

Chapter 3648

Under all the surprised eyes, Amelia Su stood up, and slowly stood in the front row with poetry middle.

She smiled, glanced at the surrounding Mysterious Man Alliance disciples, and said, "Everyone is in the same place, how can there be a reason for you to die and I will watch from the back?"

"Since we are together, we should live together and live together. Death, isn't it?"

Pangolin was about to speak in a hurry, but Amelia Su shook his head at him.

Thinking about what Amelia Su said is quite reasonable, plus Amelia Su's attitude is very firm, pangolins are not good to say anything, so they can only nod: "Okay, if that's the case, then live and die together."

"Live together, Die together!" The disciples shouted in unison.

Amelia Su smiled lightly, looked at the stunning beauty, and said, "It's time for you to do it."

Do it? !

The stunning beauty was slightly startled, did she do it?

If she wanted to do never stop suddenly because of Amelia Su's appearance.

She had no plans to kill Amelia Su.

Not only is Amelia Su an important bargaining chip to capture George Han, but also a fatal weapon to stabilize George Han, and more importantly, she is actually selfish.

"Amelia Su, do you really think I dare not kill you?" The stunning beauty frowned and said unhappily.

Amelia Su smiled lightly: "I never beg you not to kill me, otherwise I wouldn't be at the forefront. I just hope that you can hurry up a little so that we can get on the road." "Understood?"

"You!" The stunning beauty was about to start in a hurry.

But the hand was raised to the highest point, but stopped there heavily: "Wouldn't it kill you to make your death happy? You are not talking about your dreams."

"I will never let you succeed."

"Except Amelia Su catches the dead. Yes, kill the rest for me!" The stunning beauty was completely furious, and with a big wave of her hand, she ordered all the elites to be killed.

For a time, there was a sound of killing, and under the shadow of swords and swords, countless disciples of the Mysterious Man Alliance continued to fall down, blood spilled everywhere, and flesh and blood flew.

A miserable scene.

The pangolins were not afraid at all. Facing the rushing enemy army, they came to block one, and two to block the other, and they were covered in blood in just a moment.

One move is ten thousand, and the Tianji Palace is in the final decisive battle under the leadership of Du Yisheng.

He is the best-preserved main force in the entire army.

Lu Yuan's side is also breaking through frantically. Although there are hundreds of them, they have been fighting together all year round and are the elites of the Lu family. A group of people took advantage of this chaos to successfully breakthrough.

Unexpectedly, Lu Yuan did not follow him. Instead, he brought more than 30 elites towards Amelia Su, trying to save Amelia Su.

"The ambition to get into the battle, there is death but not life

, the disciples of Tianji Palace obey the order and charge with me." Du Yisheng roared, and together with Zhong Beihai, he opened the way in front of him, killing all directions.

Lu Yuan and the others were more like special forces. They were silent and silently taking advantage of the opening and closing of the Tianji Palace. The sword of quietness was getting closer and closer to Amelia Su.

"Go!"

Ye Shijun and the others, of course, this happened very quickly, and they went straight to Lu Yuan and the others with an order.

On the bamboo house side, without the support of Amelia Su, Ziqing is obviously incompetent with her fists and four hands, plus her lack of experience.

The white clothes were full of blood and dust, and her beautiful long hair was extremely messy. It was obvious that she was about to lose it.

"Ah!"

"Ah!" The

screams continued, and a figure fell beside or far away from Amelia Su. Amelia Su looked worried and annoyed, and took away a few elites with one palm. , she hurriedly shouted at the pangolin: "I'll drag it here, you let Du Yisheng's Tianji Palace take the rest of the brothers to break through the encirclement, as much as you can go."

"No." Pangolin resolutely said.

"Pangolin, you understand that I am the wife of the leader of the alliance. This is an order. I am very grateful to you for your sacrifice for me, but there is no need to let more people die here in vain. Their goal is me, take them away." After falling, Amelia Su handed Han Nian to Shi Yu, and then shot the two of them several meters away with one palm, and then broke into the enemy's encirclement directly.

Seeing that Amelia Su, who was single, was soon surrounded by the army, the pangolin knew that it was useless to go again at this time, so he gritted his teeth, pulled up the poem, and shouted angrily at Du Yisheng who was answering: "Withdraw!"

At this time, George Han ..

Chapter 3649

In the colorful light, his body is like a phantom, floating with the light.

Gan, Kun and the other seven gates were broken one after another. Although the process was extremely dangerous, on the whole, it was a near miss.

Even if he is very proficient in Gossip Questions, and now he has two bodyguards, these things are really nothing to him.

"Only the last sect left." George Han smiled slightly, his face full of confidence.

Of course, he knew that the life door seemed to be the life door, but it must be the most delicate and dangerous one among the eight doors.

However, they have come, they have been broken, and it makes no sense to retreat at the last level.

With a slight smile, he moved his hand and flew indirectly towards Shengmen.

The surroundings were white, and only black shadows could be seen in the distance.

But when George Han hadn't established himself yet, the little black shadow suddenly attacked him.

As the distance got closer, its size became larger and larger. When it was a few miles in front of George Han, it had changed from a small black dot the size of a thumb to a giant that almost covered half of the world. giant.

After that, it scattered around, like towering giant claws that stretched out, quickly wrapped towards George Han.

At that moment, George Han only felt that the world had turned black, and those giant claws had grown numerous sharp teeth, preventing the Buddha from swallowing himself alive.

Soon, when all the darkness completely wrapped George Han, they began to shrink continuously.

Trying to crush George Han completely.

George Han smiled coldly: "Shenghuan!"

Shenghuan means death.

"Small tricks of carving insects." George Han shook his head confidently and then sat directly on the ground with his eyes closed.

Afterward, George Han closed his eyes, entered into meditation, and had no other thoughts in his mind, so that all the phantoms were nothing but bubbles, and there was no fear.

Sure enough, after George Han was completely emptied, the yin and yang two qi were released by the two celestial arts, at this time he was in the gossip, and the gossip was one. Any attack was naturally equivalent to him.

However, the attack did not come, but at this time George Han suddenly felt a bright light in front of him. He thought he had broken the formation. He opened his eyes and looked around, only to see that the front was just as if he had just come in, only a vast expanse of white.

Those black shadows that eat people like swords have disappeared.

Just when George Han was about to get up, suddenly, some images appeared in the vast expanse of white.

After that, these images became clearer and clearer, until a scene of purgatory on earth appeared in front of George Han.

.” George Han could almost recognize the place in the image at a glance.

On the other side of the bamboo hut, corpses were scattered everywhere, the bamboo hut was completely destroyed, and the wooden hut was also burning the last of itself in the raging fire. Outside, the blood flowed into a river.

The entire disciples of the Mysterious Man Alliance fell in a pool of blood and died in a tragic state.

And around their corpses, there are many soldiers dressed in costumes that should be in the city looking for a living, and they will make a knife when they see the dying.

In the center of the two houses, with an explosion, Zi Qing fell from the sky and smashed directly to the ground. Except for the blood from the smashing mouth, she didn’t make any movement.

Beside her, a group of culprits were also approaching her cautiously at this time.

Farther away, there was still a battle at the end. Under the siege of a large group of soldiers, the woman in white in the center was already dying, completely losing her combat effectiveness.

However, even so, while she was breathing heavily, no one around dared to move forward.

Judging from the number of meters around her body, all the elites who should have fallen are enough to see how she killed the Quartet before.

However, George Han laughed a little.

That woman was none other than Amelia Su.

“Although it’s a phantom, please be a little more serious.” George Han sneered disdainfully: “It’s true that my wife is beautiful, and it’s true that she is better than me in my heart, but after all... it’s just my opinion. Yes .” The fact is that Amelia Su cannot have such ability at all, and this illusion is too exaggerated.

As soon as George Han’s voice fell, the whole world suddenly began to shake violently..
