

Chapter 3830

As the stopper was opened, the ant queen immediately put the bottle in front of George Han's nose as before and shook it.

A burst of fragrance came in from his nose, and then, George Han suddenly frowned tightly.

At the same time as the scent came in, George Han could clearly feel that his spirit had suddenly improved by at least a few grades. More importantly, the meridians of the whole body began to open wide, and the inner energy also began to agitate. , it seems... the sleeping lion in his body suddenly begins to wake up.

"Boom!"

George Han felt that his body was suddenly ignited by some fire, and it was about to explode!

While turning around, he clenched his fist with one hand and pushed it out with a palm on the ground. Suddenly, a huge energy seemed to have been impatiently waiting in George Han's body, and suddenly jumped out. .

"Bang

As soon as the energy arrived, the ground exploded directly, shaking the mountain for a while, and the entire City of Earth Fire also swayed in an instant.

Amelia Su was stunned and dumbfounded for a while. Although she already knew about George Han's strength, and she was already shocked by his manipulation, it was like eating, but at this moment, she still couldn't help but feel big again. shock.

Because it is obvious that this random move of George Han at this time is really too powerful.

The ants were also shocked, but after the shock, it was more pride and glory.

"Some things are magical in themselves, but whether it can exert its maximum effect depends on the person who uses it." The queen ant smiled slightly: "I think it has found its true owner."

"You almost lost your life because of our danger. In the future, when you are in danger, I also hope that our things can resolve the danger of your life. At least, this should be said back and forth. When we repay you for saving your life."

George Han breathed a sigh of relief, stared blankly at the huge pit that had been blasted open, listened to the queen ant's words, and nodded: "In that case, then Han No one will refuse." When the words were finished, George Han turned around and looked at the ant queen: "I accept this thing, but the courtesy is also coming and going, and I also want to give you something."

"If you don't want it, Even if I know that you will be very unhappy, then I will not accept such treasures." The queen hesitated for a while, nodded, and said with a smile, "Okay."

George Han glanced at Amelia Su, and the couple looked at each other. After the exchange, George Han moved his hand, and in a short time, a large amount of dry food, jewelry and weapons were poured out of the space ring.

is...” The queen ant looked at the three mounds like hills, each with three things piled up, and she couldn’t help being a little stunned for a while.

Amelia Su smiled bitterly: “The pile is some dry food, the pile is some jewelry, and the pile is some weapons.”

George Han followed: “The weapons can help you defend yourself, and the jewelry can be used for money or to improve people’s livelihood. To live, or to use it in the future, when you have other places, you can have money to build a city. As for dry food, these things are enough for the two of us to eat for at least a week. I believe that for you, even if the whole city eats for a year, it will not be a problem. “

These are enough to support you to have more time to find a new place to live, or use it for food to improve your life.”

Amelia Su continued to smile: “I’m sorry we have been deceiving you all the time.”

“If you don’t take it out at the earliest, Because of

We need to use the excuse of eating to get in touch with you. Later, when we wanted to take it out again, the timing was not right. I was afraid of causing you misunderstandings and felt that we didn’t want to eat your food, so...”

George Han nodded, Amelia Su said. That’s right.

The queen ant glanced at the ant-men behind her, then looked back at the three stacked hills, shook her head, and said with a wry smile, “You guys...the ceremony is too big. “

It’s money, food, and weapons...”

“Forget it, thank you very much.” When the queen ant finished speaking, she sighed and walked in front of George Han and Amelia Su. Then, she looked at the two of them and gestured for them to extend their hands with a smile.

After the two of them extended their hands, the queen ant’s hand also gently It was placed on their palms, but the two of them could clearly feel something suddenly in their palms...

and wait for the queen to move her hands. Only then did the two find that there is a small sesame-like thing in each of their palms.

“This is a special signal device made by our family. It only needs a little energy to wake it up directly. Although it has a simple function, it is absolutely sufficient for the most critical things.”

“Communication.”

“Once activated, even We are each in the end of the world or the sea, and we can know where we are at the first time, and at the same time, it can even lead us all the way to meet each other.”

“In the future, if the city of fire is not there, I will Our heart will tell you through it.”

“You are all honorary elders of the ant family, this is also your eternal home, we will always welcome you, and at the same time hope that you can

.” Nodding: “Don’t worry, I promise you, as long as I and Amelia Su are free, we will definitely come to see you.” The queen smiled and was very happy: “That is the best.

” What are you going to do? Stay here for a while and then go?”

George Han shook his head: “We still have our business to do, so we won’t bother.”

“Besides, our husband and wife are going to live here for a while. What can you do to improve your life?”

George Han glanced at all the Ant-Man and said, “Okay, there is no such thing as a feast in the world, so it’s time for Amelia Su and I to leave.

” When we first met, I could see a completely new city of fire, and I could see your completely different lives.”

“Okay, since that’s the case, then we won’t do anything to keep you, and you have a smooth journey.” Queen Ant said.

As the words fell, the ant-men knelt on one knee and said in unison, “Congratulations to the honorary ant king and honorary ant queen.” The two husband and wife looked at each other and smiled, glanced at the little dragon ants, and nodded at the ant-men. , The next second, George Han hugged Amelia Su and flew straight towards the diaphragm that had entered here.

The diaphragm had already been closed by the queen ant when the two got up, and the two of George Han flew all the way without any hindrance.

“It seems that the temperature here is much lower. You can see that the aisles are all wet with water marks.”

George Han nodded with a smile. Without Flint, the crazy water-absorbing madman and the culprit of high temperature, the ground is deep. The natural temperature will cool down quickly.

“Huh!”

With George Han's repeated efforts, the two finally jumped out of the underground passage and returned to the top of the continuous mountain.

"Ha, I thought the air here was bad before, but after spending a day in the City of Fire, I suddenly realized that the air here seems to be much better."

"There is no harm without comparison, deep underground. The air is difficult to circulate, and those Ant-Man are so small that they can barely survive. We humans are naturally incomparable. However, it doesn't matter, they should find a place to live again."

"Yeah, although they are in the ground fire. I have lived in the city for a long time and have feelings for it, but after all, there is no light in that place, and it is time to find a better place to thrive." Amelia Su nodded.

"Even though the time I have spent with the Queen Ant is short, I know that she is a real wise man. Under her leadership, the Ant-Man family should have no problem." George Han said: "In short, they don't need us to worry about it. Yes."

"Yes, I also recognize the Queen Ant."

"Okay, let's not talk about them, we have to rush back to the city." George Han said.

"It's been a long time since I've been out, and I've only just stabilized, and I really should go back and have a look." Amelia Su said.

George Han shook his head and said with a smile: "Actually, I'm not worried about falling into the city. In fact, I have another important thing to do when I rush back." "Ah

? What?

Tomb?"
