

His True Colors Chapter 811-820

Chapter 811

A few rich and domineering generations were normally arrogant and domineering, but they sat squarely in front of Tian Ling'er, and one was as docile as a white rabbit, not even daring to breathe.

"It looks like you guys already know what I know?" Tian Ling'er said in a cold voice.

This sentence scared the faces of several rich people, they knew what the matter that Tian Ling'er was referring to, and several of them had also discussed it privately and even believed in this matter, of course, in front of Tian Ling'er, they didn't dare to show that they really believed in this matter.

"Ling'er, are you talking about the matter about someone smearing Su Yingxia?" someone was smart enough to ask to Tian Ling'er.

Hearing that, Tian Ling'er's anger was a little more controlled, at least these guys still knew that Su Yingxia was slandered.

"Why didn't you tell me." Tian Ling'er questioned.

"Ling'er, we don't even believe in such absurd rumors."

"Yeah, I don't know which idiot dared to say such a thing, but we're actually already investigating the person behind the rumor."

"Yes, yes, we were going to find the person who started the rumor before telling you."

Tian Ling'er looked questioningly at the people across the street, with their personalities, how could they spontaneously take care of this kind of thing, spending all day in the club nightclub had taken out almost all of their time, how could they still have the heart to help in this matter.

"Yeah? Since you're looking into it, what did you find out?" Tian Ling'er asked.

"There's no news yet, the rumors spread too fast and many people are talking about it now, so it's a bit difficult to find the source, but don't worry, we'll definitely look into it."

"Good, as long as the person who started the rumor is from Cloud City, we will be able to uncover it, it just takes some time."

"Ling'er, trust us, this matter concerns Brother 3000, we will never slow down."

A few of the rich second generation looked like they swore by it, but Tian Ling'er didn't hold much hope for them, after all, these people had no real skills at all other than having money at home, and their connections only lay in resources in terms of women.

"Since I've called you out, I naturally hope that you can help out in this matter, until the matter is investigated, if any of you dare not get on board, I, Tian Ling'er, will definitely make you suffer."

After saying this, Tian Ling'er paused and continued, "If I find out that you guys are still wasting your time at the Clubhouse Nightclub, don't blame me for being rude."

"Yes, yes, don't worry, we will definitely do our best to investigate this matter."

"No entertainment will be done until the matter is cleared up."

"This matter is investigated from some low-level personnel, people with real status should not dare to create such remarks." Tian Ling'er said.

Now the people with a little status in Cloud City should be well aware of the serious consequences of offending Han Qianqian, and if they wanted to stay in Cloud City, they would never dare to do something like this to smear Su Yingxia, so in Tian Ling'er's opinion, the people who did this matter were most likely just some minor characters.

Several people nodded repeatedly, and assured Tian Ling'er that they would use the shortest possible time to find out the rumor monger.

After Tian Ling'er left the cafe, a few rich people looked like they were in tears.

They had already arranged to go on a nightclub hunt together tonight too, but in this situation, who would dare to go?

"Hey, tonight's good show is ruined, I didn't think that Tian Ling'er would ask us to look into this matter."

"Who says it isn't, she'll be able to go to the hillside villa and ask for some benefits, what can we get."

"Hurry up and shut up, if our few families didn't have cooperation with the Tian family, we could be so rich, it's only right that Tian Ling'er ordered us to do something, nothing worth complaining about, if you want to go play, just finish this matter, mobilize the connections around you and investigate this matter as soon as possible."

After Tian Ling'er left, she came back to the Devil's Capital, this matter still had to be made known to Mo Yang, currently the biggest grey area power in Cloud City was in Mo Yang's hands, he would definitely get twice the results with half the effort if he came to investigate this matter.

As for those rich second generation, Tian Ling'er didn't hold much hope for them, only a few more helpers at that time, just one more chance.

"Boss Mo, Tian Ling'er is here." Yang Yong informed to Mo Yang.

"Let her in." There was no need to think about Tian Ling'er's status in the hillside villa, and Mo Yang usually treated her as his sister.

"Brother Yang, you should know about the rumors about my sister in the outside world, right?" Tian Ling'er asked after walking to Mo Yang's office.

"I know, I've sent someone out to investigate, I'm sure we'll have results soon." Mo Yang said, when he first heard about this, he was also so angry that he exploded in place, this cuckold was pinned on Han Qianqian's head, the rumor monger was simply playing with fire.

"Is there a suspect yet?" Tian Ling'er asked.

To say the object of suspicion, Mo Yang really had someone to choose from, because there weren't many people in Cloud City who dared to offend Han Marchant now, and no one would be asking for death.

"Ling'er, do you guess if this matter has anything to do with Su Hai Chao Su Yeh Han?" Mo Yang said.

The two siblings knew in their hearts how wretched Tian Ling'er was, and they had now been reduced to the lowest class of people after being completely bankrupt.

"I heard that Su Haichao is now forced to work at a construction site in order to make ends meet, as for Su Yehan still has always had a heart to marry into a rich family, and when she sees a rich man, she can't wait to stick it into someone else's bosom, these two are now living such a miserable life, although they are to blame, but it has a lot to do with my brother, maybe this thing, they really did it." Tian Ling'er said in a cold voice.

Mo Yang nodded, he thought so too, but there was no evidence yet to know if the two of them were the source or not.

"I'll send someone to focus on checking them, if this thing is really their doing, I'll make them regret it." Mo Yang said.

Tian Ling'er had a plan, didn't Su Yehan always want to join the gentry? Fulfilling this wish of hers, should be able to get something out of her mouth.

"Brother Yang, I have a plan, don't check on these two for now, don't alert them." After saying that, Tian Ling'er pulled out her phone.

After the phone was dialed, Tian Ling'er said, "Chen Yi, here's a mission for you, soak up Su Yeh Han."

Chen Yi was one of those rich second generation just now, he also knew who Su Yeh Han was, this woman's reputation in the rich second generation circles had become notorious because she often dressed herself up to meet rich people by any means necessary, and had already been played by an unknown number of men.

"Ling'er, Su Yeh Han is such a b*tch, what am I going to do to pick up her?" Chen Yi asked in puzzlement.

"Let's get soaked first, I have a mission for you next." Tian Ling'er said.

Chapter 812

Although Chen Yi couldn't show the slightest interest in Su Yi Han's broken shoes, but since it was Tian Ling'er's request, he could only do as he was told.

Moreover, for him, picking up girls was his specialty, not to mention that Su Yehan was still a vain woman, and getting this kind of woman was no trouble at all for Chen Yi.

"Okay, you can reimburse me for the expenses afterwards." Chen Yi smiled.

"Hasn't your family always wanted to join a share in the city village? As long as this matter is done properly, I'll give you the opportunity." Tian Ling'er said, now that the Celestial Family also had a part in the project of the City Village, it was just a matter of words for Tian Ling'er to make the Chen Yi family eat some sweets.

"Really! Spirit, you're not kidding me!" Chen Yi was so amazed that he couldn't close his mouth, his family had recently hurt their brains over this matter, if he could do this, who else would dare to say that he only knew how to eat, drink and be merry in the future?

"When have I ever joked with you," Tian Ling'er said.

"Ling'er, thank you, don't worry, I'll make sure this matter is done properly for you, I'll listen to whatever else you have planned next." Chen Yi was not a fool, there was no way that Tian Ling'er would let him go after Su Yehan for no reason, there must still be some purpose behind it, but no matter what the purpose was, the project that would allow the Chen family to enter the city village, Chen Yi would do whatever it took to complete it.

After hanging up the phone, Tian Ling'er said to Mo Yang, "Brother Yang, how's my plan?"

Although Tian Ling'er didn't say her plan, but with Mo Yang's brain, how could she not think of it?

Su Yehan is as money-obsessed as life, dreaming of marrying into a rich family, if there is Chen Yi's pursuit, Su Yehan will definitely seize this opportunity to the death, and wait until the time is ripe to let Chen Yi condescend, if the smearing of Su Yingxia is really Su Yehan's doing, she will definitely reveal it.

After all, women in love have no intelligence, and Su Yehan, who was smashed dizzy by money, is even less likely to be smart.

"Indeed good, in that case, I'll leave the Su Yehan aspect to you, I'll start from other places and see if it could be someone else's doing." Mo Yang said.

At the same time, Fang Zhan had landed at Cloud City Airport.

For Fang Zhan, Cloud City wasn't a place he was familiar with, but returning here again, Fang Zhan's heart was very heavy as the news he brought was a fatal blow to the Han family, and he could even imagine that Nangong Boling would definitely leave Cloud City immediately if he knew that Han Qianqian was dead, and he might even be able to anger the rest of the Han family.

"Hey, I didn't expect to come here again with such feelings." Fang Zhan sighed and talked to himself.

Walking out of the airport, Fang Zhan did not go to the Genting Mountain villa area at the first opportunity.

In fact, there was still some selfishness existing within him, it was absolutely impossible to find his daughter's whereabouts by relying on his personal strength alone, this was a result that he had spent many years verifying, back then, when he left the apocalypse, he had used almost all of his methods to go into seclusion until he was completely desperate.

And now, with the help of someone like the Nangong family whose influence covered the globe, the chances of finding his daughter would be much higher, and Fang Zhan didn't want to miss out on such an opportunity.

To Fang Zhan, his daughter was the last motivation for him to live in this world, if he couldn't find her, there was no point in living at all.

An idea sprouted in Fang Zhan's mind that he would not tell them the news of Han Qianxiang's death for the time being, and wait until Nangong Boling found his daughter before bringing it up to them.

Although this act was a bit selfish, Fang Zhan had no choice but to do so.

"Three-thousand, just consider me sorry, I really can't do it." After Fang Zhan said this, he first found a hotel to stay in.

Mo Yang's control over Cloud City was very tight, so when Fang Zhan appeared in Cloud City, he received the news immediately.

Mo Yang didn't know who Fang Zhan was, but he was aware that Fang Zhan knew where Han Qianli had gone, and now that Su Yingxia's illness was getting worse, Nangong Boling had been trying to inform Han Qianli about it, but was struggling to find a way to do so.

Now that Fang Zhan had returned to Cloud City, he must be able to tell Han Qianxiang about it through him.

"Boss Mo, are you going to find Fang Zhan?" Lin Yong asked to Mo Yang.

"We definitely have to find it, but there's no need to make a big fuss, he's back in such a low profile, he definitely doesn't want to attract too much attention, I'll just go myself." Mo Yang said.

Leaving the magic capital and arriving at the hotel where Fang Zhan was staying, Mo Yang asked directly to the front desk, "A man named Fang Zhan, which room is he staying in."

The little girl at the front desk, grinding her nails, didn't even raise her head when she heard Mo Yang's words, and said, "I'm sorry, we can't reveal our guests' privacy."

This was considered the most basic professional conduct, in the past, Mo Yang wouldn't embarrass her, but now, Mo Yang couldn't wait to see Fang Zhan, so naturally he was much less patient.

"Let your manager come out, he'll know whether he should tell me or not." Mo Yang said in a cold voice.

When the receptionist heard this, she raised her head in disdain and sized up Mo Yang, a mere uncle, talking so arrogantly and wanting to see the manager at every turn?

"I'm sorry, even if the manager is here, it's useless, it's our hotel rules." The little girl at the front desk said.

"The manager is useless, just inform your boss who made the hotel's rules, now you can change them." Mo Yang said.

The little girl at the front desk couldn't help but laugh, this guy's breath is really big, seeing the manager isn't enough, but he even deludes himself to see the boss, and he wants the boss to change the rules, what kind of thing does he really think he is.

"Uncle, don't be funny, who do you think you are, is the boss something you can meet just because you want to? Hurry up and leave, I'll call security to kick you out if you don't." The little girl at the front desk said.

Bang!

Mo Yang hit the front desk with a punch, scaring the little girl at the front desk all over.

"What are you doing, how dare you fool around here, do you know who owns this hotel?" The little girl at the front desk snapped at Mo Yang with an angry face.

"I'd really like to know who this is, might as well tell me, I'll have time later and have a heart-to-heart with him." Mo Yang sneered.

At this time, a rich middle-aged man in the distance was dressed in formal attire, with a manager's job tag on his chest, he was originally cozy inspecting the hotel environment, the moment he saw Mo Yang, the flesh on his face stiffened.

Is this not Boss Mo?

How did he show up here, and he looked very angry about it.

It couldn't be that the ignorant receptionist was offended!

This thought made the manager almost pee, offending Mo Yang, if the boss knew about this, he would not only have to roll up and leave, I'm afraid the whole Cloud City would have no room for him to survive.

Three steps forward and two steps back, the rich middle-aged man hurriedly ran towards Mo Yang.

Chapter 813

The little girl at the front desk who was originally frightened by Mo Yang's punch saw the manager come running, her bottom line was full of energy, and said to Mo Yang, "Didn't you want to see our manager, he's here, but I advise you to be polite, our manager is not easy to mess with."

Mo Yang turned his head with a cold face and looked at the middle-aged man running towards him.

Not easy to mess with?

"I like messing with this kind of bad people." Mo Yang said coldly.

"Good advice, since you won't listen, you can't blame me." The little girl at the front desk rolled her eyes and said.

"Mo Mo Boss, what wind actually blew you here." After the manager ran up to Mo Yang, he quickly asked respectfully.

For this number one person in the grey area of Cloud City, even the boss behind this hotel had to be respectful, and he, a small manager, didn't dare to put up a fight in front of Mo Yang.

The little girl at the front desk who was waiting for a good show was confused for a moment.

She knew her own manager's temper, because the boss behind the scenes was a big figure in Yun City, so the hotel manager also relied on the boss's influence in Yun City, and he didn't even care about ordinary guests.

If someone dared to cause trouble in the hotel, the usual way to deal with them was to directly find someone to beat them out, without any mercy.

In the front desk girl's opinion, this uncle daring to cause trouble in the hotel would definitely end up in a terrible situation, but what one didn't expect was that the manager's attitude towards him was so respectful!

"You have a lot of hotel rules, even I don't care." Mo Yang said.

The fat flesh on the manager's face trembled, through this sentence, he knew that it must have been the front desk who said something to Mo Yang that he shouldn't have said, what a damn, even Mo Yang dared to offend him.

"Are you blind, you don't even know Boss Mo, hurry up and apologize to Boss Mo." The manager yelled at the little sister at the front desk.

The already befuddled little sister at the front desk looked panicked when she heard this and said, "Manager, it's not my fault, he wants to see the guest registration record, how can I just give it to him, this is the hotel's rules."

"What rules, in front of Boss Mo, the hotel has no rules, you're going to get me f*cking k*llled." The manager said in a rage.

After scolding, the manager quickly asked Mo Yang, "Boss Mo, what do you want to know, I'll immediately pull the information for you."

Mo Yang wasn't here to show off his identity, the main purpose was to know which room Fang Zhan was staying in, and since he could know this matter, there was no need to continue dwelling on what had just happened.

"Fang Zhan, which room is he staying in." Mo Yang asked.

The manager glanced at the little girl at the front desk, this silly woman didn't even know what to do, it was really about to blow his mind.

"What are you waiting for, hurry up and check it out for Boss Mo." The manager roared.

Knowing the room number, Mo Yang didn't pursue the way the little sister at the front desk had treated him just now and walked directly towards the elevator.

The cold sweat on the manager's forehead, Mo Yang just walked away, instead of making his heart afraid, if he was to be held accountable in the autumn, this was not something he could afford.

"What's going on, are you so f*cking blind you don't even know Mo Yang?" The manager gritted his teeth and asked the little girl at the front desk.

Mo Yang!

The receptionist's brain rumbled, as a Cloud City native, how could she not know who Mo Yang was?

But she hadn't expected that this seemingly unimpressive uncle would be the famous Mo Yang of Cloud City!

She was even threatening Mo Yang just now, this was a death sentence!

"I, I didn't know, I didn't know he was Mo Yang." The little girl at the front desk was shivering with fear, it was already too late to regret.

The manager's breathing was trembling because offending such a big person, not to mention him, even the boss behind the scenes would be damned.

"Did he say anything just now?" The manager asked.

The little girl at the front desk was so afraid that her heart and liver were trembling, and her face was already as pale as paper, she said, "What was said, I don't know what he said."

"Grass Nima, think carefully about every word he said, or I'll have you eat your heart out." The manager gritted his teeth.

The little girl at the front desk could only try her best to recall every word that Mo Yang had said and then convey the words to the manager.

When the manager heard that Mo Yang wanted to talk to his boss, his mind completely collapsed and his legs went weak and he just sat on the floor.

Talking to the boss?

This sentence directly made the manager despair.

Trembling, he took out the phone and dialed the boss's number: "Boss, something big has happened, you should come to the hotel quickly!"

Outside the door of Fang Zhan's room, Mo Yang had already rang the doorbell.

Fang Zhan wasn't surprised that Mo Yang came to his door so quickly, after all, he was aware of Mo Yang's identity in Cloud City, and it wasn't unusual for his power to learn that he had arrived in Cloud City.

"I didn't expect you to come so soon." Fang Zhan said to Mo Yang with a smile, since he had decided to temporarily hide the news that Han Qianqian was dead, he naturally wouldn't reveal any flaw.

"Why did you suddenly come to Cloud City?" Mo Yang asked.

"Nangong Boling is helping me to find out about my daughter, I came back to see if there is any latest news." Fang Zhan said very naturally.

"Where is 3000, why didn't he come back with you." Mo Yang continued to ask.

Without changing his face, Fang Zhan said, "He has something very important to do, he can't spare himself for a short time, so in a short time, he shouldn't come back."

"Do you have a way to contact him now?"

"Even I don't know where he is, and I want to contact him unless I wait for him to complete his mission," Fang Zhan said.

Mo Yang gritted his teeth, he had thought that he would be able to let Han Qianqiang know about Su Yingxia through Fang Zhan, but now it seemed that it probably wouldn't work.

"Why are you in such a hurry to find him?" Fang Zhan was confused, not only him, everyone in the Han family and Su Yingxia should know that Han 3000 left for something very important, and Su Yingxia was even more aware of the existence of the apocalypse, it was reasonable that they couldn't disturb Han 3000 at a time like this.

"Something has happened to Su Yingxia." Mo Yang said in a deep voice.

Fang Zhan frowned tightly.

How could something have happened to Su Yingxia!

This is Cloud City, is there anyone who can hurt her?

"What's going on." Fang Zhan asked.

"White hair overnight, aging at a rate visible to the naked eye, Nangong Boling has invited famous doctors from all over the world to temporarily identify it as senility." Mo Yang explained.

"Aging syndrome?" Fang Zhan took a deep breath and said, "I've also heard about this disease, there is no cure at the moment, even if we inform Han Qianqian, he has no way to save Su Yingxia."

"Can't he be informed if there's no way? If anything happens to Su Yingxia, how am I going to explain to him, can you help me and find a way to let him know?" Mo Yang said with some prayerfulness in his tone.

Chapter 814

Mo Yang's words caused Fang Zhan to feel some guilt inside, because of his selfishness, he hid the news of Han Qianxiang's death, he should have let these people know so that they would no longer hold the hope that Han Qianxiang would return.

But Fang Zhan had searched for his daughter for so many years, he desperately wanted to know about her, once Nangong Boling knew that Han Qianxiang was dead, he would definitely stop investigating his daughter's news, which was something Fang Zhan didn't want to see.

Han Qianxiang, consider me sorry for you!

"There's nothing I can do." Fang Zhan said with a sigh.

Mo Yang continued in disbelief, "How can you not have a solution, you took him away, how can you not know where he is."

"I don't have as much power in that place as you think, there are many things that I am not qualified to touch, but I will make a note of this matter, and I will tell him as soon as I see him." Fang Zhan had no choice but to make this promise to make Mo Yang stop pestering him.

Seeing that the words had come to this point, Mo Yang sighed and said, "Please make sure to remember that if you have any needs in Cloud City, you can come to me and I will not bother you."

When Mo Yang went downstairs, the hotel boss was already waiting warily at the side, looking at the crying face of the little sister at the front desk, it was obvious that she was scolded badly.

When the boss saw Mo Yang, he took two steps forward in three steps and hurriedly walked up, making amends: "Boss Mo, I already know what happened before, and also taught her a hard lesson, if you still have any dissatisfaction, feel free to tell me, I will do it until you are satisfied."

Mo Yang wasn't in a good mood right now, seeing Fang Zhan, but he couldn't inform Han Qianqian of Su Yingxia's situation, which made him feel clogged up, and the little thing that happened just now wasn't worth pursuing.

"Get lost to the side." Mo Yang said in a cold voice.

The boss shuddered and quickly moved two steps sideways to make way for Mo Yang.

Taking a few steps out of the way, Mo Yang suddenly stopped again, because he saw the little girl at the front desk, and he knew that if he left like that, this little girl at the front desk would definitely be punished very severely, although it was true that the little girl at the front desk ignored him just now, but at Mo Yang's position, he would no longer be catty about such trivial matters, and Mo Yang had never been a narrow-minded person.

"What happened just now, let's just let it go, since you've been scolding people and crying." Mo Yang said to the boss.

The boss was thinking of punishing the two of them, the receptionist and the manager, but he didn't expect Mo Yang to say something like that.

"Boss Mo, you you really don't care anymore?" The boss was not afraid to ask with confidence.

"Don't you understand what I'm saying so clearly?" Mo Yang spoke harshly.

"Got it, got it, I know what to do." The boss nodded his head repeatedly and said.

The manager on the side understood that Mo Yang wouldn't be held responsible for what he had just done, and said with a grateful face, "Thank you, Boss Mo."

After saying that, the manager gave a glance to the little girl at the front desk, who just did not put Mo Yang in her eyes, also said gratefully, "Boss Mo, thank you for being willing to let me go, I was the one who just had eyes to see, thank you for not bothering with me."

"Recognize this face of mine, remember to be polite to me the next time you come." After Mo Yang said these words, he walked towards the outside of the hotel.

It seemed like a meaningless statement, but it was actually a knock on the boss, letting him know that his so-called not bothering didn't mean anything else, but that he really didn't bother.

After Mo Yang left, the three of them were completely relieved, especially the owner of this hotel, he knew that if Mo Yang really hated him because of this, he wouldn't have to hang around Cloud City in the future.

Now in Cloud City, Mo Yang's status was second only to Han Qianqian, and he was a big figure that no one could afford to provoke.

"You two are lucky that Boss Mo doesn't even hold him accountable, so next time cheer up and don't offend anyone." The boss said to the manager and the little girl at the front desk.

The two of them nodded like garlic, they had avoided a robbery this time, where would they dare to look down on people casually next time.

At the same time, Chen Yi also launched his plan.

Although Chen Yi was only a newly rich second generation in Cloud City, not a celebrity, it was still easy to investigate Su Yeh Han's whereabouts.

While Su Yehan and a group of sisters were shopping at the mall, more than ten people arranged by Chen Yi, each holding a large bouquet of flowers, appeared in front of the women.

This group of people said to be sisters, but in fact, each other to fight, compare high and low, never really with the emotional exchange, everyone together, that is, each other have a show off object, the topic is often to buy what new clothes, new bags, and the tone of that show off never have the slightest disguise.

When this kind of scene appears in front of the eyes, several women are stupid, heart hope that this is the peach blossom that they attracted.

Su Yeh Han in particular, once the Han family gave her a gift, she had the preconceived notion that it was a bride-price for her, and now in this situation, Su Yeh Han had the same thought again at first.

"Isn't this person Chen Yi!"

"Mr. Chen, his family's company is not big, but I heard that it has nearly a hundred million in assets, and he has a good relationship with the Heavenly Family, the future development of the company is definitely promising, does he have a crush on one of us?"

"It must be me, I've met Chen Yi a few times before and that's when I noticed he was secretly observing me." Some woman couldn't wait to say.

Su Yehan didn't say anything, but secretly folded her collar on her chest to reveal a touch of spring, and secretly took out her makeup mirror to look at her makeup.

At this time, Chen Yi walked in front of the women, when he saw the hopeful eyes of those women one by one, his heart developed a strong disdain, with these women's posture, he usually didn't even have the interest to take a second look, but unfortunately, Tian Ling'er had an order, he had to soak up Su Yeh Han.

"Chen Yi, what are you doing?" The woman who just thought that Chen Yi was here to court her couldn't wait to stand up and say.

Chen Yi didn't even look at the woman who spoke and walked straight to Su Yehan.

"Su Yehan! How could it be her."

"It's actually her, Chen Yi can't be blind."

"Doesn't he know how many people have worn Su Yeh Han's stupid shoe?"

The so-called sisterhood was reflected most vividly at this moment, and among the mutterings of several people were words filled with disdain for Su Yehan.

Su Yehan herself was also a bit confused, although she was expecting something in her heart, but she did not expect Chen Yi to really come at her.

Chapter 815

"Are you, are you here for me?" Su Yi Han stammered a little, because she had been seeking the opportunity to marry into a rich family, and had been selling her flirtatiousness in front of those rich second generation, but not many people were really willing to look at her directly, so Chen Yi Han's appearance not only made Su Yi Han feel surprised, but also a little unbelievable.

If Chen Yi's family background was placed in the past, Su Yi Han wouldn't even take a second glance, not even over a hundred million, how could he be called a gentry?

But it was different now, the Su family had completely fallen, and she was no longer a Miss Su, just an ordinary ordinary person, to be looked at by someone like Chen Yi, Su Yi Han was also contented.

"Is there anyone here more beautiful than you?" Chen Yi said with a smile.

This caused the other women to be dissatisfied, the most important thing for women to compare with each other was their looks and body, how could they accept such words that Su Yehan was prettier than them.

"Chen Yi, you don't have myopia, do you, here we are, who doesn't have a higher face value than Su Yehan."

"Yeah, you should go to the ophthalmology department and have a good look, I don't know what she's comparing us to."

"Small breasts, short legs, and not good looking, Chen Yi, is your taste so low?"

A few women couldn't help but mock.

Chen Yi took Su Yi Han into his arms, and said to the women with the air of a domineering president: "I advise you to be careful what you say, from now on, Su Yi Han is my woman, if you say anything else about her, I'll make sure you can't get in touch with the second generation of the rich in the future, although my influence isn't great, I at least know a few friends. ."

This made those women turn pale, they were all girls born from ordinary families, trading their face and body for the life they wanted, if they really couldn't come into contact with the rich second generation, their good days would come to an end.

"Chen Yi, it's just a joke, why are you so serious."

"Yeah, we're just joking, just saying whatever, don't take it seriously."

The attitudes of a few people changed, looking at Chen Yi with a flattering look.

Chen Yi forcefully suppressed the feeling of nausea in his heart, it was true that people were divided into groups, the reason why these women were able to get together was because they were shameless enough, right?

"Are you free tonight, I want to treat you to dinner." Chen Yi asked to Su Yehan.

Su Yehan nodded her head repeatedly, how could she refuse a rich and wealthy second generation that was sent to her door.

"I'll pick you up tonight, there's a nightclub bureau after dinner." Chen Yi said.

"Good." Su Yehan responded in one breath.

"I'll have these flowers delivered to your home, and I won't delay you from shopping."

After Chen Yi left, Su Yeh Han still felt like she was dreaming, she didn't expect good luck to come to her so suddenly.

"I'm going home first." After Su Yehan said goodbye to her sisters, she hurried home, she had to dress up and appear in front of Chen Yi tonight in her best appearance.

Chen Yi, on the other hand, contacted a few of his good brothers, and a few of them arranged to meet at a clean bar.

"Chen Yi, what's the matter that you're in such a hurry to find us?"

"Did you find any good resources again? Where's the guy, how about the looks and the trim."

"How many, enough for us to share?"

Through these people's questions, it was also possible to hear how erotic their private lives were.

But Chen Yi smiled faintly, he didn't call these brothers here because of this kind of thing.

"I found you guys here today because I want you guys to back me up, I'm going to propose tonight."
Chen Yi said.

"Propose!"

"Proposal!"

"Proposal!"

A few people looked at Chen Yi with shocked expressions, the playboy had actually proposed, they seriously suspected that they were hallucinating, or else Chen Yi was having a brain fart.

"I see you're dizzy, and you're proposing."

"Chen Yi, did your brain get caught in the door, you're in your prime, and you want to get married."

"Chen Yi, I can remind you, no matter how good a woman is, you'll get tired of playing with her a few more times, if you get married, it'll be too late to regret it later."

Hearing the words of several people, Chen Yi smiled even more happily and said, "I just said that I'm proposing, who told you guys to get married."

Proposing was just the beginning, the next step would be marriage, this was a normal person's understanding of these two words, but looking at Chen Yi's appearance, he didn't seem to have any plans to get married, which made a few people a little cloudy.

"Chen Yi, what the hell are you up to, make it clear."

"Yeah, you've got us all confused."

"By the way, who is the person you're proposing to?"

"Su Yeh Han." Chen Yi said.

"Su Ye-Han? Never heard of this woman."

"F*ck, it can't be that woman from the old Su family, and you even want that stupid shoe."

"Su Yeh Han! She pretended to be drunk to give me a chance, if I didn't think she was dirty, I would have fking her long ago, and you're even proposing to her."

Several people looked at Chen Yi in stunned silence, not understanding at all what he meant by this kind of operation, after all, the three words Su Yeh Han already represented a broken shoe, if Chen Yi picked up this broken shoe, wouldn't he be laughed at by outsiders.

"Don't you guys get excited, didn't I say that it's just a marriage proposal, I don't mean to get married." Chen Yi smiled helplessly.

"Damn it, hurry up and tell us what's going on, or else we'll cut off our friendship with you, but we can't ruin the reputation of our small group because of you."

"Yeah, you're willing to take a woman like Su Yeh Han, how big of a heart does that have to be, hurry up and tell us what you're up to."

"Alright, alright, don't get excited, wasn't I just about to tell you guys, this is actually something that Tian Ling'er asked me to do." Chen Yi said.

"Tian Ling'er? She asked you to propose to Su Yeh Han, what does this mean, it's reasonable that she should hate Su Yeh Han as a woman very much now that she's Han Qianqian's sister."

"The hatred between the Han and Su families is known to almost everyone in Cloud City, what does Tian Ling'er want?"

At the beginning of Han Qianqian's entry into the Su family, he was spat on by Yun City for being useless, and half of this was due to Su Haichao, these things had already been spread around in Yun City.

"I actually don't understand what Tian Ling'er plans to do right now, but she gave me a promise that as long as I make this thing beautiful, she'll let our family join the city village project." Chen Yi said.

There was no telling how many people were salivating over this big piece of fat meat in the City Village, but because this project was owned by Weak Water Real Estate, no one dared to do anything bad in secret, so even if the fat meat was right in front of them, those people wouldn't dare to do anything.

And to get such an opportunity, it was great news for any merchant family.

"Originally, Tian Ling'er's idea was just for me to pick up Su Yeh Han, but I guessed that she must have something to ask of me, and I had to make Su Yeh Han trust me even more, so that's why I had the plan to propose."

Chapter 816

What Tian Ling'er was going to do was no longer important to the other people, Chen Yi was able to join the City Village project because of this, which made them envious, if this kind of good thing fell on their heads, not to mention getting Su Yeh Han, even if it was spending a night with a homeless girl, they would be able to bite their teeth and endure it.

This concerned the future of their own company, the current Chen Yi was only the second generation of businessmen who was not worth more than a hundred million, but once he joined the project in the city village, his wealth would definitely soar, and his status in Cloud City would rise as well.

"Chen Yi, you're too damn lucky that such a good thing would fall on your head."

"I'll have to call you Mr. Chen from now on, we're not on the same level anymore ah."

"Hey, I'm also on good terms with Tian Ling'er, why didn't she explain this to me."

Several people sighed in sighs.

Chen Yi had known that they would react like this, after all, the project of the City Village was too tempting for anyone to resist.

"Don't worry, if I can join the City Village project, will I still forget you guys if there are benefits?"
Chen Yi said.

"Alright, what are you going to do tonight, we'll try to cooperate, but let's agree beforehand, we're all contributing to this matter, so you can remember us if there are benefits in the future."

A few people planned how to propose and how to move Su Yeh Han, each of them were making plans, hoping to try to perform on this matter, so that they could get benefits from Chen Yi in the future.

For these playboys, picking up women was a basic course, and everyone was a handful, so the plan was quickly made.

Chen Yi then called Tian Ling'er, since Tian Ling'er still had follow-up requests, tonight was the best time to fulfill her request, when Su Yehan was in the moving stage, she was bound to be the most obedient.

"Ling'er, I plan to propose to Su Yehan tonight, what do you want me to do, this is the perfect opportunity." Chen Yi said.

"Chen Yi, you're downright open-minded, aren't you afraid that this matter will have a bad effect on you?" Tian Ling'er was very surprised to learn about this matter, a marriage proposal was not child's play after all, if it attracted too much attention, it wouldn't be easy for Chen Yi to cleanly withdraw from this matter.

"What you have explained to me, I will naturally do it beautifully, how can I let you down." Chen Yi smiled.

"It seems that the project of the city village is not a small temptation for you, but since I gave you a promise, I will never break my word, I want you to get words out of Su Yeh Han's mouth about smearing Su Ying Xia, is she the one who did this thing." Tian Ling'er said.

Chen Yi frowned, after this rumor spread in Cloud City, almost everyone was talking about it, and it could be said that it had greatly affected Su Yingxia and Han Qianli, no wonder Tianling'er was willing to throw out this piece of fat meat in the city village.

"Don't worry, I'll be able to give you the answer tonight." Chen Yi assured.

Hanging up the phone, Chen Yi carefully mulled over this matter, smearing Su Yingxia, how serious the consequences of this matter would be, I'm sure Su Yeh Han knew it in her heart, so her alertness on this matter would definitely be very high, wanting to easily test out if this matter was her doing, I'm afraid a marriage proposal alone wouldn't be able to do it.

Back at home, Chen Yi did some small tricks, he had to let Su Yeh Han know that he and Su Yeh Han were on the same side, and also had to show that he regarded Han Qianyan as his enemy before he could do so.

A simple villain with Han Three Thousand's name written on it, the story Chen Yi had already thought of, and after the heroine returned to his home tonight, he could stage his own plan.

"You're home so early today, something's not right, you're not out of money again, are you?" When Chen Yi's father saw Chen Yi, he said with an unhappy face, this daughter only knew how to eat and drink all day long, not at all motivated, making him hate the iron.

Chen Yi's mother gave Chen Yi a wink, as if she was afraid that Chen Yi would anger his father by asking for money.

"Dad, I won't ask you for money to spend in the future, I can make my own money." Chen Yi said with a smile, how could he still be short of money after having the project in the city village.

Chen Yi's father sneered and said, "If you have the ability to make money, I'll have to burn incense, I'm lucky you're not a loser, you useless thing."

"Dad, this time your son is lucky, but only after tonight's events, I'll give you a reminder, I'm bringing a woman home tonight, and you'll help act then." Chen Yi said.

"A woman?" At the mention of a woman, Chen Yi's mother became excited, she knew that her son was never serious about his feelings, but she wished she could have a daughter-in-law, preferably with a grandson to hug.

"Which girl is so ungrateful to be scourged by you." Chen Yi's father asked.

"Su Yeh Han, that fallen Su family, you should know about it." Chen Yi said.

Chen Yi's mother's face changed dramatically upon hearing this, although she and Su Yehan were in different circles, she had heard many people mention Su Yehan, a woman who had hated to crawl into the arms of every rich man since the Su family had gone bankrupt, and was now infamous, she would never accept Chen Yi taking such a woman home.

"Chen Yi, you wouldn't know what kind of person Su Yeh Han is, you wouldn't know, how could this kind of woman enter my Chen family's house." Chen Yi's mother said sternly.

His father was even more agitated, because one of his friends had bought Su Yehan for one night with 100,000 yuan, if this matter was spread out, where would the Chen family's face be.

"Chen Yi, if you dare to do that, immediately get out of the Chen family, I will no longer recognize you as my son." Chen Yi's father said as he stared at Chen Yi viciously.

"Don't get excited, hear me out first, this matter is what Tian Ling'er asked me to do, nothing will happen between me and Su Yehan, it's just an act, Tian Ling'er suspects that the recent rumors about Su Yingxia were spread by Su Yehan, so she wants me to get words out of Su Yehan's mouth." Chen Yi explained.

The rumor that Su Yingxia had cuckolded Han 3000 had been heard by Chen Yi's parents and had caused a boil in Cloud City, so it was only right that Tian Ling'er, as Han 3000's sister, would step in to investigate the matter.

But Su Yeh Han was a woman of infamy after all, even if Tian Ling'er had asked Chen Yi to do this, how could he easily agree to it.

"Don't you know how to refuse? Why did you agree to such a laborious and unpleasant thing." Chen Yi's father said with dissatisfaction.

"Dad, the opportunity to join the City Village Project was placed in front of you, would you have refused in your place?" Chen Yi smiled.

The two parents scuffled and stood up from the sofa.

The project in the city village!

Chapter 817

Chen Yi's father walked up to him and could clearly see his hands trembling slightly from overexcitement.

"You, what did you say?" Chen Yi's father asked with an incredulous face, he couldn't believe what he had just heard, because the project of the City Village didn't only determine the Chen family's worth, but also their status.

Once one joined the City Village project, there would definitely be close dealings with the Heavenly Family, and the Weak Water Property, and now in Cloud City, to be able to get involved with both, it was all about being able to make one's status go up, something that countless people dreamed of!

Chen Yi's mother likewise had an unbelievable expression and couldn't wait to ask, "Chen Yi, you're not kidding us, how could you possibly be qualified to join the city village project?"

Chen Yi's mother had always loved Chen Yi and she was very convinced that Chen Yi would one day become successful and bring glory to the Chen family, but even with this mentality present, she still couldn't believe what Chen Yi had just said, which was enough to see how high this matter was in their minds.

The parents reacted in such a way that made Chen Yi feel justified, and any family hearing such news would probably be like this.

"This matter was promised to me by Tian Ling'er herself, of course it's true." Chen Yi said.

Chen Yi's father took a few deep breaths one after the other, otherwise he was afraid that he would get too excited and cause a cerebral hemorrhage.

"Son, you've really made it, mom has finally waited for this day." Chen Yi's mother said excitedly.

"Mom, I haven't let you down," Chen Yi smiled.

Chen Yi's mother nodded her head repeatedly and said, "No, no, how could you disappoint me, mom has always believed that you will be successful."

"But tonight, I still hope you guys will cooperate with me to act, if I don't finish the task that Tian Ling'er explained, I won't get the chance to join the city village project." Chen Yi said.

"Don't worry, we'll try our best to cooperate with you in whatever you want to do." Chen Yi's father changed his previous attitude, compared to his hatred for Su Yehan, a woman, he was able to accept it in the face of great benefits.

The project was unimportant, what was important was the circle of contacts that this project could bring to the Chen family, which was what Chen Yi's father felt was most important.

"Okay, I'm all ready at home, I have to go out first, it's almost time." Chen Yi said.

"Hurry up and go, be cautious, don't make a mistake." Chen Yi's mother warned.

After Chen Yi left, the two elders sat on the sofa with a sigh on their faces.

In Chen Yi's father's opinion, this son only knew how to eat, drink and be merry, and he would never have a great future in his life, but he didn't expect such a good opportunity to fall on his head now, this was a chance for the Chen family to shine.

"Old man, now you know how great our son is, I told you that he will definitely be successful." Chen Yi's mother said with a proud face.

"Yes, yes, your son has excelled, now it's worth bragging about, but tonight Su Yeh Han is here, we have to act more natural so as not to spoil our son's good fortune."

"Need you say more, this is your son's future, I'm going to bring out the acting skills of a movie queen."

That night, inside a nightclub, a romantic marriage proposal was brewing in secret.

Su Yeh Han dressed up in her sexiest side, she didn't know yet that Chen Yi would propose to her, but for her, this opportunity was rare and she had to hold on to it steadily.

Su Yehan was still somewhat self-aware, she knew that it was already a very low probability for her to marry into a rich family nowadays, so Chen Yi's appearance, this opportunity must not be missed.

Most of the women in the nightclub were dressed up in flashy outfits, so even though Su Yeh Han was already dressed very revealingly, she still wouldn't give the impression of being stunning, after all, her face value was already set to be her upper limit.

"You're especially beautiful tonight." When Chen Yi greeted Su Yeh Han at the entrance of the nightclub, he found Su Yeh Han's special dress, and although he was a little nauseated inside, he appeared to be infatuated on the surface.

Su Yeh Han pretended to be shy and lowered her head, saying, "Compared to other women, how can I be considered beautiful."

"You're definitely the most beautiful woman tonight, let's go in." Chen Yi said.

The manic DJ music, the swinging group of demons on the dance floor, this is the nightclub environment, in addition to the noise is the permeating smell of alcohol, for people who do not have the desire to hunt, this kind of environment is very repulsive, for example, Han 3000, does not like this kind of place, in his opinion, there are only two kinds of people here, one kind of hunter, and the other is the prey waiting to be hunted, and he does not have this kind of need, naturally will not fit into this circle.

In the midst of pushing the cup, time passed quickly, and after Chen Yi looked at the time, he gave a wink to a few of his friends, signaling them to start preparing.

At this time, however, Su Yehan suddenly got up, "Chen Yi, I'm going to the bathroom."

"Do you want me to accompany you?" Chen Yi asked the gentleman.

Su Yehan smiled slightly and said, "No need, how can you snub these brothers of yours because of me."

Su Yehan tried her best to be gentle and considerate, she wanted Chen Yi to know that she wasn't a woman who competed for favors, much less disturb the fun between Chen Yi and her brothers.

As she walked towards the toilet, Su Yehan hurriedly pulled out her makeup to go to the toilet to touch up her makeup, this was probably an excuse for many women to go to the toilet, their real purpose was not convenience, but to see if their makeup was still as delicate as it was in the first place.

As Su Yehan was walking with her head down, she ran into an attendant head-on.

"What are you doing, can't you see when you walk?" Su Yeh Han scolded the waiter in a cold voice.

Based on the principle that the customer is God, the waiter quickly apologized to Su Yeh Han, "I'm sorry sorry."

Su Yeh Han looked at the red wine marks on her clothes, although it wasn't much, she thought it was enough to ruin her image tonight.

She was appearing in front of Chen Yi in her best posture, so how could she be ruined by a waiter.

"This is what you've done, do you know how much this dress costs per piece?" After Su Yeh Han said this, a heavy slap slapped the waiter's face.

The waitress was a bit aggrieved because it was obviously Su Yehan who had bumped into her by walking with her head down, but now it was all her responsibility.

"Why don't you give me your clothes and I'll take care of it for you." The waitress said.

Hearing this, Su Yeh Han became even more furious and scolded, "Give you the clothes, what do I wear, you are surviving to do something against me right."

As soon as the words fell, Su Yeh Han slapped the waiter's face again with a merciless slap, then scolded, "Hurry up and get out of here, don't waste my time."

Chapter 818

"Chen Yi, I just saw your fiancée getting into an argument with the waitress, aren't you going to step in and help her out?" A young man had just returned from the washroom and ridiculed Chen Yi.

Chen Yi smiled faintly and said, "Stop it, this kind of broken shoe, if she didn't have a use for me, I would feel nauseous breathing the same air as her."

"Hey." The man let out a long sigh and said, "You're really lucky, not only can you play around with this kind of b*tch, but you can also get such a great benefit, I don't know when this kind of opportunity will fall on my head."

Chen Yi patted the man's shoulder and said, "Brother I'm rich, can I still forget about you guys?"

"That's right, if you kid dare to forget, I'll never recognize you as a brother again."

It wasn't long before Su Yeh Han, who had finished her make-up, returned to her seat.

Chen Yi stood up and raised his hand to the DJ booth.

The music came to an abrupt halt, and the group of demons, as if they had been thrown a bucket of cold water, began to curse.

The DJ nonchalantly said through the loudspeaker, "Don't worry everyone, there is a surprise waiting for you tonight, a romantic proposal is about to begin, and tonight's consumption will be paid for entirely by Mr. Chen."

As soon as this sentence was said, those who were scolding and cursing got excited, it was naturally a good thing that someone was paying the bill, there were even people proposing in the nightclub, this was a rare and rare thing to see.

Su Yihan's heartbeat accelerated, Mr. Chen!

This Mr. Chen, can't be Chen Yi!

Chen Yi, you're going to propose to her?

Su Yehan nervous sweaty palms, although this matter is too sudden, so she was not prepared for, but this kind of surprise is exactly what she needs, and in the future no longer have to frown at other men, no longer have to worry about their own brand name no one to pay for.

One after another, people walked up to Su Yehan with flowers, and Chen Yi also pulled out the diamond ring he had prepared earlier at this time.

Of course, the diamond ring was fake, just a show, not to mention that the other party was still Su Yehan, not worth Chen Yi to buy a real diamond ring down.

"Su Yehan, marry me." Chen Yi with a sincere face kneeled down on one knee in front of Su Yehan, but the knee did not touch the ground, after all, it was an act, although Chen Yi needed this play to appear real, but for this kind of broken shoes kneeling, he still can not do.

Su Yehan looked flattered, happiness came so suddenly that she didn't even know how to respond.

If this was a farce, if Chen Yi just wanted to be married to her for one night, there was no way he would make such a big noise and propose in front of so many people, so in Su Yehan's opinion, Chen Yi was full of sincerity.

"F*ck, isn't this Chen Yi, he actually proposed to Su Yehan!"

"This guy can't be crazy, doesn't he know how many people Su Yeh Han has been played by?"

"I didn't expect that Chen Yi would still have the habit of picking up broken shoes, it's so damn confusing."

Upon discovering the man and woman who had proposed, many people were surprised and discussed.

They were all out to have fun, they naturally knew Su Yi Han's current reputation, although Chen Yi was not a big family, at least his family had some money, and he had some popularity in Cloud City, wanting what kind of woman there was none, and yet he would look at Su Yi Han.

This kind of criticism was already in Chen Yi's expectation, and this is why he chose to propose in the nightclub, he just wanted to let these people witness, so as to enhance the authenticity of this matter, so that Su Yehan knows that he is not joking.

Su Yeh Han's current feeling was indeed not aware that this was just an act, because Chen Yi doing such a thing in public was equivalent to telling the outside world about the relationship between the two of them.

Even though this proposal came very abruptly, and even though there was no basis of affection between the two of them at all, Su Yehan was so overwhelmed by the momentary happiness that she didn't have the heart to think carefully about why Chen Yi would propose to her.

At this time, Chen Yi's gang of brothers began to start a ruckus, yelling the words marry him.

Chen Yi also opened his mouth and said, "You're not going to let me kneel here all night, are you."

Su Yehan subconsciously shook her head, then extended her hand.

Chen Yi put the fake diamond ring on for Su Yehan, looking at the diamond that was close to the size of a pigeon egg, Su Yehan felt that her life had never been so happy as it was now, she was almost moved to tears.

Tian family villa.

Tian Ling'er half lying on the bed, through the mobile phone video to see everything that happened in the nightclub, can't help but lament the price Chen Yi paid for this matter.

"This guy, he really doesn't leave any room for himself ah, haven't you ever thought about how it's going to end?" Tian Ling'er said to herself.

With Tian Ling'er's position, she naturally couldn't feel the temptation that the City Village project brought to Chen Yi, this matter was enough to make Chen Yi pay any price.

As for how to end it, it was true that Chen Yi hadn't thought about this matter, but he was a playboy, so it was inevitable that he would make a scene, and as long as he let it out afterwards that this was simply a joke, the bystanders wouldn't be surprised.

After turning off the live video, Tian Ling'er made a phone call to Mo Yang.

"Boss Mo, we'll find out who did the smearing of my sister later, you can't sleep too early, I still need your help." Tian Ling'er said.

Mo Yang doesn't really care about the magic capital anymore, but his biological clock is used to going to bed very late, and said to Tian Ling'er, "Call me anytime, and make sure you get through at the first time."

In the nightclub, the proposal was over, so Chen Yi left with Su Yehan.

"Let's go to my house tonight." Chen Yi said to Su Yehan, not as a question, but in a very agreeable tone, giving Su Yehan no room to refuse.

This kind of thing was easy for Su Yeh Han, ever since the Su family went bankrupt and she wasn't able to squander it, Su Yeh Han had agreed to this kind of request many times.

"En." Su Yeh Han nodded her head.

The rest of the day went very smoothly, Su Yeh Han who was overwhelmed by happiness had no defensive guard against Chen Yi, and when she arrived at home and saw that rag doll about Han 3000 in Chen Yi's room, Su Yeh Han felt even more that Chen Yi and herself were the same kind of people, they both hated Han 3000, the trash.

"By the way, do you know what kind of disease Su Yingxia has, I heard that she gave Han Qianli a cuckold, I didn't expect Han Qianli, such a big person to have today, but unfortunately, the one who gave him the cuckold is not me." Chen Yi said to Su Yehan with a regretful face.

Su Yehan sat on the edge of the bed, purposely showing her legs, after hearing Chen Yi's words, she said, "Do you want to know what's going on?"

Chen Yi knew that the crucial time had come, walked over to Su Yehan and sat down, gently hugged Su Yehan's waist and asked, "Of course I want to, you wouldn't know any secrets, would you?"

Chapter 819

Su Yehan leaned her head on Chen Yi's shoulder, Chen Yi's face clearly flashed a trace of disgust, this kind of woman who had been played with by countless men, so close to him, it was really hard for him to hide his feelings of repulsion.

"In fact, this matter is the plan of Su Haichao and I. Saying that Su Yingxia stole someone was also something we intentionally said, as for what kind of illness Su Yingxia has, I don't know." Su Yehan said.

Chen Yi's face was cold, the happiness after the marriage proposal really made Su Yehan not a bit defensive towards him, so easily set out the truth of the matter.

"You go take a bath first." Chen Yi said.

Su Yehan used to accompany those men, all of them were very mechanical and didn't carry any feelings, but she had a shy feeling today.

"En." With a light nod, Su Yehan walked towards the bathroom.

After hearing the sound of water, Chen Yi took out his phone and dialed Tian Ling'er's number.

"Ling'er, it's done, she really did it." Chen Yi said.

Tian Ling'er sat up with a cold face and asked, "Did you record it?"

"Of course, are you afraid I won't be able to do that little thing?" Chen Yi said.

"Okay, I'll be right over."

Getting up and dressing, Tian Ling'er's face was as frosty as ice.

"Boss Mo, things are confirmed, it was Su Yehan and Su Hai Chao who did it, the evidence is overwhelming." Tian Ling'er called Mo Yang.

Mo Yang said in a deep voice, "I'll immediately send people to catch Su Haichao, I'll personally come over on your side."

Su Hachao was sleeping deeply at home when he suddenly felt that his door was violently broken open.

Su Guolin and his wife came to the living room in great shock, and they saw a group of vicious and frightened people.

"You, who are you guys and what do you want!" Su Guolin asked in panic.

At this time, Su Hachao also walked out of the room, and a sense of foreboding enveloped him.

"Su Haichao, come with us."

Su Haichao saw the other party at a glance, how would he be willing to follow them, and said, "Trespassing, you really have no eyes for the law, believe it or not I'll call the police."

A group of people rushed up and surrounded Su Haichao, the leading person said: "What have you done yourself, you can't be unclear, we are sent by Boss Mo, be sensible, hurry up and follow me, so as not to suffer the pain of flesh and blood."

Su Haichao was scared to death, the people sent by Mo Yang?

Could it be that this matter of spreading rumors about Su Yingxia has been found out by Mo Yang?

How is that possible!

Su Haichao was extra careful in doing this, just in case he was found out, so he deliberately found a worker as the source of the rumor, and that worker had now left Cloud City, in Su Haichao's opinion, there was absolutely no possibility of this matter being exposed.

"I haven't done anything, what qualifications do you have to arrest me." Su Hachao panicked.

The leader smiled coldly and said, "Since you won't go with us voluntarily, then don't blame me for being rude."

A punch and kick, although Su Guolin and his wife were distressed that their son was beaten, but they didn't dare to breathe a word of air at the side, after all, it was someone sent by Mo Yang, how were they qualified to stop it now.

And Su Hachao must have done something to make Mo Yang angry, or else how could Mo Yang come to arrest people late at night?

"Hai Chao, what the hell did you do, what the hell is going on here." Su Guolin asked to Su Haichao.

Su Hachao was beaten to the ground, looking like he was dying, where was the strength to speak.

Being dragged out of the house, Su Hachao was left with nothing but despair inside.

"If you guys want to call the police, weigh your weight in Cloud City." Before the leader walked out of the house, he turned to remind Su Guolin's two couples.

Su Guolin was originally a cowardly person, so where would he dare to do anything when he heard this.

"Su Guolin, are you just going to stand by and watch them take people away, are you still a man." Su Guolin's wife lashed out at him, when the people were there before, she didn't even dare to let out a fart, but now she was pouring on Su Guolin.

Su Guolin gritted his teeth and said, "If you have the guts to go to Mo Yang and ask for someone, what's the use of being horizontal in front of me, Su Haichao doesn't know what kind of jerk he's done this time."

Su Guolin's wife's face changed, what kind of bastards thing did Su Hachao do?

Could it be that recent rumor about Su Yingxia?

Although she also hated Han Qianqian and Su Yingxia, she was very clear about the feelings between them, and Su Yingxia had just given birth to a daughter now, so how could she do such a thing?

She had long suspected that this matter was a deliberate rumor, but now that she thought about it, it was most likely Su Haichao's doing, otherwise, how could Mo Yang arrest him for no reason.

"Guolin, it's over, our son is finished." Su Guolin's wife said in a disembodied voice.

"What's finished." Su Guolin wondered.

"Su Yingxia's cuckolding of Han 3000, it's a rumor, it's very likely that Su Hai Chao started the rumor."

Su Guolin was dumbfounded when he heard this, he had already warned Su Hachao to never offend Han 3000 again, because with Han 3000's current status, it wasn't something they could shake, but he didn't expect Su Hachao to be so confused and do something like this.

If this was found out by Mo Yang, would he still have a way to live?

Chen Yi's house.

After taking a shower, Su Yehan walked out of the bathroom, but there was no sign of Chen Yi, which made her feel a little strange.

But soon a smile appeared on her face, in Su Yehan's opinion, Chen Yi must have been eager to take a shower in the other bathroom.

Back in the bathroom, Su Yehan looked at her body and was quite complacent, being able to make Chen Yi so eager showed that her allure was still very strong.

"Although you're not a hero, but as long as you treat me well, I'm willing to marry you." Su Yeh Han said with a face full of self-love.

After admiring her body, Su Yeh Han lay back on the bed with the blanket half covering her body, she hoped that when Chen Yi entered the door, she would be able to show him a scene of nose blood spraying.

Soon, there were footsteps approaching the door, Su Yehan somehow became a little nervous, as if for the first time in her life.

But after the door opened, a pot of ice water doused Su Yehan to the bone.

The person standing at the door was not Chen Yi, but Tian Ling'er!

Why is she here!

"Celestia, what are you doing here?" Su Yehan questioned.

The moment Tian Ling'er knew that Su Yingxia had been slandered, she almost exploded in anger, but now that she saw the culprit, how could she hold back her anger?

Walking in front of Su Yehan, Tian Ling'er pulled Su Yehan's hair, pulling hard.

Su Yehan cried out in pain and tried to resist, but the angry Tianlinger, who was incomparably strong, was simply not able to fight against her.

Chapter 820

After Tian Ling'er grabbed Su Yehan's hair, forcing her to raise her head, she threw slap after slap on Su Yehan's face.

Soon, Su Yehan's cheeks were red and swollen on the left and right side, and even Tianlinger's hands were red as well.

Tian Ling'er's hands were hurting, but she didn't have any intention of stopping because the anger in her heart hadn't been released.

Ever since Han Qianqian left, Tianling'er secretly vowed to protect Su Yingxia and Han Nian, this was not only Mo Yang's responsibility, she also wouldn't see anyone bullying this mother and daughter.

For Tian Ling'er, if she couldn't become Han Qianqian's lover, she had to treat this sister well and show her true heart to treat Han Qianqian, because this was the first man who made her heart beat.

"Don't fight, don't fight." Su Yeh Han's brain had been knocked out, her ears were ringing, and she couldn't resist, so she could only start begging for mercy.

But Tian Ling'er hadn't heard anything in general, and her hand was still merciless, even Chen Yi outside the door was a little chilled in his heart as he watched.

As a Miss of the Heavenly Family, Tian Ling'er's status, whether she had been or was now, was not something anyone dared to provoke, so it was hard for Chen Yi to see such a violent side of Tian Ling'er, and it turned out that this seemingly harmless girl was so terrifying when she launched herself!

"What do you have to beg for mercy, you cheap b*tch." Tian Ling'er scolded as she fought, as a way to vent her anger.

Su Yeh Han had been blinded, but she still couldn't figure out why Tian Ling'er had suddenly appeared at Chen Yi's house.

In Su Yehan's opinion, this was supposed to be a night of settling down, a dry fire between her and Chen Yi, so how could such a crazy woman as Tian Ling'er suddenly barge in?

"Tian Ling'er, although you are a member of the Heavenly Family, Cloud City is not a place where you can act recklessly, what right do you have to hit me for no reason." Su Yehan roared.

When Tian Ling'er heard this, she stopped her hands and looked at Su Yehan with a torch-like gaze.

"Without a reason?" Tian Ling'er asked rhetorically.

At this time, Chen Yi, who was standing at the door, knew that the time had come for him to make an appearance and walked into the room.

Seeing Chen Yi, Su Yehan seemed to see hope and quickly said, "Chen Yi, save me, quickly get rid of this woman."

Chen Yi disdainfully smiled, Tian Ling'er side, and then said to Su Yehan, "Su Yehan, the men in Cloud City who have slept with you, a pair of hands can't even count it."

Su Yehan's current state, her face could no longer change, and bruises were about to appear on her face from the beating, but Chen Yi's words still caused her eyes to be visibly stunned.

One pair of hands?

Careful calculations, it really didn't seem to be enough.

The Su family company went bankrupt, Su Yei Han became unemployed, with her family's financial strength, simply can not support her excessive spending, from that time on, Su Yei Han will do anything for money.

When she took her first step, she couldn't reap the rewards, and even took the initiative to seduce those rich men after she got a taste of the sweetness.

But, but Chen Yi, as her fiancé, why would he say such things at such a time?

"Chen Yi, what do you mean?" Su Yehan asked.

Chen Yi dumbly lost his smile, words to this point, Su Yehan still does not understand what it means, could it be that she still really thinks that she is a person who likes to wear broken shoes?

"Su Yshan, you've been f*cked by so many men, do you think I would really be interested in you, marrying a broken shoe like you home, wouldn't that make the entire Yun City laugh." Chen Yi scoffed.

Su Yeh Han took a deep breath and asked through clenched teeth, "You have no interest in me, why are you proposing to me, so many people have seen it, is it all fake?"

"Of course it's fake, the purpose of me doing this is just to make you relax your guard against me." Saying that, Chen Yi pulled out his phone.

The clouded Su Yehan didn't even understand what Chen Yi's words meant, relax your guard? What is relaxing one's guard.

When the recording from Chen Yi's phone played out, it was exactly what Su Yeh Han had said before admitting that the recent rumors had been spread by herself.

At this moment, Su Yehan instantly understood, and she also finally realized the reason why Tian Ling'er would appear here.

All of it was surprisingly because of this matter.

Chen Yi's show of affection and marriage proposal was nothing more than trying to get words out of her mouth!

"If it wasn't such a costly drama, I guess you wouldn't trust me so easily, since I have to investigate this matter in a short time, I can only do it a bit more ruthlessly, after all, this is something that Ling'er explained, I don't want to delay her time." Chen Yi said with a smile, he was quite satisfied with this plan of his, at this time he deliberately said so, he was actually a bit suspicious of taking credit for it.

Tian Ling'er was not very old, but she was born in a family like the Heavenly Family, she had learned a lot about the ways of people from her childhood, and even more so, she knew how to guess people's thoughts, so she naturally understood the meaning of Chen Yi's words.

"You don't need to remind me, since it's something I promised you, I will naturally do it." Tian Ling'er said to Chen Yi in a cold voice.

When Chen Yi heard Tian Ling'er's unkind tone, he quickly lowered his head, just as a side remark, thinking that there was no problem, but Chen Yi ignored Tian Ling'er's current mood.

"Ling'er, I didn't mean that, I was just"

Chen Yi wanted to explain, but the current Tian Ling'er was in no mood to listen to so much nonsense, so he directly interrupted, "You don't need to say nonsense anymore, remember, you are only qualified to take what I give you, and you don't need to remind me of what I don't give you."

"Yes yes yes." Chen Yi's back broke out in a cold sweat, at this moment, he completely realized the other side of Tian Ling'er.

This Celestial Miss was by no means just a coquettish princess!

Right at this moment, Su Yehan suddenly knelt down to Tian Ling'er, because she was very clear about the consequences after this matter of smearing Su Yingxia was exposed, so she had to ask for mercy and beg Tian Ling'er to let her go.

"Tian Ling'er, this matter was all planned by Su Haichao, it has nothing to do with me, please let me go and go arrest Su Haichao, he is the real mastermind behind this." Su Yehan said.

Tian Ling'er laughed coldly and said, "You and Su Haichao, I won't let any of you go, in fact, you should have died a long time ago!"

With Su Haichao and Su Yehan's previous actions, it was already Han Qianli's excessive mercy that they had survived to this point, but this time, Tian Ling'er would never be softhearted.
