

Chapter 3492

From Shuizhuren’s shocked pupils, it was clearly visible at this time, George Han Thousands of moves!

Yes, not only the Shuizhu people couldn’t believe it, but even the Shuijin people who were watching the battle not far away had their pupils wide open. Obviously, this scene was unbelievable and difficult to understand.

“This guy... how is this possible?” The Mercury Man cried out in disbelief.

He slammed into the wall like that, even the body of a true god would not be able to survive the hard impact of the cold stone. The fact is also true, in the face of his divine beast being madly targeted by the two of them, he can only sit on the wall helplessly, all these are enough to show that he is completely incompetent.

But how can it be...

how can it not only be able to send out the magic door, but also... can stand up to attack? ! Those defenses should be the last bit of residual prestige when he was lingering on. “As I said, the third time, it may not fail.” George Han gave a grim smile and clenched a big fist in his hand.

“You!” Shuizhu’s popularity is knotted, he really needs a little time to resolve the control of George Han’s square talisman at this time. Naturally, it is difficult to hide for a while in the face of George Han’s close-range attack.

But so what? “Do you really think that if you hit me, you’ll win? A joke, it’s a big joke.” “Don’t say let you punch one, even if you punch ten, what can you do to me? In my eyes, there is no difference between you and your beast, but they are just trash.”

“Come on.”

“Hehe, ten punches?” George Han smiled lightly: “That’s not necessary.”

“Because I’m afraid you won’t be able to withstand a single punch.” After the words were finished, George Han raised a big fist in his body. A crazy boost of energy. The blue light The giant fist that George Han swung, the next second, the giant fist instantly became red, like a red branding iron. “Hmph, bluffing.” Shuizhuren didn’t care at all. George Han couldn’t help him before, but now, if he lost half his life, he couldn’t help him, so why should he be afraid? ! “Come on.” “Come, come!” Angrily roared, the words fell, and the giant fist swung down. Driving the surrounding air, it is also being torn apart like crazy!

Looking at this ferocious fiery red fist, not only the Shuidui man who was hit in the vicinity suddenly opened his eyes, but even the Mercury man in the distance could completely feel the huge energy entrained by this fist.

He couldn't believe why this guy George Han suddenly seemed to be full of blood and resurrected in the blink of an eye, insanely insane. Moreover, the most important thing is that his heart at this moment is a little strangely uneasy.

It is reasonable to say that he has not been in such a mood for a long time, and even because he has not been in such a mood for so long, he does not even know what happened to him for a while. . "Bang!"

At almost the same time, the huge fist hit Shuizhuren directly with crazy energy. "Crack!" In the next second, as before, the figure of the water man turned into countless small water droplets under the heavy blow, and in an instant, it seemed that George Han's fatal blow was completely resolved.

"Huh!"

However, at this moment, a murmur suddenly began, and smoke curled up around George Han's stagnant fiery red fist.

"What!"

If the previous Mercury man had a playful attitude to watch the battle and watch the show, then at this moment, he has completely lost the leisure and self-satisfaction he had before.

On the contrary, at this time, he was completely wrapped in shock, even fear.

Because he has already discovered that the scattered water droplets, or the water droplets that can reorganize their bodies, are now evaporating under George Han's fist.

"This... this is impossible." He took a step back in horror, looking at the scene in front of him in disbelief.

"Although our body is water, it is definitely not ordinary water. If you want to roast with firepower, this is simply a fool's dream."

Hearing his words, George Han raised his head slightly, looked at the mercury man, and smiled disdainfully: "You guys It's not ordinary water, so is my fire an ordinary fire?" As the words fell, George Han's hand rose again, and suddenly, his right hand became even more red.

"Unless..." The mercury man suddenly remembered something.

"Unless what?" George Han looked at him with a sneer...

Chapter 3493

"Unless it is..." The mercury man looked at him coldly, but the more it is, the more impossible it is.

George Han had indeed lit the whole house with a strange fire, but he had also observed that the fire was a theoretical threat to them.

If they were jackals, fire would be a tiger that day.

It's a pity that George Han is obviously not proficient in it. He is not at home in the practice of cultivation. If it is a tiger, it is at best a little tiger that has not been weaned. Why should there be any fear?

So, it shouldn't be possible for him to suddenly burst into a crazy growth of this fire in a short period of time, right? !

"Could it be..." The mercury man suddenly thought of something, his eyes were obviously frightened, he took a step back, and stared at George Han.

And almost at this moment, after half of the water droplets around George Han's fist evaporated, the remaining half quickly re-condensed into a human shape.

It's just that this re-condensed human figure is no longer as slippery as before.

It has an overall human shape, but half of it is like boiling water at this time. Not only is the color different from other parts, but it is even emitting blue smoke constantly.

"You bastard." Shuizhuren roared angrily, looking uncontrollable, but his mouth was fierce, but his body was unusually honest, not advancing, but retreating.

George Han's strike almost completely destroyed nearly one-third of his body, causing him to be severely injured.

While he was furious, he had to gain a new understanding and vigilance towards George Han.

He looked at the Mercury Man, but the Mercury Man seemed to be looking at George Han and fell into deep contemplation.

George Han didn't even bother to look at the roaring Shuizhuren again, and just looked back at the Mercury Man with the same fearless and smiling eyes:

"What?"

In between, he came back to his senses and looked away coldly: "This is absolutely impossible."

George Han smiled lightly.

"No, no, no, absolutely impossible." The mercury man shook his head and took a few steps back. Obviously, he couldn't accept the possibility he thought of.

Seeing this, Shuizhuren looked at the Mercury Man in puzzlement. He was originally injured by George Han and was angry in his heart. Now, when he saw the cowardly and fearful performance of the Mercury Man, he became even more angry and couldn't help but said, "What the hell are you doing? What do you want to say?"

Seeing Shuizhuren's anger, the Mercurial Man couldn't help but say: "You still remember Liang Han and his gang."

“A bunch of inferior true gods, remembering and remembering is really not important.” Shuizhu People are disdainful.

For Shuizhu people, everyone is a true god in the long history of the Bafang world, but the true gods of each period must be weak and strong for various reasons, just like Guan Gong and Qin Qiong. When they meet, they will be able to distinguish each other.

This Sun Moon Lake is full of the souls of true gods, but their status is high and low, and they are naturally divided by their different strengths.

He can appear in the moon palace, and naturally he is full of disdain for the soul of the true god outside the moon palace.

Hearing Shuizhuren’s disdain, Shuijinren was both angry and speechless: “You don’t remember all of them, but how can you forget Liang Han, Ma Jin, Zhang Hai?”

“Joke, what’s the matter with the three of them ? It’s amazing, at the time of the battle of order in the jungle, they were all just defeated soldiers.” Shuizhuren was still full of disdain.

But as soon as the words fell, he seemed to suddenly think of something, the whole person Muna paused, and suddenly looked at the mercury man: “You mean?”

The Mercury man didn’t speak, he nodded heavily, quite depressed , it’s been a long time before you remembered it?

After a while, the Mercury Man let out a sigh of relief: “If you still remember, then you should also remember that Liang Han, Ma Jin, and Zhang Hai are not as powerful as us, but they have something on them.

” No, no, it’s absolutely impossible, it’s absolutely impossible.”

Shuizhuren shook his head frantically, and kept looking at the Mercury Man as he retreated, obviously unwilling to accept what the Mercury Man said at this time.

“The three of them remembered those secret techniques in their minds, and they are the only three who can directly pass it on to others. They have already failed in front of him.” The Mercury Man sighed bitterly.

“Even if it is given to him, he will not be able to learn it.” Shuizhuren shook his head frantically, rejecting the truth.

The Mercury Man gave a wry smile and ignored him, just looked at George Han and said, “But you just learned it, didn’t you?”
