

Chapter 3770

Looking around, there are such things all around, even people without intensive phobia can't help but see their number at this time Feel the scalp tingling.

The ground is full of black "long streams" crawling everywhere, and you can't even see the original color of the ground.

However, this was not the end, just when the two were surrounded by shocking ground, they suddenly heard a buzzing sound, and looked back, only to see a dense black in the air. The toy also flew towards this side.

"Flying ants?" Amelia Su couldn't help asking.

They are almost similar in size to these ants on the ground, and the weapons they hold are almost the same, except that they have two wings on their backs, which are constantly flapping as they fly.

"Put down your weapons, put down your resistance."

As soon as they flew over, they surrounded the couple at close range, and shouted loudly to the two of them.

"It seems that our situation is not good." George Han said embarrassedly to Amelia Su.

Amelia Su also frowned and smiled bitterly: "I don't mean to be disrespectful to them, but since I was a child, it was the first time I was surrounded by a group of ants."

George Han also smiled helplessly, but the situation is unknown. , the rash exchange of fire is not what George Han is willing to do, so he raised his hand slightly and made a surrender: "Everyone, don't mess around, we have no malicious intentions."

" Take it."

With a wave, a few ant soldiers walked directly to both sides, and at the same time, their spears were always on high alert.

Several other ants tried to tie the two men's hands with their ropes.

But the embarrassing thing is that even if the longest rope in the hands of the ants is enough to tie themselves into countless loops, to George Han and Amelia Su, this short length is a bit ridiculous.

"Don't bother, let's do it yourself."

George Han ripped off the sleeve of his coat, and then divided it into two parts, first tying Amelia Su's hands, and then tying his own hands. superior.

"Everyone, is it possible?" George Han asked.

Although self-binding is indeed a bit of a joke, George Han is really helpless. Otherwise, these ant people will not say how long it will take to tie their own couples, they are already high enough for this group of ants. People are frantic.

The leading Ant-Man didn't say anything. He just kept looking at George Han. After a while, he said, "How did you find this place?"

"Someone asked us to come here." George Han asked.

"Who?" he asked.

George Han hesitated for a while, but finally shook his head: "Keep it secret. If you sell it out, wouldn't it be unkind and unjust?"

"Okay, if you want to talk about benevolence and righteousness, then you can go to the prison and talk about it, come on. Put me in jail."

"Yes."

Several soldiers took the order, and in the next second, they took the spear and drove them out: "Go."

George Han and Amelia Su glanced at each other helplessly. He didn't say anything more, and moved slowly following the attack of the ants.

A wave of people passed through the streets of the city one after another, attracting countless ant residents to watch. In terms of body size, Amelia Su and George Hanbao were like giants, and even the sound caused by each step was like an earthquake to them. .

A group of ant residents gave pointers one after another, and at the same time they were extremely curious.

As for George Han and Amelia Su, they were almost in this mood. They had never seen such a wonderful underground world, and they had never seen such a strange ant man.

After walking through the street, the group came straight to a big house.

Although the place is not written on it, anyone with a discerning eye can already know by looking at its appearance that this place should be their cell .

It's just that George Han and Amelia Su's body shape, not to mention being locked in a cell, even if they want to go in, they are far better than the sky.

Just at the moment of trouble, an ant soldier whispered a few words in the ear of the leader ant, and the leader immediately nodded.

"Take them to the altar in the west of the city, and then tie them to the trapped dragon pillar." The leader commanded: "The flying soldiers are responsible for the tie."

"Yes!" The ant soldiers responded collectively.

"Go find Sleepy Longsuo, and I'll notify the city lord." He instructed the next man.

His subordinate nodded: "Yes."

“Separate.” After he finished speaking, he turned and walked quickly towards a huge and luxurious house in the middle of the city.

The cronies beside him headed towards the north of the city. As for the large group of troops left behind, they took George Han and Amelia Su to the altar in the west of the city by combining land and air.

At this time, in the huge and luxurious house, there are even more magical...

Chapter 3771

house is different from the style of human houses, except that the external structure is somewhat similar, the interior is completely different.

The house is tall and large, about seven meters high, which is twice as high as a normal human house. The width of the house is dozens of meters, and it is a huge house composed of seven houses.

But these are all external views.

After entering it, the space inside the house is not as big as it looks outside, and it is relatively crowded.

The surrounding walls are almost filled with all kinds of nest openings similar to beehives, and these nest openings are almost all protruding from the walls for several meters, so that the corridor between the two walls is already less than one meter wide.

Inside the mouth of the nest, each hides a white egg-like thing that is not an egg, and looks like Mifeimi, about the size of a finger.

All the way in, these nest openings became more and more densely packed, almost filling the entire interior space, but when we reached the deepest part of the house, everything suddenly changed.

The color of these nest openings became golden yellow, like a top-level honeycomb covered with gold.

They shone the golden light reflected in the deep house, making people prevent Buddha from being in the golden palace.

What is different from the outside is that the things lying in the nest mouth are not white things, but slender silver things.

The leader of the ant soldiers walked in quickly at this time, then, he knelt down slightly, and said respectfully: “Report to the city lord, we have found two human beings who trespassed without authorization, and we are waiting for you.”

The leader As soon as the ant’s voice fell, a faint and empty voice sounded in the space.

“Human?”

“Yes.”

“Earthfire City is located in the land of the Demon Race, even if someone breaks in, it should be a Demon Race. And this Human Race lives in the Central Plains, which is 108,000 miles away from us. How could they come to us?”

Ant’s little leader lowered his head: “The subordinates are not sure, but the subordinates and others can be sure that the people who come are the human race.”

“How many people came?” she asked.

“Two people, one male and one female.”

“Only two people?” She was suddenly very strange.

“Exactly.”

She didn’t speak, and seemed to be thinking about something.

If someone came, it should be a heavy attack, but why only two people were sent so strangely?

But if it wasn’t for the crime, then why did these two people come here?

Weird, really weird.

“Where are they now?”

“My subordinates have sent people to escort them to the altar in the west of the city and tied them to the trapped dragon pillar,” he replied.

“Want them so quickly? How are their cultivations?” She wondered: “This is not right, the net of the earth is not something that ordinary people can easily crack. Since they can come in quietly, then it means that their abilities are extraordinary, but why were they caught so quickly by you?”

“Reporting to the city lord, they did not fight us. When we surrounded them, they surrendered and bound their hands. .” The lead ant said.

“Surrender on your own initiative? Still tying your hands?” she asked suspiciously.

“Exactly.”

Then this matter is really a door, what is the other party doing?

After thinking for a few seconds, she made a decision: “I’ll go meet them for a while now.” After she finished speaking, a fiery red shadow suddenly jumped out of nowhere and rushed straight out of the house.

At this time, on the altar on the west side of the city, Han 3,000 couples were also escorted there.

However, when George Han saw the altar and the so-called sleepy dragon pillar on it, he seemed to understand why the silver-armored dragon would let him come here...
