

The Amazing Son In Law Chapter 5097

Hearing that the old lady wanted to see charlie, Fei Kexin hurriedly said, "Sorry, Grandma An, his whereabouts are uncertain, this time he just gave me the medicinal pill, he said that there are still a lot of important things to do, so left."

Strictly speaking, Fei Kexin is not lying.

Because charlie's whereabouts are indeed uncertain, especially in the recent period, from Canada to the United States, Hong Kong Island, and then to Mexico, Fei Kexin does not know his specific plans.

He has rushed back to the Shangri-La Hotel to prepare for the arrival of the Ito family and Kairi.

When the old lady heard that Fei Kexin said that the benefactor was gone, she immediately said in a very disappointed manner: "The benefactor saved our whole family that day, and now he has saved Yalin. We will never be able to repay this great kindness in our lifetimes. , but he never gave us any chance to repay..."

Fei Kexin said with relief: "Grandma An, don't tell me about you, I owe my grace to my grandmother for a long time, and I have no chance to repay it so far. I can only do my best for my grace."

Asher took advantage of the situation and asked: "Miss Fei, when the old man Fei had a sudden illness at the Aurous Hill auction, and then your uncle took the opportunity to seize power, but the old man turned the corner and you and the old man can return to New York, and you can even take charge of the Fei family. , if I guessed correctly, this matter is also because the benefactor is helping in the back, right?"

"That's right." Fei Kexin didn't have any cover, and simply nodded and said, "If it wasn't for the benefactor, even if my grandfather could survive in Aurous Hill, the two of us would not be able to escape my uncle's pursuit."

Asher's eyes lit up and he said, "So, the benefactor who saved us is actually the benefactor who rescued you in Aurous Hill that day. In other words, this benefactor is actually the Huichundan auctioneer. The real leader, maybe even the real owner of the rejuvenation pill, right?"

Asher's words instantly attracted the attention of the rest of the An family.

In the past, An Jia had little contact with so-called panacea.

But during this time, there are as many as three panaceas they know, experience, or see others experience.

First, Asher witnessed the miracle of Huichundan with his own eyes at the auction in Aurous Hill;

Then it was the elixir that brought back the dead by Stefanie sun, which pulled the old man An Qishan back from the death line;

Now it is Li Yalin who has been reborn from the freeze with the help of the magical elixir.

Among them, the medicinal pills that Stefanie sun sent had a relatively complete background, and the An family did not have much doubts before.

After all, according to what Stefanie sun said, the medicine pill she brought was obtained by chance when her father was seriously ill, and the time span was longer, so in the underlying logic of the An family's thinking about the problem, the medicine pill brought by Stefanie sun was naturally not included. , which is analyzed in conjunction with Rejuvenation Dan and Reshaping Dan.

Therefore, the An family subconsciously associates the Huichundan with the Reshaping Dan for the time being, and deduces that the owner of the Huichundan is the same person as the benefactor who rescued An Jia, Li Yalin, and Fei Kexin.

charlie also knew that he rescued Li Yalin by himself, and asked Fei Kexin to send Li Yalin back, which in itself could not prevent the An family from connecting the clues, but he had no good solution for this.

The Amazing Son In Law Chapter 5098

If you want to save Li Yalin, you will inevitably expose some clues in front of the grandfather and grandmother's family. It was also his choice to save Li Yalin. Now, by chance, he has obtained the core medicinal materials for refining and reshaping Dan in Mexico. Just pushed the boat and saved him.

As for the exposure of clues, charlie didn't care too much.

After all, they are their grandparents, not their enemies. What's more, the clues that have been exposed so far are nothing more than asking them to get one more piece of the puzzle. If they want to find out their identity completely, they are still far from it.

Asher's speculation resonated with the entire An family.

Homula couldn't hide his excitement and said: "Brother, so it seems that this benefactor has many connections with us! You were expelled from the auction of Huichundan in Aurous Hill, this benefactor should know. But even so, he rescued us in New York."

Asher nodded and said, "At the auction that day, it was obvious that Jasmine Moore in Aurous Hill was a puppet. At the event, someone gave orders to her through a headset. I always thought that this benefactor was at a certain backstage at the time. The room looked at everything that happened at the scene, and I offered more than 300 billion US dollars, and I could be kicked out. This decision, a mere Jasmine Moore would definitely not be able to make it, and the entire Moore family is worth only 30 billion to 40 billion US dollars. She doesn't have the right and the courage anyway."

The old lady not only sighed: "In this way, our family is really blessed. If it wasn't for the benefactor who was next door that day, our family must have suffered an accident..."

Asher suddenly came back to his senses and blurted out, "Mom, this benefactor is also a Stefanie Sun fan!"

The old lady didn't think it was strange, she nodded and said, "Stefanie Sun is also the queen of the Chinese music scene, and the benefactor is also a Chinese. It's no big deal to be her fan, right?"

"Yeah." Tablita also said at this time: "Many big figures are also chasing stars. When the Super Bowl is here in the United States, many rich and powerful people go to watch it. When Michael Jackson was popular all over the world, the former president's family followed. He has a very good relationship, and his daughter is a huge fan of him."

When Asher heard this, he even accepted the explanation, so he said, "Since the grandfather is the guest of honor invited by Stefanie Sun's concert, then Stefanie Sun must know his true identity, or let's ask Stefanie Sun how he is. Maybe the pill that Stefanie Sun gave Dad at the beginning was also from the hand of the benefactor."

Homula thought for a while, and said, "It's really possible, I've checked it out, Orrin Sun did have advanced pancreatic cancer, and then he suddenly recovered. It is estimated that at that time, the Sun family had already met him. The high probability is The benefactor first cured Orrin Sun, and then gave the Sun family some medicinal herbs."

The old man pondered for a moment, nodded and said, "It must be the case. According to the timeline, the Sun family first came into contact with the benefactor, then Miss Fei, and then us."

Asher hurriedly said: "In this way, Stefanie Sun must know the true identity of the benefactor, the relevant details, just make a phone call and ask!"

The old man immediately waved his hand and said, "Absolutely not!"

Asher asked in surprise, "Dad, why?"

The old man said unswervingly: "If the benefactor wants us to find him, he will not hide his identity from us. If we deliberately investigate and get to the bottom of it, it will cause the benefactor to be displeased."

Asher was stunned for a moment, then nodded lightly, and sighed: "But who is the benefactor? I heard his voice should be very young, so young, with such strength, this kind of person, I've never heard of it before."

The old man said earnestly: "Listen carefully, the identity of the benefactor, we can discuss it in private, but apart from this door, no one is allowed to conduct in-depth investigations without permission, and this red line must not be overstepped! If the benefactor wants us to know his identity, One day it will appear in front of us with its true colors!"

The Amazing Son In Law Chapter 5099

The An family knew very well that the old man actually wanted to know who this mighty benefactor was.

But since the old man said so, they naturally dare not have any arrogance.

So Asher took the lead and said, "Dad, don't worry, we must keep your request in mind and never cross the red line."

Homula also nodded and said, "Dad, eldest brother is right, we will definitely not cross the red line half a step."

Li Yalin on the side couldn't help being a little disappointed at this time.

He promised charlie not to reveal charlie's identity.

However, from the bottom of his heart, he is one thousand ten thousand hope that the An family will recognize charlie as soon as possible.

So he took the initiative to mention Huichundan in front of Asher just now, just to remind him that he must put these clues together and consider the problem, so that the information of his nephew charlie will definitely be found out.

However, he didn't dare to say such words too clearly. After all, on the one hand, he promised charlie, and there was a gentleman's agreement. On the other hand, Fei Kexin was still in front of him. If he was a little more obvious, Fei Kexin would be sure will notice.

Li Yalin has had a relationship with the An family for so many years, and he knows too well how desperate the An family has been to find charlie in the past 20 years.

Moreover, in the past 20 years, they have also invested huge human and material resources in finding charlie.

It's just that sometimes, this kind of thing is always good luck.

The An family could not wait to turn the whole world upside down, but only did not guess that charlie was always in the place where the incident happened.

The An family even once suspected that charlie was taken away by that mysterious organization.

But they still prayed that a miracle would happen and let them find charlie somewhere in the world.

However, they probably never dreamed that charlie had already appeared by their side.

Moreover, he also saved the entire Anjia with his own power!

Li Yalin couldn't help sighing in his heart: "If the old man and the old lady knew that the eldest grandson they have been thinking about is not only still alive now, but also the savior they say, they will be very happy, it is estimated that they would not dare to dream of such a plot... .."

"But... But why did the old man suddenly order and prevent the investigation? Asher participated in the Huichun Dan auction in Aurous Hill, and we can infer from this that charlie must have a deep relationship with Aurous Hill, and it is even possible I lived in Aurous Hill, grasped the key word Aurous Hill, seized the two breakthroughs of Stefanie sun and Fei Kexin, and clarified all the clues that could be found on these lines, then found a larger blank wall and put the three Post the backbone and related clues on the top, and then make some red lines to connect the involved clues. You should be able to lock charlie's core clues soon. Then follow the core clues and find out that charlie is bruce's son. It's just a matter of time..."

Thinking of this, Li Yalin couldn't help but choked his wrists in his heart: "But... although all the fucking roads lead to Rome, you have to go by yourself! If you don't go, Rome can't come to you with long legs. It's killing me..."

The thoughtful old lady saw that Li Yalin didn't speak, but her expression was a little scratchy, so she asked with concern, "What's the matter with you, Yalin? Are you uncomfortable?"

Li Yalin came back to his senses and waved his hands quickly: “No auntie, I... I’m in good health. I used to have a lot of occupational diseases, such as back pain and cervical discomfort, but I don’t feel it anymore...”

The old lady asked, “I see that you didn’t seem very comfortable just now. Are you homesick and anxious to go back to see your wife and children?”

The Amazing Son In Law Chapter 5100

Li Yalin said embarrassedly: “Auntie, I’m telling the truth, I haven’t figured out how to explain it to their mothers when I go back. The child just sent me a message saying that she was pregnant, and I disappeared...”

As he said that, he also wanted to divert the old lady’s attention, so he asked Asher, “Asher, my wife should have looked for you, right? How did you tell her?”

Asher sneered twice: “What can I say... I can’t say it clearly... Back then, my benefactor told me not to tell your wife that you were dead anyway, so I told her that you were missing, or told her that you were missing. Another woman eloped, how can I say this...”

Li Yalin sighed and said: “Then think about how to explain it to them when you go back. If there is no relatively perfect explanation for this matter, their mothers will probably always have doubts...”

Asher thought for a while, and said, “Why don’t you say that you were in a bad mood because you were forced to retire early, and you found a place to relax?”

Li Yalin said embarrassedly: “This is too irresponsible. If my daughter didn’t tell me the news of her pregnancy, she could have fooled me, but the key is that the child told me that she was pregnant, such a big happy event. , in the end, I was looking for a place to relax because I was in a bad mood, isn’t this half-hearted...”

Asher smacked his lips and said, “Hey, you’ve been missing for so many days with no news, and you’re still stuck at such an important point as your daughter’s pregnancy. If you don’t tell the truth, there really is no good solution...”

The rest of the An family were also a little worried for a while. They also knew the situation in Li Yalin’s family. His wife and children had been separated from him for many years, and there had been some estrangement.

And he suddenly disappeared at that key point at the time, and at the same time he couldn’t tell his wife and children the truth. This was really tricky, and there was almost no good way to deal with it properly.

It is estimated that Li Yalin will not be able to escape from being complained by his wife and daughter when he returns home this time.

Just when everyone was worried with Li Yalin, Fei Kexin thought of something and said, "Inspector Li, I have a solution, let's see if you can accept it."

Li Yalin hurriedly said: "Miss Fei, please don't be so polite to me. If you have any good ideas, feel free to tell me. No matter whether it works or not, I, Li Yalin, are grateful."

Fei Kexin said, "Everyone knows about the series of things that the Fei family caused by Jamura, and the outside world also knows that the police have never found out who killed their bastards, so You can explain to your wife and daughter that I am asking you in private to help me investigate the mastermind behind this matter,"

"But because I asked you to be absolutely confidential, you failed to say hello to them in advance, and these days you are also under my request and must remain silent, so you can't tell your family your whereabouts;"

"And you can also tell them that you have always been very unwilling to this case, and that you have such an opportunity to join forces with the Fei family, you also want to make up for this regret, so you agreed to my request, if they don't Trust this rhetoric, and I can endorse it for you."

Li Yalin pondered for a moment, nodded and said, "This idea is really good, the reason, motivation, and details can stand up to scrutiny..."

Speaking, Li Yalin sighed and said helplessly: "It's just that I used to have a bad relationship with my daughter because I was so focused on work, and we have similar personalities, so no one can convince anyone, so For so long, it's somewhat of a cold war..."

"It wasn't until I was forced to retire and smashed the sign of the Chinese detective that she took the initiative to comfort me, and took the initiative to tell me the news of her pregnancy, hoping that I could return to their mother and daughter..."

"As a father, I also understand that my daughter is here to comfort me, so she took the initiative to let go of her temper and face, and gave me a step down..."

"But if I go back and tell her that because of my resentment, I ignored the steps she gave and the news of her pregnancy, and went straight to the world to investigate the case after so many days, I'm afraid she will be more disappointed in me... .."

Fei Kexin smiled slightly and said: "Actually, this is also easy to solve, you said that I asked you for help and offered you a lot of money, and you originally wanted to refuse, but considering that you are going to be a grandfather soon At the same time, I am happy, and I also want to create more and better conditions for my children, so I decided to make this money first. Your core motivation is for the unborn child, and the second is to investigate the case incidentally. , I'm sure they will understand you."

After saying that, Fei Kexin said again: "I'll write you a check for ten million dollars later, then you can go back with the check, give the check to your daughter, explain the situation to her, and then Saying that this is what I paid you, and that you let her take it for the unborn baby, I believe she will be moved by your future grandfather's heart."
