

Chapter 3606

is like a super earthquake, the whole world is shaking and quickly collapsing.

Even a body like Sheng Yuan, who is a grievous soul, can hardly stand firm under the shaking of the mountains. On the other hand, looking at George Han, it seems that the anti-Buddha has completely entered into a long sleep, and he can't feel the outside world at all. Change, just sit there indifferently.

Sheng Yuan was a little anxious. He didn't know what exactly happened. He was worried about George Han's safety.

As soon as he moved, Yang Qi did fall from the top of his head and slowly entered its body, but this process only lasted for only three or four seconds.

After that, these yang qi began to keep calling and no longer enter its body.

What's happening here? !

He stayed here for an unknown number of years, and calculated from the time in the Book of Eight Desolations, it was so long that even he himself could not count the years.

But in these years, his trick was as simple as eating and sleeping, but at this moment something went wrong.

What the hell does this happen? !

He didn't understand, he didn't know either, there was nothing he could do in a hurry, he could only try to use the yin in his body to protect George Han.

However, in fact, even he himself knows that using yang energy in the daytime is just doing something empty.

The truth is, but it is even worse than he imagined. The black energy has almost disappeared under the yang energy before it reaches George Han's body.

"What the hell happened? Why is it so strange?" Sheng Yuan roared in confusion.

But what else could be done besides this time?

He was a little flustered, worried .

However, the space at this time was shaking even more terrifyingly. The falling rocks and the earth slanted down to prevent Buddha, and this place was about to collapse.

He suddenly looked up at the top, and sure enough, the thing that worried him the most happened...

Above his head, a block of nearly ten square meters was loosening at this time, turning into a huge rock that was crumbling.

“I’m going, be careful.” With a hurried shout, Sheng Yuan hurriedly flew and rushed directly to George Han.

Although they are all Taoist people, their bodies are naturally different from ordinary people, but if a huge soil of more than ten square meters falls, it will definitely not be easy.

Especially at this moment, George Han is completely defenseless in the meditation!

Although his yin qi is greatly limited during the day, if he uses his body to resist it, his yin qi can at least withstand .

In almost a few seconds, Sheng Yuan has rushed to the top of George Han’s head, and the whole body is full of yin, and suddenly the momentum is overwhelming.

boom!

At the same time, the huge clods also crashed down, smashing down fiercely.

“No!”

Seeing the falling giant soil, Sheng Yuan was shocked!

This is definitely not falling, because although the falling speed is fast, it is definitely not as fast as the falling speed in front of you.

This is clearly...

someone deliberately pushed back with great force!

Is it difficult? It was the four kings who betrayed him?

No, to be precise, they were jealous, seeing that they had taught George Han their own practice, so they wanted to take it, so they used the power of the wild to forcibly enter.

There are earth monsters among the Four Heavenly Kings, and they seem to be able to do it.

However, in this special underground space is almost impossible for them to enter without their own orders and permission.

“Never mind.”

Soldiers are coming to block, water is coming to cover, and George Han’s situation is already extremely dangerous. He can’t care about that much, and can only push the Yin Qi in his body to the limit to deal with it. “I can’t get this kid, but that doesn’t mean I’m that easy to mess with. Even if you four rubbish come in, it’s still easy for me to deal with you guys.”

The black anger became even more ferocious, the whole person immediately became imposing, and suddenly rushed up...

But he almost went up, the next second, his whole person suddenly stagnant, and then strangely, he did not advance and retreated directly. , the body flew upside down for dozens of meters, and then slammed heavily on the ground...

The black energy on the body suddenly became a chaos!

what! ! How... how could this be? !

Chapter 3607

It is just a piece of land. All crashed to the ground.

But the truth... it seems to speak louder than words!

boom! !

Of course, in the next second, before Sheng Yuan had figured it out, a burst of light suddenly followed!

At that moment, the anti-Buddha sun came down, and the person whose light was almost piercing couldn't open his eyes at all. After he struggled to adapt to the light, he slowly opened his eyes and saw a huge beam of light descending from the sky at the place where he had fallen to the ground. , all the way down to the huge earth.

The giant soil was bombed to slag by the light, and the golden light went all the way to George Han's body, wrapping him tightly.

"What?!"

Sheng Yuan, who was extremely worried and puzzled a second ago, was as if he had seen his mother's ghost, and the whole person was completely dumbfounded.

The earth is shaking, and the rocks are cracking this day. It turns out that someone is not playing a ghost, nor is there a super earthquake that happened here.

Everything is caused by the sun in the sky.

In other words, the source of everything is George Han!

After this guy's golden light dissipated, it was only because his body had survived the difficulties, and nothing else.

After that, this guy began to successfully complete the yang technique in the two celestial arts, that is to say, George Han started to absorb the yang qi.

Although in a sense, George Han can survive the difficulties is under the consideration of Shengyuan.

After all, although the situation was critical at the time, if Sheng Yuan dared to do this, he must have full confidence in George Han.

That is an opponent who makes him invincible. To look at him is to give him due respect rather than blasphemy.

The truth is just as he thought, but sometimes, he guesses the beginning but misses the end.

He does know that George Han will get through the difficulties, and he will master the method of absorbing yang energy faster than ordinary beginners.

But what he didn't expect was that George Han's speed was really...

too much.

What the hell has this shit become?

The yang energy appeared directly in the form of a beam of light, digging into it as if they didn't want money...

There were obstacles in the middle, they broke it by themselves...

They wanted to resist, they knocked themselves away... If you know, you can also know that George Han is this . I'm inhaling yang qi. If I didn't know this, I thought Xiao yang qi was looking for my father!

"It's evil to his mother's door!

" Sheng Yuan scolded depressedly.

When he was cultivating, he used the exercises to stimulate the various meridians and tried his best to absorb the yang energy from the outside world. This process was difficult, but anyone who cultivated the Tao could understand.

It was like milking, drop after drop.

After years of accumulation, it finally became the big picture.

But George Han... is too *ing outrageous.

It was the other way around, and Yang Qi took the initiative to find him.

And I was afraid that he would be too young, so they all came to play with him in groups.

People are more popular than dead people. If it is said that his cultivation of this celestial technique is considered an excellent talent, then George Han, you can't find any other adjectives to describe him other than open hanging.

Moreover, it is still the kind that can directly adjust the value.

Sheng Yuan is a little regretful at this time

. It is not that he regrets that he should not teach George Han these skills, but that he regrets his mother. He should not wait for dawn and see what golden body is full of expectations and humiliation.

Damn, after a long time of tossing, I'm the *ing biggest clown.

"However, the only thing that can comfort me is your quick grasp of these two celestial arts."

“I really want to know that with my god-like talent, I can only cultivate to the third level in my life. Left and right, what can you do if you are a dog at the beginning.”

Thinking of this, he got up from the ground again, and then walked quickly behind George Han, and then ran. He picked up his Yangshu, borrowed it from behind, and slapped George Han with his palm, intending to find out first...
