,

I won't embarrass you, you go."

"Hey." She sighed and shook her head helplessly: "Don't be so impatient, I won't tell you because I can't say it. But I believe that since someone left a note for you to explain, then wait. When you meet the person who left the note, you will naturally understand everything."

"As for your wife, although I said that I can't cure the poison, it doesn't mean that I can't help her.

" George Han, who was extremely lost, suddenly regained his energy and looked up at her incredulously. What does this mean?

"Hey!" With a bitter sigh, she took a few steps back to the bedside, and then moved slightly, the white air on her body suddenly became more ferocious: "There is a way, I don't know if you want to try it or not, but it will change us. agreement."

"What way?"
