

Chapter 3744

Amelia Su frowned slightly, as if thinking about something.

Suddenly, Amelia Su smiled.

She understood why George Han did this.

The reason is actually very simple.

He is adapting an approach that best suits the present according to the course of history.

In the history of the earth, China has experienced thousands of years of dynasties changes, and various ethnic minorities have also stepped onto this historic stage one after another, but some people are only short-lived, and some people have forged a real dynasty.

For example, the Liao Kingdom, and the Jin Kingdom, they all once invaded the Central Plains and established forces, but they eventually withdrew from the stage of history.

Another example is the Yuan Dynasty and the Qing Dynasty. Similar to the above two, they also integrated as a minority, but the difference is that they eventually established their own dynasty and foundation in this unfamiliar land.

The fundamental reason why they are so different lies in the different ways of ruling the seat.

The former, with its own small force, wants to control everything, causing the situation to be uncertain and the policy to be wrong.

In the latter case, the Han people were recruited widely, and the Han people were divided into separate jurisdictions.

In the words of the Han people, it can also be understood as using the barbarians to control the barbarians.

The power of George Han and others is simply insignificant in the land of the demons. If they are alone, they will inevitably lead to chaos in the future, but the situation is completely different if they are governed by the original team.

The people here know this place, and naturally, they also know better how to govern. The most important thing is that these people were first abandoned, and now they are suddenly honored by George Han as guests, and they have been promoted one after another. The strong psychological contrast is with those soldiers. Almost like them, they will cherish more than anyone else what they know is hard-earned

Even among these people, there are the Fu family members, the Ye family members, and the people who should be left behind.

“Of course.” George Han glanced at everyone coldly and said, “What I hope more is that you are not only doing meritorious deeds for guilt, but also for your own face.”

“You have also seen what you are. People are just people who have been abandoned by others. They are garbage, waste, and cannon fodder.”

“However, I believe in you, and I am also moved by your sincerity. I am willing to give you a chance, but remember, this is more important. Most of it is an opportunity for you to prove yourself.”

“One day, when you follow me to catch those who abandoned you, when you may reach the top, you can use your actions to tell those who abandoned you aloud. You, those who look down on you, you deserve respect!” After speaking, Han

George Han turned a few steps to the front of the hall, but did not turn around but turned his back to the crowd.

“I used to be the person who helped the family, and Futian lied to us all the time that everything about the family was caused by George Han and Amelia Su. Now, when we are really in trouble, it was George Han and Amelia Su who gave us. Opportunity, what about that old dog Futian? But just leave us here and wait to die. Damn, George Han is right, don’t fight for steamed buns, but also fight for your breath. From today, I will cut off ties with Futian, I am It’s from the Mysterious People Alliance.”

“*, in Ye’s family, it is said to be an executive, but we are no different from pigs and dogs. In the end, we were not abandoned as waste by others. On the other hand, George Han gave us a promotion. , the two are more competitive! The surnamed Han, Lao Tzu has also done it with you. From now on, I will throw my head and pour my blood on it again.

Don’t hesitate, it’s not that I am grateful to you, I just want to prove to the bastards of the Ye family that they shouldn’t abandon me. “

Yes, the construction of the city should be built without the credit and hard work of our group of people. On weekdays, any good thing can be counted on Zhu Yanshuo’s head, but in times of crisis, this grandson has stabbed the gangsters. It’s really hateful.” We have to prove that this city has nothing to do with him, Zhu Yanshuo, but us. Along with the excited voices of a group of executives, next to them, a group of masters completely turned their backs and shouted in unison: “Damn, who are you messing with? With him, George Han, who is famous and his mother has something to share, and more importantly, has a great chance of promotion, what the hell is this mother thinking? Enter, enter, enter, must enter. “

Almost at the same time, George Han, who had been facing away from them, also turned around...

Chapter 3745

“Okay, you said it, since you dare to do it, I will accompany you to the end. Moyang!”

” Here !”

“At the same time of welcoming the brothers, tell the people who deserve to fall, and let the people rejoice.”

“Yes!” Mo Yang took the order and quickly ran outside the city lord’s mansion.

“The show is over, how is it?” The woman in white asked the servant beside her with a smile.

“Wonderful, wonderful, really wonderful.” The servant couldn’t help but smile: “To be honest, after the victory in the daytime, I was actually thinking about how this guy George Han should clean up the mess. After all, there are a lot of soldiers who should fall into the city and surrender, if it is unilateral. *, I’m afraid that the small forces will continue to rise.”

“But if you don’t kill, George Han will come to the truth. The key is that the soldiers may be convinced, but the evil will be thrown.”

“The most subtle It is these executives and masters. Compared with the soldiers, they are the real troubles, but George Han’s trick...”

” The servant smiled bitterly: “If I were them, at least George Han would be convinced. “ Good mother*er, prove your worth.” The woman in white nodded: “Yes, George Han’s analysis is really accurate, and it is even more exquisite to gather morale in this way. You can think about this group of people. If the guy with high morale is actually just a defeated army before this?” The servant laughed: “If you don’t know this, you think they have just won the battle.” The woman in white said: “Human , living is a breath, this guy George Han will cheer up.” When the words were finished, she sighed slightly: “It’s time for us to appear.” The servant nodded, followed behind the woman in white, and slowly greeted Go to George Han’s side.

Hongluan is also in the final stage, and finally, with a wave of his hand, a large group of people who led Demon Cloud Ghost City rushed over.

“Roar!” The

four dragons roared in unison, fell to the ground

, and also walked towards George Han.

Looking at the three parties, George Han also showed a slight smile on his face, and quickly went up to meet him.

“Everyone, thank you for your help in this battle.” George Han said with a smile.

“Whoever said they don’t care about us, let us disband on our own, hehe, George Han, now you know our usefulness.” Hong Luan muttered and raised his eyebrows provocatively.

George Han wasn’t angry either, he smiled slightly, full of helplessness, but he had to admit that this group of thugs in Devil’s Cloud Ghost City really played a vital role this time.

If they hadn’t opened the city gate in time, it would have been impossible for this battle to fall to George Han’s side.

“By the way, this is...” George Han shifted his gaze to the woman in white.

To be honest, even now, George Han still hadn't imagined who these white-clothed masters and white-clothed women would be. He believed that no one would help him in this part of the Demon Land. The woman in white didn't say a word, only a few servants next to her shook their heads slightly. George Han and the others looked at each other in confusion. It was enough that they didn't want to reveal their identities before. Why didn't they say it now? "Miscellaneous, you have already thanked us once, so you won't look at us?" Silong broke the atmosphere in time. At the same time, it also drew George Han's attention to their four dragons. Since the woman in white refused to speak, George Han would not be able to ask further questions. Others are here to help anyway, so they should be respected if there is no malice.

"If you didn't tell me, I forgot, why did the four of you show up here? You also brought a group of..." George Han glanced at the group of dragons in the sky.

Good guy, seeing the dragons flying all over the sky is really impressive.

"Hey, you ordered us to follow us from a distance, and we are not allowed to show up. Tell me yourself, did you call us once before and after leaving Xianling Island?"

"Not to mention, we are almost forgotten by you."

"However, if you don't call us, we have nothing to do, so we took time to go back to the old place to have a look, and by the way, we went back to the old clan's place. , I didn't expect to find a lot of clansmen after looking around." "Later, we found out that you were in danger, so we brought our brothers here."

Looking at George Han with praising eyes.

George Han gave a dumb smile. To tell the truth, he really forgot about Silong, but he didn't expect that they would actually help him at this critical moment.

Nodding, just as he was about to thank him, one of the four dragons suddenly came close to George Han's ear: "Don't be in a hurry, thank you, it's not for nothing, someone wants to see you."
