

Chapter 3542

yellow, white, silver three colors.

Yellow is a mud monster.

White is the wind monster.

Silver is a water monster.

In addition to the flaming red monster above, it is a fire monster.

Earth, Fire, Water, Wind, Four Signs, Four Gods, Four Gods and Four Monsters.

It is called the Four Phases, and it is also called the Four Heavenly Kings.

“The ground is not covered, the water is not submerged, the fire is not eaten, the wind is not destroyed, stinky boy, you have some meaning.” The front flaming monster laughed coldly.

This monster is like a fire, although it looks like a humanoid, but it has no humanoid shape.

George Han smiled slightly, looked directly at the fireman, not weak at all: “The four kings are not bad, they have already made their own moves under the undercurrent, if this person is a little bit less vigilant, I am afraid that The body has long been ripped apart by the power of the four elements.”

“The strong wind, heavy rain and severe drought have made killing invisible.”

“Stinky boy, report your name.” The water monster shouted softly, his voice full of disdain.

“George Han.” Han

George Han was calm and unhurried.

“Yuetan’s bunch of trash can’t even stop a mere brat. It seems that they have been swallowed up by this jungle and turned into a pile of stinky shit.” The yellow mud monster said disdainfully.

“Those guys don’t have any skills other than their mouths, isn’t that normal?” The wind monster also said in a sharp, slightly sarcastic voice.

“It seems that we should give this kid a good look, otherwise, what is the power of the jungle?” The water monster said coldly.

“Isn’t the four colors special enough? Do you need to show me the colors again? I’m not colorblind.” George Han sneered.

Upon hearing this, the four of them were immediately dissatisfied. It was obvious that their group of people could not make fun of George Han, but instead were mocked by him.

“You bastard, how dare you talk to us like this?” “

Is your parents teaching you like this when you meet your seniors ? Did your parents teach you like this?” With Han 3000, it was a frenzy. George Han’s emotions were not affected at all, he smiled coldly, and asked:

“Then have you ever been polite to a junior? Isn’t it shameful to rely on the old and sell the old?” “What you do to me, I will naturally do to you.” “ I’m afraid you don’t have that ability.”

The yellow monster drank, and his figure suddenly changed, and suddenly, the ground was like an ocean wave, roaring and roaring, and there were even earth waves more than ten meters high at the highest point. George Han moved slightly on his feet, stepped back about a step, and lifted his right foot slightly.

Facing the huge waves coming from the bombardment, he just stomped his feet! boom! A divine light descended from his feet, and then, with George Han’s feet as the center, an equally huge force suddenly rushed towards the earth waves.

Wave to wave, earth to earth. boom! There was a loud noise, and at a distance of about two meters from George Han's side, the two forces suddenly collided, and for a while, the explosion exploded, and the dust exploded.

George Han's face is like frost, and he stands proudly, as steady as Mount Tai. "Roar!" In the dust of the sky, a roar resounded like a beast and a ghost, and in the next second, a huge skull was born, its mouth opened angrily, and it roared violently, like bloodthirsty.

George Han’s hanging right hand stretched out two fingers, full of divine light, and he swiped it directly.

“Brush!”

A divine light that seemed to be no more than the size of a thumb flew towards the huge skull while it was flying. When it was just about to move towards George Han, it had already arrived, and then it exploded with a bang. .

“Roar!”

There was another shrill roar, and the skeleton head that had just formed was instantly blown to smithereens.

“Do you want to come again?” George Han smiled coldly, moved his hand again, raised his hand slightly in the air, and slapped the fan at the place where the powder was.

call!

The wind picked up, and it whistled towards the dust that was trying to re-agglomerate.

The half-raised skeleton head, this time before it condensed and formed, already felt a huge wind blowing. Under the strong wind, the dust at this time was re-condensed and formed, even if it was just to stabilize it, it was just empty talk.

George Han didn’t even turn his body back, but just glanced at the area from the corner of his eyes, and couldn’t help sneering.

However, at this moment, the strong wind changed its direction and hit George Han frantically.

George Han frowned and looked back at the white wind monster.

He snorted coldly and smiled disdainfully: "Playing this trick in front of me? Ban Men get an axe." The wind suddenly increased, and even George Han stumbled slightly under the strong wind. After regaining his stability, George Han gave a wry smile: "Is that right?" When the words fell, George Han suddenly burst into a jade light...

Chapter 3543

Immediately after, George Han waved his hand, and a backhand.

call!

A gust of wind suddenly confronted him.

George Han, who had already been blowing, was a little overturned by the strong wind, but immediately encountered a stronger strong wind counter-bombing, and when the forces canceled each other out, it seemed that there was no wind at all.

"Stinky boy, you are really arrogant, you dare to wrench your wrists with me? I will let you know today, how many eyes does Lord Ma have, come on!" angrily roared.

boom! ! !

The wind strength that was originally stalemate with George Han's anti-wind suddenly suddenly increased countless numbers of anti-Buddha strength, and then it slammed towards George Han with the momentum of destroying the land.

Even though George Han had been prepared, he couldn't help but take a few steps back at this time, who was being blown by the strong wind.

George Han frowned tightly, bit his teeth, his body was full of anger, and when he turned around, he could really explode!

call!

The power of the air explosion directly shook the menacing wind.

George Han turned around one by one, facing the wind directly, and with one hand, he suddenly hit him with a burst of energy.

"Wow!"

Under the rush, when the wind energy clearly dissipated, the body of the wind monster was also shaky.

When he stabilized, George Han's mouth showed a cold smile.

"This..." The wind monster gritted his teeth, but didn't say anything.

"It's a surprise, isn't it?" George Han smiled softly.

“You!” Looking at George Han, although the wind monster only said one word, it was obviously enough to show that George Han had guessed his mind.

If it was in the past, George Han would have been extremely difficult to compete in such a simple way, even as he did against the original Mercury and Shuizhu people, facing such an illusory shadow, he could not touch and touch, but he was severely injured.

But it was different now. The majestic spiritual energy carried by the Seventh Spirit Monkey made George Han feel that he was full of inexhaustible power.

The most important thing is that the energy in George Han’s body has already tended to be unified after the combination of this jade energy, and the power it contains is also becoming stronger.

This is a lively, realistic version of one plus one is greater than two.

“Crazy child, you are so presumptuous.”

With an angry shout, almost at the same time, countless water columns suddenly appeared on the ground. The water column soared into the sky, and then all bent, like countless standing serpents bowing their heads and rushing towards George Han.

“You water monster.” George Han smiled coldly, full of disdain.

Seeing the help of the water monster, the wind monster also seized the opportunity and suddenly re-expanded the wind strength, so that George Han could not deal with the water monster at all.

His goal was achieved in an instant, and he couldn’t help looking at George Han with disdain and sneer in his eyes.

Now, let’s see what you do, you turtle bastard.

George Han also naturally knew what the wind monster was thinking, and the whole person did not panic at all. While still holding a stalemate or even suppressing the wind monster, he lifted his foot and slammed it on the ground.

“Get up.” A soft drink.

boom! !

There was a loud bang on the ground in front of his feet, and the surrounding land was directly lifted by the impact force of the ground, and directly met a group of water snakes that attacked frantically.

boom!

Clap!

When the block burst, it was also the day when the water snake shattered. Accompanied by two different loud noises, a group of seemingly ferocious water snakes completely disintegrated along with the block.

George Han moved his hand again, repressing the wind monster, completely dispelling the attack of the two, and then smiled coldly, looking at the water monster with disdain, his eyes full of contempt and ridicule.

The water monster was angry, anxious, and helpless for a while. After glancing at the wind monster blankly, he looked back at George Hanshi, and his confidence was long gone.

“Hehe, why don’t you three go together?” George Han glanced at the earth monster, water monster, and wind monster, and said indifferently.

When the three monsters heard the words, they were immediately annoyed, and when they were about to go up together, the fire monsters floating in the air laughed.

“You’re pretty crazy, but I don’t know if you have that crazy capital.” The air suddenly became red.

George Han chuckled: “Actually, the person who is the least qualified to speak here is you...”

George Han was also in the middle of the conversation, his right hand slightly raised...
