

Chapter 3890

to come to the city wall, climb high and look far.

At this time, on the other side of the mountains, a group of soldiers in Wuyangyang was already at the foot of the mountain, blocking the water around the entire mountain.

The commander's eyebrows were full of sadness, and he frowned: "It seems that the city owner and others are really there."

"Commander, how are we doing now? Do we contact other city gates and send troops to rescue together?" The previous supporter asked road.

The opponents who were attacked just now were speechless, and since things were not completely defeated, he couldn't really reveal his insincere submission, so he chose to remain silent. "There are too many troops on the opposite side. Although half of them went to the mountains, half of them are still besieging us. Even if we send troops to rescue, how many should we send out?"

Go help them break out of the siege, and once there are too many people, the city defense will be empty, and we will even be evacuated from the old nest." The commander said sadly.

The supporters nodded, and the commander's words made sense.

"We are now made two dumplings, and the dumplings and the dumplings can't echo each other. Everything can only be done by ourselves. The city gates are still notified, so tell them that they are strictly guarded according to the original plan of the alliance leader. In addition, the alliance leader and the city owner are not there. Don't mention it for now, if anyone asks, tell them."

"Remember, they left to flank the enemy and form an internal and external echo with us."

No matter what they went out for, but At least one point is very clear.

Military heart is the most important.

Now is a difficult period, the military heart is scattered, the team is also scattered, and the city defense that should fall has collapsed.

"Our group of people has also gained a lot of benefits from Han 3,000. In just a few days, the things you and I have taken that has risen are almost equivalent to working with others for several years, or even more than ten years. Year. The so-called food king's wealth, bears the king's worries, we should stick to these things alone, and we should stick to the dead."

"The subordinate understands that the subordinate will convey the commander's intention to the major gates." The supporter hurriedly said .

When the words fell, he hurriedly ran down the city wall and went to another place.

As soon as he left, the opponent just coughed lightly, pretended to be fake, and said, "The commander, do we need to launch some counterattacks to attract the attention of the army ahead? How about attracting some attention?" The commander looked around and shook his head: "Things and strength are still reserved for the city defense, it doesn't make much sense to do that."

"My subordinates understand.

commander looked at the mountains again, and finally sighed . ...

And in the mountains, George Han and others were resting in the mountains at this time, and they rushed all night, and many people were already exhausted.

They found a cave and planned to take a break and resume their journey later.

However, although they were resting at ease, one person was clearly worried.

After Amelia Su distributed some food to everyone, she slowly got up and walked out of the cave.

Gently patted George Han on the shoulder, Amelia Su squeezed out a smile: "What's the matter, are you worried that we will be overtaken by marching like this?"

George Han looked at the mountains and shook his head: "Don't worry, because we may Already surrounded by people."

"Already surrounded?" Amelia Su was shocked, but when he looked around, he couldn't see anything unusual.

"You can't see it, but I can sense it." George Han said.

Amelia Su frowned: "How is this possible? We have already set off ahead of schedule, and the group of people entered the mountain before they arrived. It is impossible for them to find us, so how could it be..."

"The problem arises. Here." George Han frowned slightly and said, "It stands to reason that there is absolutely no possibility for the other party to surround us, but the reality is that we are surrounded by water and can't get through."

Amelia Su was very surprised, but calmed down, Suddenly I understood what George Han meant: "What do you mean, we...we were betrayed by Fumei?"

Only this possibility would lead to the current situation.

George Han smiled bitterly and nodded: "Exactly!"

Amelia Su gritted her teeth: "This darn Fumei!"

"George Han, what should we do now?"

“What should we do?”

Chapter 3891

George Han smiled bitterly and sighed: “What else can I do? Either go out and die, or we rely on the terrain in the mountains and desperately die. Resist, and live a few more days.”

“If my expectations are not bad, there will be no less than 200,000 troops surrounding us.”

“200,000 troops?” Amelia Su was obviously taken aback.

George Han nodded slightly: “Ming Yu, a cautious and smart woman, will never suffer the same loss twice in front of me, so she will definitely not take me lightly this time.”

“200,000 horses, just right She is half of her army, she will not be stingy.”

“Damn, I’m not afraid of death, but what I hate most is that I can’t kill that stinky bastard Fumei before I die. She is really nasty, but she was really bad before I lost. I believe that she came to join the enemy, and I really want to give her a chance, but I didn’t expect... the dog can’t change the **.” Amelia Su was so angry that she even scolded swear words.

Of course George Han could understand her feelings and patted her on the shoulder: “Don’t get angry about these things, let’s go back and rest first.”

“Then shall we tell everyone to get ready?” Amelia Su asked.

“Let everyone rest in peace first, this will tell them how to rest when everyone is worried and angry.” George Han said.

Amelia Su thought for a while and felt that what George Han said made some sense, nodded and followed George Han back to the cave.

Everyone didn’t notice the difference between the husband and wife. After about half an hour of rest, Mo Yang got up, woke everyone up, and was ready to continue heading out.

Only George Hanliang and his wife remained motionless and had no intention of getting up.

“There is no need to go, Fumei betrayed us, and we are now surrounded.” George Han smiled softly, and then raised his eyes to the surprised people: “Are you afraid of death?” They were dumbfounded, and some people were so frightened that their legs were weak.

They both betrayed Ye Shijun and Ming Yu, and now they are surrounded by people, it is inevitable that they will be settled by Qiuhou.

“What are you afraid of death? If you are afraid of death, his mother won’t come out and hang out. If you are afraid of death, his mother will give birth to a son and take a son at home.” Mo Yang was the first to reflect, and immediately sneered disdainfully.

Ruyu Young Master also smiled softly: "Ning has not many friends in this life, but it is not bad to have a life-and-death friend. Your life and death depend on this."

After the two people's speeches

, they raised morale, After many people reported it, they all responded.

Although it is a desperate situation, at least everyone has been connected.

"Okay, since all of you are not afraid of death, then Mr. Han and his wife will sacrifice their lives to accompany him." George Han smiled softly: "Everyone, life and death are unpredictable, but Mr. Han can guarantee that as long as Mr. Han survives, he will definitely die. I will fight side by side with you to the end."

"As long as I have a breath, I will fight with you in the same bloody battle!"

"Okay." George Han stood up: "Everyone's hearts are clear, Han promises you. , if we can get through this difficult time, Han will definitely not treat anyone badly." After that, George Han strode out of the cave. But there was one person who stood still at this time.

He was full of self-blame and fear

Fu Lam!

Fumei betrayed them, but Fumei was his sister.

Therefore, some things, how did he get rid of it.

George Han clearly noticed the strangeness of Fu Lin: "Father and son are only divided into enemy and me when they play, let alone brother and sister? You have to be careful and prove it to everyone, instead of pretending to be here."

"Isn't it?" The words ended, George Han sneered and led everyone out of the cave.

Looking at the crowd, Fulin gritted his teeth and clenched the weapon in his hand tightly, yes, the best way to prove himself is not to take practical actions?

Thinking of this, he rushed out in a hurry, but as soon as he reached the entrance of the cave, the ruthlessness was completely replaced by surprise.

He was a little dumbfounded, and stood there blankly, at a loss for a while...
