

Chapter 3458

“Bang, bang, bang!”

Almost at the moment when George Han was stunned, ten people were phantoms. At the same time, the water surface suddenly Hundreds of huge arms as thick as water snakes stretched out, directly binding Han’s 3,800 golden body and all 32 limbs to death.

Immediately afterward, there was a huge explosion in the water, and a huge water dragon with a diameter of several meters suddenly emerged from the bottom of the water, opening the huge dragon’s mouth and rushing out on the spot.

“Roar!”

His strength was huge, and his body was so big that he charged towards the center of George Han’s golden body.

The distance between the two was only a few meters, and George Han could feel the destructive power this guy was carrying.

At the moment, he didn’t dare to be too big, and he put his hands together, aiming at the guy and pushing back directly.

boom!

The two meet!

Bang

There was a loud explosion, and the water in the pool was more than five meters deep, and it exploded, setting off a huge wave!

hum!!

The eight golden bodies retreated nearly half a meter at the same time, even if they were as strong as George Han under the impact of this huge water dragon, they couldn’t stand it at all.

George Han frowned.

Although it is a water dragon attack, it looks like water, but the water dragon hides incomparably huge energy.

When he looked up, George Han could also see that the sky was covered with dark clouds, and a lot of strange black energy above the jungle also came straight up from the jungle, and then gathered to the water pool.

The figures of the ten people are beginning to appear, and the black energy is continuously entering their bodies and is being continuously transported into the water dragon’s body through their hands.

At this time, the ground around the water pool was also flying sand and rocks, and layers of black air came frantically from the ground, blowing George Han in a mess in the wind.

“These guys!” George Han gritted his teeth.

There is a lot of grievances in this jungle. These guys rely on these things to basically achieve a steady stream. If they are not strong people, let alone want to fight all the time, even if they want to fight twice, it is just a dream.

“Unfortunately, it’s me that you met.” A coldness flashed in George Han’s eyes, and the next second, the energy in his body also released wildly, and he shot it out directly through his hands.

boom! ! !

The energy in George Han’s body exploded directly, and when the black energy and golden light scattered, a huge force suddenly pushed the water dragon in front of him half a meter back! ! !

Seeing such a situation, the ten people looked at each other, then smiled at each other , and then exerted force at the same time. Suddenly, the water dragon stopped retreating and pressed down on George Han frantically.

“Fuck.”

George Han is very annoyed. These guys rely on these grievances, and they are simply bullying people. And those grievances, George Han has seen with his own eyes, so much that it can accumulate into clouds above.

“Bastard, you can use it, but I can’t?”

As soon as the voice fell, George Han shouted angrily: “Earth Fire!”

Boom! !

The fire on the ground rose in an instant, burning directly from the bottom of the pool. Although the water surface was too deep to cause any substantial damage to the ten people on the water, the fire on the ground was never a means of attack for George Han. .

It’s more of an aid to help yourself get energy.

grandma, you

Isn’t the help dog guy with a high level of cultivation and enough energy?

That’s the best thing to do, just get enough of it at a time.

With the support of the ground fire on the energy source, and George Han used the Dragon Heart to absorb a lot of energy in order to force the Eight Desolate Heaven Books to appear before, the combined force of the two will not allow George Han to turn defeat into victory, but At least the trend that was pushed back began to shrink infinitely.

From a certain point of view, the two sides are completely evenly matched, at least for now.

Seeing this, George Hanqiang finally let out a sigh of relief.

The ten people on the opposite side also lowered their heads slightly and glanced under the water. Although the ground fire hardly hurt, how could they not be aware of it in terms of the ten people's status?

Looking at each other, the ten of them were slightly startled, but they smiled mysteriously at each other...

Chapter 3459

"Who is this guy?"

"You are young, but there are still quite a few strange tricks."

"Say he is I seem to be able to believe the new generation of true gods. After all, this guy doesn't seem to be a true god, but he has the blood of a god in his body. It seems that no matter what, he can get along with the true god."

"But you say that he is a true god. God, he has demonic energy in his body, and it is not that simple demonic energy. The purity he possesses is more than enough to call him a little demon king."

"God and demon together? Something interesting!"

Ten people After speaking, he smiled again, and Liang Han shook his head even more: "Isn't it more interesting that this fellow can absorb our grievances?"

Hearing Liang Han's words, the group burst into laughter again.

"There is still Thunder Dragon hiding in the sky, haha, this kid, it's so interesting

."

"I also found that I started to like this kid. If I am alive and well, I really want to accept this kid as an apprentice. What!"

"Haha, what qualifications do you have to be his master? Do you think we don't want to? The question is whether we are qualified or not."

Everyone laughed again. At this time, Liang Han closed his voice slightly and shook his head: "It seems that everyone is in a good mood. This should be the first time we are so happy in so many years, right?"

"Yeah, I have been suppressed here for many years, don't say happy in normal times, even if If you're not angry, you're begging your father to tell your grandma, this shitty place is really suffocating."

"I thought I didn't know how long it would last, and I thought it was a promise back then, but it was just a hope that seemed impossible to achieve in despair

, but who knows, this hope really came true. There is hope."

After someone interrupted, everyone nodded again and again, obviously affirming his words.

Liang Han smiled and nodded: "So, everyone has no opinion? Have you agreed?"

“Could it be that there is a better choice? How many years have we been here? People come, this is a living person, and I have already identified him.”

“I have been drowning for many years, and suddenly I see a floating object floating on the water. I don’t care if it is a plank or a straw, just grab it and get on it.”

” I agree with that too, and looking at this young man now, it always makes me feel like he looks like grass, but he’s actually a plank, a plank huge, big enough to take all of us ashore .”

Liang Han nodded, and then set his eyes on the group of crabs just now: “Then what about you?” The crabs smiled bitterly: “I don’t even have crab claws now, what qualifications do I have to say? Do you disagree? Compared to you now, I am the one who was submerged deeper in the water, so I am more anxious than all of you when it comes to climbing ashore. I have no opinion.

” The gluttonous food, the blood of the gods, the body of the devil, and all kinds of strange tricks, I want to say no, but is reality allowed?”

“I don’t have any opinion.

” They changed their attitudes one by one. Although this was within Liang Han’s expectations, he was still extremely happy to hear their personal promises.

Liang Han nodded: “In that case, we have played what we should play, and we have also tested what we should be tested, and it’s time to do something serious.”

The other nine people nodded when they heard the words.

“Whether it’s a win or a loss, it’s a matter of time and fate.”

“We’ve already had enough here anyway. Even if we lose, then it’s also a loss. There’s nothing to be missed.

” After falling, the ten people all smiled, and then slapped each other, obviously taking out all the energy in their bodies in one breath.

Suddenly, the color of the world changed, and the mad wind roared!

In the face of this terrifying afterburner, even someone as strong as George Han was completely panicked at this time. He hurriedly tried to use all his strength to block it, but when he first came into contact, George Han was completely stunned.

He looked at ten people unimaginably, why...why is this?!

“Seniors, you are...”
