

THE AMAZING SON IN LAW

The Charismatic Charlie Wade Chapter 4965

Jase, who had been watching Soleil's joke silently in his heart for the last second, collapsed and lost consciousness in an instant because he couldn't stand the sudden blow.

Yosef hurriedly helped Jase, who was unconscious and fell to the ground, to get up. While pinching the person, he said helplessly: "Uncle, didn't you think clearly when you persuaded Aunt Soleil just now? What's the matter? It won't work when it comes to yourself..."

Seeing that Jase was unconscious, Soleil's mood seemed to have eased a little in despair.

It's like when a person falls into an abyss and is desperate, suddenly another acquaintance jumps down.

This gave her some consolation in her heart.

So, she opened her mouth and said to Yosef, "What's the use of pressing people so hard? You can't wake up even if you press the front teeth off, so hurry up and pour some water on him!"

Yosef looked at Hallie, who was beside him, and blurted out, "Go get water from the car, what are you still doing!"

Hallie on the side was also in a hurry, and hurried back to the car to get a bottle of water and handed it to Yosef.

Yosef poured a bottle of water on Jase's head and face, which then woke Jase from the coma.

As soon as Jase opened his eyes, he cried out in grief: "God doesn't have eyes! You are killing me!"

Soleil glanced at him and said coldly, "I won't tell you any more nonsense. The most important thing right now is to make money first, and let the rest go first."

Said, Soleil didn't wait for him to respond, and said to Yosef, "Go drive and let him rest in the back."

Yosef nodded hurriedly, then helped Jase up and said, "Uncle, I'll pay you to get on the bus."

Jase got into the car in despair, and then Yosef got into the cab and started the car to continue driving towards the US-Mexico border.

After the car drove out, Soleil in the co-pilot said coldly, "The more I think about this, the more I feel that something is not right."

Yosef asked her, "Aunt Soleil, what are you saying is not right?"

Soleil said, "If it's just my family that's in trouble, then it's possible that a large number of unidentified assets have attracted the police's attention, but son's wife house is thousands of kilometers away from my house, it makes no sense that his family has an accident, I suspect that we There is some kind of inevitable connection behind the situation of the two families."

Jase, who was sitting in the back row, blurted out, "Sister Soleil, are you saying that the police in China already know our true identity?!"

For Wanlong Hall, if you can find information about Soleil, you can naturally find out the background of everything.

Jase is actually not his real name.

His original name was Xu Jianxi, and unlike Soleil, he was tricked into northern Myanmar to commit fraud a few years ago in order to make a living.

However, because of his love of drinking all the year round, his brain reaction speed is a little slow, his mouth is stupid, and because he is not very skilled in business, he did not make any money in northern Myanmar, and was almost cut off his waist.

In the original words of the boss in northern Myanmar at that time, such waste not only can't create any value, but also wastes food. Only by cutting his waist can the cost be recovered.

At that time, he happened to know Yosef, who just turned 20 and couldn't survive in northern Myanmar. They were afraid that one day their waists would be cut off, so they worked hard to escape from the devil's cave. come out.

After escaping, the two did not dare to return to China, so they found a way there and smuggled to the United States.

Different from Soleil, Soleil smuggled in money to pay the smugglers enough money to smuggle over.

But Xu Jianxi and Yosef were penniless when they ran out, so in order to escape, they had to sign a usury agreement with the black-hearted snakehead.

The cost of smuggling from northern Myanmar to the United States is 15,000 U.S. dollars, paid in installments, with principal and interest, and a total of 30,000 U.S. dollars in the smuggler's head.

The Charismatic Charlie Wade Chapter 4966

The snakehead was not afraid of them running away at all, because the snakehead did not take them directly to the United States, but to Mexico first.

Anyway, as long as you get on the smuggler's boat, just like the slaves who were sold by the Europeans back then, life and death are beyond your control.

Those who are obedient can live until the boat docks, while those who are disobedient have stones tied directly to their feet and are thrown into the sea on the spot to sink to the bottom.

The two managed to escape with great difficulty, and they dared not to obey, so they followed the boat all the way to Mexico.

After disembarking in Mexico, the two were forced to stuff several packs of contraband into their rectums in Mexico, and then traveled from Mexico to the United States with the fake identities provided by the smugglers.

According to the price of the snake head, a discount of 3,000 US dollars for one shipment.

If you follow the instructions honestly and earn money to pay off your debts, you will be able to regain your freedom.

Otherwise, the Mexican gangs and American gangs who cooperate with the smugglers can make them go to the wilderness at any time.

The two were helpless and could only do as they were told.

In two months, he ran back and forth ten times before he regained his freedom.

At that time, it was Soleil who was in charge of arranging for them to enter and leave the border and pick up the goods on the US side.

Soleil had already made a few names at that time, and met an Asian elder brother who specialized in dumping contraband from Mexico to the United States and around the world. Since then, she has become a "carrier" who specializes in helping the other party to transport goods. Later, they waited for the two After the person paid off the debt owed to Snakehead, Soleil simply incorporated them both.

Although Soleil did all kinds of evil to the outside world, she also knew the importance of team stability, so when the three followed her, she did not treat them badly.

Xu Jianxi works relatively hard, and he has made some orders himself, so he has earned at least two or three million US dollars in these years, which is equivalent to ten or twenty million yuan;

Yosef is young and is not easy to fool into middle-aged and elderly people, so his income is relatively low, but even so, he has earned millions of dollars over the years.

As for Hallie, who played his wife, she was recruited by Soleil just a few years ago. Because she was the most marginal in the team, she didn't make much money.

At this time, Xu Jianxi was even more flustered.

He is afraid that not only his assets will be seized, but even criminal evidence may be grasped by the domestic police.

If that's the case, it's impossible for me to go back home again in my life.

So, he asked Soleil in a panic: "Sister Soleil, you said that we have never committed any crimes in China, and we have not been going back very much recently. How could the police find us?"

Soleil said in a dignified and cold voice: "It's not necessarily that the domestic police found us, and as you said just now, we have never broken the law in China, and those who were tricked by us to bring goods back to China are also We don't know our real identities at all, so in the eyes of the domestic police, we are transparent people."

Xu Jianxi couldn't help but ask: "Sister Soleil, what do you think is going on here? Why did the domestic police find our family so precisely?"

Soleil said with a stern expression: "I think this matter must be reported to China by someone from the United States!"

"Report from the United States?!" Xu Jianxi blurted out: "We didn't offend anyone in the United States! Besides, Sister Soleil, I've known you for so many years, and I don't know anything about your family situation. It is estimated that you are not very clear, who can provide our information to the domestic police so accurately?!"

Soleil shook her head and said with a very gloomy expression: "I don't know about this either, but I always have an intuition..."

Xu Jianxi hurriedly asked, "What intuition?"

Soleil said, "I think this matter has something to do with that Elaine!"
