

The Amazing Son In Law Chapter 5015

Hearing the other party's question, charlie smiled slightly, and said lightly: "Not only do I know Soleil, I also ate with her, she was in Providence under the pseudonym Jovie, and there was a man named Xu Jianxi who was with her. Playing a couple together, am I right?"

Hearing charlie's words, not only that Uncle Ma's expression was horrified, but even Trent was dumbfounded.

He didn't know who Soleil was, but he knew Jovie!

It was Jovie who told his mother that Mexico was recruiting seamen, and the treatment was very good.

My mother was very grateful to her for a time, thinking that her help saved the whole family.

But who would have thought that this woman would be so vicious and want to dig out her heart and sell it!

Thinking of this, he couldn't help asking Charlie: "Brother...you...how did you know Jovie?! Did you also get tricked by Jovie?!"

charlie smiled contemptuously, and said lightly, "Brother, with the weight of Jovie, it is impossible to deceive me."

Seeing charlie's disdain, Uncle Ma suddenly felt a little more flustered in his heart.

He felt that since charlie already knew Soleil's true identity, but still dared to enter the Tiger's Den alone, it was enough to see that this person must have another move.

So he couldn't help but ask: "Brother, I think you are very brave, you are not an ordinary person, I think you don't give a shit, you directly explain where you came from, if we are on the same road, I will never do it. Get your hands on you!"

charlie sneered and said: "It's just your business, to be honest, I really despise it. I tried my best to deceive those people with financial difficulties, and then kill them to get their organs. Those beggar gangs who mutilate children are even more disgusting, and if you say something ugly, you don't want to fuck your face, how can I, charlie, be on the same path as you guys after all these years?"

Ma Kui was even more flustered.

He found that after charlie said Soleil's name, there was no trace of fear from the beginning to the end, and the look in his eyes was full of sarcasm and contempt. If he didn't have absolute strong self-confidence, it was absolutely impossible. Well-founded.

Thinking of this, Ma Kui broke out in a cold sweat.

Originally, he was ruthless and wanted to pull the trigger and kill charlie with one shot, but now he can't pull the trigger no matter what.

He couldn't hide his nervousness and asked charlie: "Brother, what are you going to do? Since you know what business we are doing, you should know that we are a bunch of murderers who don't blink, even if you are really big, But on this third of an acre in Mexico, I'm not necessarily afraid of you."

charlie smiled slightly and said, "I think most of the people here are Mexicans. It should be difficult for you, a Chinese, to be the boss here. Is your boss not here?"

Ma Kui nodded and said solemnly: "Our boss has multiple business lines, here is just one of them, I am not talented, it is the person in charge of this business line, the Soleil you have contacted is my downline in the United States One, I am in the U.S. and Canada, and there are several downlines that specialize in delivering supplies for me."

charlie nodded slightly and said, "I have some big business, and I want to talk to your boss. You can call him and I will wait for him here."

Ma Kui frowned and said cautiously: "Brother, if you don't reveal your identity, it is impossible for me to inform our boss. Our boss is among the bosses of criminal groups in Mexico, and at least he can rank in the top ten, do you think? To let him come to see you, you have to show the identity that can invite him."

charlie smiled disdainfully, and then quietly broke the tie on his wrist.

Immediately afterwards, he put his skills into his pocket very calmly, and took out the black gold card that was limited to dozens in the world and only a few in China.

It was only at this time that everyone realized that charlie actually broke free of the tie. When they were horrified and had no time to think about how charlie did it, charlie had already gently shaken the black gold card in his hand.

Afterwards, he threw the card directly to Ma Kui and said with a sneer, "Come on, open your dog's eyes and show me clearly, do you recognize this thing."

The Amazing Son In Law Chapter 5016

Ma Kui stretched out his hand in a panic, and was able to catch the black gold card. Then he fixed his eyes and turned pale in shock!

Although he has never seen the black gold card of Citibank, he has already heard about it.

He couldn't help thinking to himself: "Damn, this black gold card is limited to only a few dozen in the world. If you can get this kind of card, let's not say how much money is in the card, but the assets must exceed 10 billion US dollars!"

"What's the concept of $10 billion in a backcountry like Mexico?"

"It's too f*cking much to have a concept, damn it!"

Thinking of this, he couldn't help lowering his head and carefully observing this black and gold card.

The workmanship of this card is extremely exquisite, whether it is texture or touch, he has never seen it on a card in his life.

The slightly frosted relief on the surface of the black gold card is as exquisite as a work of art.

In the lower left corner of this black and gold card, there are also English letters protruding with steel stamps, which are the capitalized pinyin of Charlie's name.

At this moment, Ma Kui exclaimed in his heart: "This is the real thing!"

The next second, Ma Kui's hands trembled involuntarily.

Ma Kui is also a trainer. Regardless of his age, his skills are much better than those of his peers.

This guy can hold a burst of ak47 with one hand, but now he can't hold a bank card that weighs only a few grams with both hands.

At this time, he was looking at Charlie, and his eyes were full of awe and fear.

He couldn't help trembling and asked, "Brother...Oh no...Mr. Wade...I don't know...I don't know...you suddenly came here...there...what are you doing..."

Ma Kui is not a stupefied fool.

When he saw this card, he knew that Charlie must be extremely powerful, and even his assets should be more than 10 billion US dollars.

And at this moment, he no longer feels that he has any initiative at this time.

Because he knows very well that a person with a worth like charlie, if he dares to use his true identity and take his own flesh and blood to try the risk, then in his eyes, there is absolutely no threat to this risk.

The reason why charlie dared to use his real name to contact this group of people is that on the one hand, he is not afraid of retaliation from these people, because in his opinion, one of these people will die!

On the other hand, he knew that Soleil definitely had no connection with them.

Since Soleil escaped from Providence, she has cut off all contact with her accomplices. This is the old fox's way of self-protection. In a short time, even Wanlong Palace can't find her whereabouts, which is enough to prove that She is so cautious, so even if she uses her real name, she doesn't have to worry that this organization will communicate with Soleil after she appears.

Seeing Ma Kui's panicked face, charlie sarcastically said, "Look at how scared you are of a bird. With a gun in your hand and so many dogs around you, isn't it enough to give you courage?"

The more arrogant charlie was, the more panicked Ma Kui and A Liang next to him became.

Seeing that Ma Kui's cold sweat had left on his forehead, charlie smiled slightly and said, "Okay, let's be honest with you, I'm short of some people like you, who specialize in dirty work and work. You're a scumbag, so I came here to investigate and see how much you have."

The Amazing Son In Law Chapter 5017

After charlie said this, the two of them were already sweating down their necks.

Ma Kui swallowed his saliva with difficulty, and asked subconsciously, "Mr. Wade, you...you came to Mexico alone just to inspect us?"

charlie asked him back, "Who told you that I was alone?"

When the two heard this, their expressions became even more nervous.

At this time, charlie pointed to Trent beside him, and said lightly, "Didn't we two brothers come together?"

Ma Kui was stunned, and then the whole person stood on the spot and trembled uncontrollably.

charlie didn't mention Lang's Red Army, but when he mentioned Lang's Red Army, Ma Kui felt even more flustered.

Because he had already obtained the information of Trent , he could conclude that Trent was kept in the dark.

However, charlie was able to come with him, and he still met him on the plane, which proves that charlie had already figured out their plan and knew that they were going to attack Trent , so he deliberately approached Trent , Came here with Trent .

Thinking of this, he was extremely frightened.

Only then did he understand why others always say that high-end hunters always appear in the eyes of real prey in the way of prey.

It seems that he has picked up a big bargain for nothing, but he did not expect that all this is under the control of others.

It can even be said that this is the result that others really want.

It reminded him of the way Africans catch wasps.

They will first take a piece of meat to make the greedy wasps think they have found their prey and then take it away, but they don't know that when the hunter is biting the piece of meat, he hangs a light feather on himself.

In this way, hunters will follow the feather to find the wasp's nest, remove them one by one, and they will kill the adult wasps and throw the pupae from the hive into a pot to boil and fry.

In short, once the hunters track to the nest, it means the overturning of the entire nest.

He couldn't help but ask charlie: "Mr. Wade, you... do you want to include us?"

charlie said lightly: "Inclusion or not, depends on your strength and sincerity, so you'd better call your boss and ask him to come and talk to me."

Ma Kui thought for a moment, then said respectfully, "Mr. Wade, wait a moment, I'll go up and call our boss."

charlie said coldly, "Do you still want to go up after a phone call? Just make a call here."

Ma Kui quickly explained: "Mr. Wade, you don't know, there is a signal blocker here, and the mobile phone can't make calls. I want to go up and use the landline to call our boss."

charlie waved his hand gently and urged: "Be quick and quick, go and come back quickly."

"Okay!" Ma Kui nodded, gave A Liang a quick wink, and the two hurried out together.

After reaching the ground, Ah Liang couldn't help but ask Ma Kui: "Uncle Ma... this... what's the origin of this kid..."

Ma Kui slapped him with a slap in the face and scolded him angrily: "No matter what his background is, you brought him back! If this guy is not good, it would be strange if the boss didn't kill you."

"You can't blame me, Uncle Ma..." A Liang said with a sad face: "I reported it to you at the time, and you agreed. How can you throw the blame on me at this time?"

Ma Kui said coldly: "You don't need to tell me these nonsense now, the most urgent task now is to quickly report the situation to the boss."

Ah Liang hurriedly asked again: "Uncle Ma, do you think this kid is really awesome? Is his card real?"

The Amazing Son In Law Chapter 5018

Ma Kui said seriously: "It must be true, that thing doesn't feel like something that can be imitated, and this kid knows our details, and even understands our movements, he must have already investigated us. situation."

A Liang asked nervously, "He can't be a sliver, can he?"

"I can't..." Ma Kui waved his hand: "How could Tiaozi play such a trick? This kid looks like he has gone through a lot of wind and waves. There are so many of us and so many guns. But he doesn't at all. Falling down the wind even scared me to the point of swaying my legs, do you think this is the psychological quality that Tiaozi can have?"

Saying that, Ma Kui looked around and said, "I now seriously suspect that this little guy has secretly surrounded us, but we can't see it."

Ah Liang became more nervous when he heard this. He looked around and said, "By the way, Uncle Ma, did you see how he broke the tie? I didn't see it at all... It's so strong, it's the head. The cow can't break free, can it?"

Ma Kui said blankly: "I don't know about this either, anyway, this person is extremely rich, extremely confident, and extremely courageous. His background is definitely not simple, and it is definitely not something that you and I can afford. Maybe he really wants to be included. The whole 'Crazy Juarez', if that's the case, maybe it's a good opportunity..."

After speaking, Ma Kui said again: "Even if he is really bad, we don't touch him, let the boss come and decide for himself."

"It makes sense..." Ah Liang wiped his sweat and said, "Let the boss make the decision, it's so f*cking weird..."

...

The real family behind Soleil is this criminal group called 'Crazy Juarez' entrenched in northern Mexico.

The reason why such a second middle school name is given is because the boss of this criminal group is named Juarez.

Different from the low-key and introverted character of Chinese people, Westerners especially like to put their names in enterprises, whether it is a Boeing aircraft or a Dyson vacuum cleaner, all of them use the founder's own name.

Even a clothing brand co-founded by two gays has to add both names.

In Huaxia, this kind of thing is rare.

But in the West, almost everywhere.

Therefore, even a criminal group must use the name of the boss as the name of the entire group.

And this Mexican criminal group named Crazy Juarez, the power in Mexico, is not even in the top five.

But the evil they have done is no less than that of other criminal groups in Mexico.

In order to make as much money as possible, this group does almost all evils. Manufacturing, smuggling, and selling contraband are just one of them. Kidnapping, extortion, and assassination are also their business scope.

The reselling of human organs is a large business in this criminal group.

Moreover, what is even more outrageous is that this criminal group is not just selling organs. For profit, they deceive the poor people who are struggling to survive from the United States and Canada, and try their best to deceive them to Mexico, take their organs, and finally Destroy the corpse.

Because there are too many criminal groups in Mexico and there are too many homicides, neither the police in the country nor the police in the United States and Canada can do anything about them.

As a result, their business of reselling organs has almost become a low-risk, high-reward business without capital.

They have been doing this kind of business for many years, and each year has increased compared to the previous year, and they have done so many years without any trouble.

At this time, Juarez himself was hugging his hot Mexican girlfriend and having fun at the underground casino in Ensenada.

He was lucky tonight, and he killed the Quartet in the casino, winning a full $200,000.

Just when he was having a good time, his subordinate Ma Kui called.

He was about to open the cards at this time. Looking at the buzzing mobile phone on the gambling table, he couldn't help but feel a little irritable, so he answered the phone and asked in a cold voice, "Why are you calling so late?! I don't know that I am gambling money.?"

Ma Kui said quickly: "Boss, something happened in the operating room, and a big man came to the door..."
