

Chapter 3882

Although the appointed time has not yet arrived, a large number of people have already gathered on the playground at this time.

Run away, how can you not be active in this matter? !

“Leader.” When a group of people saw George Hanlai, they all greeted him respectfully.

“In order to hide myself, don’t call me the leader tonight, the code name, I’ll take the eggplant instead.” George Han said hard and cowardly.

The crowd nodded.

“Is everyone here?” George Han asked.

Fulin nodded: “Basically all the executives have already arrived ahead of time, or should we go first?”

George Han glanced at everyone: “Everyone should be quiet, the North Gate has the weakest defense, and all it’s my cronies, let’s go out through the north gate.” The north gate

is the back gate again.

Generally speaking, as a person of some status in the city, he would not go in or out through this door, because the back door, after all, in the eyes of most people, means something bad.

Therefore, at this moment, the hearts of everyone are mixed for a while.

A few days ago, they were still dying, but suddenly happiness came, and a group of them turned from sadness to joy, and even reached the pinnacle of life all at once.

Of course, just when they were full of joy, who would have guessed that just a few days later, they would be like mice again, and could only flee in embarrassment in this endless dark night.

Life is full of ups and downs, and it comes so often that it is hard to accept for a while.

On the north gate, most of the guards are the old elites of the Mysterious People Alliance. It seems that George Han has made arrangements before.

After , the north gate has almost no sound. He also helped a group of executives to evacuate quickly.

Another half an hour later, the North City Gate was nothing but the hidden gate.

The north gate went all the way up, but a group of teams secretly marched all the way at night.

And they are also marching in a hurry, are two large armies that are densely packed like a flood of beasts.

Their team always has a constant number of kilometers, and it goes on and on.

A team is obviously strong and powerful.

The other one is very mysterious, and they all gather together in a gloomy way, looking from a distance, like a dark and bright army.

In the center of the army, several large black sedan chairs were unusually obvious.

Although it is a sedan chair, in fact each sedan chair is like a moving hall.

It is more than 30 square meters, and the interior space is luxuriously decorated.

“Boom!” In the

sedan chair, a group of people were sitting in a row, and the one in the center was a woman, but at this time, the first man on the lower right side of her suddenly swept away the wine in front of her small table. fall.

“How is it? Really can’t find that slut Fumei?” He shouted angrily, the blue veins on his face exposed, looking extremely hideous.

It was Ye Shijun.

In the center, there was a soldier kneeling on the ground, and he nodded shiveringly: “Young Master, we have searched all over the place and haven’t found any whereabouts of Madam, thinking about it...it should...it should be no longer in the team. Now .”

“In this way, it should be no problem for Fu Mei to escape.”

“This Fumei is really a slut. It’s abhorrent to run away from the battle.”

“Hehe, my younger brother is the new city owner who should be in the city. Why don’t you hurry up and report the news?” A group of people sneered, especially

Ye Yi The family’s executives are the strictest.

Futian looked stunned for a moment, and immediately said: “Fumei’s three or eight, it’s shameful to run away from the battle. As the patriarch of Fujia, I’m here to express my opinion to you. From today, Fujia will never be like Fumei again. Number one.” When the words fell, Futian bowed to Ye Shijun, looked at Mingyu again, and said respectfully, “Fu Mei this person, defecting to Fu’s family, it’s all shameful, but please rest assured, if I meet her, it must be bloody, empty, and let her experience all kinds of torture to tell you all the hatred.”

Futian’s attitude is very firm, and he is very angry, obviously trying to get rid of and help. Fascinating relationship.

But at this moment, a voice came slowly: “Patriarch Futian really knows how to watch and eat, so it’s clear that he has to separate from me, Fumei, so early.

” Mei opened the curtain and walked in slowly.

Chapter 3883

When everyone sees Fumei, they are all guarding Buddha like chicken blood, and many people even stand up. , pointing angrily to each other.

“Fu Mei, you bltch, how dare you come back.”

“Oh, you are so bold.”

“I think some people want to treat us as fools, she really thinks she has done something, Will no one know?” A group of people sneered and grinned, wishing to bite Fumei into pieces on the spot.

“You three or eight.” Ye Shijun got up angrily, his fists clenched tightly, and he wanted to get up and start directly.

However, at this moment, a black figure had dared to charge directly before him, grabbing Fu Mei directly, with a very grim expression: “You traitor, you actually betrayed me.”

Apart from Futian , there can never be anyone else.

“I’ll kill you!” With a cold voice, Futian grabbed Fumei’s hand and started to exercise.

In the entire sedan house, the killing intent suddenly exploded.

“If there is something, you will do it. In the future, someone will naturally understand whether I am Fumei a traitor, or whether you are Futian.” Fumei responded coldly without any fear.

“What are you talking about? You bastard rhetoric, even if you do something useless and don’t admit it, you dare to throw dirty water on me?” Futian got angry, and turned to a sneer: “You can also find someone to splash dirty water. A little suspicious person, you came to me? You are not a fool, are you? I have always been by Ye Gongzi’s side and never left.”

“If you don’t leave, then you are not a traitor?” Knock off Futian’s hand directly

, and then looked at Ming Yu: “Fu Mei is lazy with such a person, but I hope Elder Shenlong can give him a clean slate.”

“Because, I believe that Elder Shenlong is not as brainless as some idiots.”

Futian suddenly became angry . Knot, the reason why he rushed out so excited was naturally that he wanted to show his determination and boundaries with Fumei in front of this group of people.

But I don’t know, things are not going according to the script he imagined.

Ming Yu frowned slightly, looked at Fu Mei, and spoke for a while.

What she saw from Fu Mei’s face was full of self-confidence and full of pride, and she did not have the guilty conscience and fear that a traitor should have.

This seems a little unusual.

No matter who it is, they always like to wear a high hat, and even if they know it is a high hat, they will never refuse.

Ming Yu was also very satisfied with Fu Mei's evaluation of herself, she hesitated for a while, and said, "No matter how good a person's psychological quality is, I'm afraid it will be difficult for Mrs. Ye to be so arrogant as a thief."

"So, I would like to give Mrs. Ye a chance to explain."

"Mrs. Ye, the scouts found out that you left the marching troops tonight, and you were nowhere to be seen for a few hours. This is reasonable, public and private, should you also explain? What did you do?"

"We, after all, are all a group of people, what do you think?"

Ming Yu's words fell, and everyone looked at Fumei, and Futian's two nostrils were even more angry. Get out of your anger, now, let's see how you Fumei quibble.

Fu Mei smiled lightly, and looked around at the people around her. There was no hint of dodging, but a faint threat appeared at the corner of her mouth.

It seems that she doesn't take people's cannibalistic eyes to heart at all.

Fu Mei helplessly shook her head and looked at Ming Yu: "Can anyone here trust me?"

As soon as these words came out, the people who had already been eyeing them all clucked their teeth even more. Damn, she, a suspected traitor, actually bit them back at this moment, talking about what they believed and what they believed. No.

This is just downright insulting.

Just when the crowd was restless, Ming Yu raised her hand slightly to signal everyone to be quiet.

Then, she nodded at Fu Mei, indicating that she could speak.

Fu Mei sneered softly and said, "I went to the city today."

What? !
