

Dragon Husband Chapter Chapter 1895

The voice is crisp, so familiar and so moving.

There was also a sense of joy in his voice.

But these words made Wiliam even more depressed.

yummy, yummy...

This girl has nothing but delicious food in her head.

As a father, every heart will be broken for you, and you only think about delicious food!

I'm furious!

Sure enough, any kind of reunion of parents that can be realized in others is no use in this girl.

When Wiliam was complaining silently in his heart, Xiao Wangqing suddenly stretched out a small hand like a lotus root and spread it out to Wiliam.

Indicates Wiliam—

Dad hugs.

This scene suddenly made Wiliam put all the 10,000 complaints in his heart out of his mind.

He picked up Xiao Wangqing and hugged her fiercely, as if to press her into his bones and never part again.

On the other hand, Xiao Wangqing's small hand was tightly hugging Wiliam's neck, and it seemed that he was also moved by the deep love between the father and daughter.

Then, with a drooling mouth, she slapped Wiliam's cheek fiercely, and smacking her mouth, as if she was aftertastes something.

Wiliam is sweating...

Could it be that he wanted to eat his old father?

This girl has been in a coma for a long time, she must be very hungry, and then she was completely aroused by the name of the dish just now...

"Let's go, Dad will take you out to eat delicious food!" William patted Xiao Wangqing's head and said with a smile.

"Hmmm!" Xiao Wangqing lay in William's arms, smiled and touched William's cheek, and quietly touched the saliva on William's face.

William hugged Xiao Wangqing and walked out of the basement slowly.

He still had many, many questions in his mind that he wanted to ask Xiao Wangqing, but it was obviously not the time.

It's no use asking anything before feeding this girl.

Ask anything you can turn to the top of the food.

As the door squeaked open, several glances at the door immediately rushed to William to watch.

The first to bear the brunt is naturally Su Emei.

Su Emei saw Xiao Wangqing in William's arms at a glance, and immediately became excited.

"William! You succeeded!" Su Emei shouted excitedly.

William smiled and nodded.

"You are really amazing!" Su Emei was not stingy with praise at this moment.

She knew how hard it was.

But William smiled and said, "It's not that I'm amazing, it's that my daughter is really amazing."

Xiao Wangqing hummed twice, stuck out her tongue and licked William's neck.

William Yihan, how embarrassed.

The people at the scene surrounded William, but in fact their eyes were all on Xiao Wangqing.

They looked at Xiao Wangqing as if they were visiting a zoo.

There is a feeling of longevity.

They have seen the appearance of the little Tiannv in their early years.

Also deeply in my mind.

Now seeing the appearance of the little girl, I can still talk and laugh.

This rootless spirit, how perfect, how powerful!

It seems to have been deconstructed and reassembled to take a look.

Several elders looked like a mad scientist, which made William a little unbearable.

He hurriedly said, "Go out first and find something to eat for my girl."

Xu Rushuang silently put away the madness of the scientist in his eyes, and looked like a well-informed person outside the world, nodded, and went out first.

Others followed suit.

Only William stayed at the end.

Holding Xiao Wangqing, he turned around and glanced at the frosty figure.

After bowing again, he slowly left.

In the room outside, on Xiao Wangqing's table, a few dishes that looked very brightly colored were immediately placed.

William smiled, put Xiao Wangqing down, and said to Su Emei, "Not enough."

Xiao Wangqing's appetite is not something that these dishes can satisfy.

Apparently Su Emei also knew Xiao Wangqing's appetite, and said, "I have already instructed the back chef to make it, so eat these first."

Xiao Wangqing nodded to William with satisfaction, "Dad understands me best, uh—"

There was a big chicken thigh in his mouth.

He is holding a pig's ear in his left hand and a large apple in his right hand.

A devoured look.

Everyone at the scene was stunned.

The little belly is really pissed off.

Have ambition, have a future!

The eyes of several elders became more and more crazy.

Su Emei, a pig, could feel the wolf-like eyes in his eyes, and quickly drove them all out.

William and Xu Rushuang, on the other hand, looked at the little guy lovingly with the eyes of their elders.

Then looking at each other, the eyes of the two people are not right.

The eyes are directly dull, okay?

Xiao Wangqing was eating and eating, and the eyelids started to fight.

Then head a little bit, and finally, with a click, knocked directly on the table and fell asleep.

fell asleep!

The most terrifying thing is that even if you fall asleep, your mouth is still chewing something...

William and Xu Rushuang looked at each other, their eyes full of speechlessness.

what is this!

However, William, who reacted, can be considered understandable.

Just now Xiao Wangqing woke up, and his soul was not stable enough.

Then he tried his best to devour the little goddess.

The consumption is definitely not that big in general.

The belief in eating delicious food before supported her to wake up.

Now she can't stand it anymore.

William sighed, picked up Xiao Wangqing, and carefully sorted out the food in her mouth.

Then he put her on the bed and let her get a good night's sleep.

"William, what happened just now? I'm curious." Xu Rushuang was also quite bored at the moment and asked William.

William thought for a while, and briefly said what happened before.

After hearing this, Xu Rushuang showed an inexplicable smile, "It seems that my sister guessed it right, this is indeed your chance."

chance...

William sighed in his heart.

Early on, Miss Su kept Xiao Wangqing by William's side, saying that she would have a chance in the future.

Do you mean this?

how to figure it out...

There are really so many divine operators in this world.

My grandfather is one, and so is Miss Su...

"Then what's going on in Xiao Wangqing's body now? What's the condition of your Long Live Red Flower's Artifact Spirit?" Xu Rushuang asked again.

William shook his head and said, "The answer is estimated to have to wait for Xiao Wangqing to wake up, and we won't know until we ask her."

William said and walked towards Xiao Wangqing's side.

She slept so sweetly!

Open your mouth, take a deep breath.

Occasionally, the little hand moved up and down uneasily.

She looks like a little girl completely.

Seeing Xiao Wangqing's appearance, William's heart was calm.

He couldn't help thinking that it would be even better if the artifact spirit of Long Live Red Flower could also appear in the real world and sleep like this.

Just thinking, under William's eyelids!

Xiao Wangqing's body is like a big magic trick, pata!

no more!

On the bed, there was only a silver needle shimmering with red light!

William's whole person, just get it right!

what the hell!

What the hell!
