group of people suddenly looked at it, is it difficult, is it really a thief?

Otherwise, why would those voices suddenly stop when everyone came out?

coincide?

At least everyone is more inclined to be the thief heard the movement and stopped.

“You guys from the front, let’s detour and flank him directly!” Ningyue whispered.

At this time, when it is broken, it is broken, otherwise, if the opportunity is wrong, and the little thief disappears, it will have a great negative impact on the situation.

“Yes!” The crowd took orders.

“Action.” As soon as the voice fell, a group of people split into two groups, and quickly rushed towards the direction of the sound.

Except for the new arrivals today, most of the disciples of the Mysterious Man Alliance are actually not low in individual cultivation, which has been tested in the previous battle.

Taking advantage of the night, there was no sound at all between the group of people ruShaneng to attack.

And just like that, they approached the sound’s destination quietly and quickly.

“Dong dong dong...” The sound came out again appropriately.

This time, Ningyue and others came to the spirit, at least the existence of the voice is showing that the little thief may have just stopped by coincidence, and did not really discover the actions of Ningyue and others.

Isn’t this a catch?

With a wave of one hand, Ningyue, after completing the detour, led a group of female disciples and rushed directly over.

The male soldiers over there have roughly calculated the time and are moving forward!

Brush brush!

When the sound of walking quickly sounded, it was also the time when the two sides were copied.

In the center of the encirclement, that is, the center of the entire forest, a shadow was holding something there and waving it up and down.

“Wow!” The

crowd rushed out, and in a blink of an eye, there were ambushes on all sides, and the long sword radiated cold light in the moonlight.

“Raise your hand!”

Ningyue shouted loudly, and almost at the same time, the surrounded people were obviously stunned, and subconsciously slowly raised their hand...

“Three... three thousand?”

“Alliance leader?”

When a group of people saw the shadow clearly, they couldn't help but feel strange and shocked.

Yes, it is George Han.

At this time, he held a shovel in one hand, and the other hand cooperated with the other side, all raised up!

George Han was a little embarrassed, he smiled, with his divine sense, he could naturally detect all the changes around him in an instant, but the problem was that George Han was actually not guarding anyone in the Book of Eight Desolations.

In addition, this is not doing physical work, so how can I take care of this.

He was obviously shocked by so many people suddenly rushing out, and it was still such a big battle.

“This...you don't sleep for most of the night ?” George Han glanced at Ningyue and the others, and couldn't help but feel even more embarrassed.

Seeing that it was her own, Ningyue and others quickly put away their swords, and Ningyue rolled her eyes: “We are all sleeping, but someone has been ping-pong all night, isn't it impossible to sleep? “

I woke you up?” George Han said a little embarrassedly.

“The question of the leader of the alliance is quite delicate, how should we answer it?” Jianghu Bai Xiaosheng joked.

Everyone laughed, and the atmosphere melted in an instant.

However, to die, Shane Yu, the ghost girl, promptly raised a new question: “How come there are so many graves? I rely on it, Alliance Leader, you don't sleep in the middle of the night, so you dig graves here?”

“These graves don't seem to be We buried them, who are these people, and do they have a grudge against you?”

“You dig

people of the night, that must be the case. However, don't worry about the leader, whoever offends you is offended. Our people, we have so many people here, it's a big deal to help you dig their graves together.”

As soon as the words fell, a group of people really rolled up their sleeves and prepared to work, although there was only one shovel, but in the face of offending the leader of the alliance A man's grave, that is, even with a hand planer, he would have to be completely exterminated.

Seeing this posture, George Han suddenly had a big head and two big heads, and quickly shouted speechlessly: "Enough is enough, don't make a fool of yourself, these are not my enemies, but my benefactors.

" Are you illiterate or something? May I trouble you to look at the names on the tombstones?" The group of people immediately stopped their hands when they heard that it was not an enemy but a benefactor, and looked up blankly at the names on the dilapidated wooden monuments. Someone read it up...

Cheng YongShane's tomb!

Liang Han's Tomb!

Chapter 3839

reading the poem, shook his head: "I don't know.

The others also shook their heads.

These names are extremely unfamiliar, and I have never heard of them.

Even Ningyue couldn't help shaking her head at this time.

Even as an elder here, he is extremely unfamiliar with these names.

There was only one person, frowning at this time, his eyes staring at the names on the tombstones.

Although the wooden tablet is broken, although the name on it has become a little vague in the baptism of the years.

However, every stroke and every drawing of every word above was still enough to make him tremble on the spot.

"They...they..." He was speechless, and could only stare blankly at George Han: "These graves...are...all true?"

George Han nodded

"These are all true gods in the Bafang world who were once famous."

He shouted with a trembling voice, a little disbelieving, but more still shocked.

Obviously, this person can only be Jianghu Bai Xiaosheng.

Although he is familiar with the affairs of the rivers and lakes, he still has some impression of the names of these ancient gods.

Hearing Jianghu Bai Xiaosheng's words, the crowd fell silent at the same time, and then it exploded completely.

"What?"

"These...these are the tombs of the true gods?"

"No way, how could the true God of our Bafang world be in such a place? Besides, not one, two, but..."

"This..." The group of people looked at each other in dismay, almost unbelieving this fact.

What is true God?

It is a God in the true sense, a God that is out of reach, a God who can only hear his name but not see his body.

But now, not only can everyone see it, but at this moment, they are lying on the land under their feet, how can this not be shocking? How not to be frightened?

And, so much at once.

George Han completely understands their fuss, because when he first saw it, why wasn't he like this?

"Three thousand, if these are the tombs of the ancient true gods, I don't understand, why did you come to dig their graves late at night?" Ningyue asked strangely.

The poems are also full of puzzles: "Yeah, Alliance Leader, this is a bit wrong. You just said that they are still your benefactors. Since they are benefactors, why are you still... digging up other people's graves?"

George Han said helplessly . With a wry smile: "It's a long story, so I won't go into details

"Besides, they are my benefactors, and I have to keep some secrets for them."

"The reason why I dig graves is that I promised them before. , I want to transfer their bones back to their hometown, so that they can be buried in the ground in the true sense."

"As for why this is dug..."

"I don't have time to practice pills during the day." After some words, Everyone understood, but not completely. However, after George Han had said this, it was really difficult for Ningyue's group to ask further questions.

"Then why don't we help you?" Ningyue asked.

George Han shook his head: "Forget it, here are a bunch of seniors with high morals and respect, since they have entrusted me with their affairs, then I should do it alone and fulfill the promise. A kind of respect.

" George Han shook his head.

"Loyalty is a good thing, I agree. If it is faked by others, it will inevitably be criticized." Jianghu Bai Xiaosheng said.

Ningyue nodded: "Then do you want Amelia Su to come over to accompany you? It happened suddenly, I thought there was a traitor activity, and for the sake of safety, I left some people to protect them."

George Han smiled bitterly: "I am Digging graves, you think this is digging treasures, and it's not a big happy event. You're not afraid of Amelia Su this evening, and Nian'er is not afraid? Go back, you guys, I'm going to start digging graves." Ningyue looked at each other . A glance, a wry smile, nodded, turned around and left with a group of people.

After they left, George Han looked at a grave that was about to be dug up and was interrupted just now and smiled softly: "Actually, he is also digging for treasure..."
