

His True Colors Chapter 891-900

Chapter 891

In the past, Snapdragon Huang would often fantasize about the day when he would become famous, the day when everyone would be impressed with him, he would definitely feel very good.

But when it actually happened, he didn't have much of that feeling.

A great pleasure?

As if it didn't matter too much anymore, even Yan Chen's initiative to come to the door didn't make Snapdragon Huang feel very happy.

On the contrary, there was only mockery in Snapdragon Huang's heart, mocking the Chen family's ignorance and their lack of knowledge of the truly strong.

If she could treat Han Qianqian well, the Chen family's position would definitely be above the City Lord's Palace, and the entire Long Yun City would also be a dominant family in the Chen family.

"Father, I used to think the same, but now, I don't seem to feel that way." Huang Snapdragon faintly said.

"Hahahahaha." Huang Houyi laughed and said, "It's because you're already too good now, you don't need to put these people in your eyes at all, so naturally, you don't care what they think of you."

Snapdragon Huang nodded, perhaps there were factors in this regard, now, even if the imperial court was pulling for him, how would he care how the tiny Long Yun City would view him?

"Father, what should I do if the Imperial Court does come?" Huang Snap Yong asked, this was the one thing he was more worried about right now, because Huang Snap Yong's realm wasn't very high, and the Seven Star Exotic Beast was also tamed with the help of his master, with his current abilities, although he was able to join the Imperial Court, he was still limited in his own conditions if he wanted to make it big in the Imperial Court.

Therefore, Huang Snapdragon would prefer to stay by Han Qianqian's side and continue to refine his cultivation, but how to reject the Imperial Court would be a headache.

"Don't worry about this matter, the Imperial Court recruits and doesn't use forceful means, and you only need to show your loyalty to the Imperial Court so you won't be embarrassed." Huang Houyi said.

"Even if I refuse to go to the Royal Court, they won't blame me?" Snapdragon Huang was confused.

"You're only at the Four Lantern realm now, just tell you that you want to become stronger before going to the Imperial Court, and that you won't be able to pass through the Dark Forest without reaching the Nine Lantern realm or above, so the Imperial Court isn't worried about you defecting." Huang Houyi said.

Huang Snapdragon nodded, it would be best if that was the case, after all, the only way for Huang Snapdragon to have a better chance of becoming stronger was if he stayed by Han Giangli's side, if he went to the imperial court now, he would only be stuck at the Four Lantern realm for the rest of his life.

"Right, I still have important matters to deal with, so I'll be heading out first." Huang Snap Yong suddenly thought about Han Qianqian being driven out of the Chen family.

Now that Master definitely didn't even have a place to land, Huang Snap Yong would have to help Han Three Thousand solve the problem of accommodation first.

"Go ahead, do whatever you want now, father won't interfere in your life anymore." Huang Houyi said with a smile.

In the past, Huang Houyi would still meddle in Huang Snapdragon's personal life, but now it was completely unnecessary for him because there were things that he wasn't qualified to touch, and now that Huang Snapdragon had become so powerful, Huang Houyi wouldn't treat him as an idle gentleman.

The matter of Yan Chen kneeling down at the City Lord's Palace quickly reached the ears of the two family heads Wang Xie, and after learning about this, they were laughing so hard that they thought that Yan Chen's appearance would cause the City Lord's Palace to change its attitude towards the Chen family and would make the Chen family get the upper hand, but it was such an unpredictable result.

"I didn't expect that even moving out Yan Chen would be useless, the Chen family's face has been greatly disgraced this time." The Wang Family Master said with a pained expression.

"Yan Chen actually still has the day to kneel down to Snapdragon Huang, think about the past, this woman was high and mighty in front of Snapdragon Huang, but now, Snapdragon Huang doesn't even care about her." Family Lord Xie also smiled gleefully.

"The current Snapdragon Huang is naturally different from before, how could he still put a woman like Yan Chen in his sights, but this also shows that it's not that easy to please the City Lord's Palace, we have to think of other ways to do it." The Wang Clan Master restrained his smile and his expression became heavy again.

"Yes, the current City Lord's Mansion is not as easy to handle as it used to be, our two families must join forces to make Marquis Huang happy."

The Chen Family Residence.

Han Three Thousand had been ordered to leave the Chen family, and at this time, he was not carrying any luggage with him, but he was stopped at the door by Chen Tiesin with his men.

"Han Three Thousand, if you want to leave, you have to leave my Chen Family's things behind."
Chen Tiesin said to Han Three Thousand with a cold face.

Han Three Thousand Thousand threw her hands free and said, "I didn't take anything, what do you want me to leave behind?"

"Nothing was taken on the surface, so who knows if you might be hiding something valuable on your person." Chen Tiesin smiled coldly and said to his servant, "Search me."

The three servants, in unison, walked up to Han Qianqian.

Han Qianqian straightened his hands and acted as if he was allowing them to search him.

"Chen Tiesin, be a man and leave a trace, so we can meet later, haven't you heard this saying before?" Han Giangli said.

"I understand the reasoning, but do you need to leave a line open for someone like you?" Chen Tiesin said disdainfully.

Han Giangli deflated, probably in Chen Tiesin's eyes, he was useless and couldn't make any waves at all, so there was no need to leave a line in the sand.

"Young Master, there's nothing."

The three men said to Chen Tiesin after they finished searching him.

Chen Tiesin was obviously disappointed, he had thought that a trash like Han Qianli would definitely take something valuable when he left the Chen family, which would give him an excuse to beat Han

Qianli up and throw him out of the Chen family, but it didn't matter, Chen Tiesin had a good show ahead of him.

"Since you didn't take it, I won't make things difficult for you, so get out." Chen Tiesin snapped.

With Han Qianqian's ability, he could take Chen Tiesin's life with a raised hand, but he couldn't compete with Chen Tiesin because this kind of trash didn't even have the desire to let him fight.

Wouldn't it be disgraceful for an elephant to compete with an ant?

The door to the Chen family residence was open, and Han Third Thousand found a crowd crowded outside the door, especially lively on the inside and outside, not knowing what was going on.

At this time, Chen Tiesin suddenly spoke up, "As of today, Han Three Thousand has been expelled from the Chen family, this trash is not worthy of being my sister's husband, I hope you all will help my Chen family witness this."

As soon as this was said, many people started pointing fingers at Han Third Thousand.

The day Yanran Chen got married, he had already caused quite a stir in Long Yun City, and now that he had been expelled from the Chen family, it was a matter of course in the eyes of everyone, after all, the Chen family was quite well established in Long Yun City, so how could they find a nameless person to become Yanran Chen's son-in-law?

Chapter 892

Chen Tiesin had a very proud smile on his face as he watched Han 3,000 being ridiculed by the crowd, this was a situation that he had deliberately arranged, and the performance of the crowd also made him very satisfied, he wanted to drive Han 3,000, a trash, out of the Chen family like a lost dog, he wanted the entire Long Yun City to know how Han 3,000 had been kicked out of the Chen family in disgrace.

At the same time, Chen Tiesin also wanted the news to reach the City Lord's Palace, so that Huang Snapdragon would know that Yan Chen was indeed not related to this man.

Although on the surface, Chen Tiesin didn't want Chen Yanran to whisper to Snapdragon Huang, but in his heart, how could he not expect Chen Yanran to marry into the City Lord's Mansion at a time like this?

Once Yan Chen was truly able to marry Snapdragon Huang, then it was possible for him to know the secret of Snapdragon Huang's ability to break and tame exotic beasts.

If things were as Chen Yuanhai guessed, and Huang Snap Yong really had a master, he might even be able to be introduced by Huang Snap Yong and succeed in worshipping his master.

But Chen Tiesin would never have imagined that Huang Snap Yong had very clearly rejected Chen Yanran, and that Huang Snap Yong's master was Han Qianqian, who he had driven out of the Chen family!

"What's the point of doing that?" Han Qianqiang knew that these were all arranged by Chen Tiesin, but he couldn't understand the pleasure of this child's game of house-play.

Would it be pleasant for him to be mocked by the others for a few words?

Han Qianli even felt that these taunts weren't even comparable to those people in Cloud City, he had no waves in his heart and even wanted to laugh.

"Han Three Thousand, you don't need to force your composure, I know you're suffering inside right now, but there's nothing you can do about it, that's why you're acting like you're open-minded." Chen Tiesin said with a smile.

Pain?

Han Giangli couldn't help but giggle, could this be considered painful?

"You'll understand what true pain is in the future, and this little matter is really nothing to me." Han Qianli said with a big smile, then walked through the crowd and directly left the Chen family.

Chen Tiesin bit his back groove teeth, and Han Qianli acted as if he didn't care at all, as if this matter really didn't cause ripples in his heart.

But how could it?

As a man, could he really care less when his dignity is trampled upon?

"Impossible, that's absolutely impossible, you're just forcing yourself in front of me, Han Three Thousand, you must be in a lot of pain inside." Looking at Han Three Thousand's back, Chen Tiesin spoke to himself, convinced that his thoughts were the correct ones, Han Three Thousand couldn't possibly be indifferent to this matter.

In reality, this matter was really nothing to Han Three Thousand, Han Three Thousand didn't even have the heart to bother with him because he was so weak that wanting to kill was just a mere thought to Han Three Thousand, and how could such a weak person possibly attract Han Three Thousand's attention?

Not long after, Chen Yuanhai and Yanran Chen returned to the city's main residence, and Chen Tiesin, who received the news, ran to the father and daughter at the first time.

"Father, sister, how's it going?" Chen Tiesin asked with great anticipation.

But after asking the question, Chen Tiesin had a bad feeling as the two of them had very ugly expressions, they would never look like this if Huang Snapdragon had really re-accepted Yanran Chen.

"Sister, what did Snapdragon Huang do to you?" Chen Tiesin walked up to Yanran Chen and asked in a deep voice.

Yan Chen was still immersed in Huang Snap Yong's words, why would she only be able to understand how wrong she had been until one day in the future? Did you miss something and didn't know it?

"Snapdragon Huang rejected me." Yan Chen said.

Chen Tiesin's face changed, although this answer was not surprising, after all, the current Snapdragon Huang had long since ceased to be the old him.

But Chen Tiesin was still a little unacceptable, Huang Snap Yong had liked Chen Yanran for many years, and now that Chen Yanran had taken the initiative to compromise, how could he refuse?

"Does that mean it's true?" Chen Tiesin said silently.

"What is true?" Yan Chen looked up at Chen Tiesin in puzzlement, as if there was still some deep meaning hidden in his words.

"Actually, in the last few days, there are rumors that Huang Snapdragon likes another woman in Long Yun City, but I don't really believe it because that woman is no match for you." Chen Tiesin said.

"Which woman, have you ever met her?" Chen Yanran said resentfully, she didn't believe that there were any women in Long Yun City who could compare to him in terms of beauty and body posture, how could Huang Snapdragon possibly think differently of her because of other women?

"You wait." After saying that, Chen Tiesin ran towards his room.

Not long after, Chen Tiesin returned with a painting and explained to Yan Chen, "Many of Huang Snapdragon's men have been looking for someone with this painting lately."

Yan Chen couldn't wait to open the painting scroll.

The person on the scroll was Jiang Yingying, something Han Qianqian had asked Huang Snap Yong to do, but since it had spread, it would inevitably be misunderstood and suspected, such as the news Chen Tiesin had received that the woman on the painting was Huang Snap Yong's new lover.

"Just her?" Chen Yanran was even more indignant inside, because the woman in the painting could not be compared to her, whether it was her posture or her body, how could Huang Snapdragon abandon her because of this woman?

"It's true that she can't be compared to you, but Snapdragon Huang is indeed looking for her, as to whether things are as rumored or not, there's no telling." Chen Tiesin said.

Yan Chen clenched her fist, she would never allow herself to lose to such a woman, and suddenly raised her head with a murderous glare, looking at Chen Tiesin.

"Brother, I want you to do me a favor." Yan Chen said in a cold voice.

"Don't worry, whether brother can do it or not, he will try his best to help you." Chen Tiesin said.

Yanran Chen took a deep breath, then said with a frosty face, "I want you to help me find her and kill her."

Chen Tiesin's eyebrows jumped, but he didn't reject Yanran Chen, but said, "Don't worry, I'll immediately find a painter to copy more portraits out, brother I've traveled to many cities for so many years, I've made a lot of friends, let them help this favor, compared to them they won't refuse."

"Thank you brother, I'll go back to my room first." After saying that, Yanran Chen walked towards her room, she still had to continue to figure out what Snapdragon Huang's words actually meant.

After Yanran Chen left, Chen Tiesin asked Chen Yuanhai, "Father, should we follow what my sister said, will that anger Snapdragon Huang?"

"This woman should not be in Long Yun City, otherwise, with Huang Snap Yong's manpower, he would have found her already, and since she is in another city, even if she dies, she has nothing to do with us." Chen Yuanhai said.

Chen Tiesin suddenly realized, which was why he said, "Father, I understand what to do."

Chapter 893

After leaving the Chen family, Han Third Thousand strolled idly through the streets and alleys, and was soon spotted by Huang Snap Yong's eyes.

In a short time, Huang Snap Yong walked up to Han Qianqian unannounced, and although the master and disciple didn't have any conversation, Huang Snap Yong led the way and Han Qianqian followed behind, and the two soon arrived at a deserted alley in the west of the city.

There was a courtyard here that Huang Snap Yong had bought to hide his golden house, but unfortunately, after falling in love with Yan Chen, it was difficult for Huang Snap Yong to take an interest in other women, so this courtyard had been deserted until now, not once reflecting its usefulness.

"Master." After entering the courtyard, Snapdragon Huang closed the door and shouted to Han Qianqian, those two simple words filled with absolute respect.

"Is this place yours?" Han Giangli asked, although the weeds in the courtyard were almost man-high, but packed down, it should be a nice place to live.

"Yes, I bought this place many years ago, and even my father doesn't know about it except for me," Snapdragon Huang said.

"Tidy it up, it's still able to house people, your master I've been kicked out of the Chen family now, how pitiful." Han Qianli said with a smile.

Han Giangli was able to treat this as a joke, but Huang Snap Yong couldn't, in his opinion, the Chen family was giving his master a strange shame, and he would never allow him to be insulted like this.

"Master, do you want to teach the Chen family a lesson?" Snapdragon Huang gritted his teeth and said.

Han Qianqiang casually waved his hand and said, "No need, I didn't put them in my eyes at all, and the imperial court should be coming soon now, so we can't make too much noise at this point."

"But they are bullying people too much, I already know what happened in front of the Chen family compound, Chen Tiesin, that damned fellow, has gone to such extremes." Snapdragon Huang said with an angry face.

"This debt will be settled slowly later, I don't want to cause the Imperial Court to think about it yet, although the master-disciple relationship between you and me can be concealed from your father, if the Imperial Court really wants to track it down, I'm afraid it won't be possible to hide it." Han Marchant said, he was still in the process of learning about the Xuanyuan World, in the meantime, Han Marchant didn't want to attract the attention of those big names, and now that Jiang Ying Ying hadn't been found and that familiarity at the entrance to the Second World of the Apocalypse had somehow disappeared, Han Marchant wanted to clear up these two matters before talking about anything else.

"If Master says so, then I won't trouble you, but if you ever want to teach them a lesson, all you need to do is say one word and I'll be able to bring the Chen family to its doom." Huang Snapdragon said.

"Alright, if there's nothing else you can go first, don't come here often if there's nothing else in the future, don't let anyone find out about our relationship, the thing I explained to you, although derivative to other cities, she's probably not in Long Yun City." Han Giangli said.

"Okay, I'll immediately call some servants over to help you clean up the courtyard." Huang Snapdragon said.

"No need, I'll just do this little thing myself," Han Qianqian said.

Huang Snap Yong's face changed dramatically and said, "Master, how can you personally do this kind of thing, it's all a servant's job."

"Get out of here, I can handle this place myself, let the servants do it, are you afraid that others won't know about my relationship with you?" Han Qianli glared at Huang Snapdragon.

Huang Snap Yong inexplicably shivered, and since Han 3000 had already made up his mind, he didn't dare to say anything more, and after a few words of concern, he left the courtyard.

Facing the man-high weeds, it was as if Han 3000 was tidying up the back garden of the hillside villa, it had been a long time since he had done such a normal thing, making Han 3000 feel quite good, if there was Su Yingxia sitting by the side at this time, not needing to help, just watching him, it would definitely feel better.

Unfortunately, for a short period of time such a dream was just an extravagant dream, and Han Three Thousand himself didn't know when he would be able to return to Earth, or if he would even have the chance to go back at all.

However, Han 3,000 was convinced that since the people of Xuanyuan World were able to go to Earth back then, there must exist a passage just like the apocalypse here, and as long as he found this passage, Han 3,000 would be able to return to Earth.

It took a whole day for Han three thousand to finish the work in the courtyard, when he suddenly regretted not accepting Huang Snapdragon's kind offer a bit, if he had let dozens of servants come to clean it, I'm afraid the entire courtyard including the rooms would have been clean, but now Han three thousand was facing, there were still many rooms to clean.

"Looks like the experts aren't omnipotent ah, I'd better pick one room to clean, after all, I don't need that many." Han Three Thousand spoke to himself, eventually deciding to clean just one room.

In his words, he couldn't live in the others anyway, even if he cleaned it now, it would be dusty two days later, so what was the point?

In this regard, Han Qianqiang stayed in this courtyard, and the discussion against him in Long Yun City gradually subsided after a few days, because the Imperial Court came, and all the people's minds were focused on the group of people in the Imperial Court, and all the topics in Long Yun City also revolved around the Imperial Court.

There were a total of three people from the Royal Court, each person was dressed in flashy clothes, appearing very noble, and there was even a super imposing presence of a big man in the way they raised their hands, even Huang Houyi, who was the city's lord, appeared to be trembling with fear when facing the people from the Royal Court, not even daring to breathe a sigh of air for fear of offending the big man from the Royal Court.

"A few lords, please sit down, my son will be right here." Huang Houyi said to the three men.

The three men from the Imperial Court did not say a word and did not sit down, looking at their indifferent looks, they did not seem to have heard Huang Houyi's words at all.

Such an atmosphere made Huang Houyi a little embarrassed, but he didn't dare to be dissatisfied, after all, these were people from the Imperial Court, and although he was the Lord of Long Yun City, what was a mere lord in the eyes of these people?

Not long after, Snapdragon Huang appeared leading the Winged Tiger, and the three of the Imperial Court's eyes visibly flashed with a hint of apprehension.

When they first received this news, they did not believe that a Four-Light Realm person could tame a seven-star exotic beast at all, but now seeing it with their own eyes made them fluctuate a bit inside, and it was almost impossible for this kind of more-ranked beast master to exist.

"This winged tiger, is it really you who tamed it?" One of them asked to Snapdragon Huang.

"Reporting to your Excellency, it is indeed I who tamed it." Snapdragon Huang replied with his hands clasped in a respectful manner.

The man stepped forward and looked directly at Snapdragon Huang, his eyes as sharp as a blade, and continued to ask, "No one helped you?"

One of the things that Huang Snapdragon had been good at since he was a child was lying and being able to be completely immobile, even when faced with a big figure like the Imperial Court, he didn't hesitate and said, "Naturally, no, if someone else had tamed the seven-star exotic beast, how could they have given me such a powerful exotic beast?"

Chapter 894

When Huang Snapdragon said this, the three men of the Imperial Court looked at him with torch-like eyes, hoping to find some flaw in his expression, but unfortunately the unchanged Huang Snapdragon, not to mention a flaw, didn't even have a little bit of a guilty conscience.

Huang Houyi was afraid of the three people in front of him, but Huang Snapdragon was not, because he had a very powerful master, because he knew that even if his master went to the imperial court, he would be personally received by the emperor.

With such a master, how could he be afraid of these Imperial Court visitors in front of him?

"Surely you are young and talented, to possess a seven-star exotic beast at such a young age, your future will be boundless." The man couldn't find a flaw, so he had to tentatively believe Huang Snapdragon's words.

"Thank you for your lord's false praise." Huang Houyi said with a smile.

"This time, we have come to ask you if you wish to join the Imperial Court?" The man continued.

"Joining the Imperial Court is my greatest lifelong desire, and it is my honor to serve the Imperial Court, but a few of you should be able to perceive that my current realm, a mere four-light realm, is far from enough, so I still wish to continue to refine my cultivation now." Huang Houyi's words were a very tactful rejection of the good intentions of the people from the Imperial Court.

This was also what Huang Houyi had told him, that the Imperial Court would never force him to join now, as long as he could show his loyalty to the Imperial Court.

"You don't have to reject it in a hurry, we will still be here for a few more days, after three days, you can give us your answer." The man said.

"Yes, I will definitely serve the three of you well during these few days, you can feel free to tell me if you need anything." Snapdragon Huang said.

"No need." Leaving these three words behind, the three of them did not say any farewell words and left straight away.

Huang Hou Yi was relieved, facing these three people, the invisible pressure almost made it difficult for him to breathe, but it was Huang Snapdragon's performance that surprised him a bit, this kid was not humble, even when facing the Imperial Court, he was still able to cope with it.

"Son, you're much more brilliant than me, you're not even nervous at all when you meet these three?" Huang Houyi asked.

"Father, they don't eat people, so what's there to be nervous about, and I see that these people are quite amiable." Huang Snapdragon smiled.

Amiable?

Huang Houyi couldn't help but touch the cold sweat on his forehead, the three of them were staring at each other like there was a funeral at home, how can this be called amiable?

"In my opinion, they must have other purposes for staying here, you should be careful lately." Huang Houyi warned.

What did Snapdragon Huang know, how could Little Dragon Cloud City cause them to stop by, these three probably still didn't believe his words, that's why they stayed behind to investigate, but these people should not be able to sense their master's skills.

People with high realms could sense people with low realms, for example, Snapdragon Huang's realm could be easily sensed by them, but the higher the realm, the more ordinary it appeared, and with their strength, it was absolutely impossible for them to sense Han Qianqian's strength.

"Even if Master passes in front of them, they won't be able to perceive it, there's nothing to worry about." Huang Snapdragon smiled.

After the three of them left the City Lord's Palace, they found an inn to stay in, and as Huang Snap Yong thought, they had indeed decided to investigate because they didn't fully believe in Huang Snap Yong's words when they stayed.

"Just a small Four Lantern Realm, he has tamed a Seven Star Exotic Beast, how is this possible, if he didn't have someone to help him, he would have died long ago under the claws of the Winged Tiger."

The three of them were in the same room, one of them said with a contemptuous expression, even he, who had the strength of the Seven Lamp Realm, was now only in control of a five-star exotic beast, so he didn't believe at all that Huang Snapdragon was able to accomplish such a transgressive taming.

What's more, when he saw the Winged Tiger, he simply couldn't contain his envy.

In the current Xuanyuan World, it was already very difficult to find and tame exotic beasts above five stars, and although there were still many exotic beasts in the Dark Forest, the higher the level, the more difficult it was to tame them, unless they were crushed by strength, otherwise, the exotic beasts wouldn't want to become human servants even if they died.

"To be able to subdue a seven-star exotic beast, if there's really someone behind him, his strength, I'm afraid it's at least at the eight-light realm, how could Little Dragon Cloud City be so hidden?" Another person filled with doubt said, he was very puzzled as to why such a strong person would remain in Long Yun City.

Over the years, the imperial court had made great efforts to recruit strong people from all sides, and although it had not included all the experts within the imperial court, it had done so almost to the tenth degree, so how could it be possible for a strong eight-light realm person to become a fish out of the net?

"Yes, a strong eight-light realm, this is a threshold that we will never be able to cross, such a powerful person, according to common sense, shouldn't stay in Long Yun City, go to the imperial court, what kind of life do you want no."

"The latter three realms are strong, for the imperial court, there are only a handful of them, this guy is not someone we know, right?" A certain person speculated.

The higher the realm, the more difficult it was to improve, often a bottleneck appeared that could not be broken even after a lifetime, and the so-called latter three realms were the collective term for the Eight Lamp Realm, the Nine Lamp Realm, and the Extreme Master.

The latter three realms were regarded as the most difficult realms to cross, and there were many strong people in the seven lanterns under the imperial court, but those in the eight lanterns and above were a tiny fraction of the population.

Moreover, the gap in the strength of each of the latter three realms was huge, and if it was a single battle, one realm higher was a crushing situation.

Although the three countries of Xuanyuan didn't have state diplomatic relations, but there was war, but these three countries have a rule, that is, no matter how fierce the battle is, both sides must not have a pole division, because the pole division's strength is too strong, once the action is to destroy the city, no one can withstand the destructive power brought by the pole division, which led to the formation of this tacit rule.

Of course, the Pole Division was not useless, just like the nuclear bombs of Earth's countries, it could be used without, but never without, it was a way to deter the enemy.

"It shouldn't be, the ones I know of who are strong in the Eight Lamp Realm should be in the Imperial Court right now."

"Then who else could it be, could it be that a new expert has appeared in the Imperial Court realm, but the Imperial Court hasn't received the news yet?"

"How exactly, after our investigation, we may be able to reveal the truth, but if such experts deliberately hide their scent, with our strength, we won't be able to detect it."

The three of them were in a difficult situation, they had doubts about Huang Snapdragon, but the search for the truth was very difficult, the Seven Lamps Realm was already very powerful, but to the latter three realms, it was still like ants.

Chapter 895

For the next few days, since the people from the Imperial Court didn't leave Long Yun City, Huang Snap Yong also restrained his desire to go to Han Qianqian and stayed at the City Lord's Palace all day, but with Huang Snap Yong's temperament, he was already too restless after these few days.

Early this morning, Huang Snap Yong quietly left the City Lord's Mansion, in what he thought was a good cover for his whereabouts, but the three of them from the Imperial Court were all powerful Seven Lantern Realm, and it was completely easy for such people to track him down.

Huang Snapdragon himself thought that he was godforsaken, but in reality, his actions had been completely exposed to the three people of the Imperial Court.

Arriving at the courtyard where Han Qianqian lived, Huang Snap Yong felt refreshed and even seriously suspected that he had gone to the wrong place, the last time he had been here it was still full of weeds, but now there were flowers and plants flourishing in front of him, but there were also bridges and flowing water, and it was already a scene of paradise.

"What are you doing here." Han Qianliang saw Huang Snapdragon and raised his eyebrows to ask.

"Master, did you do all this here? It's been a few days and I almost didn't recognize the place." Snapdragon Huang said with a surprised look on his face.

Han Giangli looked at his masterpiece with satisfaction, he was also bored these days, so he tidied it up a bit, and since the courtyard was spacious, it was able to allow him to do whatever he wanted, and he accidentally designed this scene, although it wasn't as beautiful as a scroll, but compared to before, it had indeed undergone a drastic change.

"Have the people of the Imperial Court left already?" Han Giangli asked.

When it came to the royal court's visitors, Huang Snapdragon slumped his head, if it wasn't for those three old guys, he wouldn't have spent so much time bored in the city's main residence.

"No, those three old things, it looks like they shouldn't be leaving in a short time. However, don't worry, Master, I came out secretly and definitely didn't let anyone find out." Huang Snapdragon said.

Han Qianli smiled indifferently, the Royal Court was strong, how could he, a Four Lanterns, be able to conceal his whereabouts, I'm just afraid that everything he was doing now was under the noses of those three.

"Do you really think you're so powerful that you can hide your whereabouts from those people?" Han Giangli said with a smile.

"Master, but I went out early and wandered around for a long time before coming here, so how could they possibly know." Snapdragon Huang said.

"With your current strength, you can't comprehend the power of observation and control of the higher realms, so perhaps they already knew the moment you left the City Hall." Han Giangli said, now that he could feel Snapdragon Huang's presence even without having to deliberately exert his strength, the moment Snapdragon Huang appeared in front of the courtyard gate, he knew that Snapdragon Huang had arrived.

The reason why the Imperial Court three had stayed behind was definitely because they wanted to investigate Snapdragon Huang, and since it was an investigation, how could they let their guard down against him?

Huang Snapdragon was shocked, if that was the case, wouldn't that expose Master's whereabouts.

Huang Snap Yong looked at Han 3,000 with a self-recriminating face and said, "Master, I'm sorry, I'm to blame for not being able to control myself, what should we do now, those old guys won't come looking for trouble since they already know, right?"

Han Three Thousand was not afraid of the Imperial Court coming to find trouble, and they couldn't make any waves, so the worst that could happen would be to kill them, it was a simple matter for Han Three Thousand.

Of course, Han Three Thousand wouldn't do anything unless it was necessary, after all, the Imperial Court was supreme and had countless experts, so it wouldn't be good for Han Three Thousand if they chose to antagonize the Imperial Court at this time.

"What's the use of saying sorry now, they definitely already know about me, but the rest of the matter is not something you need to worry about, and it's not something you can help with." Han Three Thousand said.

Snapdragon Huang gritted his teeth, although Han Marchant didn't blame him, there was something inside him that he couldn't forgive himself for now that he was clearly the one who had caused Han Marchant trouble.

"Master, why don't I go with them to the Imperial Court, and once I do, maybe they'll leave." Huang Snap Yong said.

Han 3000 looked at Huang Snap Yong like an idiot, this guy's brain was so simple, for the three of them at the Royal Court, what they wanted to know more now was why Huang Snap Yong was able to tame the Seven Star Exotic Beast, not to take him back to the Royal Court.

Even if he agreed now, there was no way he could stop the Royal Court three from investigating this matter.

"You go back to the City Hall first." Han Giangli said.

Snapdragon Huang left the courtyard with regret, constantly blaming himself along the way, while the three of the Imperial Court were already standing in front of Han Qianli.

The three had appeared shortly after Huang Snap Yong left.

As Han Qianli had guessed, they had closely followed Huang Snapdragon's whereabouts from the moment he left the city's main residence.

"Who are you?" One of them asked Han Marchant.

"An ordinary person, two hands and two feet, nothing special." Han Three Thousand Fades.

"An ordinary person, worthy of a sneaky visit from Huang Snapdragon?" The other one looked at Han Marchant questioningly.

"Sneaky? I don't know why he's sneaking around, but he's not coming to see me, he's trying to get me in trouble." Han Marchant said.

"It's a bit too perfunctory for you to cover up like that, do you think we'd believe such a statement?" A certain person laughed coldly, clearly feeling ridiculous at Han Qianli's words.

"After you get to know my identity, you might understand the relationship between him and me, but I'm curious, who are you guys, looking at your outfits, you shouldn't be ordinary people." Han Giangli asked rhetorically.

Acting like an idiot at a time like this was definitely not the best way, but it was the easiest way to deal with it, because Han 3000 didn't bother to make up stories to hurt his brain, and as for whether they believed it or not, Han 3000 didn't give it any thought at all.

"What is your status?"

"The former Chen family's fast son-in-law, now, well, he's been kicked out of the Chen family, and this matter has been spread throughout Long Yun City, so any random passerby can ask about it." Han Marchiang said.

Right at this moment, one of them suddenly made a sneak attack on Han Third Thousand, and it was from the back.

Han 3,000 didn't move a single reflex, and only after a few seconds of delay did Han 3,000 act as if he was suddenly alerted that someone was standing behind him.

"What are you doing?" Han Giangli said vigilantly.

The man's eyebrows furrowed slightly, his sneak attack would definitely be fatal if he did strike, but in this situation, Han 3000 acted very ignorant, as if he hadn't sensed it at all.

Could it be that he was really just an ordinary person?

Chapter 896

The three Imperial Court members looked at each other and left the courtyard without saying a word.

Of course, this didn't mean that they believed Han Three Thousand's words, but they needed more evidence to prove whether or not Han Three Thousand was lying, especially since Han Three Thousand's identity was worth verifying.

Han Three Thousand's reputation in Long Yun City wasn't as loud as it had been in Yun City back then, but it had spread quite widely, especially when he had left the Chen family and Chen Tiesin had deliberately arranged that scene, letting many people know just how useless Han Three Thousand was.

To be ridiculed and humiliated leaving the Chen family was something that many people had witnessed with their own eyes, and there was no way to fake that.

The three of them from the Imperial Court investigated Han Qianli's identity without wasting too much time or effort.

After briefly becoming the Chen family's son-in-law and then being kicked out of the Chen family, causing the Long Yun City crowd to laugh at her, Yanran Chen married Han Qianxiang because she couldn't stand the harassment of Huang Snap Yong.

From this point on, it also proved that Han 3000 was not lying when he said that Huang Snap Yong was looking for him to trouble him, Huang Snap Yong had liked Chen Yanran for many years, this could never be a play that had been arranged in advance, after all, it had been many years, and at that time, Huang Snap Yong was nothing more than a loser, he couldn't have thought that he had today, much less make a game for today.

"Could it be that we really suspect the wrong thing about this Han 3000?"

"With the information gained from the current investigation, he is indeed a trash, and to be expelled from the Chen family in public, such humiliation is not something an expert can endure."

"But I always feel that there's something wrong, this Han Qianqian, it doesn't seem to be that simple."

"There's only one way to solve this confusion, kill him, and if he hasn't made a move by the time he dies, that means our suspicions are wrong."

"Killing an ordinary man is no big deal to us, and killing him won't make us bother."

Han Three Thousand Thousand did not expect that even though his identity was investigated by the three men of the Imperial Court, it did not make the three men of the Imperial Court allay their concerns, but instead made them kill him.

That same night, Han Three Thousand Thousand sensed that those three had gone and returned and appeared late at night, their purpose could be imagined, which made Han Three Thousand very helpless.

Although he didn't want to let things evolve in a more complicated direction, it seemed that he had no choice now.

When the three Imperial Court members pushed the door open and walked into Han Three Thousand's room, Han Three Thousand sat up in a lazy manner and said, "Haven't you guys investigated my identity, and even though you know that I'm just a piece of trash, you still refuse to let me go?"

"Since you're already such a waste, why don't you die a quick death so that you don't remain in the world to be ridiculed."

"Do I deserve to die just because I'm being mocked?" Han Qianqian's tone gradually became colder.

"Killing you will dispel our worries, so you deserve to die."

Han Qianqian stood up, moved his muscles, and said, "It's a pity, it's not easy to cultivate to your level, so why do you have to seek death?"

Han Giangli's words made the three of them turn pale, if he was really just an ordinary person, he would have already been on his knees begging for mercy, so how could he say such words?

At this moment, a strong killing intent surrounded the three of them, making them tremble, they were Seven Lamp Realm powerhouses, to be able to make them feel this way, the other party must be an expert of the last three realms.

"You have really concealed your strength."

"Who the hell are you, and what realm are you."

"Do you know that we are from the Imperial Court, if you kill us, the Imperial Court will definitely investigate thoroughly, at that time, you will only be judged by the Imperial Court."

"You guys are the ones who forced yourselves into a desperate situation, there's no way to blame me, as for the Imperial Court, I'm a bit scrupulous, but I'm not afraid yet." Han Giangli's voice just fell, and his figure became illusory.

Due to the fact that he moved so quickly, it was impossible for the naked eye to recognize him.

The Seventh Lamp Realm was a god-like existence for the world's commoners, but for experts in the latter three realms, it was as simple as squeezing an ant to kill them.

A breeze whipped past, and one of them quietly fell down without making even a sound.

The remaining two were pale.

Putting to death the Seven Lantern Realm without a sound, his strength had most likely surpassed the Eight Lantern Realm!

The Nine Lanterns!

Could it be a Nine Lantern Realm powerhouse.

"You"

"Begging"

The two of them scrambled to speak, but a complete sentence came to an abrupt end before it could be uttered.

The room was restored to calm, leaving only Han Qianqian's breath.

Putting to death three Seven Lamps realm powerhouses with a snap of his fingers, this matter would definitely shock the entire imperial court if it were to spread, but this matter was destined not to be revealed to Long Yun City.

Han Qianli dragged the bodies of the three men into the front yard, the recently planted flowers and grasses just lacked fertilizer, and I'm sure the flowers would bloom even more brightly next year.

After all of this, Han Qianli returned to his room and went back to sleep as if nothing had happened.

With the full moon in the sky, Han Qianli slept soundly, but Yanran Chen at the Chen residence had been tossing and turning for days.

The words that Huang Snapdragon had left for her had kept Yanran Chen in a state of distress, and after tossing and turning over the past few days, a vague feeling of uncertainty was born in Yanran Chen's heart.

When she was in the middle of the Long Yan Mountain Range, although she had fainted, she only had Han Qianqian and Huang Snap Yong by her side.

It was impossible for Huang Snap Yong's Four Lantern realm strength to tame the Seven Star Winged Tiger, and the remaining possibility was Han Qianqian, who had always acted like a loser.

Combined with the Four Lantern Realm experts that Wang Xie and his family had previously brought, and the ten or so Two Lantern Realm experts that Huang Snap Yong had brought out of the city gate, they had all inexplicably disappeared, and since then, Huang Snap Yong's attitude towards Han Three Thousand seemed to have changed a lot, and although he had shown distance in front of people, after Yan Chen thought about it carefully, this was completely inadequate.

With Huang Snap Yong's personality and the fact that he was now a Four Lantern Realm powerhouse, how could he not be sarcastic towards Han 3,000 after meeting with her?

Suddenly, Yan Chen sat up from her bed, appearing a hundred times more energetic.

"Could it be that Huang Snapdragon's supposedly outrageous mistake is because of Han Qianqian!" Yan Chen said with a horrified look on her face, Huang Snapdragon's words made it clear that she wouldn't know how wrong she was until one day in the future, which meant that she was missing out on something around her.

And wasn't the strangest person around her right now, Han Qianli?

He's a loser on the surface, but the things that happen to him are so bizarre that it's impossible to figure out what's going on.

Chapter 897

The more Yanran Chen thought about it, the more unsettled she felt, and although there was no evidence right now that what she was thinking about was correct, she couldn't think of any way to explain that statement from Snapdragon Huang other than this.

Even though it was late at night, Yan Chen still put on her clothes and prepared to go to Han Qianli's room.

The personal maid slept on a cot in a corner against the wall, it was her duty to take care of Yanran Chen when Miss hadn't yet shared a room as husband and wife, and no matter when she had any needs, as a maid she had to meet them.

"Miss, it's so late, are you going somewhere?" The maid asked to Yanran Chen with sleepy eyes.

Yanran Chen didn't say anything, and after dressing up, she quickly went out.

When the maid saw this, she could only panic and get dressed to keep up with Yanran Chen's steps.

As a personal maid, if anything happened to Yanran Chen, she wouldn't have a good end either.

"Han Qianli, open the door, open the door quickly." Yanran Chen slapped on Han Three Thousand's door and shouted.

Not long after, the maid finally arrived at Yanran Chen's side, looking puzzled.

Han Third Thousand had already been expelled from the Chen family by the eldest young master a few days ago, did the lady not know about this matter?

Or did she appear delirious because she was rejected by Snapdragon Huang?

"Miss, don't knock on the door, Han Qianli is not in the Chen family." The maid said.

"Not at the Chen family?" Yan Chen turned her head to look at the maid and asked urgently, "Why is he not in the Chen family and where did he go?"

"Miss, Han Qianxiang has already been chased away by the young master, have you forgotten that?" The maid said.

"Drive away? When was that." Yan Chen looked startled, she had indeed forgotten about this matter, or it could be said that after returning from the City Hall, Yan Chen hadn't cared about anything else at all, her head was full of Huang Snapdragon's words.

"A few days ago." The maid said.

"Do you know where he went, I want to see him, right away." Yan Chen said.

How could a servant girl know the whereabouts of Han 3000, after all, her duty was only to take care of Yanran Chen, and anything unrelated to Yanran Chen was not something she was qualified to take care of.

"I don't know, perhaps the eldest young master is clear." The maid said.

When Yanran Chen heard this, she walked towards Chen Tiesin's room without hesitation.

Chen Tiesin was sleeping comfortably when a sharp knock on the door woke him up.

Being disturbed in the middle of the night by someone disturbing his beautiful dreams, Chen Tiesin was about to do his anger, but he heard Chen Yanran's voice from the doorway, which made his anger diminish most of the time.

After all, she was his sister, Chen Tiesin would not be angry with her.

Opening the door, Chen Tiesin didn't even have time to ask Yan Chen what she was doing in the middle of the night before Yan Chen was the first to say, "Brother, where is Han Qianqian, do you know where he is?"

"Han 3000?" Chen Tiesin frowned slightly and said, "What are you looking for this trash for, he's already been chased away by me, how would I know where he is."

"Brother, I want to see him, you must help me find him." Chen Yanran said eagerly.

Chen Tiesin felt baffled and took a look at the maid.

The maid didn't know what was happening and only shook her head at Chen Tiesin.

Chen Tiesin asked, "What's wrong with you, what are you seeing this loser for."

"Brother, I have something very important to find him, so help me find him first and I'll explain it to you later, okay?" Chen Yanran said.

Chen Tiesin was very unhappy when he mentioned the word Han Qianqian, but since it was Yanran Chen's request, he would naturally meet it.

"You go back to sleep first, I'll send someone to look for him tomorrow, where can I find someone in the middle of the night." Chen Tiesin said.

Although Yanran Chen was anxious, but not to the point of losing her sanity, it was indeed impossible to find Han Marchand at this point in time, so she only nodded her head.

After sending Yanran Chen away, Chen Tiesin returned to his room and became fierce, in his opinion, the reason why Yanran Chen was in a hurry to find Han 3000, something must have happened, it was even possible that Han 3000 had done something to Yanran Chen.

"This trash, it's not like he's already touched my sister!" Chen Tiesin gritted his teeth and said.

"If that's the case, I will cramp and skin you."

The next morning.

As soon as Han 3,000 woke up, Huang Snapdragon came sneaking into the courtyard with a smile on his face.

"Such a nasty smile early in the morning, what bad things should you have done last night?" Han Giangli said to Huang Snapdragon.

"Master, I'm a good man, how could I do something bad, I'm here to tell you the good news." Huang Snapdragon smiled.

"What good news?" Han Qianli was curious.

Huang Snapdragon crouched beside Han Three Thousand and said with a proud look on his face, "Master, I've been having people keep an eye on those three guys from the Imperial Court, they seem to have left Long Yun City, and it looks like they believe me, but these three guys are really not authentic at all, they left without even saying hello."

"The reason they didn't say hello is because they didn't leave at all." Han Qianli smiled faintly.

"Didn't leave?" Snapdragon Huang's eyewitnesses had clearly said that those three people were no longer staying at the inn, it was obvious that they had already left Long Yun City, otherwise, how could they have changed the inn for no reason?

"No way, my eyes say the inn they used to stay at is empty, it's not gone."

"They've moved somewhere else to stay." Han Giangli smiled.

"Changing places, Master, how would you know, but my eyes are all over Long Yun City, is there anything I don't know about?" Snapdragon Wong said.

"How would you know about the place I changed for them." Han Giangli stood up and walked out into the garden.

Huang Snap Yong followed, his brow furrowed, which made even less sense, had Master already met with the Royal Court three?

But even so, why did Master change the inn for them?

And those three people couldn't have listened to Master for no reason.

"Master, you're not kidding me, where did you change them?" Snapdragon Huang asked.

Han Qianqiang pointed at Huang Snap Yong's feet.

Huang Snap Yong was baffled and even more filled with puzzlement as he looked at this action of Han Three Thousand.

"What does it mean?"

"Underneath your feet, they'll live here forever," Han Marchan explained.

Underfoot?

Live here forever!

Huang Snapdragon was stunned, then looked at Han Marchant in horror.

How could a good man be living in mud?

Han Qianli's words were clearly saying that those three people were dead and buried in this garden.

"Master Master, you, you, killed them?" Huang Snap Yong asked in horror, that was an expert from the Imperial Court, not to mention how amazing they were, even their strength was very strong, and Master, he had killed them!

Chapter 898

"Remember to come to this courtyard next year when the flowers bloom." Han Qianqian said indifferently.

Huang Snap Yong's breathing gradually became quicker, this was the first time he had felt such a strong side of Han Qianqian, even though he had killed the three people from the Imperial Court, he acted as if this matter couldn't make any waves in his heart.

"Master, if the Imperial Court doesn't get these three people to return for a return order, they will definitely pursue this matter." Huang Snap Yong reminded Han Qianqian that although he knew that Han Qianqian was very strong and was able to kill these three Seven Lanterns with ease, it didn't mean that he could make an enemy of the entire imperial court.

How could he go against a country when he was only one man after all?

"You can find a few people at random and pretend to be them, and as long as they are seen leaving Long Yun City, this matter won't have anything to do with Long Yun City." Han Qianli said.

"I'm just afraid that the Imperial Court won't believe such a perfunctory approach," Huang Snapdragon said.

Han Third Thousand looked up at Huang Snap Yong and said with a smile, "Then you can only report me for killing them, so that there will be no involvement with you."

Han Qianqian knew why Huang Snap Yong was worried, after all, these three people were after him, and the disappearance of these three people the Imperial Court would definitely focus their investigation on Huang Snap Yong, it was only reasonable that he would be afraid.

Huang Snap Yong's body trembled, how could he dare to report Han Qianqian, and even if he was given the courage to do so, he wouldn't do it.

The only way for Snapdragon Huang to become stronger was to get Han Three Thousand's guidance, and since they were master and disciple, they should work together in all matters, Snapdragon Huang would never betray Han Three Thousand for himself.

"Master, what are you joking about, how could I, Huang Snap Yong, be this kind of person, if one day you really want to make an enemy of the entire imperial court, I will stand by your side, after all, I am your disciple." Huang Snapdragon said.

Han Giangli smiled faintly at the words, if there really was that day, Huang Snap Yong might have run far away long ago.

Although the current Huang Snapdragon showed great loyalty to him, it didn't mean that the future Huang Snapdragon would be the same.

And the mentor-disciple relationship between them would eventually be broken one day in Han Giang's opinion, after all, the two of them came from different worlds, and these two worlds had erupted into great wars in the past.

"There's nothing else, go ahead and find some people to fake them out of the city." Han Giangli said.

"Yes." Huang Snapdragon nodded and left the courtyard.

Returning to the city's main residence, Huang Snap Yong picked out a few people who were similar in stature to the three from the Imperial Court and custom-made clothes for them exactly the same, and that evening, while it was getting late, had the three leave the city through the most crowded east gate, this matter was deliberately shown to many people, and when the Imperial Court really found out that the three had vanished into thin air, even if they came to Long Yun City to investigate, they should be able to muddle through for a while.

As for the matter of Han Qianqian killing the three people from the Imperial Court, Huang Snap Yong already had a shadow in his heart.

In his original impression, Han 3,000 was a very low-key and kind person, even though the Chen family had humiliated him so severely, Han 3,000 had never taken it to heart.

But this time, Han 3,000 killed the Imperial Court's men in disagreement, showing Snapdragon Huang a different side of Han 3,000 and giving Snapdragon Huang a warning to be even more fearful of Han 3,000.

But what Huang Snap Yong didn't know was that Han Three thousand had been forced to do this, and if those three hadn't broken into Han Three thousand's room late at night and started killing them, how could Han Three thousand have killed them for no reason.

For Han Three thousand, the two things he wanted to figure out the most now was to find Jiang Yingying, but to know where that sense of implication came from, and Han Three thousand would never be willing to cause any trouble if he didn't have to.

The next day, the story of the Imperial Court's visitors leaving Long Yun City spread throughout the city, and many versions of speculation emerged that Huang Snapdragon had not followed them away.

Some people said that Huang Snap Yong had rejected the Royal Court's good intentions and wanted to become an earth emperor in Long Yun City.

Others believed that Huang Snap Yong had reached some sort of agreement with the imperial court and would go to serve the imperial court in the future.

But no matter which one it was, when it reached Chen Tiesin's ears, it would make him envious and jealous.

In the past, Chen Tiesin never put Snapdragon Huang in his eyes, he only treated Snapdragon Huang as a puppet's son, and often walked by Snapdragon Huang with a high and mighty look, not even interested in looking at Snapdragon Huang.

But now, Huang Snapdragon was valued by the imperial court, and was himself a Four-Light Realm and Seven Star Beast Master, such a disparity caused Chen Tiesin to suffer in his heart.

He believed that he had put in a lot of hard work without any reward at all, while Huang Snapdragon was an idle heaven-sent wonder, which only made Chen Tiesin complain that fate was unfair and the heavens were blind.

"Eldest Young Master, Miss is very agitated right now, you should go see her." While Chen Tiesin was complaining, Yanran Chen's personal maid ran to his side.

Chen Tiesin withdrew his thoughts and hurried towards Yanran Chen's room.

Only to see that Yanran Chen looked rather dazed, her mouth kept chanting the three words Han Qianli as if she was possessed.

Chen Tiesin walked over to Yanran Chen's side and held her hand, asking, "Sister, what's wrong with you."

"Brother, brother." Chen Yanran's eyes instantly became enlightened and asked to Chen Tiesin, "Have you found Han Giang, where is he, I want to see him."

Chen Tiesin gritted his teeth, he didn't understand why Yanran Chen had suddenly become like this, but he was sure that it was because of what Han Giang had done to Yanran Chen.

"Sister, what exactly did he do to you, don't be afraid, tell brother and I'll take revenge for you." Chen Tiesin said.

"I want to see him, I want to see him, brother, help me find him ah." Chen Yanran's two lines of tears surged wildly down her cheeks, appearing extremely sad.

Chen Tiesin was even more convinced that Yanran was being bullied by Han 3000, but the real situation was that Yanran's tears were tinged with regret, as she increasingly felt that what Huang Snapdragon was implying with that statement was Han 3000.

Chen Tiesin took a deep breath and said, "Don't cry yet, brother will find him, no matter where he is in the world, I won't let him go."

Hearing this, Yan Chen's emotions calmed down a bit, as long as she could see Han Giang, it was easy to say.

Chen Tiesin really wanted to ask what had happened between Yanran Chen and Han Three Thousand, but he was worried that it would cause Yanran Chen's emotions to become agitated again, so he could only endure it.

After leaving Yanran Chen's room, Chen Tiesin led the entire house's servants in a carpet search in Long Yun City.

Chapter 899

"Find Han Qianxiang and break his legs for me, then bring them back to the Chen residence."

This was what Chen Tiesin said to every servant, he had already decided within himself that Han Qianxiang had done something worse than an animal, so he would never let Han Qianxiang go.

However, if he wanted to find Han Three Thousand, it was clearly impossible in the next few days, as Han Three Thousand had already embarked on the road to Xiao Ling City with Huang Snap Yong.

Xiao Ling City, a place known as a man's paradise, the scenery on both sides of the Rouge River could make most men indulge in it, and it was rumored that there had been a rich family that had lost all of their fortune in the Rouge River, and in the end had also died on a woman, so it could be said that they had given the last of their strength to this cause.

Huang Snap Yong had also had the experience of sneaking to Xiao Ling City a few times, and he had seen the scenery of the Rouge River several times, it was a place where men couldn't help themselves.

In the end, he was able to find a way to help her, and he also suggested that he could help her.

But Han 3,000 didn't accept Huang Snap Yong's proposal, as beauty in the world is meaningless to him and he has never fallen for it.

Han Qianlian went to Xiao Ling City, apart from gaining insight, there were also some men who were instinctively curious, but of course, being curious didn't mean that Han Qianlian would do anything out of the ordinary.

"Apart from women, there should be more experts in Xiao Ling City, right?" Han Qianli asked.

"That's natural, but Xiao Ling City is much larger than Long Yun City, and due to the existence of the Rouge River, it's more able to attract men to go there, among them, there are naturally some experts, in Long Yun City, the Four Lantern Realm is already considered absolutely strong, but in Xiao Ling City, there might even exist strong folk of the Seven Lantern Realm." Snapdragon Huang said.

"Only Seven-Light Realm?" Han Giangli frowned and asked.

Only the Seventh Lamp Realm?

This sentence made Huang Snapdragon laugh and cry, for the world, the Seven Lantern Realm was already a rarely seen strong person, after all, those great experts of the latter three realms were almost all already members of the Imperial Court, so how could they casually come to the skyscraper?

The women of the imperial court were not something that could be compared to the Celestial City.

"Master, to you the Seven Lantern Realm is nothing, but to ordinary people, the Seven Lantern Realm is already like a god, it's not something you can just see casually." Saying that, Snapdragon Huang suddenly lowered his voice and said, "Especially for a strong man like you who can casually kill three Seven Lantern Realms, it's a rare occurrence in the world."

"Your ass-kissing skills are probably already at the Extreme Master realm," Han Giangli said.

Huang Snap Yong was thick-skinned enough, so he didn't feel embarrassed at all, but instead laughed proudly and said, "Master, although I'm not at a good realm, there aren't many people who can match me when it comes to flattery, but when I used to like Yanran Chen, I was able to say anything, and now that I think about it, I feel disgusted myself."

"You're just a total licking dog." Han Qianli was helpless.

"A licking dog?" Huang Snapdragon looked at Han Qianqian in confusion and asked, "Master, I'm obviously a human, so how can I be a dog?"

Dog-licking was a new-age word on Earth, and Han Sanliang didn't bother explaining it to Huang Snapdragon, so he changed the subject and asked, "Besides women, there should be other interesting things in Xiao Ling City, right?"

With Han 3000's modern thinking logic, although Xiao Ling City was mainly a women's industrial chain, but since Long gathered a lot of popularity, it should also give rise to some interesting things in other aspects, after all, this place was a new world to Han 3000, so he wanted to see more things that he hadn't seen before.

"Master, what Xiao Ling City is most famous for is beautiful women, every man who comes to Xiao Ling City is for women, what are you referring to in other aspects?" Huang Snapdragon looked at Han Qianqiang in puzzlement.

What was it?

Han 3000 wasn't from Xuanyuan World, so how could he say anything about it, but looking at Huang Snapdragon's eyes full of women, he probably wouldn't care about anything else.

"Let's hurry, let's get to Xiao Ling City first." Han Giangli said.

The two of them were fast on their horses, and although Han Three Thousand had never had the experience of riding a horse, he had a strong strength and it was simple to get used to such a way of rushing.

The two of them arrived at Xiao Ling City in the evening of the second day.

For Xiao Ling City, this was the time when it was just starting to get crowded.

Huang Snap Yong had just entered the city gates and was already eager to get to the Rouge River.

And Han Qianli also found that this Xiao Ling City did have a lot more women than Long Yun City, and most of the heads gathered on the streets were women, and the postures were pretty good, giving Han Qianli the feeling that he was in the Daughter's Kingdom.

"Master, should we go straight to the Rouge River?" Snapdragon Huang asked eagerly.

"Go." Since it was the heart of Xiao Ling City, Han Qianlian naturally wouldn't miss the Rouge River.

A short distance into the city gate, there was a river, and various boat rental shops were loudly hawking to solicit business.

As the son of the lord of Long Yun City, Huang Snap Yong was naturally a wealthy lord and rented the most expensive flower boat.

After boarding the boat, Huang Snap Yong explained to Han Qianqian, "Master, there are ways to rent this boat, the better the boat, the more likely it is to be favored by a girl, the last time I was here, there were many girls throwing belly pockets at my boat, and one of them hated to be honest with me."

"If you don't have a boat, wouldn't you not even be qualified to visit the Rouge River?" Han Giangli said with a smile, from the looks of it, this is a rich man's game, the girl hasn't seen it yet, you have to drop a sum of money first, like those upscale clubs on Earth and the entrance fee.

"You can also visit the two coasts, but young and beautiful girls, their eyes never look to the two coasts, only those older women will hook up with poor people walking on the two coasts." Huang Snap Yong said.

The shopkeeper had the manpower to support the boat, so all Han Qianli and Huang Snap Yong had to do was to stand gracefully at the bow of the boat.

As the current flowed, in a short while, the real Rouge River was already before Han Qianqian's eyes.

There were countless young and beautiful women standing on both sides of the river bank, waving handkerchiefs in their hands and trying hard to attract guests, especially after Han Qianli's boat entered, those girls worked even harder.

"Gongshi, I'm proficient in all eighteen martial arts, so please take me in."

"Duke look at me, what kind of woman do you like, our family can satisfy you."

Chapter 900

Huang Snapdragon had already been salivating.

But Han Giangli was very uncomfortable with this situation.

After all, this sort of thing was illegal on Earth, where had he seen such a blatant attempt to solicit customers?

But the posture of those women was very surprising to Han Qianli.

On both sides of the Rouge River, casually carrying a woman out, they were all absolutely beautiful and had many figures, if this went to Earth, there was no telling how many men would be dazzled.

"Master, these women are pretty enough." Huang Snapdragon said to Han Qianqian with a dry mouth.

"If there are so many women here, why have you been infatuated with Yan Chen for so many years?" Han Giangli smiled and asked.

"Master, these are, after all, young ladies, it's fine to play with them occasionally, how can they be brought home as wives." Huang Snapdragon said.

"What will happen to these people, in the end?" Han Giangli was curious.

Huang Snapdragon had never met anyone who would care about the women of the Green House, and he hadn't thought about what these women would be like in the future.

But thinking about it, one could know that after getting old and being kicked out of the Green House, it might be a miserable old age, there were those who were luckier and might be able to get concubines from rich people, but the humble nature of their status was a reality that could never be changed.

"Master, why do you care about this." Huang Snapdragon said.

"Just asking out of pure curiosity." Han Giangli couldn't help but laugh, if this were Earth, those women should have gone back home, found an honest man to take over, and maybe even have a happy life, but it was obviously unlikely here, because these women were the equivalent of selling themselves into a green house, and their fate was no longer theirs to decide.

When the flower boats swam to the middle section of the Rouge River, Huang Snapdragon suddenly asked the people supporting the boats to stop, and this was the section of the river where the boats were moored the most, no need to ask Han Qianqian also guessed that this should be the shop that Huang Snapdragon had spoken of, the shopkeeper selected yellow flower lady's girls for his customers, so naturally it was worthy of more attention.

"Master, we can just call the price on the ship, if you like anyone, let me know, no matter how much it costs, my disciple will satisfy you tonight." Huang Snapdragon said to Han Qianqian.

In front of Han Three Thousand, Huang Snap Yong didn't care about money at all, as long as Han Three Thousand was happy, he wouldn't blink an eyelid even if he had to shell out the entire fortune of the City Lord's Palace.

"No need, just take a look at the fun."

As soon as Han Qianli's voice fell, a delicate woman was pushed over to the riverbank.

Looking at the way her head was lowered, she appeared to be very afraid, and her tiny body was clearly trembling slightly, distinctly different from those women who were soliciting business.

It was obvious that she was forced to do so, perhaps this was the norm in Xiao Ling City, but it was somewhat tolerated in Han Qianqian's eyes.

At this time, many of the ship's guests began to call out prices, and it was clear that they were particularly interested in this unhuman woman, and the price rose quickly.

As the price got higher, the barking became quieter and quieter.

Han Giangli didn't control her compassion and said to Huang Snapdragon, "How much will it cost to help her ransom her body?"

"Master, you're going to help her redeem herself?" Huang Snap Yong looked at Han Qianqian in dismay, was this love at first sight? This is the banks of the River Rouge in Xiaoling.

"I shouldn't have this kind of pity, should I." Han Qianqiang sighed, he also knew that he shouldn't do this, but looking at the woman Konjou's frightened appearance, it was a bit unbearable.

Huang Snapdragon didn't know why Han Three Thousand had to do this, but since it was Han Three Thousand's request, he naturally had to meet it.

Raising his hand to call for a price, Huang Snap Yong was like a black horse killing out, leaving no room for error.

"Brother, you're obviously going against me?" On the other boat, a young man walked up to the bow of the boat and looked at Huang Snapdragon with a torch-like gaze, he was the one who had just barked the loudest, it was obvious that he wanted the woman very badly, and Huang Snapdragon had come out of the middle of nowhere, making him very dissatisfied.

Snapdragon Huang looked at the man with contempt and said, "You're the only one who can call the price, can't I?"

The man smiled slightly, and with a strong hint of coldness in his eyes, he said, "Before you go against me, you should really find out who I am, don't lose your life in this Rouge River."

"What? You don't have any money? Don't have money to pretend to be a grandfather, stay honestly." Huang Snapdragon said without mercy, knowing that he was an actual domineering disciple, how could he lose the limelight in such a matter?

The man's face was even colder, and it could be seen that he should have a certain status in Xiao Ling City, or else he wouldn't dare to say such words.

At this time, an old man appeared beside him, sleepy-eyed, but Han Qianqian could tell that this was a Five Lantern Realm person, who seemed harmless, but was actually concealing murderous intent.

At this time, many people on the other ships recognized the young man's identity and showed respect for him, and advised Huang Snapdragon not to stir up trouble.

If it had been before, Huang Snap Yong would have slumped down and stopped, but now that his master was here, he didn't care what the young man's identity was, and now he was no longer in the Two Lanterns realm he used to be.

"Hmph." The old man snorted heavily, and the water's surface rippled, such a display of strength shocking the others into turning pale.

But Huang Snapdragon smiled faintly, showing off his skills in front of his master? Wouldn't this little trick seem ridiculous.

"Brother, I kindly advise you to leave quickly, leave Xiao Ling City, and never appear before me." The young man said to Snapdragon Huang with a sneer on his face, as if in his opinion, the old man's shock tactics were enough to scare the crap out of Snapdragon Huang.

"It's just a Five-Light Realm, it's not hard for you, right?" Han Giangli whispered to Huang Snapdragon.

In terms of his own strength, there was a huge gap between Huang Snap Yong and this old man, but now he was a seven-star Beast Master, so how could he need to do anything?

"Master, it looks like we're about to make a splash right after we arrive at Xiao Ling City." Huang Snapdragon said with a smile.

The young man couldn't hear the conversation between the two, but when he realized that Huang Snapdragon was even laughing, he felt a sense of humiliation at being ignored and his face turned fierce.

"Since you must seek death, then I will fulfill you." After the young man finished speaking, he looked at the old man and it was clear that he wanted the old man to kill.

The old man smiled faintly, killing was a common occurrence for him.

As an expert of the Five Lantern Realm, even if he killed someone in public, those people could only treat it as if they didn't see it, whoever dared to say more, could they not be afraid of his retaliation?

Just as everyone was mourning for Snapdragon Huang, believing him to be dead for sure, a huge white figure descended from the sky.
