

Dragon Husband Chapter Chapter 1898

Chapter 1898 Awakening from the Wind and Snow

William's heart skipped a beat, and he pulled Xiao Wangqing away.

I beg you, little ancestor.

You don't do magic.

However, Lu Lingfeng was amused by Xiao Wangqing and laughed, and he didn't care if he saw any magic.

Xiao Wangqing pouted, seemingly dissatisfied with William's restraint.

Magic is definitely the most awesome skill she has mastered.

She buried her head and continued to eat, while William and Lu Lingfeng chatted aside.

"Looking at Feng Xue's state, he should wake up soon, right?" Lu Lingfeng said casually.

William nodded, "Well, today is fast, tomorrow is slow. She is finally going to wake up."

At this moment, William felt a trace of guilt towards Feng Xue.

William has always guarded the wind and snow.

But recently, Feng Xue has been injured more than once in order to protect William...

Thinking of this, William walked towards Feng Xue's room.

Seeing Feng Xue still lying on the bed, William sighed softly.

There was one thing, he never knew how to talk to Feng Xue.

That's what the spring breeze is about to sleep in.

Before Fengxue was unconscious, he still didn't know about Chunfeng.

When she found out, she didn't know what to think...

Thinking about it, it was already dark.

And the wind and snow on the bed snorted.

William's spirit was lifted, and Feng Xue was about to wake up.

He walked to the edge of the bed one step at a time and whispered, "Fengxue, are you awake?"

After a minute or two, Bai Fengxue's eyes slowly opened.

A dazed and weak look.

Seeing Feng Xue like this, William felt distressed for a while, and gently helped Feng Xue up and leaned against his chest.

"William, how long have I slept?" Bai Fengxue leaned on William's embrace, feeling particularly at ease, and asked in a low voice.

"It's been a while, but it's good for you to wake up." William said with a smile.

Fengxue was still very weak at the moment, William poured her a glass of water, and then used Huasheng to help her slowly recover some vitality.

It was not until Feng Xue was able to speak normally that William touched his forehead, which was covered in sweat.

William was a little strange.

After Feng Xue woke up, this body felt very, very weak.

It even made William feel that she had no strength at all.

Weird.

William thought it was a short-term performance of Feng Xue being too weak, so he didn't take it to heart.

After all, Feng Xue had forcibly opened the bloodline before. First, he killed the Five Elements of the Cold Boat Warrior with the Flower Love Snake, and then with a snap of his fingers, he created his own domain, summoned the Frost Cang Python, and deprived the Cold Boat Warrior of all bloodlines. .

This is a serious overdraft.

"William, I'm really happy to see that you're okay." Bai Fengxue's mind was still stuck on what happened in the Cold Boaters' territory, and he didn't know what happened next.

"Well, I'm fine." William whispered.

“After I fell into a coma, did something happen? I always felt like I had a very bad dream and couldn’t wake up.” Bai Fengxue felt very uneasy when she thought of that dream.

It was a feeling of complete inability to fight against the dream.

William’s expression froze slightly.

In the end, he still sighed and said to Feng Xue: “Behind, a terrible thing happened. Chunfeng, fell asleep forever...”

Hearing this, Bai Fengxue’s head suddenly lifted, as if unbelievable.

“What did you say!” Bai Fengxue’s voice seemed a little surprised and excited!

William whispered what happened next to Feng Xue.

Speaking of Ye Qionggi’s appearance, his strength was too strong, and Bai Fengxue was horrified!

Speaking of the disillusionment of Long Live Honghua’s spirit, Bai Fengxue’s eyes instantly turned red just for the last protection.

When it comes to Chunfeng incarnation of Wangdi Rhododendron and embarking on the road of no return, Bai Fengxue is about to cry.

Speaking of William offering blood and summoning the soldier, Bai Fengxue’s eyes widened and his body trembled.

Speaking of Chunfeng’s devotion to the Cang Mang, Bai Fengxue had already burst into tears for this lonely sin.

Spring breeze is really gone.

And finally, the catastrophe!

Bai Fengxue lay on William’s shoulder and cried bitterly.

She really didn’t think that she just slept, but so many things happened.

Also miss so many things.

She missed the symbiotic death with William.

She missed the last goodbye with Chunfeng.

why.....

spring breeze.....

Bai Fengxue seemed to be able to understand Li Chunfeng's painstaking efforts, but only wept in a low voice.

"I'm sorry Chunfeng." Wiliam finally said in a low voice.

However, in exchange, Bai Fengxue took a bite and bit Wiliam's shoulder fiercely!

This bite made Wiliam's shoulder drip with blood!

Bai Fengxue seemed to be insane, trembling all over, and Wiliam's blood was on his mouth.

Wiliam endured the pain and let Bai Fengxue vent his emotions.

After a while, Bai Fengxue finally let go and looked at Wiliam.

There was so much love in those eyes.

Wiliam didn't dodge or dodge, and looked at him.

"You didn't feel sorry for Chunfeng, nor did you feel sorry for me." Bai Fengxue suddenly sighed and said to Wiliam.

"You and I share the same love, the sun and the moon can learn from the sun and the moon, Chunfeng is a fool, she chose this path! And if I let you go, or let me give you half, I will never agree. So , we are all right." Bai Fengxue said sadly.

"Chunfeng is naturally not wrong. If it was me, maybe I would live a more humble life than her. I definitely don't have the courage of her. Since Chunfeng is asleep, you don't need to worry about this matter. The future of Chunfeng , leave it to me! I will give her an explanation! I will bite her on this one too! Then I will say good sister!" Bai Fengxue said at the end, her voice getting lower and lower.

Chunfeng is her best friend after all.

Feng Xue still remembered that the first time they saw Chunfeng, the two of them sang together, and that scene was engraved in Feng Xue's heart forever.

From that moment on, Feng Xue fell in love with this gentle and kind woman.

Even if Chunfeng likes Wiliam, Fengxue never hates Chunfeng.

It's two things.

At least Chunfeng likes it so frankly that no one can hate it at all!

Since things are already like this, Feng Xue silently made a decision in her heart.

So, Chunfeng, let me give you an explanation!

The two whispered some love words again, and gradually accepted the facts in front of them.

At this time, Wiliam asked casually: "Chunfeng, why do I feel that your body is extremely weak, as if you have no realm at all? Are you overdrafted too seriously?"

At this time, Bai Fengxue chuckled, revealing a mysterious and unpredictable smile, and then said something that left Wiliam in a trance.

"Darling, for the sake of you caring about me so much, I have nothing to repay you, so I'll make a magic trick for you."
