

Dragon Husband Chapter Chapter 1900

Suddenly hearing the words of the blue-haired wind and snow, William's whole person is not well.

He stared blankly at the blue-haired Fengxue, then turned his head to look at the black-haired Fengxue, and asked in a dazed way, "She, can she speak?"

Bai Fengxue nodded and said aggrieved: "Of course I can talk, and I can beat people."

William's heart was filled with a big trough!

Originally, William thought that Feng Xue turned magic into a puppet.

Never thought that this puppet could speak?

Still hitting people?

Does this have its own consciousness?

"You, who are you?" William turned his head and asked the blue-haired Fengxue.

The blue-haired Fengxue said coldly, "I am naturally Bai Fengxue, who else can I be?"

William couldn't understand it at all.

Bai Fengxue said aggrievedly: "Don't ask, I am her, she is me, but she also has her own consciousness. She is another living me, and I am an explosive combat power."

Bai Fengxue originally just thought of a way to make his combat power stronger and have fewer side effects.

Never thought of creating a completely uncontrollable blue-haired blizzard.

This made her very sad.

"Hmph, if you dare to talk nonsense again in the future, I'll smash your head!" said the blue-haired Fengxue indifferently.

This kind of indifference caused William to retreat a little.

At this time, there was an exclamation from the door.

Su Hongxiu rushed in first and shouted loudly, "What are you doing! Why are our red and thin high-rise buildings frozen? William did you do it... eh..."

Su Hongxiu spoke in a fiery tone. After entering the room, she found two Bai Fengxue standing in front of and behind Wiliam.

Only the hair color is different.

So Su Hongxiu was also stunned.

She pointed at the black-haired Fengxue and then at the blue-haired Fengxue, and she was speechless for a while.

Wiliam looked at Bai Fengxue with a lifeless expression, "Can you take her away?"

Bai Fengxue shook his head, wanting to cry without tears, "I can't."

"Hmph, I will come if I want, and I will leave if I want to leave. She can call the shots!" Lan-haired Fengxue said arrogantly.

Wiliam looked at Bai Fengxue with a black line, "Your magic has become a bit big."

Magic, magic, wrap yourself in it, and then you can't control it.

Become a ball magic.

"I'm too lazy to take care of you." Blue-haired Fengxue seemed to always look arrogant, and after saying this, it turned into a blue streamer, and rushed directly into Bai Fengxue's eyebrows.

Bai Fengxue breathed a sigh of relief, "She's gone."

There is a bit of helplessness that it is easy to ask God to send God to God.

"Oh, I'm here again, what can you do to me." A cold voice came, and the blue-haired blizzard appeared again.

Then after appearing, he glanced at Wiliam contemptuously, and disappeared again.

It seems to be showing off. If you want to appear, you will appear, and if you want to disappear, you will disappear. It is not Bai Fengxue who can call the shots.

This time, the blue-haired Fengxue seemed to be really gone, and Wiliam breathed a sigh of relief.

He didn't know what to say for a while.

I don't know if it's a good thing or a bad thing to turn into a blue-haired blizzard that is conscious and able to fight.

“Forget it, leave her alone, as long as you’re fine.” Wiliam could only comfort Bai Fengxue in the end.

Bai Fengxue woke up and gave Wiliam a big surprise.

The two blizzards made me feel uncomfortable just thinking about it.

I have two wives, are they the same?

It’s just that a wife is disobedient?

Geez, my head hurts.

“Wiliam, go out and have a look. Our sisters will freeze to death because of this.” Su Hongxiu looked at Wiliam with tears in her eyes.

Wiliam immediately pulled Feng Xue and walked outside.

When he stood outside, Wiliam was not feeling well.

Looking around on the horse, the whole red and thin high-rise building seems to have snowed once in a thousand years.

All are frozen.

And many people were directly frozen into ice sculptures.

Some people with slightly better strength were not frozen, but they were also shivering in place, with their faces covered in circles.

Wiliam was shocked.

How strong is this blue-haired snowstorm!

She just said something casually, without seeing what force she used, the whole red and thin high-rise building suffered.

It’s so scary!

Wiliam looked at Bai Fengxue, and Bai Fengxue shook his head directly, “Don’t count on me, I don’t have any skills now, why don’t you call Miss Blue Hair out again and let her clean up the mess?”

Miss blue hair...

Wiliam got goosebumps when he heard it.

"I'll do it." Wiliam said gloomily.

After he finished speaking, his body was surging, and the whole red and thin high-rise building was shrouded in an instant.

Then, spring breeze and rain.

Those frosts, under the effect of metaplasia, slowly melted.

Those who were injured by the frost also recovered quickly under the infiltration of metamorphosis.

Seeing this scene, Su Hongxiu breathed a sigh of relief, "What are you doing, it almost killed me and scared me to death."

Wiliam looked at Su Hongxiu embarrassedly, "This is a complete accident, an accident."

Embarrassing.

But at this time, there was another exclamation not far away, "Ah!"

When Wiliam looked around, his whole body was about to split in situ.

I saw a crimson silver needle flying in the air, and there were several young ladies in front of them running wildly.

The scarlet silver needle suddenly turned into a little girl again, giggling in the air, and then turned into a silver needle again.

This really frightened the little sisters to the point where their faces turned pale, and they ran staggeringly, as if they had seen a ghost.

"What the heck!" Su Hongxiu looked at it, her brows furrowed, and her body was murderous.

Obviously she doesn't know about Xiao Wangqing yet.

Wiliam quickly held down Su Hongxiu and said in embarrassing but polite words, "Don't stop! It's another accident, an accident."

By the end he was going to be depressed.

Bai Fengxue wakes up to do things, and Xiao Wangqing wakes up to do things for me.

I beg you, don't make any magic tricks in front of me in the future, okay?

There are shadows!

“Xiao Wangqing! Come back to me!” Wiliam shouted at Xiao Wangqing in midair.

As soon as Xiao Wangqing heard it, she immediately flew to Wiliam and changed back to the appearance of a little girl.

“Yeah, Xiao Wangqing.” Feng Xue was overjoyed when she saw Xiao Wangqing.

When Xiao Wangqing saw Feng Xue, she immediately called her mother happily, and threw herself into Feng Xue’s arms.

“Mom, I’m so happy to see your baby.” Xiao Wangqing leaned into Feng Xue’s arms and gently rubbed his head against Feng Xue’s body.

Feng Xue also rubbed Xiao Wangqing and said with a smile, “I’m so happy too.”

This scene made Wiliam feel so warm.

The mother is kind and the son is filial, and the whole person is getting better.

But in the next second, Wiliam collapsed.

“Mom, I’ll make you a magic trick?” Xiao Wangqing began to show off.

Bai Fengxue was stunned for a moment, and then said, “You can also do magic?”

Xiao Wangqing responded, “Mom does too?”

Bai Fengxue showed a shy smile, “Mom’s magic is not mature enough, but it’s no problem to change! Let’s learn from each other?”

Well, a young daughter full of vitality.

A sworn good wife!
