

The Amazing Son In Law Chapter 5131

Zayne, who was in a complicated mood, hesitated and sat opposite Kairi again and again.

Seeing him coming, Kairi smiled slightly, and asked him, "How are you sleeping?"

"It's good." Zayne responded, looked out the window, then looked at Kairi, and asked her, "Why didn't you Go in and have a rest?"

Kairi was slightly stunned. The Gulfstream plane only had one bedroom remodeled. Although Zayne had said at the beginning that the two could rest in the bedroom together, she still felt a little inappropriate.

Zayne was afraid of her misunderstanding. At that time, he specially emphasized that he had no other intentions, but the journey was long, and the two could share the big bed in the bedroom equally, so that both of them could rest on the road.

Kairi didn't make a decision, just let Zayne rest first, but she herself sat outside for more than ten hours.

Hearing Zayne's question, Kairi said somewhat unnaturally: "I'm a martial artist, I'm not tired at all, and I don't want to disturb your rest, so I'll just look at the scenery outside."

Zayne muttered. He said: "Flying all the way from night to night, there is no scenery to see."

Kairi smiled unnaturally, and then deliberately changed the subject and muttered: "I don't know why Mr. Wade suddenly asked us to go to the United States. I asked Xion, but she didn't tell me clearly, she only said that there may be a great good thing, let me go with you as soon as possible."

Zayne muttered with some resentment: "What can be good about charlie? , since the day I knew him, I haven't encountered anything good..."

Kairi looked at him and said seriously: "Eldest young master, you still need to adjust your attitude towards Mr. Wade, with the banks family and Bruce back then. The grievances and grievances of Mr. Wade and what he did to kill Yeling Mountain together with Abbas before, Mr. Wade is already very kind to spare the banks family."

Kairi has always maintained a secret to Zayne. The original title, even if the Elms family is no longer attached to the banks family, and even if Zayne becomes the object of her house arrest, she still calls him the eldest young master.

In Kairi's view, this title is a respect for Zayne, but in Zayne's view, this title is somewhat distant.

However, he also knew that what Kairi said was the truth. In the disputes between the rich and powerful families, once one party had the intention to kill, it would definitely be a life-and-death situation. But Charlie can still give the old and young of the Banks family a way to survive, and it is true that he has done his best.

At this time, Kairi added: "Eldest young master, don't forget, Mr. Wade not only spared the Banks family, he also saved the lives of the eldest young master, the eldest young lady, and Xion in Japan. If it weren't for him, you might be over."

Zayne's expression froze, then he sighed, and said sincerely: "You're right, I'm actually very grateful to Charlie, but I'm just a little stubborn in front of you, after all, you're not an outsider, if I really want to meet Charlie, I will definitely be polite."

Kairi couldn't help feeling a little touched when he heard that he was not an outsider.

During this time, she could also see the gradual changes in Zayne's attitude towards herself, and sometimes she could even feel some kind of tenderness.

But she never dared to give any response. In addition to her inferiority complex, she also felt that Zayne's current situation was at a low point in her life. Under such circumstances, it was easy for a man to lower his anger and despise the original people and things that have a good impression.

However, once this kind of man's life begins to bottom out, his anger will continue to rise as the situation rises. At that time, those people and things that originally attracted him at the trough period will definitely make him repulse, even disgust.

The Amazing Son In Law Chapter 5132

Kairi has loved Zayne for many years and raised Xion by herself. She has long been accustomed to being alone at the emotional level, so she does not want to have an emotional entanglement with Zayne in the trough of his life.

Maybe one day Charlie is in a good mood, or if Zara and Xion can say a few more good words for Zayne in front of Charlie, then Charlie may forgive his punishment, and at that time, he will definitely be impatient to leave Aurous Hill and regain his own life.

After all, the Banks family is now in charge of Zara alone, and Zayne is free. Zara will definitely ensure that his biological father is safe, and he may even hand over some of the business of the Banks family to Zayne again. Responsible.

At that time, he will usher in a rebirth, and he will surely find the other half who truly meets his requirements.

So, she adjusted her mentality and said to Zayne very seriously: "Eldest young master, the opportunity to meet Mr. Wade is a rare opportunity, you must try your best to make a good impression on Mr. Wade by saying Maybe he will open up to you."

Zayne saw that her expression and tone were a little distant, and couldn't help saying: "Kairi, it's just the two of us here, you don't need to take one bite of you and one bite of another. The young master called me..."

Kairi said, "But I have always called you that way for so many years."

Zayne nodded and laughed at himself: "That's all in the past, the old man was in banks When I was the master of the banks family, I was naturally the eldest young master of the Su family, but now the old man feeds giraffes in Madagascar, and I am under house arrest in Aurous Hill, what kind of eldest master..."

Kairi smiled slightly, with a bit of respect. Said: "The Elms family has been working for the banks family since my father's generation, and I have worked by your side for many years, eldest young master. These titles have long been accustomed to, and they can be changed if they are said to be changed. I don't respect your title enough, and I will definitely blame me."

Zayne knew very well that when Kairi said these things, he didn't really have such concerns, he just didn't want to accept his own gestures.

He had not experienced a wall like this once or twice in this period of time. At this time, seeing Kairi defending himself without leakage, he felt a little resentful, but he did not give up.

During this period of time, Zayne also thought about it. After so many years of guarding Deana, the woman he once loved deeply, in the end, it was still nothing to draw water from the bamboo basket. For things like feelings, if it wasn't for your love and my wishes, both of them would be in my heart. With each other, no matter how good each other is, there is no real meaning.

And when he thinks of Kairi's dedication for him over the years, Zayne firmly believes in this woman's feelings for him, and on the other hand, looking back on the past so many years, he gradually feels that Kairi is actually the most suitable woman for him.

Although Kairi is a disabled person, Zayne knows in his heart that Kairi's disability is also to save his own life, so in his eyes, there is no resistance to Kairi's disability.

The current Zayne, after going through so much pain and struggle, has lost the ambition and desire for wealth and status. He just wants to be able to live a peaceful and good life, and finally he is a real prodigal son.

Therefore, even though he has been euphemistically rejected many times, Zayne is still not discouraged.

He felt that, anyway, Charlie arranged for himself and Kairi this one-on-one house arrest situation, and he would have more time in the future, so he could fight for it slowly and slowly.

In his opinion, Kairi has waited for her for so many years, so what if he waited for her for a few years?
